His Recovery.

Rabal, Morocco, Oct. 8.—Sultan Abdul Azziz yesterday received in audience the French minister to Morocco, M. Regnault; Gen. Lantini, commander of the minister's escort. The French representatives arrived here on horseback, escorted by the members of the French military mission, which recently arrived here from Fez, and were received with military honors. The sultan, who was surrounded by his prominent advisors, was seated on a large velvet cushion, flanked by two eunuchs. M. Regnault, Gen. Lantini and Admiral Philibert were invited to take places on velvet cushions by the sultan's side. M. Regnault then presented his letters of credence, accompanied by the usual diplomatic assurances of France's best wishes for the grandeur and prosperity of the Moroccan empire and the hope that "Thanks to the firmness and wisdom" of his majesty, order and security which were necessary for the commercial development of the country, would be restored, but also making it clear that France expected the sultan's sincere co-operation in the execution of the reforms provided for by the Algeiras convention.

The sultan replied in a low voice, his words being translated by Abdel Kerim Ben Silman, the ex-minister of foreign affairs of Morocco. He thanked France for her evidence of friendship and expressed his entire confidence in France's sincere collaboration in all matters touching the common interests of the two countries.

At the conclusion of the audience M. Regnault conferred on the sultan the cross of the legion of honor, in the name of President Fallieres.

The members of the French mission expressed themselves as being satisfied with the audience, which, however, was only in the nature of a presentation of credentials. It will be followed by another audience at which the demands of France will be formally submitted.

EAR TRUMPETS FOR ROYALTY

Both King and Queen Use
Artificial Hearing Apparatus

New York, Oct. 8.—Three sets of artificial hearing instruments were shipped to Buckingham palace, London, Saturday, says the Times today, for the use of King Edward and Queen Alexandra. The latter has long suffered from deafness, but the fact that King Edward is hard of hearing, it is stated, will be a great surprise to the public generally.

The instruments have been made so as to enable the king and queen to talk together without the use of a trumpet or horn. The transmitter of a trumpet or horn, will be attached to the clothing of the royal couple. The sounds are focused on the ear of the person in the same manner that the rays of the sun are focused by a lens. At this point of the story, it is stated, the king and queen are not particularly interested in the matter.

The batteries are carried in the pocket being about three inches high and an inch and a half in diameter. The earpiece is somewhat smaller than the ordinary telephone ear piece, but highly sensitive. It is connected by a small cord which is held in the hand. The only visible part of the instrument is a portion of the silk cord which connects the concentrator with the ear piece.

RAILROAD DIRECTORS NO LAND WAS DISCOVERED

Strongly Condemn the Present Anti-Rate Legislation.

Many Needed Improvements Have Been Cancelled.

New York, Oct. 8.—Complaints against anti-railroad legislation of various states characterize the annual reports of three railroad companies which have just been issued. The roads are the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe, the Washburn and the Chesapeake & Ohio.

President Edward P. Ripley of the Atchafalaya says that the public will soon realize that its present attitude towards railway companies in general has not been just to the stockholder, and also that unless the confidence of investors in the security and stability of railway investments is restored, it will be impossible to obtain the additional railway additions which are necessary to the development of the country. President Ripley says that the Atchafalaya directors have suspended the completion of projects which were contemplated, and will limit the company's capital expenditures to the completion of improvements to which the company is already committed.

President George W. Stevens of the Chesapeake & Ohio, says: "It would seem to be to the interest of the communities and people served by its (the railroad) lines that the revenues should not be lessened or the credit injured by further reducing rates that are now inadequate to meet the physical requirements of the property and yield the return which shareholders may rightfully and reasonably expect."

President Frederick A. Delano of the Washburn, speaking of enactments of two cents per mile laws by Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, says: "While these laws have not been effective during the fiscal year and we cannot therefore determine accurately their results, it is quite clear that they must, if remaining in force, seriously affect our progress."

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Details of the hardships experienced by the members of the Leffingwell-Mikkelsen polar expedition, which was ice bound in Beauford sea for nearly a year, reached Chicago yesterday with V. Stefansson, ethnologist of the expedition.

Ernest DeKoven Leffingwell, representing the University of Chicago, who was jointly in command of the expedition, is safe in Northern seas with other members of the expedition. Although he was present when the expedition's ship, Duchess of Bedford, went down, and at one time was compelled to eat one of the dogs, which made up his team, he is reported none the worse for the experience.

The main object of the expedition—that of deciding whether there is any land in Beauford sea—has been accomplished by Mr. Stefansson. Extensive soundings of the sea and the taking of experimental soundings convinced the members of the party there is not.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—With every seat in the stands and bleachers filled long before the game began and people flooding every available inch of space of the field, outside of that on which the game was played, the Chicago team, champions of the National league, and Detroit, champions of the American league, met today in the first game to decide the championship of the world for the season of 1907.

From the big cities and the most obscure towns of Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and Minnesota, baseball fans had been coming into Chicago for days past until today there was an army of them gathered in the city. The crowd at the park was divided in its sentiment. Chicago fans far outnumbered those to whom Detroit's success was dear, but the rooters for the Detroit team and the American league were not small in number.

Both leaders expressed confidence before the game. Manager Chance called better drilling for his team and Manager Jennings was hopeful. The batting order was given out as follows:

CHICAGO—Slagle, cf. Jones, lf. Schaefer, 2b. Crawford, 3b. Cobb, rf. Rossman, 1b. Coughlin, 3b. Schmidt, c. O'Leary, ss. Donovan, p. Umpires—O'Day and Sheridan.

Umpire O'Day announced the batteries as follows: Donovan and Schmidt for Detroit; Overall and Kling for Chicago. Cobb was presented with a diamond stud gold mounted presented by A. Smedley, the American league player with the highest batting average.

BANK ROBBERS SECURE $5,000

Blow Safe in Church
Getaway.

Churches Ferry, N. D., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Three bank robbers successfully blew open the safe in the Sparre bank here, early Sunday morning, and made a successful getaway with between $5,000 and $6,000. The haul is the largest made in the state during the present epidemic of burglaries and there appears to be little or no clue. Nitroglycerin was used in forcing the door to the safe and the first explosion gave warning to the community. Three young men armed with shot guns standing directly across the street from the bank fired at the safe blowers several times, but so far as known without effect. The robbers returned the fire, but on account of darkness did not hit any one. The burglars entered the bank through a rear window which they knocked out. They knocked in some nitroglycerin. The first explosion blew off the door from its hinges while a second on a smaller safe in the vault exposed the money.

The men did the work up in quick time and escaped with the aid of horses. A posse was organized at once, but the robbers had such a start it is feared they will not be taken. Large rewards have been offered. As the bank was insured against burglars the depositors will lose nothing.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 8.—The most striking absence of yellow fever in Central American countries in several years was the gist of a report made public today by Dr. John N. Thomas, United States marine hospital service inspector, just returned from an inspection of Central America.

"I believe I can say positively," he said, "that there has not been a case of yellow jack in any Central American country, except Guatemala this year, at least in the eastern portion. In Panama there has not been a single case of genuine yellow fever and I do not believe there has been a case on the entire isthmus."

CANNOT PAY THE REWARD

County Has No Right to Remunerate Captors of Criminals.

Board Gets Legal Opinion on Nelson and Peterson Claims.

County boards may pass resolutions appropriating money to pay rewards to the captors of persons accused of crime, but the county is not legally bound to pay such claims, according to the opinion of First Assistant County Attorney W. J. Stevenson.

Under this ruling by the county attorney's office, presented to the board at the meeting held this morning, Isaac Nelson and Fred Peterson, who have had a claim pending since 1905, will be unable to collect anything from the county.

Nelson and Peterson captured May 15, 1905, Frank Lenich and Louis Marinelli, fugitives from justice and for whom a warrant was out charging them with the murder of Peter Crasovic at Eveleth, April 23, 1905.

For nearly a month Lenich and his accomplices in crime succeeded in avoiding arrest, but finally in a half starved condition they stopped at the Miller Trunk road for food. Nelson, Fred the men, then covered them with a gun and detained them while Peterson came to Duluth after the officers.

One county board passed a resolution appropriating $50 for Nelson and $25 for Peterson, but the question of the legality of the proceeding was raised and the claims have been pending ever since.

Mr. Stevenson went into the matter thoroughly, but was able to find no provision in the statutes by which the taxpayers' money could be diverted for the purpose mentioned, and no matter how meritorious the claims might be he felt obliged to withhold his approval as to payment. He suggested that the two claimants might get some relief through the Legislature.

Because the corners 24 and 25, 61-20 have become lost or destroyed, and the loss has caused the settlers going into that part of the Sturgeon river district a great deal of trouble on account of their failure to find their lines, the county board took steps this morning to have the county surveyor locate the corner posts. This is the first time in a number of years that such action has been taken, but the claims of the settlers, as presented by C. B. Miller, their representative, this morning appeared meritorious and the board was disposed to help the settlers out of their trouble.

The reports of J. E. Ford, special public examiner, who examined the accounts of school districts No. 15 and 20, were filed with the board today. The substance of the reports was given some publicity at the time they were sent to the auditor. Mr. Ford called attention to a number of irregularities, which seemed to have arisen more through carelessness or ignorance of district officers, and mentioned one or two matters that seemed to call for official action by the proper county authorities.

The board appropriated $50 to pay A. L. Murray of the town of Milwaukie, for a right of way for a county road through a portion of his farm. The road laid out ran into a high rocky bluff and the commissioners decided that it would be better to build around the bluff. John Johnson, a farmer residing in Section 17, T-15, gave the board notice that a road to be built on his farm for private use is not a public highway and cannot hereafter be used as such.

Various county officers reported the following business for their offices during the month of September: Sheriff, receipts, $1,043.11; work for the county, $1,818.33; work for the county, $582.50; register of deeds, cash receipts, $37.80; register of titles, cash receipts, $15.07.

County Attorney Norton's request for larger office room in the Torrey building was granted.

The board made arrangements to have the corners of the jail painted and the probate court office re-papered.

An appropriation of $50 was made from the special fund for the improvement of the Tower and Ely cut-off in commissioner McMahon's district. An appropriation of $48.18 was made for road improvement in Commissioner Tischer's district. Of this amount $48.18 will be spent on the north shore road and $50 will be spent on the East Duluth and Lester river roads.

The board authorized a new road in township 35-36, corner a favorable report on the project had been filed by the road committee.

Five coppers will buy a box of Red Cross + Cough Drops.

SUPERIOR NEWS*WILL BUY ELEVATOR.

President of Society of Equity Carries on Negotiations.

Thomas Nelson of Omaha, president of the Society of Equity, the organization of North Dakota farmers, planning to ship their grain direct from Superior, was in Superior yesterday and conferred with grain men here and at Duluth.

Mr. Nelson's mission is to bring negotiations for an elevator to a close. The society is making efforts to secure an elevator in Superior and, according to Mr. Nelson, there is every likelihood that it will be secured. Should the negotiations fall through, however, the launching of the society into activity at the Head of the Lakes will be postponed for a year at least.

Mr. Nelson says the membership of the society is increasing rapidly and now comprises nearly every farmer of importance in North Dakota. It is a co-operative organization, which plans to do away with the middleman between the producer and the buyers of grain.

CHARGED BY BLACK BEAR

But Peter Hanson Sent a Bullet to Its Heart.

A big black bear lies dead on a stand in front of the store of M. M. Gasser, 209-11 West Superior street. The bear owes its death to the fearlessness of Peter Hanson of Iron River, who shot the animal and then disposed of its carcass to the Gasser company.

Hanson encountered the bear yesterday morning as he was wandering in the woods near his home. Luckily the bear did not see him at the same time as he was unarmed. Yet his experiences with bruis did not end with the first meeting. Returning to the house he secured a rifle and returned to the spot where the bear was, to begin hostilities.

Hanson may not be the best shot in these parts, but he has nerve. Three times he fired at the bear and three times he missed. The bear began to take notice at the second shot and when the third bullet missed its mark he was making for the thoroughly alarmed Hanson.

Hanson, however, refused to break ground. Taking careful aim he fired his fourth bullet at the rapidly approaching brute. This time the bullet went true to its mark, and the bear dropped in its tracks, only a few feet from the spot where Hanson stood.

If the marksmanship of Hanson had proved as poor during his last shot as it was during the first three, it is probable that there would have been no bear in front of the store today, nor would Hanson be telling his story to his friends.

LODGE NOTES*INSTALL NEW LODGE.

Elks Will Hold Celebration at Fergus Falls.

A special train will be run from Little Falls to Fergus Falls, and several Duluth Elks will attend, among them being Rev. R. J. Mooney, chaplain of the local lodge and state chaplain of the order, and Past District Deputy G. E. R. W. S. McCormick of this city, who will leave for Little Falls this evening, and will join the party there.

J. H. Guerin of Little Falls, the newly appointed district deputy G. E. R. W. S. McCormick, will be in charge of the installation. Mr. Mooney will deliver an address at the banquet, to be held in the evening, on the subject, "What It Means to be an Elk."

WILL HOLD ASSEMBLY.

Knight of Pythias Plan a Big Gathering.

An assembly of the First Regiment Minnesota Brigade Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias will be held Thursday evening, Oct. 10, at the Armory, of the Lakeside company, in the Old Temple building.

Several officers of the brigade and regiments will be present and bring up matters of importance to the rank. A Boston club has recently been organized to attend the encampment, to be held at Boston next August, and indications now are that Minnesota will send at least eight companies to this triennial gathering. Three new companies have recently been mustered in and attached to the First regiment, and other companies report a large number of recruits. The assembly to be held Thursday is the first held in Duluth.

Henry E. Jones of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can't thank you for my present health due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine." GREATEST GAME
OF THE SEASON

It will be a great game—the most interesting game of the season in all probability. It is for blood, money, and "the championship of the world."

Next Saturday afternoon, the weather permitting, the ball teams representing the city of Duluth and the Knights of Pythias of this city will parade to Athletic park, where they will meet for the spot where the war was, to begin hostilities.

The big event, long looked forward to with much interest, has been arranged, the physicians, undertakers and attendants engaged. Mayor Culum designed as his "umps" and all that remains to make the game a certainty is good weather.

A big parade will be formed at about 1 o'clock and the costumes of the diamond artist are said to be something marvelous.

Chief of Police Troyer has promised to detail guards of the peace to keep order and assist in removing the wounded. "Pop" is barred from the grounds, as it is feared some one or more enthusiasts may forget and let an empty fly at the head of the umps when an unsatisfactory decision is made, if such a unhappy thing should occur.

School will close on that day on account of the game, and it being Saturday.

Artists have been engaged to take moving pictures of the game, and free transportation will be furnished to nurses, physicians and undertakers to the grounds.

The line-up and officials of the Knights of Pythias have been selected by the committee composed of J. H. Davis, W. H. Lamson and Simon Clark as follows:

J. A. Wharton, pitcher; C. E. Adams, catcher; J. H. Davis, first base; W. H. Lamson, second base; J. H. Becker, third base; W. S. McCormick, shortstop; Dr. J. G. Harris, right field; B. G. Sogog, center field; Dr. J. A. McCuen, left field.

Physicians on hand—Doctors McCuen, Sherwin, Grawn, Brunet, Coffey. Undertakers on hand—C. J. Stewart and M. J. Fillatrault.

Clergy—Rev. J. W. Powell, Rev. J. A. Geer.

Nurses—Fred Kugler, Sidney Brown, Ed M. Bradesth.

FOOTBALL FEVER
HIGH IN HIBBINGThree Teams Organized and Interest in Game Keen.

Hibbing, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—The football season has opened in Hibbing and the sport is viewed with almost as much enthusiasm by the people as was the great baseball season just closed. Three teams have already been organized in the city, the High school team, the Oliver team and the town team. As yet nothing more than practice games have been played, but some lively contests are promised for the near future. The High school team seems to be in the lead for scheduled games, the management having arranged for games on the following dates: Oct. 12, Cloquet at Hibbing; Oct. 19, Virginia at Hibbing; Oct. 26, Grand Rapids at Hibbing; Nov. 2, Eveleth at Hibbing; Nov. 9, Grand Rapids at Hibbing; Nov. 16, Eveleth at Eveleth; Nov. 23, Cloquet at Cloquet. It is possible that circumstances will require a slight change in a few of the dates, but so far as is known at this time the games will all be pulled off as scheduled.

The High school team will be composed entirely of high school pupils and will refuse to play against teams that have players other than high school pupils. The Hibbing High School Athletic association is making a strenuous effort to make this the banner year in high school athletics, and to that end has for all the out-of-doors and indoor sports known to the high school.

The football team is under the management of Ray D. Remington. The boys' basketball team will be managed by Will A. McLeod.

Beatrice Atkinson has charge of the girls' basketball team. Elmer Anderson will look after the interests of the baseball nine and Alexander Ekstrom will devote his time to the management of the track team.

The Oliver football team is under the management of B. R. de Lorimer and Arthur Kuehnstedt has been elected captain.

The line-up is as follows: Chris Shrader, center; Arthur Ruthoff, right guard; Earl Braccagnoli, left guard; Carl Johnson, right tackle; Joseph Dougherty, left tackle; George Gereau, right end; John Stensted, left end; Edward Barnidge, quarterback; Norman Seuffert, right halfback; William Kaiser, left halfback; Arthur Kuehnstedt, fullback.

The team is doing some hard practicing and by the first of next week will be in shape to do battle with anything that comes along. The town team is spending much time on the gridiron and is showing good form. They defeated the Oliver in a practice game Sunday afternoon by a liberal margin.

With the three teams in the field Hibbing should not lack for amusement in the football line and there are no apparent reasons why the high school players should not win honors equal to those won by the fast Hibbing baseball team during the summer.

POKER PARTIES

Two Harbors Police Descend Upon Well Known Players.

Two Harbors, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Having so effectively clamped on the liquor lid that there has been nothing doing in that line for some time, the city police department, early Monday morning, started on a new tack, and went after the innocent poker games. Two places were raided, one over Marren & Finns' saloon in the Commercial Hotel block and one over Ike Hegge's saloon, in the Brown block, both on First avenue. About twenty players and spectators were gathered in, many being well-known citizens.

The names given by the arrested ones were: George Nelson, G. V. Adams, James Wallace, W. G. Jones, A. L. Lyle, C. Bellanger and John Marren. The crowd was taken to the city lock-up, and were released after being detained for a couple of hours.

Chief Paulson stated that there were several other gambling joints under surveillance in the city, and when the proper time comes the players at these will be arrested. It is the intention to break up all gambling in the city, and the work has started in earnest.

NEW SPARTA TO DOUBLE IN SIZEGreat Future is Predicted
After the Town is Moved.

Sparta, Minn., Oct. 8.—If all the business enterprises materialize that is promised as soon as Sparta is moved, which will be in the near future, the city will be double its size in a year.

Saari, Campbell & Kraker will erect a two-story mercantile building of brick and fifty feet front.

McFale & Hogan will erect a two-story brick livery barn.

L. Rubenstein will erect several fine brick buildings for stores and saunas. L. Rubenstein will engage in the lumber and building material business.

George A. Whitman of Eveleth expects to open a First National bank just as soon as conditions will warrant it. O. H. Hankle will erect a fine modern hotel of fifty rooms. A meeting will be called by the business men to talk matters over.

The steel people have promised to put in water works, electric lights, sewers, etc., and the new town being all possible to become metropolitan. There is to be a new union depot, which the Duluth & Iron Range and Duluth, Missabe & Northern roads will both use. In conversation with The Herald reporter Mayor McFale said the steel people will have no trouble in Sparta "when it comes to a square deal," said the mayor "and I am sure they will do that and even better than the people expect."

The people here are not at all alarmed about the Gilbert town site, although it is pointed out they will be a mile from a railroad track and the promoters have used one of the choice lots for their own use. One of the promoters is putting up a building which will contain twelve rooms which he says he will let to the Gilbert townsite promoters to use as a hotel for the business that will be done there and that there was a mistake in the promoters in trying to get everything.

EVELETH WANTS A NEW CHARTERHome Rule is One of Pressing Needs of Times.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the Business Men's association meeting held in the council chamber last night, many important matters were disposed of.

The meeting decided to appoint a committee to communicate with the Missabe railroad officials as to the feasibility of establishing a third train to leave the range country between 5 and 6:30 p. m., so that range people can connect with Eastern trains. Another duty of the committee was to arrange for the cooperation of Hibbing and Virginia toward this improvement.

U. B. Arnold spoke at length on a home charter. The Two Harbors charter was cited as a worthy model. A committee composed of P. E. Dowling, N. B. Arnold, Alderman Gleason, A. Paulson and Alderman Sax, was appointed to find ways and means of putting things in motion and stirring enthusiasm toward a home rule charter for Eveleth.

A. N. Peterson reported the secretary committee. He noticed that the city officers were securing a burying ground near Eveleth was due to the city formation and owners ship. Deputy Coroner Gleason was added to the committee. A suggestion was made that President Cole be personally approached on the subject. Alex McDonald, president, said Sax acted as secretary.

Crime Returns to Eveleth.

Mr. McNair would not make a statement, but it is apparent he was arrested on insufficient evidence.

President McNair was informed Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by the county attorney and Sheriff O'Houlihan that he was not held here. He had only 5 cents in his pockets at the time of his arrest, but managed to reach Eveleth by way of Hibbing.

At Ballew's store a couple of watches were taken and the cash register was broken out into the alley, broken open and rifled of all its contents, including keys and other valuables. ### Decision of Master in Great Smoke Case in Montana.

Rancher Wanted to Close Down the Washoe Smelting Works.

Mont., Oct. 8.—Oliver T. Crane, the special master delegated by Judge William H. Hunt of the United States court, to take the testimony and report findings in the case of Fred J. Bliss and others against the Amalgamated Copper company, the Washoe Smelting company and all proceedings looking to closing the great smelting works of the Amalgamated at Anaconda because of alleged damages to farms and farm animals in the nearby Lost Lake valley, has announced his findings of fact and set Oct. 25 as the day when he will hear objections thereto, make his final report to the court.

In all except one of the issues, the master finds that Bliss and the other complainants have been damaged by arsenic emanating from the stack of the company and that such damage will continue as long as the plant is operated. He finds Bliss is entitled to special damages of $250, that amount being the actual loss suffered by him in the depreciation of the rental value of his land. The master in his conclusions, adopts practically the findings submitted by the complainants, showing the tremendous losses that would follow an injunction closing down the works, and establishing two lists, one containing the cases to be submitted to obligatory arbitration, and the other containing the names of the powers with authority to the article, was adopted, 21 to 8.

The article providing that sentences of the arbitration court shall have only an advisory effect, when they concern questions coming under the jurisdiction of the national courts, was suppressed, while the article establishing that the sentences of the arbitration court shall become part of the convention, so far as the signatory powers are concerned, was adopted.

CONCEALING

What Retail Markets Offer.

The slender but stylish looking girl staggered along Superior street under the fashionable weight of her new autumn hat.

A slight gust of wind laden with the fragrance of pines and the woody autumn almost lifted the slender but stylish girl off her feet, because of the not imperceptible breadth of brim that extended in the direction from which the wind came. It tilted her against an onrushing pedestrian, who was coming from the opposite direction.

"I beg your pardon," she said as she helped to right her. Then she staggered along firm in her convictions of her own chicness, beauty, style and grace.

She met a friend on the corner. The friend had reached the age when common sense ruled her choice of clothes. It's an awful age for any woman to reach. This one lifted the laughter which the slender person was teetering. Another gust of the fragrant wind lifted the laughter, and the long white sprays which adorned the hat and stood them up right. It was a weird sight. A horse to be sure, but a motor car in town sport under his very nose without thinking of raising his languid eyes to see who's driving it, shied away across the street and tried to climb over the street car that was in the way. The chous of purple, which adorned the rear of the hat glared out like three accusing eyes at the people approaching from the rear.

The friend who lets common sense guide her choice of clothes still gazed at the hat.

The slender and stylish person spoke. "I decided to get a smashing, fine hat this season, and just make everything else I had do," she said.

"M-m-hm," said she who possessed the sixth sense.

"The hats are so expensive this year," said she of the hat, as she took two involuntary steps westward, which was the way the wind was blowing. "And some of them perfectly ridiculous."

"They are indeed," heartily agreed the other.

"Such an awful size," said she whose hat and face were in the proportion of four to one.

"I should say so," fervently explained the less stylish individual.

"One would think people would use some sense," said the stylish girl, as she put one arm around the telegraph pole to hold herself to the corner.

"One would indeed," fervently assented her friend.

But they didn't seem to have any idea of what is appropriate and becoming," said she who was anchored safely.

"They do not," agreed the friend.

"They will just take anything the milliner says is stylish," said the possessor of the smashing hat.

"They will," said the very agreeable person.

"And never think how it is going to look," said the slender person, elaborately unconscious of the three passers by who had stopped to see whether she or the wind or the hat was the most striking feature in her struggle to remain on earth.

"Never a bit," said the other.

"Here's our car," said the stylish individual, releasing the telegraph pole, and being scurried to the car like a chicken with its head in the face of the wind. She stepped on, and several men had to bend backward until they were in danger of breaking their backs, in order to make room at the top for the maiden with the smashing hat.

Quinces, 40 cents a dozen. Citrons, 15 cents each. Egg plant, 15 cents each. Celery, 20 cents a bunch. Spare ribs, 12 cents a lb. Cabbage, 10 cents a quart. Oysters, 90 cents a quart. The pumpkin in the market and the jelly's all put up. What is there to do but wait for winter. The thirty housewife is bewailing the cost of grapes, which makes it almost impossible for really thrifty soul to convert the expensive and juicy fruit into a costly sweet. Although this is October, Concord grapes are still 40 cents a basket.

One would think that now would be the time that a conscientious keeper of a house would rest on her oars and sit content in the feeling of good work accomplished. But it is not so. If she has "put up" all the stuff that the household affords to eat, it needs but the suggestion of a rule which she has not tried to send her flying to the telephone to order a lot more of costly material to make into a kind of hot tasting hash.

The mania for "putting up" is as immoral as any other mania, only it passes as the virtue of thrift and many crimes are committed in its name.

N. B. One can condone the crimes, however, until they are urged to have two helpings.

ROAST FOR "PINK TEA MINISTERS"

Alderman W. S. Moore Addresses Meeting of Duluth Pastors.

Watson S. Moore's talk on the subject, "The Ideal Minister," was the feature of the annual meeting of the Duluth Ministerial association, held yesterday afternoon at the library building. Mr. Moore disclaimed that he felt any particular call to tell the minister his duty, but was invited to give his idea of the ideal minister. Mr. Moore said that although he had a great respect for the men in the ministerial profession, it takes more than the profession to make the man. He also stated that people must have confidence in their preacher in order to enjoy his sermons.

What Mr. Moore termed as the "pink tea idea" came in for a roast. He says that he is opposed to the minister devoting his time to social matters to such an extent that it takes time from their work. He stated that a minister's calls should be on business, visiting the sick or needy.

Among other topics which were discussed by the ministers was that of the remarriage of divorced people. It was the general opinion that the clergy should exercise the greatest care in the matter of marriages, so that no divorced people could be remarried. The ministers present were cautioned against marrying minors.

All the old officers were elected for another year. They are: President, Mr. Moore; Vice President, Mr. J. T. Himes; Secretary, Mr. J. T. Himes; Treasurer, Mr. J. T. Himes; and the various committees.

Barrows, and the founder of the club, Miss Statham, and the retiring president of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. J. L. Washburn, the affair to be held at the home of Mrs. Michael Kelley of 808 East Second street. The receiving hours are from 3 to 6 o'clock, and any one interested in club work is invited to attend. There will be musical numbers by Mrs. Homer Collins and Mrs. Washburn will give an informal talk.

In all there were nineteen ministers present at the meeting, which is an average attendance. Rev. J. E. Brewer is one of the new members received. He is the pastor of the African M. E. church, and succeeds Rev. S. S. Moore, who has been for many years pastor of that church.

"ROOSEVELT CHAMPAGNE."

Deceit Is Likely to Eclipse the "Fairbanks Cocktail."

Chicago, Oct. 7.—In popular temperance discussion, the "Roosevelt champagne" bids fair to eclipse the "Fairbanks cocktail." This became apparent at a rally of the Young People's Christian Temperance union.

Rev. A. C. Dixon, the pastor, grilled the president for indulging in a glass of wine the other day at the Jefferson hotel in St. Louis. The nation's chief executive was pictured as a huge person who "gulped down" a glass of champagne at one swallow, then turned to his friends, showing his teeth and remarked, "Delighted."

Before the champagne incident, Dr. Dixon was a warm admirer of the president, but one glass has spoiled it all. Trust busting and winking of the big trust have shrunk into insignificance, engulfed in one sparkling glass of wine.

Kendall's humor is unique, and it seems to grow on his hearers. It takes about a week for the Kendall microbe to get in its work, and the rest of the evening is an intermittent giggle. One Kendall joke set in cold type, or told alone would sound sadder than an adman's speech. But Kendall's humor is a business joke on the risibilities until the hearer is ready to respond to almost anything.

Kendall's curtain speech—the tale of how his face slipped out of his hands—has been a success. He has incorporated some new stuff in it.

There is a plot to the play, and even a villain, and a pretty young woman detective who connect a scheme to separate a villain and his accomplice. Kendall, with the other characters, serve as a foil for the Kendall witlessness and manage to throw in a few themselves during the course of the evening.

Those who appreciate an evening of sheer nonsense once in a while, will get it from Ezra Kendall and "Swell Elegant Jones."

The Lyceum was well filled with such an audience last night and they thoroughly enjoyed the Kendallisms. "Swell Elegant Jones" will be repeated tonight.

The Bijou Bill.

They are getting away with some grand opera that is quite passable at the Bijou this week. It is not the $3 Savage kind, but two scenes from Faust, the laboratory scene and Valentine's home and garden scene, are quite creditably rendered by the Nellie Andrews Grand opera trio. The three young men composing it have voices above the ordinary.

La Belle Estrella, who looks the name, assisted by Senor Garcia, has a Spanish pantomime dance which is a novelty and a hit.

Mr. Evans has a blackface monologue that he need not be ashamed of. Some of his stuff is really new, and his songs entertaining.

George W. Stewart claims to be "The Man Who Made the Mississippi Famous." This modest claim is based on a very good turn comprising some whitening stunts. A. C. Packard's offering in the illustrated song line. It is tuneful and well sung, and the viewer are good.

Savan and Hill have a comedy acrobatic turn that will stand the test, and the motion pictures are amusing.

The bill on the whole is a most attractive one.

CALUMET HOSPITAL.

Very Much Needed Public Institution is Now Assured.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 2.—(Special to the Herald.)—Since the death of Ernst Bollmann two years ago the people of this community have been interested in a public hospital for which his will provided $20,000. It has just been announced that the Sorsen private hospital has been sold for such a purpose. The building will be enlarged and made modern in every respect.

This supplant a long felt necessity in Calumet, for while there are two other hospitals here belonging to the mining companies, others than employees are barred, hence a public institution has been needed. The new hospital will be conducted along non-sectarian lines which will secure a large demand for admission. Three lots adjoining the private hospital are available, so the committee in charge will have plenty of ground space to enlarge it. The money is at hand for the necessary improvements and work will undoubtedly begin at once.

HERALD'S WEST DULUTH DEPT.

BLOCK THE KEYHOLES

Boys Tamper With Fire Alarm Boxes and Wor- ry Firemen.

Many Boxes in West Du- luth Plugged With Clay.

The fire department is having trouble again with the criminally mischievous boy, who persists in blocking up the key holes of the fire alarm boxes. The practice is an old one, but the boys had evidently given it up for a time in West Duluth. Now, they have hopped up again, and the firemen are compelled to keep a continual watch on the boxes, and they fear that a fire will occur at some time and the alarm will be late on account of the inability of the discoverer to open the nearest box. Pans are most freely used in the blocking process. The largest part of the key-hole is just about large enough to allow the insertion of a good-sized pan, in such a way that it cannot be removed very easily from the outside. Where pans are not available, red clay is used and, if it is not discovered in time, the clay blocks the holes very effectively. The practice is one born of a mischievous spirit. There is nothing to be gained by the blocking of the holes, and much to be lost, but the holes are tempting, and the thoughtless children fall. If any of them are caught by the firemen, they will likely be severely dealt with. In the meantime, the boxes are being closely watched, and the obstructions removed as soon as discovered.

FORM ASSOCIATION.

First Section of City Sunday School Body is Organized.

The West Duluth Sunday School association was formed by Prof. A. M. Locker of St. Paul and Miss Grace Longfellow of Minneapolis. The meeting was the second of a series of eight, to be held as a city institute in four sections, in different parts of the city. Officers of the West Duluth association were organized as follows: President, Alfred Meldahl, Ashbury M. E. church; vice president, Forest Kent, West Duluth Baptist church; secretary, Miss Charlotte Howard, Westminster Presbyterian church. Prof. Locker and Miss Longfellow were sent to Duluth by the State Sunday School association, of which Miss Longfellow is superintendent of primary and junior work, and Prof. Locker, superintendent of graded schools. They plan to form a city Sunday School association in four sections, of which that organized here last evening is the first.

Miss Longfellow conducted the first meeting of the series yesterday afternoon, speaking to the primary teachers on the organization of primary and beginners' work. Her subject was "The Cradle Roll and Its Advantages to the School and Home." Her remarks were drawn from long experience in the work, and were well received.

Prof. Locker addressed a large meeting last evening on the organization of the advanced work, his subject being, "How to Grade Your Schools on the Basis of Supplemental Bible Lessons." He based the desirability of graded schools on three statements, as follows:

It is a very simple matter; any school may be graded.

In a graded school definite work is done. The child each year is taught some definite work in Bible study, which is annually rewarded with promotion, recognition for work done. The grade system is adaptable. It fits any school of any denomination and size in city or country.

Meetings will be held this afternoon and evening at Trinity pro-cathedral, Thursday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. building, and Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian church.

WILL NEED GOOD WATER

Extension to Steel Plant Location Will be Necessary.

Steps Toward That End Likely to be Taken Soon.

Among the new districts that will need water and gas by another year is that recently acquired by the United States Steel corporation as the site for its new steel plant, on the west shore of Spirit lake. The steel company has purchased about 1,700 acres for the steel plant site and location of the homes of its employees and it is rumored that certain representations have been made to the city that it would be desirable to get water and gas, particularly the former, to the steel plant location by next season. At that time the company expects to have an army of laborers at work on the big tract that it has acquired, and good water will be one of the necessities.

While no official confirmation can be had of the city water department that the Spirit Lake extension is being considered, it is understood that some little consideration has been given to the matter and there is a strong probability that steps will be taken before many weeks looking toward an extension of the mains from Sixty-third avenue west and Grand avenue, to the new steel plant site.

The city's 12-inch water main ends at the corner just mentioned, and it would require, approximately, five miles of water and gas mains to give the Spirit Lake tract the service that will be needed. It is understood that the estimate, whether official or unofficial, is not known, places the required number of feet of extension at about 25,000, which would be a little less than five miles.

The cost of the extension of the mains in the city under ordinary conditions, has been from $2.50 to $3 per foot and the Spirit Lake extension will probably cost about the average, or $2.50, providing the cost does not exceed the lowest estimate.

That the city has not the funds to cover the cost of such an extension is easily apparent, in fact it has only been of comparatively recent date that the department has been able to get the funds on the water and light bonds provided for the Lakeside and hillside extensions and all other ordinary extensions.

There is a possibility that arrangements could be made between the city and the steel company to lay the mains and give the required service on a guaranteed 8 per cent income on the investment, the money to be advanced by the steel company interests at a low rate of interest, but nothing definite, it is said, has been figured out along those lines.

A special election for the taxpayers to vote on additional water bonds would be another way out of the difficulty, but some of those who have been following city affairs pretty closely say that the latter proposition is not likely to be considered.

The matter of water extension has not yet been gone into to any great extent by the water and light commissioners, as nearly as can be ascertained, but it is probable that the board will take some definite steps in the matter in the near future.

SANTA FE OPERATORS GET INCREASE IN WAGES.
 Topeka, Oct. 8.—The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe yesterday announced an increase in the wages of all telegraph operators on the system. The increase went into effect Oct. 1, and came as a surprise to the men. This is the second increase in wages the Santa Fe operators have had in the last twelve months, the increase in that time being about 3 per cent. The road employs non-union operators.

Real success comes to the man or woman who stands squarely on two feet—with mind and body in poise—and nerves that don't fail when needed.

DELAYS ARE ANNOYING

Contractors Behind Time on the New Madison School.

Majority of Pupils Have Long Walk to Adams School.

Residents of Rice's Point are not altogether satisfied with the way work is progressing on the new Madison school, which is being erected on Garfield avenue on the site of the structure which was destroyed by fire. The school burned last spring and it was thought then that the new building would be ready to receive pupils by the time school opened this fall, or shortly thereafter, but it looks now as if the building would not be completed until after the holidays. The kindergarten and B first grade pupils are attending classes in Bethany chapel, but the other pupils in the Madison school district must go to the Adams school, Superior street and Seventeenth avenue west. For the children whose homes lie farthest from Superior street, it is a long walk to school and residents of the vicinity, many of them, can ill afford to pay car fares when there are a number of children in the family, all going to school. Residents of Rice's Point say that up to now, it has not been so bad, but they feel that with the coming of cold weather, the new Madison school should have been ready. Some of them have interviewed members of the school board about the matter, but those latter declare that the delays have been no fault of theirs and that the contractors have suffered numerous delays owing to inability to get materials in time, and from other causes. At the last meeting of the board, however, the members of the building and grounds committee, which is overseeing the work of construction, pledged themselves to keep things moving at the new school and have it rushed to completion.

LOAD OF RICHES SPILLED.

A Coal Wagon is Overturned and Kids Help Themselves.

The breaking of a wheel on one of the Pioneer Fuel company's wagons yesterday afternoon caused the spilling of a huge load of anthracite coal at the corner of First street and Twenty-fifth avenue west. When the wagon broke, the valuable black nuggets were scattered in all directions. The driver, with the aid of passersby, succeeded in righting the wagon finally, but the task of getting the coal back into the wagon box was a tedious one. A group of youngsters helped the man, but in return for their assistance, they filled a few baskets of the gems and carried them triumphantly to their own firesides.

WILL FORM SECOND CLASS.

The West End School Girls Going in for Physical Culture.

A second gymnasium class for school girls will probably be organized this afternoon at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Nineteenth avenue west and First street. This work was started in St. Luke's parish some time ago, under the direction of Miss Roberts, of the Duluth Gymnasium club. At the last class meeting, thirty-two girls, ranging from 9 to 15 years of age, were present. Originally, it was planned to have only twenty in the class, so a second class will probably be organized today.

It may be necessary to organize a third class, so popular is the physical culture work becoming.

coming winter, such as the members enjoyed last year. The contest added considerable interest to the literary meetings and was considered a good feature. The society was divided into two sides and for one meeting, one side prepares a program and for the next, the other side. Each side is given credit marks for the numbers on its program and for their merit and at the end of the season, the side with the highest marks is tendered a banquet by the losers.

A special meeting of the Young Ladies' guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will be held tomorrow evening with Mrs. J. E. Crowe, 5 East Fifth street, John Carwin of Marquette, Mich., in the West end for a few days on business.

Your prescriptions will be filled with the purest drugs obtainable at the Lion Drug store, 262 West Superior street.

A large confirmation class is being organized at Bethany Lutheran church, Third street and Twenty-third avenue west, and is receiving instructions from the pastor, Rev. C. G. Olson.

Frank Carlson, Ernest Sundquist and Ed Flynn have returned from a hunting trip. They penetrated the woods north of Vermilion lake, and incidentally looked over some lands they were contemplating purchasing. It's worth while to see our hats; none better; bring your hat—well make it new. Pearson's, 134 Piedmont avenue west. Alfred Swedberg, Dr. Eklund and a party went to Thomson and Carlton Sunday in their automobiles. Although the roads were very bad in some places, they made fairly good time and enjoyed the outing thoroughly. New seats for the Swedish Mission church are arriving and will be put in place at once. The redecoration of the interior of the church has just been completed. Imported cod liver oil, A. E. Swedberg, 3 E. Sup. St. and 215 W. Sup. St. Work on the exterior of the new First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, which is being built of brick and stone at Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street, is progressing. The brick work has been completed above the first floor and the new structure is fast taking some definite shape. It is expected that it will be ready for occupancy before the first of the year. Strengthen your lungs before cold weather sets in; use our Norwegian cod liver oil. Lion Drug store, 262 West Superior street.

BIRD SHOT FOR INDIAN

Minneapolis Drummer
Lets Both Barrels
Go at Ducks

And Fills His Indian Guide Full of Shot.

Ed Jensen, John Wold and M. M. Monson have just returned from a hunting expedition up in the vicinity of Net Lake, sixty miles north of Virginia, and report a pleasant trip and game in plenty. They succeeded in bagging a number of ducks, and spent a week camping at the lake.

On account of an unfortunate esca-pade, in which an Indian and a Minneapolis traveling man figured recently, the invasion of the Duluth men upon the hunting grounds of the Indians of the reservation, near the lake, was somewhat resented by the old chief, but he finally came around and treated the nimrods with favor.

It appears that a Minneapolis traveling man recently spent a few days at Net lake, and engaged an Indian to row the canoe about while the drummer sat in the bow on the look out for ducks.

Suddenly a flock of ducks arose and the excited hunter let go both barrels, a lot of fine shot striking the Indian in the back of the head and toppling him over in the boat. The salesman was almost frightened to death, but rowed the wounded Indian to shore, and his wounds were dressed. He recovered, but for a time that drummer had difficulty in convincing the old chief of the tribe that he did not wilfully take a shot at his companion.

As a consequence, the party of Duluth hunters were looked upon with suspicion, but Jensen, with his customary convincing arguments, finally made the old chief come over and be friendly. Baking powder salesman, who don't know the difference between an Indian's head and a flock of mallards, are not welcome at Net lake, just the same.

The party had to portage their boats over from Pelican lake to Net lake, a distance of about four miles, and they pitched their camp in a fine spot on the pretty sheet of water.

The lake has an abundance of wild rice beds and the Indians make a sort of bread out of it, which is pronounced palatable by the local hunters. With ducks, deer, and other game in abundance, and the fishing excellent, the lot of "Poor Lo" is far from an unhappy one in that locality.

There are about 400 Indians on the reservation, and the government agent made things pleasant for the visitors.
The old chief rules his village with an iron hand, nevertheless, and feels his importance, according to those who met the old chap.

Members of the party state that there are a number of deer in the vicinity of the lake, and they saw one large moose swimming in the lake one morning, but could not get near enough for a good look at him, the animal swimming across the lake when started by the hunters.

HARTJE CASE IS REVIVED

By Petition of Plaintiff
Asking That It Be Reopened.

Pittsburg, Oct. 7.—Interest in the sensational Hartje divorce case was revived here today by the announcement that a petition had been filed by the plaintiff, Augustus Hartje, with the justices of the superior court, sitting in Philadelphia, asking that the case be reopened in court that additional evidence alleged to be damaging to the defendant, Mary Scott Hartje, could be heard.

The petition was filed by counsel for Hartje, the millionaire paper manufacturer of this city. It is said, as the result of the discovery of a package of letters alleged to have been written by the two sisters of Mrs. Hartje and Thomas Madine, the coachman co-respondent, the object being to show, it is alleged, that the respondent was guilty of the charges brought against her by Hartje.

The letters, said to have been written by Mrs. Hartje's sisters, are all said to contain admissions with reference to the divorce case. Madine is also alleged to have made a confession to the attorneys of Mr. Hartje and to have turned over to them masses of documentary evidence.

D. T. Watson, attorney for Mrs. Hart-je, stated today that the alleged letters have no bearing on the case and will have no possible influence on the final outcome.

Hartje said the new evidence would vindicate him. He would spend his last dollar to secure vindication, he said, and asserted that before he was through he would go after everyone mixed up in the case for conspiracy.
Mrs. Hartje could not be seen, being out of the city.

dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the stitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the pastitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much

SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

WORLD FLAG

Chicago and Detroit
Teams Open Great Series.

Detroit Fans Interested in Games at Chicago.

Every baseball fan in the country turns toward Chicago today. Those who cannot get to the Windy City, will anxiously watch the bulletin boards in hundreds of cities throughout the country, and eagerly consume every scrap of news, which comes over the wire, in regard to the first game between the Detroit team of the American league and the Chicago team of the National league, for the championship of the world.

Advices from Chicago early today were that the temperature was low, but it did not serve to put a frost on the interest. The crowds will be record-breakers. The short distance between Detroit and Chicago will be covered by many Detroit enthusiasts and from towns within a radius of hundreds of miles from Chicago, fans will troop in to see the world's greatest teams contest.

It is understood that overall will work in the first game for Chicago, and Donovan for Detroit. In the second game, Mullin is slated to oppose Pfeister and in the third, Siever will probably be sent against Kaubach or Brown. Chance is counting on sending Overall back for the fourth game. He pitches good ball today, and Jennings will do the same by Donovan. Chance will hold Landerer and Fraser in reserve, while Killian may work for Detroit in a pinch.

Duluth is not shy on baseball fans. It is understood that the temperature was low, but it did not serve to put a frost on the interest. The crowds will be record-breakers. The short distance between Detroit and Chicago will be covered by many Detroit enthusiasts and from towns within a radius of hundreds of miles from Chicago, fans will troop in to see the world's greatest teams contest.

On the other hand, they claim, the Cubs have had less formidable opponents to defeat than have the Tigers. Chicago practically had the pennant clinched long before the season ended and they trotted along leisurely for the past few weeks. Detroit supporters claim that this fact would tend to make them careless and slow, while Chicago adherents claim the rest will make them better.

What the Cubs' pitchers will do against a team of batters like Jennings has been a question. The National league has few great batters and has no team with a collection like the Tigers. It is claimed that the Cubs' pitchers, Kaubach and Brown will not be able to stand up before men like Cobb, Crawford, Schmidt, Rossman and Schaefer. It is significant that Chicago had a harder time beating Pittsburgh this past season than any other team, and Pittsburgh has probably the hardest hitting team in the National league.

On the other hand, "Wild Bill" Donovan, Mullin, Siever and Killian have been working against strong teams all season. They have all gradually improved until they are at their best.

But baseball is an uncertain game and either team may spring some surprises. The series will be a battle of giants. The best in the country and in the world and interest in the games may well run high.

WILL PLAY
ST. CLOUD

Centrals Have One More Game Before Minneapolis Centrals Come.

Colton Gives Team Hard Practice After Saturday's Game.

Next Saturday at Athletic park, the St. Cloud high school football team will line up against the Duluth Centrals in the third game of the season here. The St. Cloud boys were to have come here on the date later given to Two Harbors, but they were not in shape. Now, however, after several weeks of practice, their team is perfect and they expect to give Duluth a good run.

Coach Colton took his squad out last night and went through the effects shown in Saturday's unfortunate game. Signal practice was the rule last night. Caution was given an injection of pepper, and with him reading the signals with some show of speed, the boys were given a strenuous practice.

Colton doesn't need more than the two eyes which Nature provided him to see that the team, in its present condition, will never be able to cope with either the Minneapolis or St. Paul Centrals and probably not with Blaine. The play last Saturday was too slow and disconnected. The boys did not get down the field fast enough, the forward passes failed and the outside kicks didn't work.

There were dashes of truly brilliant work, but it doesn't take many slips to turn the tide of a football game and several beautiful opportunities to score were lost to Duluth last Saturday by slippage.

Colton still believes he has the material, and there are a good many who believe with him. But the material needs much molding before it can be sent against a really strong opponent. Ashland has a weak team. By more bludge and desperation, they managed to hold Duluth at times, but the material needs much molding before it can be sent against a really strong opponent.

There was no excuse for the Ashland boys getting away Saturday as they did and Colton will work to prevent a recurrence of it.

London, Oct. 8.—John Carlsson, a prominent member of the Swedish yacht club, declares, according to the Daily Mail, that if the rule of the New York Yacht club cannot be altered to permit a yacht of the cruiser type to contest for America's cup, then a sailing machine will be built at Neglinge wharf, outside of Stockholm, as a challenger.

LOVE TRAGEDY REVEALS CHICAGO'S REAL JUNGLE

Chicago, Oct. 7.—A triple love tragedy in the Slavonian settlement Saturday night resulted in the death of George Fekes, the mortal wounding of Mrs. Mary Matejko, the shooting of John Finko and the revelation of living conditions equaling those described in "The Jungle." Fekes shot the woman and Finko because he was jealous. He then put the muzzle of a revolver to the frenzied man's forehead and fired a crowd of fifteen frightened bystanders.

Students in Grand Forks High School
Given Credit on Field Work.

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 7.—(Special to The Herald).—A new plan is being tried by the Grand Forks high school this year in regard to athletics, and from the present outlook the innovation will be highly successful. Athletics are to be graded as a credit per year in the curriculum of studies in the high school, and will help make up the number of points required for graduation, for instance if a boy gets out with the football team and practices regularly, he is given a half year's credit, whether he makes the team or not. The girls are granted the same half point on basketball. Track work will also be included in the athletic credits, and the boys who do not try for football will, in all probability, work in the spring on track athletics.

LODGE MUST EXPLAIN
Charges He Made at Convention Regarding Corruption in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 8.—As a result of a statement concerning corruption alleged to exist in the Boston city government made by United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge at the Republican state convention Saturday, the senator was summoned yesterday by District Attorney John B. Moran to appear before the grand jury and tell what he knows of the situation at city hall.

He was directed to appear at the courthouse next Monday. In his speech Saturday, Senator Lodge said: "The government of the city of Boston has sunk in the eyes of men to a point of degradation utterly unknown in the annals of the city. The air is heavy with the stories of corruption at city hall, of offices sold, of percentages taken, of pay rolls loaded, of loans made to support men in idleness, of widespread frauds at the ballot box, which should be rigidly investigated and brought to the light of day."

CURES
S.S.S. SKIN DISEASES

There is an evaporation from the body going on continually, day and night, through the pores and glands of the skin. This is nature's way of maintaining the proper temperature of our bodies and of preserving the softness and flexibility of the skin, and so long as the blood is free from impurities no trouble will result. When however, the blood, from any cause, becomes infected with humors and impurities these, too, must be expelled, and coming in contact with the delicate tissues and fibres with which the skin is so abundantly supplied they produce irritation and inflammation, and the effect is shown by Eczema, Acne, Tetter, pimples, rashes and skin troubles of various kinds. To effect a cure the blood must be cleansed and purified. This cannot be done with external applications, but requires constitutional treatment. S. S. S. is the best treatment for all skin diseases. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes and removes the humors and acids and thoroughly cures skin affections of every kind. S. S. S. supplies the blood with the proper nutritive qualities so that the skin instead of being irritated and diseased by unhealthy humors, is fed and sustained by cooling, healthy blood. ## MARINE NEWS

WANTS BIG PORTHOLES

Wisconsin Congressman Will Try to Make Congress Act.

Would Make Construction of Larger Portholes Compulsory.

Small portholes on lake passenger and freight steamers may be a thing of the past within another year if the plan of Congressman William J. Cary, of Wisconsin, is productive of results. He will try to get congress to pass a law making it compulsory for all shipbuilders to construct larger portholes.

It is the belief of Congressman Cary that the danger of loss of life on lake and also on ocean would be lessened considerably if the portholes were of a larger size. The fate of the four members of the crew and passengers on the steamer Naomil last spring emphasized this and many other accidents have also demonstrated that the small portholes are deadly affairs to the men on board a ship.

Mr. Cary is now conducting correspondence with shipbuilders, engineers and marine experts to establish the theory to a certainty. During the coming session of congress he expects to introduce an amendment to the marine laws making the construction of larger portholes compulsory. He thinks that they should all be large enough at least for a man to climb through in time of danger.

"Recent accidents on the lake and on the ocean have shown that if men in the hold could get through the portholes they would have some chance of being saved," said Mr. Cary, recently. "Where all the people on the upper part of the ships have been saved by boats in the vicinity, or by the life raft, the men below have been drowned like rats in a trap."

These men in the hold have met horrible deaths. They have thrust their heads through the little portholes and cried for help until the surging water drew them down. If the portholes were just a little larger there would have been a chance of their being saved.

"Time and again men have drowned because the could not get through the portholes. The latest accident of that kind was near home, too, when the sand drifted in the hold of the steamer Naomil.
Bortholes could be made large enough to permit a man to escape in case of disaster. They could be made of iron with water-tight covers to be opened in emergencies of this kind."

RAN DOWN TUG.

Crew of Excelsior Had Close Call When Hit by Steamer.

The tug Excelsior, stationed at Amer-hurst, was run down and crushed beneath the bows of the steamer Presque Isle in the mouth of the Detroit river, near Bois Blanc island, Sunday morning. The crew were thrown into the river and escaped drowning with difficulty being rescued by motorboats after they were in the water half an hour.

The Excelsior was returning from the lake with the broken hull of the steamer Noosha and the Presque Isle coming from the same direction. The tug was borne directly down on her. The hull craft was crumpled up by the big bow of the steamer and the tug was run down and crushed.

The tug was owned by the Great Lakes Towing company and was commanded by Capt. Arthur Stannard of Cleveland. The tug will be removed at once.

FIRE TUGS CALLED.

Made Quick Run to Elevator at Superior
Not Needed.

An alarm of fire originating at the Great Northern Elevator at Superior brought out the fire tugs of the Great Lakes Towing company's fleet yesterday afternoon, but it was found that their services were not needed although they all made quick runs to the scene of the supposed fire.

At the elevator, the main rope of the cable power transmission system in some way became jammed, but the elevators kept running and the friction set the rope on fire and caused a great amount of smoke. Everyone thought there was a fire and an alarm was turned in.

General Manager Philbin of the Great Northern, who happened to be in the elevator at the time, saw the smoke and called the fire department and also the tug Superior from the Duluth station.

The Superior fire department was also called to the scene.

It was found that the fire had been extinguished, however, and the elevators and fire engines were not needed. Mr. Philbin thanked the masters of the tugs for their quick response and said it was very gratifying to see how quickly they answered the alarm.

REPAIRS NEARLY COMPLETED

Steamer Kerr Will Go Into Commission
Again Saturday.

After being laid up for over three weeks the big steamer William B. Kerr, of the Western Steamship company, will go into commission again on Saturday.

The repairs which are being made on her bottom at the Superior shipyard will be completed before the end of the week.

The Kerr scraped her bottom badly on her last trip up the lakes while coming through the Sault Ste. Marie detour, and it has been necessary to remove about fifty plates. Forty of these have been repaired and replaced, but it has been necessary to place about ten new ones on the steamer.

Thirty-five plates have been removed from the steamer's bottom and the work will be some time before the vessel will be ready to go into commission again.

Oro Handlers Strike.

Cleveland, Oct. 8.—The ore handlers of the Central Furnace dock struck at noon yesterday and the steamer Bangor is delayed. It was expected that the men will return to work this morning.

More Sailing Directions.

A new edition of H. O. Paulsen's sailing directions for Lake Erie, Ontario and the St. Lawrence river to Montreal has been received at the local hydro-graphic office by Capt. Swenson. This edition completes the series. It is a valuable aid to navigation and can be obtained of Capt. Swenson, or from the local vessel agents.

Begin on Canal Entrance.

The dredge "Old Hickory" of the Duluth Superior Dredging company, will be moved over to the entrance to the Superior late this afternoon and will be ready to begin work dredging out the channel there tomorrow morning. This is part of the work included in the government contract and corresponds to the work which was done on the Duluth channel during August.

Capt. Gunderson Retires.

Capt. Charles Gunderson, who has been the master of the steamer General Garretson since she was put in commission last spring, has given up the command for the balance of the season owing to ill health. Capt. Gunderson has been in the Gilchrist line for about twenty years and is one of the best known vessel masters on the lakes. He left his ship at Conneaut and went to his home at Chicago. Capt. Pierre Bouille has been appointed master of the Garretson in place of Capt. Gunderson.

Grain Situation Unchanged.

The grain situation remains practically unchanged today. There is plenty of grain on hand and carriers are asked for at the rate of 24 cents to Buffalo on west but none of the vessel owners are placing any tonnage at this figure. There have been a few big boats at anchor in the harbor basin waiting for one cargoes today.

BOARDING HOUSE TRUST.

In West Springfield Raises Price of Board

From $5 to $6.

West Springfield, Mass., Oct. 8.—

West Springfield boarding house mistresses met here last night and voted to form a boarding house union.

The union decided to raise the price of board from $5 to $6 a week and to put the new rate into effect at once.

The rise in the price of food is given as the cause for the raise in the boarding rates.

In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It has been used more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. Sold by all druggists.

THE STANDARD AUDITOR CANNOT EXPLAIN REASON FOR WRITING OFF ASSETS

Balance Sheets Show the Stocks of Subsidiary Companies Gone.

In Those of Preceding Years These Assets Appeared.

Many Transcripts of Ledgers and Journals
Are Introduced.

New York, Oct. 9.—Transcripts of ledgers and journals of the old Standard Oil trust and several of its subsidiary companies, were placed in evidence today in the suit against the oil combine, for the purpose of proving the government's contention in the bill of complaint, that the Standard is an illegal monopoly. Clarence G. Day, assistant auditor of the Standard of New Jersey, was again on the witness stand today. Frank B. Kellogg, the government's counsel, called attention to the balance sheets of the Standard Oil Company of Kansas for 1899, on which the stocks of the Southern Oil Tank line, Mutual Oil company, the White Golden Lubricating company, C. P. Wagner & Co., H. Garlick & Co., and Protection Oil company appeared as assets. Mr. Day said that he did not know why the asset account for pipe lines had not appeared in the company's books after 1906. The balance sheets of the National Transit company showed that the National Transit company paid to the Standard for the Cross Town Pipe line from 1899 to 1906 inclusive. The yearly amounts varied from $1,191,140 in 1901 to $238,191 in 1906. Figures from the balance sheets of the Galena Signal Oil company showed a total asset of $11,831,333, of which the plant investment was $234,000 and the good will $7,432,013. Mr. Day said, Charles T. White, assistant secretary of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, followed Mr. Day on the witness stand.

PRESIDENT THE FAKER

When It Comes to Natural History, Says
Dr. Long.

Stamford, Conn., Oct. 9.—Dr. William J. Long, the nature writer, some of whose works have been criticized as "nature fakes" by President Roosevelt, has returned from a nine weeks' rest in the Maine woods. Regarding Mr. Roosevelt's recently reiterated criticisms, Dr. Long said: "All was so peaceful in the big woods that I had forgotten all about Mr. Roosevelt's numerous controversies. Yes, I read his last attack, on the train coming down—a rather rude welcome back to civilization, I confess, but not altogether unexpected. In his first attack he raised an issue of truth or falsehood. I met him on his own ground, had the proofs he demanded and offered to submit more until he was satisfied of the truth of my observations. Instead of answering, he gathers together a few of his friends, office-holders and skin collectors, and publishes their letters, with a few vague generalities of his own, and then he pretends that this collection of malice, ignorance and spite was not arranged by himself, but was a purely voluntary contribution of expert opinion. The whole attack is so unjust that (Continued on page 15, fifth column.)

ASSESSED AT $191,000,000

Valuation of Iron Mines for the Purpose of Taxation.

Board of Equalization Agrees on Figures of Tax Commission.

St. Paul, Oct. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The assessment of the iron mines in Minnesota will remain at the figures already fixed by the state tax commission, approximately $191,000,000. This is a raise of fully 150 per cent over the figures of last year. The determination to allow the new figures to stand was reached by the board of equalization today, in acrimonious debate. Henry Nolte of Duluth raised the point that the tax commission's figures were unjust and proposed to cut the assessment to $150,000,000, but in this he only received the support of Theodore Wieland. Then the motion of Commissioner Heinen accepting the tax commission's figures was adopted, Nolte alone voting against it.

MARCONI IS SATISFIED

With Wireless Service and Will Go to European End.

North Sydney, N. S., Oct. 9.—With the arrangements for a wireless service between Europe and America so far progressed that the trans-Atlantic service may be taken for an assured fact, William Marconi, the inventor, will leave for the station at Clifden, Ireland, the European terminal, where he intends to conduct further experiments looking to the transmission of aerial messages direct from Europe to the Pacific coast. A station will be erected at Vancouver, B. C., as a part of the preliminary stages of wireless communication around the world. Mr. Marconi has been at the Glace Bay station for two weeks experimenting with long distance communication, looking to the inauguration of the trans-Atlantic service which is expected to be placed at the disposal of commercial business within a few days. The report that communication with the Philippines had been made by the Cape Breton station was stated by Mr. Marconi today to be incorrect.

SHE WANTS HER RIGHTS

Former Duluth School Teacher Requests Allotment of Land.

She Claims It is Due
Her Under the Steenerson Act.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Minnie Sharks, who was a teacher in the Duluth schools for several years, is in Washington to secure her rights at the Indian bureau. She is a member of the White Earth branch of the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, and, as such, claims her rights to an allotment of land under the Steersonson act of 1904, which granted White Earth lands to all mixed and full-bloods alike. The question has arisen as to whether Mrs. Sharks is a bona fide member of the tribe, and a recent decision of Judge Morris is cited against her, but it is stated that Senator Moses E. Clapp, who introduced the first bill in behalf of additional allotments of White Earth land, claims that it was (Continued on page 6, sixth column.)

Delirious and Not Ex-

Has Been Baptized in Faith of the Catholic Church.

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, at 9:30 o'clock today, is reported much worse at the woman's ward in the Ohio penitentiary. Her pulse is very weak and she is partly delirious. Physicians are making all preparations to attempt to stay any sinking spells. They decline to say how long she will survive. She lies in her bed, seemingly indifferent to her fate, racked with pain and apparently resigned to and knowing that her end is fast approaching. She has been in the penitentiary since Jan. 12, 1906, and with good time to her credit would have gotten out Nov. 26, 1911, had the fatal disease not seized upon her. Mrs. Chadwick has been confined to her bed since the first severe attack about three weeks ago, when, while talking to her son, she suddenly collapsed and was unconscious for some time. It was at first hinted that she was "playing off" in order to excite sympathy and secure a pardon, but within a few days it was known that her case was serious and she was placed under the constant care of the (Continued on page 6, fifth column.)

CUBS CAPTURE SECOND GAME

National League Team Won by Score of 3 to 1.

Only Run by Detroit Was Made in Second Inning.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Chicago	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	x	3	9	1

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The twelve-inning battle of yesterday between the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit Tigers only served to increase the interest in the city. Today's excitement was much more intense than that of yesterday, when the respective strength of the two teams had not been shown by a test.

Now the supporters of the two teams are in the thick of the fight and today there was a scramble for seats, probably never equalled in the history of the game. As early as 8 o'clock this morning people gathered at the entrance to the park, taking places which would give them an opportunity to see the game. By 10 o'clock fully 5,000 people were gathered and by the time the gates were open the crowd was immense.

By the time the game started every seat and every inch of available standing space was filled, the crowd being larger, if anything, than the throng which saw yesterday's game. Early in the day the sky was overcast, but later it cleared and better weather than yesterday's prevailed.

The following battery order was announced as follows:
Chicago.—Positions. Detroit.
Slagle.....center field..... Crawford
Kling.....first base..... Rossman
Evers.....second base..... Payne
Schulte.....right field..... Cobb
Tinker.....shortstop..... O'Leary
Pfeister.....pitcher..... Mullin
Umpires—O'Day and Sheridan.

FIRST INNING.
Detroit—Jones singled to left, Schaefer hit safely. Crawford struck out. Schaefer out at second and Cobb at first, on a sharp double play, Tinker to Chance. No runs.

Chicago—Slagle walked. Slagle stole second, and went to third on Payne's wild throw, which grazed Pitcher Mullin's ear with such force that time was called to investigate the injury. After a couple of minutes, Mullin returned to the box. Schekard flew out to Crawford. Slagle was caught napping off third. Schaefer to Coughlin. Chance beat out an infield hit. Chance stole second. In sliding, Chance spiked third. Schulte to Coughlin. Chance flew out to Rossman. No runs.

SECOND INNING.
Detroit—Tinker let Rossman's grounder get past him and it went for a three-base hit. Coughlin fanned. Schekard dropped Payne's short fly, after a hard run, and Rossman scored. O'Leary fouled out. Payne stole second.

and, Mullin flew out to center. One run.
Chicago—Kling singled to left. Evers beat out a slow hit to short. Schulte singled too hot for Mullin. Bases full. Tinker walked, forcing Kling across the plate for Chicago. First run. Pfister fanned. The bases were still full when Slagle came to bat. Slagle fanned. Mullin was cheered for his nerve work in this inning. Schekard grounded out, second to first. One run.

THIRD INNING.
Detroit—Tinker fumbled Jones' grounder and Jones was safe. Schaefer forced Jones. Tinker unassisted. Schaefer out stealing second, Kling to Tinker. Detroit hotly insisted that the decision was unfair, but it stood. Jennings was ordered off the coaching line. Crawford fouled out to Kling. No runs.

Chicago—Chance walked. Steinfield was hit by pitched ball. Chance took second. Kling flew to center and Chance was doubled off second. Crawford to Schaefer. Evers singled to right. Steinfield, who had started to steal, reaching third. Evers stole second. Schulte fanned. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.
Detroit—Cobb singled to center. Rossman hit to right, but Cobb hesitated between first and second, thinking Schulte would reach the fly, and was out at second. Schulte to Tinker. Coughlin flew out to Slagle. Payne out to center. No runs.
Chicago—Tinker singled too hot for Mullin. Pfister sacrificed him to second. Tinker stole third. Slagle hit to O'Leary who was doubled to Tinker. Slagle and Tinker scored. Slagle stole second. Schekard doubled to right, scoring Slagle. Schekard out stealing third. Coughlin. Chance flew out to Rossman. Two runs.

FIFTH INNING.
Detroit—O'Leary singled to center. One run.

If the fact were widely realized throughout the country, that any business, however small, pays better than crime, would not our correctionary problem be nearing its solution? It is believed that activity along this line by all those who are interested in the lessening and final extinguishing of crime in this country will do much to solve the problem.

NO DAMAGES FOR HAKMAN

Injuries From Explosion Due to His Own Carelessness.

Used Spike and Stone to Open Can of Powder.

After deliberating all night and until noon today, the jury in the personal injury case of John Hakman against the Oliver Mining company, returned a verdict in favor of the company. Hakman sued for $25,000 for injuries received while in the employ of the company as a miner. Hakman, the testimony showed, was the victim of an explosion caused by his attempt to open a can of blasting powder with a railroad spike and a stone. The blows of the stone on the spike caused a spark that ignited the powder, and Hakman was blown up and badly injured. He claimed that the company was liable on the ground that it did not warn him of the danger he incurred by attempting to open the can in the manner described.

Testimony is being taken today in the damage suit of Chris Westman against the street railway company. Westman claims that his son was injured in falling off the steps of a crowded car. He maintains that the company ought not to have permitted more passengers to get on after the car was loaded. Damages in the amount of $2,000 are asked.

The suit of Joseph Ostianich against the Shenango Furnace company was expected to reach the jury in Judge Ensign's court this afternoon.

BULLETINS OF BIG GAMES

Will be Received at Elks-K. P. Game on Friday.

The general committee or arrangements from the lodges of the Knights of Pythias and Elks have decided to pull the big ball game off Friday afternoon, Oct. 11 at 2 p. m. Arrangements are being made so that bulletins of the games will be sent to Chicago and Detroit will be posted at the end of each inning as fast as the game is played. The meeting of the committee last night brought forth the feeling between the Elks and Knights. It seems that the Knights in selecting their players, chose some who are also members of the Elks, and the Elks propose that the Knights shall not have the benefit of the services of some of these players, especially McCuen and Segok. At the time the game was closed, the matter had not been settled, but it is expected that they will get together today and decide. The Elks will play the Elks, while McCuen will play the K. P. Each of these societies is contemplating building a lodge room and home, and this entire receipt of funds will go to this purpose. The winner taking 60 per cent and the loser 40 per cent.

WOULD PREVENT COLLISIONS

Shippers and Receivers Weary of Many Accidents at Bridges.

Duluth jobbers and members of the board of trade are becoming weary of the unceasing collisions the big boats plying the harbor are having with wharves and bridges. The jobbers are petitioning Maj. Graham D. Fitch, United States government engineer, and the members of the board of trade are thinking of doing likewise, asking him if a ruling cannot be made compelling the larger boats to use tugs when going in or out of the upper basin. They feel that if the boats used tugs, the danger of the costly accidents that have happened at this port would be lessened. The incessant hitting of bridges and docks by one boat or another is continually delaying shipping. The result of the collision at the Northern Pacific bridge last week is being felt tremendously by the shipping interests. Freight business at the head of the Lakes has been badly tied up by the car congestion which resulted. Grain intended for Duluth elevators has been tied up in the Superior yards for several days after its arrival, and a shortage of cars has resulted for shipping goods out of Duluth. Extra switch engines have been sent up from Minneapolis, but they cannot undo the damage wrought by the wrecking of the bridge.

REPAIRS TO LIBRARY.

Will be Discussed at Meeting of Two Boards.

A meeting of the board of public works and the library board will be held this afternoon at which the plans for the repairs to the library roof and other work on the building will be discussed, and arrangements made to commence the work.

The council, at its last meeting, acted upon the recommendation of the board of public works, decided to empower the board to go ahead with the work by day labor under the supervision of the architect, it being considered that the work can be accomplished at a much less expense than at the prices submitted by

RAILROADS

HARRIMAN ENDORSED.

No Opposition Develops at Union Pacific Meeting.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 9.—E. H. Harriman and his policies were endorsed in a resolution passed at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad company held in this city yesterday. The board of directors was re-elected without opposition. It had been rumored that considerable opposition to Mr. Harriman would develop at the meeting but the only anti-Harriman manifestation was the refusal of a proxy for James Harris to vote his 100 shares of stock in favor of the resolution endorsing Mr. Harriman. This same proxy entered a protest asking that the by-laws of the company be changed so that the chairman of the board would not be accorded the power of the executive committee when the executive is not in session. This protest was tabled. The meeting with the exceptions noted, was of a purely routine character. The directors who were re-elected are: Edward H. Harriman, New York; Oliver Ames, Boston; William D. Corns, New York; A. J. Earline, Chicago; Robert W. Goetz, New York; Henry C. Frick, New York; William Mahi, New York; William G. Rockefeller, New York; H. H. Rogers, New York; Marvin Hargitt, Chicago; R. S. Lavelle, Chicago; R. S. Pithody, New York; Joseph Smith, Salt Lake City; James Stillman, New York; P. A. Valentine, New York.

Do Your Meals Fit?

Do You Feel Snug and Comfortable Around Your Waist Line After a Hearty Meal?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have patting your roundness in glee and felt proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Do you feel rosy now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form, and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour eructations or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak. If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloated feeling of aversion to food, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—one grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong, powerful stomach. They actually digest your food for you.

Besides, they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested. It will give you strength, vim, energy, and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all around your waist line after every meal and it will make you feel food all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel happy after eating a good, hearty meal. Take one or two after eating. You'll feel fine then. Your meals will fit no matter what or when you eat.

We want to send you a sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets free of charge, so you can test them yourself and be convinced. After you have tried the sample, you will be so satisfied that you will go to the nearest drug store and get a 50c box.

Send your name, address, and address of a sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

TWO WRECKSON OMAHA

The Duluth Bound Train is Derailed Near Merrillan.

Passengers Escape Uninjured and All Show Great Coolness.

On top of the wreck of the south-bound Omaha train at Eau Claire, Monday night, came the derailling of the Duluth bound train at Merrillan, early yesterday morning, news of which was brought to Duluth yesterday afternoon.

The train, which was due at 11:10 yesterday morning, did not arrive until late yesterday afternoon, as a result of the accident.

Many of the passengers who were in the wreck were registered at local hotels last evening, and many amusing incidents of the wreck were told. Coming at such an early hour in the morning, it caught all of the passengers in bed, and they scrambled out of their berths in their night clothing, dressing in the aisles of the car or outside.

The passengers took the affair most coolly and joked and laughed over it, while they searched for their clothing. Shoes, which had been left standing in the aisle, were shot to the end of the car, and the men and women were running about barefooted seeking their footwear.

The women on board the train showed as much coolness and nerve as the men, and there were no scenes or hysterics of any kind. Although they all realized the narrow escape they had, as the cars were left standing on a steep embankment, no one was killed in either of the wrecks, but before all the details could be learned many Duluth people were worried as to the fate of friends who were aboard the two trains.

Mrs. A. M. Miller, Twenty-first avenue east and Superior street, and F. L. Fiklenstad of Duluth were among the passengers on the train.

Three sleepers left the track in the derailment, near Merrillan. Fortunately the cars did not overturn, and all of the passengers escaped without serious injuries. A few minor bruises were received, but no one was injured seriously. The accident occurred at a point where the road is being regraded, and the train was running at half speed.

The baggage and mail cars were utilized as passenger coaches, and the passengers taken to Merrillan. Cars were secured at Spooner, and the train made up for the run to Duluth.

The wreck at Eau Claire occurred by the southbound train colliding with a coal train on the outskirts of the town. A misunderstanding as to the arrival of the passenger train was given as the cause of the wreck. John Frazer of Duluth received a slight injury, his right foot having been crushed.

Notice to Our Customers. We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.

Green Room Gossip. The Mack-Leone players will return to the Lyceum tonight with "In Mizoura," as their offering. The play, Nat Goodwin's great success, delighted two large audiences on Sunday. It will be repeated tomorrow afternoon and evening.

Opening Friday evening and playing Saturday matinee and night, the big production of "The Hypocrites," which has been one of the sensations of the season in Chicago, will be seen at the Lyceum.

The Miss New York, Inc. company has brought a new song which is making a big hit with the "Mets" patrons. It is called "Another Girl Like You" and has been sung by Miss Lee White, Dave Ferguson and Abby Reynolds during the recent act of "The Navigators," and with spot light effects, it does not fail to win half a dozen encores.

Plans for Services. The Duluth Union Temperance Society is planning to conduct a temperance service on the last Sunday in every month, this winter, at the various churches represented in the organization.

Now and then there will be exceptions to the last Sunday rule and the meeting held on another Sunday in the month, and one of these will be held next Sunday at the First Norwegian Lutheran church. First avenue east and Third street. Rev. John H. Stenberg, the pastor, is chairman of the committee in charge of these meetings.

Rev. John A. Anderson, pastor of the First Swedish A. E. church, in the West end, will be the speaker Sunday evening and his topic will be "A Warning Against Drunkenness."

The bacteria disappeared slowly in comparison on the fourth day. Ultramarine blue seems to destroy the germs the most rapidly, within twenty-four hours. The results on the gray paint were almost negative, within twenty-four hours. Spreading paint on pieces of board or mason paint almost 14 days to kill the germ.

MARINE NEWS

LAUNCHING
DUE SOON

New Steamer H. B. Bope
Has Been Nearly Completed.

She Will Slide From the Ways on Oct.

Another big lake carrier will get its first plunge into the waters of the Superior harbor in a couple of weeks when the new steamer H. B. Bope will be launched at the shipyard. This is the third new boat which will have been launched at the Superior yard of the American Shipbuilding company this season.

The date for the launching has been practically decided upon and the big boat will slide from the ways two weeks from today, Oct. 23. The planning of the details of the launching have not yet been decided upon, but the shipyard officials and the owners of the new boat are making the arrangements.

Construction work on the Bope was started about the middle of last June, but not much was done until the Ward Ames was built first, some improvements have been added to the Bope.

The new steamer is being built for the Volvin interests and a new company has been created to operate her to be known as the Standard Steamship company of this city. The Volvin company will have charge of the launching and it is expected there will be a big party of Duluth people to witness the big vessel strike the water.

Already this year twenty-seven new freighters have gone into commission in the Lake Superior trade and several more will be ready before the end of the season. They have a combined length of more than 14,000 feet or about two and one-third miles. Several of the new boats are in the 600-foot class, twelve have a length of between 500 and 600 feet, seven are between 400 and 500 feet and the Canadian, which was built at Newcastle, England, is 395 feet in length.

After being launched two weeks from today the Bope will probably go into commission for about three weeks so that her season of usefulness will not be very long this year.

Freight Situation.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Grain freights were steady at 1 1/2 cents on corn. Charterers to Buffalo, Lewiston, rye; Columbia, wheat. Cleveland, Oct. 9.—Grain shippers at Duluth are bidding for vessel capacity at 2 1/2 cents on wheat and barley. Local

CAN BUOYS WITHDRAWN.

Spar Buoys Will Mark Point Abbaye Shoal During Fall.

After Oct. 12 the can buoys marking the northern and southeastern edges of Point Abbaye shoal and also Manhattan wreck gas buoy, Lake Superior, can not be depended upon by the masters, as they will be withdrawn for the season. If the time specified these stations will be marked by spar buoys painted like the can buoys. Masters are warned to be careful when nearing this shoal and take notice of the spar buoys.

WRECK IS MENACE.

Major Fitch Informed That Steamer Nimick is an Obstruction.

Mad. Fitch, local government engineer, has been notified by the captain of the Vermilion life-saving station that the wreck of the steamer Alexander Nimick forms a dangerous obstruction to navigation, and that he has marked it with a buoy.

If the wreck is not removed by the owners of the vessel within the legal time it will be removed by the United States officials, and that he has marked it with a buoy.

TUG GLADIATOR REPAIRED.

Will be Put into Commission by Dredging Company Soon.

The big tug Gladiator, which was formerly used by one of the Duluth lumber companies and which was sold a few weeks ago to the Duluth-Superior Dredging company, will be ready to go into commission next week after undergoing extensive overhauling.

The upper parts of the tug were formerly enclosed, but this has now been cut away and the deck is free to allow the men to work as on other tugs. The Gladiator has been given a coat of paint and has the same color as the other tugs of the Duluth-Superior company.

It is expected that the Gladiator will be used in towing scows and in moving dredges about the harbor. She is equipped with powerful engines, and a good towing machine.

Ore Handlers Still Out.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—The ore handlers on the Central Furnace company's dock, who struck Tuesday, are still out. Nothing has yet been done to settle the trouble.

Blisk Northwest Winds.

There is a brisk northwest gale blowing over Lake Superior today, and as a result the up-bow fleet is liable to be delayed. The swell on the lake is noticeable at this end, but at the other end it is reported there is a very heavy sea. It is a storm very much like the one a couple of weeks ago, and many boats will probably seek the different harbors of refuge on the north shore.

WALK OUT IN MARQUETTE

The Telegraph Operators There Join Ranks of Strikers.

Were Never Officially
Before.

Five operators have struck at the Western Union office in Marquette, and all the operators in the offices at Ishpeming and Houghton, Mich., with the exception of the managers, have gone out, according to dispatches to the local strikers from Richard Jones, secretary of the Duluth union, who is in the Copper Country this week to call the men out.

These operators did not go out at the inception of the strike, claiming that this morning's meeting of the union's national headquarters at Chicago, Mr. Jones left for Marquette Sunday, to get the operators out there. He succeeded and went on to Houghton and Ishpeming and met with the same good success there.

The Duluth strikers are elated over their victory in Upper Michigan. The strikers heard over a private wire this morning of the action in the Postal and Associated Press, representing the operators out there. He succeeded and went on to Houghton and Ishpeming and met with the same good success there.

THE POLICE COURT GRIST

Court Misses Opportunity to Send "Governor" to Jail.

Thomas Cook Was Begging Dimes From Theater Patrons.

John A. Johnson was in court this morning on a charge of drunkenness and pleaded guilty to the charge. Judge Windom imposed a fine of $1 and costs or three days.

"Why didn't you give the governor thirty days?" asked one of the members of the municipal court staff. "By Jove, that's right. Don't often have the chance to fine the governor—wish I had thought of it," remarked the court, but the "governor" had fled out with the rest of the prisoners and it was too late. The opportunity had passed and the court must of necessity stand by the decision.

Dolly Brooks, a frail little girl with a white, stooped back, was brought to justice this morning charged with drunkenness. She was taken from a local hotel last evening and lodged in the women's ward at the central station.

The girl cannot be more than 15 years of age and her countenance was prepossessing, notwithstanding the marks of dissipation.

"Have you ever been arrested before," asked the court.

"No, sir, never," and the girl's eyes filled with tears.

"You must stop this drinking," remarked the court, not unkindly, as he imposed a fine of $2 and costs.

Thomas Cook thought he had located a good thing in the well dressed patrons of the Lyceum theater as they came from the play house last evening and stationed at the door he asked every one he could get to, for a dime.

A few responded, it is said, but an officer soon discovered the man and he was taken to police headquarters. He was arraigned on the charge of drunkenness this morning on the charge. The court imposed a fine of $2 and costs or five days.

John Echo, charged with the assault upon one, Dolly Brooks, of the red light district, pleaded not guilty, but the witness convinced the court that she was telling the truth and Echo will listen to the edicts of the county jail for thirty days or pay a fine of $5 and costs.

"You can't beat up these women any more than any others," remarked the Echo, who was claimed, attacked the woman and struck her in the face several times. The police responded to the cry of the woman and Echo was taken to police headquarters. Echo appeared in court attired in a full uniform, evidently purchased at the army sale. At any event, he had his fighting clothes on when taken in by the police, also coat, trousers and outfit similar to those worn by soldiers.

Alfred Coan, an offender, who has a penchant for bunnings drinks, and natural antipathy for work, was arraigned on the charge of drunkenness. Alfred was given the option between $10 and costs or ten days. He drew the latter of necessity.

Stans Doduski did not spend all of his money before making some purchases for winter.

He appeared in a brand new fur-lined coat, new boots and trousers and a heavy flannel shirt, such as is worn by woodsmen.

Stans' intentions were good, and he prepared for the lumber camps, but he listened to the music the Bowery slot machines, was tempted, and fell into a trance. When he awoke, Stans looked through the gratings in his cell at the sunshine and waters of the bay, and felt sorry.

sailed for Europe on the Majestic. Wireless messages were sent to several ships en route to Europe, and a representative of the Majestic was said to have been dispatched to England on a fast steamer in the hope of inducing the young people to return home.

When the information received from the purser of the Majestic was conveyed to the home of Mrs. Maloney in Spring Lake today it was stated that the whereabouts of his daughter was still unknown to him.

Miss Maloney and Mr. Clarkson were reported to have been married in New York either at St. Patrick's cathedral or the Church of the Transfiguration, an official announcement of the marriage has been obtainable.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The information that Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson are probably not on the steamer Majestic came as a disappointment today to the friends of Mrs. Clarkson, who is the daughter of Martin Maloney, a wealthy Philadelphia. All efforts to find members of the Maloney family in this city proved futile. The Maloney residence is closed and in the hands of a caretaker. It is reported that the mother of the family knows where Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson are and that the information is being kept from the public in order that the couple may not be annoyed by the noisily reported marriage caused.

HIS SECOND CHANCE.
Oscar Hammerstein said of a theatrical question recently in New York: "Some of our managers get heated over theatrical questions. We let personal things—rage, joy—influence us. This is wrong. To succeed in this business one must be as cool and calm and far-seeing as the young lady of Oshkosh."

Mr. Hammerstein laughed heartily. "This young lady," he resumed, "had thrust upon her one night the disagreeable duty of refusing a young man, a poor young man, a hopeless young man, an eight-dollar-a-week clerk in a dry goods store."

"The young man took his refusal hard. 'You spurn me,' he cried bitterly; 'but you will live to rue this day. I will go out into the great marts. I will strive, I will win. My name shall be known, my millions envied.'"

"Then come and try me again," the young lady calmly interposed.

NOT IN SHERLOCK'S CLASS.

To Frederick Kohler, Cleveland's chief of police, a reporter submitted the other day an idea for use in the war against male flirts that Mr. Kohler is waging.

"Your idea is novel," said the chief, laughing, "but from the practical point of view I am afraid that there is not much in it."

"In fact—if you'll excuse me—your idea reminds me of a remark that is imputed to one of my Cleveland acquaintances."

"They say that this man, examining a jeweler's window that had been smashed in, muttered to himself, sagely: 'By gosh, this is more serious than I thought. It's broke on both sides.'"

CLIVE AMES IS FREE MAN AGAIN

Arrested in Minot on Old Indictment, Gets Off Easy.

Minot, N. D., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clive Ames, who was arrested here two months ago, wanted in La Crosse, Wis., to face an old indictment charging him with having violated the postal laws, has returned and resumed his former position. Ames was arrested in Minot last summer by United States Marshal Stout. While an indictment had been hanging over Ames for six years, he knew nothing of it. Several years ago he was in the employ of the Chicago Portrait company and secured the services of a young man in delivering goods. The young fellow skipped out and went home, leaving Ames with a number of accounts to pay. He wrote a sassy letter to the boy's parents, who turned it over to the postal authorities, with the result that Ames was indicted.

Technically, Ames was guilty, and when arrested in Minot he gave a bond for his appearance, and when court opened at La Crosse on Oct. 1 Ames was there to take his medicine. After a short hearing and the facts in the case were brought out the judge gave Ames a fine of $50 and released him.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Wahpeton, N. D., Oct. 8.—The postoffice and general store of Elmer Wold at Gal-schutt, this county, was dynamited Sunday morning. The safe blowers secured a total of $400, but overlooked a good sized bunch of cash which had been kept in the safe for a number of Wold's neighbors. The booty secured was in currency, and the safe blowers made their escape.

STEAL AND BURN.

Thieves Cover Up Crime by Applying the Torch.

Forman, N. D., Oct. 8.—The barns and granaries of Fred Sweeney, near Gwinner, were burned at night with nine head of cattle, ten harnesses, cream separators and 5,000 bushels of grain. The loss is $7,000. The fire was set by parties who stole a fine driving team. The doors had been nailed shut, and five gallons of kerosene scattered inside. The thieves left a trail and struck for Sandown, near Sheyenne river. Officers are in pursuit. If the thieves are caught a lynching may result.

MISSING WOMAN FOUND.

Pierre, S. D., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Mary Louise Crane, who disappeared late in August, while on the road from here to the home of her father, P. B. Crane, at Long Lake, has been found in Sioux City, Iowa. She was taken sick on the train and went to Sioux City, where her father found her after a prolonged search. The young woman conducted a millinery store in Huron, S. D., in 1904, and in 1906 she took up a claim in Stanley county, South Dakota. She started for Long Lake Aug. 25, and stopped for a day with friends in Pierre. A few days later her father received her trunk, but she did not arrive, and he became worried. He started over the route to search for her, and finally succeeded.

He says she is still sick, but is recovering and will soon be home.

Forgery.

Hard Luck Has Overcome John Lee in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ten years ago John R. Lee was a baritone with the famous Bostonian opera company. Yesterday he pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery in the second degree before Judge John Day Smith in the Hennepin county district court. Lee was not accused, peculiar circumstances surround his crime, and the court will investigate the case before passing sentence.

Lee, himself, is reticent in regard to his past, but friends of his relatives, who live in Minneapolis, say that the man's voice failed him ten years ago, and that since that time it has been hard to make a living for himself and an invalid sister, who lives in Minneapolis. For the last eight years Lee has been living in Seattle, and about a year ago he came to Minneapolis, summoned by the report that his sister's condition was serious. Hard pressed for money and unable to find work, the man, whose singing had caused the applause of thousands, forged a check for $125.00 on the Union Scrap Iron & Metal company. This was on Aug. 24, and Lee was arrested shortly afterward. He has been unable to secure bail and is now in jail on a charge of forgery in the second degree.

PROMINENT ONES AMONG INDICTED

Rather Sensational Outcome of War on Catalogue Houses.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Prominent men and firms are among those indicted by the federal grand jury here yesterday on the charge of conspiracy to defraud by use of the mails. Incidentally, the indictment is a feature of the warfare being waged on the catalogue houses and the mail order concerns of the country. These schemes to defraud are in the alleged action of the indicted parties to write to the catalogue houses for catalogue under the pretense of intending to purchase mail order catalogues, with the intent of putting the firms to great expense in responding, as the catalogues and postage are expensive.

The indictments are against the following: The National Lumbermen's association and president of the National Lumbermen's association, William G. Hollis, Minneapolis, secretary of the Retail Lumbermen's association, George C. Ingram, Sault Center, Minn., director of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, Stanley Moore, Wadena, Iowa, director of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, C. E. Green, Eldora, Iowa, up to last year vice president of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association, president of the Oklahoma Sash & Door factory, Theodore C. McLaughlin, Minneapolis, general manager of the Phoenix Lumber company, Leonard Welles, Minneapolis, vice president of the North Star Lumber company, George P. Thompson, Minneapolis, secretary and treasurer of the North Star Lumber company, Elijah Hudson, Minneapolis, vice president and active manager of the Central Lumber company, J. Crookston, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. Bruly, proprietor of the Hotel Vendome, has a farm on the east of the city and has made a record this year by selling 1,840 bushels of barley from seventy-five acres of his farm, which was under crop this year. He had fifty acres of Macaroni from which he threshed 1,500 bushels of grain, which he sold for 80 cents per bushel Thursday of last week.

CROOKSTON'S MAYOR.

Present Incumbent Will Probably be Candidate for Re-Election.

Crookston, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—The flat has gone forth that Mayor John D. McPhee is slated for re-election. Although the city election is but a month away, Nov. 5, there has been nothing said regarding election. Mayor McPhee has refused to say anything, but a canvass of the situation develops that the mayor is wanted for another term, and it is also learned from high places that he will accept a nomination if tendered him.

Mayor McPhee was nominated by the Citizens' party, and opposed by the Republicans. Under conditions as they exist it is not believed that a man of any strength would accept a nomination from the Republicans as it would mean certain defeat and they would simply sacrifice themselves in a hopeless cause.

It is also quite certain there will be practically no change in the board of aldermen.

RED RIVER BUTTER.

It is in High Favor, With Good Livers of Crookston, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Perhaps incident ever showed more conclusively that the Red River valley is undergoing a wonderful change for the better in farming methods than a statement made here by Charles Sundberg, representing the dairy storage house of S. T. Pratt of New York, who has left home after a trip through this section, looking for butter consignments. He said: "I found twenty-five more creameries in the territory adjacent to Crookston than I did a year ago, and there are others that I have not had time to visit. Not only this, but the class of butter being produced in this section is most creditable. It will average with any butter in the world. Minnesota is a great butter producing state. We want more of it in New York. We cannot get too much of it. The butter from the Red River valley is retailed in New York at from 40 to 50 cents per pound."

Prominent Temperance Advocate Indorses

MR. GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS.

Mr. George Foster Collins, of Lincoln, Neb., who is 73 years old, a member of the Presbyterian Church, prominent in politics, a life long and strenuous advocate of temperance, has been greatly benefited by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and conscientiously recommends it as the best tonic stimulant for the old.

"I am 73 years old. Was born in Wayne County, N. Y., on March 21, 1834. Our family moved to Michigan shortly after this. I grew up on the farm, then studied law, was admitted to the bar, was County Clerk of St. Clair County, Mich., which office I held four years. Then was for a time Secretary of the Midland Railway of Michigan. I moved with my family to a farm in Gage County, Nebraska, in 1874; was a member of the County Board eight years. In 1890 was elected State Senator. Foster, my middle name, has been transmitted in the family for over 100 years from father to son. Mrs. Collins and myself are members of the Presbyterian Church of Lincoln, where we have lived for the last four years. We celebrated the fifty-third anniversary of our marriage on March 23d, 1907.

"From early youth have been a strenuous advocate of temperance principles and strongly opposed to the use of liquor in any form. Over a year ago I began to feel a gradual decline of the vital forces. I had read and heard much about the benefits to be derived from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey by those in my condition, and was advised by an old friend and temperance worker who had received much benefit from its use to overcome my prejudices against liquor and try it. I took his advice and have been greatly benefited by it, and can conscientiously recommend all those passing into the 'sear and yellow leaf' of life to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."—GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS, 2509 P Street, Lincoln Neb., May 15th, 1907.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces; it makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat all the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

The circumstances surrounding the death are such as to make the solution of the case a puzzling one.

INDEPENDENT MINNESOTA.

If the Republicans of Minnesota would bow their own party and their own candidates half as strong as they boom Democracy and Democratic candidates, their ticket would be easily elected from top to bottom by an overwhelming majority.—St. Peter Free Press.

It is only fair to state, as a corollary to this proposition, that if the Republican party nominated a ticket as worthy of support as the Democrats, it would have the united support of the party press and the party rank and file, and it would certainly, in that event, be "elected from top to bottom by an overwhelming majority."

The partisan newspapers in Minnesota that show a bitter disposition to criticize other Republican newspapers and the membership of the Republican party have overlooked the vital point in the situation, and that is that the condition is due not to carelessness or lack of party loyalty, but to independent thinking and to a party loyalty so strong that it will not permit the machine that controls the party to run it into the ground for its own selfish purposes.

The recent disasters to the Republican party in this state have been due to this spirit of independence and far-seeing party loyalty, and not to party treachery, as some unthinking partisans have assumed. In their independence the newspapers of Minnesota have reflected the independence of the voters. The time has gone by when any man can be elected governor of Minnesota merely because of the party label. The time has gone by when such a candidate, depending for his election upon "party loyalty" alone, can command the support of the party newspapers of the state. The unthinking partisans are few and far between in either party, and it is a great credit to the state and to the excellent state press that this is true.

Recent elections have proved an assurance to patriotic citizens of this state that a party majority, no matter how great it is, cannot be abused by machine manipulators seeking their own selfish ends. It is no assurance of victory unless victory is deserved.

While the independence of the Republican country press has undoubtedly caused injury to the Republican organization, nobody will be found to assert that it has not at the same time worked for the best interests of the state, and after all that is the proper end of politics. While the Republican organization is in sackcloth and ashes, the state has made a name for itself by its independence, and the country at large knows that whatever harm partisanship may work in other states, in Minnesota it has been subordinated to the good government that serves only the best interests of the people.

The newspapers which the Free Press and other partisan papers are criticizing have been working for Minnesota and its people, not for a Republican organization that has shown its incapacity to govern itself, not to mention the state, and therein lies their sole offense. Until the organization learns its lesson and seeks public instead of private gains, these newspapers will continue their course, without regard to anything but the interests of the people whose servants they are.

FOR THE STOCKHOLDERS.

Further evidence of the iniquitous partnership that has existed between the oil trust and the railroads is being provided as a result of the searching investigation that Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota is making.

It is this unholy alliance that has enabled the Standard Oil company to grow great and grasping, and to crush its competitors and drive them out of the field. It is an arrangement that cannot survive in the glare of publicity. It needed only to be exposed to be terminated, and Mr. Kellogg is doing the country a vast deal of good even if the suit to dissolve the oil trust does not succeed.

For instance, it has been shown, as reported in The Herald, that the railroads have been paying the Standard Oil company a great deal more for oil than they needed to pay. They could have bought it from independent companies for much less; but the oil trust was powerful enough to compel them to buy its oil and to pay fancy prices. Every cent of tribute thus paid the trust was wrongfully taken from the stockholders of the railroads and from the public. Shippers have had to pay in excessive freight rates, and stockholders in reduced dividends.

To stop these practices, including that of rebating, means widespread benefit. It means that the independent will have a show, that the stockholders will get what is coming to them, and that the public will get a part of the saving in reduced freight rates.

THE NATION'S NATURAL WEALTH.

Next January a conference will be held at the call of the president to consider the condition of the natural resources of the country, and to take counsel as to means of preserving what is left of them.

The project is timely, and the subject to be considered is of vast importance.

Most of our coal has passed into the hands of a trust which is abusing its privileges, and it may be that something can be done with the remaining deposits on public lands that will help combat that trust and check its greed.

The timber supplies are dwindling rapidly, and most of those that remain are controlled by a growing trust that is seeking the last dollar of possible profit before it lets loose of any of its commodities.

The country has great water powers, but it is letting these go into the hands of private corporations, when they ought to remain in the hands of the public, and be developed by the public for the public good instead of for private profit.

There is much for such a conference to consider. It was an economic mistake to let private interests get hold of such great natural monopolies as coal and lumber. What can be done about it? As to timber, reforestation can accomplish much good, but nobody can replace the supplies of coal once they are gone. The least that can be done, however, is to follow President Roosevelt's suggestion that the coal remaining on public lands be retained by the nation for its own benefit. The president would not have the nation go into the coal business, but he would withdraw the coal lands from the market and lease them subject to regulations that would curb prices and set a limit on the greed of those that acquire them.

The suggestion that such a conference be held came naturally from the inland waterways commission, and was formally placed by that body before an assembly of sixteen governors accompanying the president on his trip down the Mississippi river.

The coming revolution in the manufacture of steel, whereby the Bessemer process is to give way to the open-hearth process, is due to the disappearance of high grade iron ores that could be worked up by the Bessemer process. This shows that the supply of iron ore also calls for some attention. It is nowhere near exhaustion, but the high grade ores are being exhausted, and steps must be taken to provide means for using the low grade ores that are not now considered available. The millions of tons of low grade ores in Cook county and in the new ranges of Minnesota west and south of the Mesaba range will have to be used some time, and when public attention is called to the need of a process by which they can be profitably smelted invention will supply the way.

It would be foolish to wait until the supplies of lumber, coal and iron are exhausted before considering the future that is to follow their exhaustion. The time to consider it is now.

THE CHURCH AND SWOLLEN WEALTH.

Rev. Washington Gladden, in addressing the national council of Congregational churches in Cleveland yesterday, drew a pessimistic picture of the relationship of the church to society. After showing that the "swollen fortunes over which many are gloating are symptoms of disease," he said that the church has been standing by and looking on while these serious conditions have come about, "winking her eyes and twiddling her thumbs, and wondering whether she had any call to interfere."

There can be no doubt that the church is not taking its proper part in the heroic task that confronts the American people. There will be many to argue that it should not take part in the fight against swollen and arrogant wealth, but at the very least it should train its membership in the duties of citizenship. A Christian should be a good, public-spirited citizen, and that sort of a citizen will take an active part in public affairs and do what he can, in his own way, to improve conditions.

Perhaps the church should not, as a body, enter into politics and public business, but it should create a brand of Christian citizenship that will stand like a stone wall against the tyranny of great wealth.

The average church member does not take an active interest in public affairs. He may think he does, but does he invariably go to the party primaries? Does he always go to the polls to cast his ballot according to his conscience and his convictions? Does he take an active part in public movements designed for the improvement of social conditions, or does he leave the details of politics to the "party workers" who are the puppets of self-seeking men, and confine his own activities to the minor subjects of sumptuary laws intended to create good morals by legislation?

There is a wide opportunity for the churches and their membership to be of real service, but they are not taking advantage of it.

TAX DODGERS.

A Virginia country editor has dug up documentary evidence of the fact that George Washington was at one time presented by a grand jury as a "tax dodger." The incident is interesting chiefly as showing that there was a time when tax dodging was deemed worthy of attention by the grand juries; but that was before we all began to take part in the cheerful practice.

It appears that May 2, 1760, a Virginia grand jury returned a "presentment," which is practically the same as an indictment, against George Washington and fifteen other substantial citizens of the Old Dominion, for "not entering their wheeled carriages agreeably to law."

In other words, instead of including their wheeled carriages in their lists of assessable property as returned and sworn to by them, they omitted them, just as the good citizens of today omit their stocks and bonds and jewelry and cash.

It does not appear that anything very serious happened to the Father of His Country, or that the incident blighted his fair name to any serious degree, for he was afterwards general of the Continental Army, first president of the new nation which he did more than any other man to make, and first citizen of the land.

It would be interesting indeed if grand juries nowadays should take to indicting tax dodgers, great and small. In the first place, it couldn't happen, because the grand jurors would not be likely to indict themselves, and the only members of the grand jury that would not be liable to indictment would be those that had no property.

The average good citizen has, say, household goods worth at forced sale $500; a few stocks and bonds; a watch or two and several clocks; a little jewelry; some household silverware; and a little balance at the bank. The constitution and the law say that he must make return to the actual value of this property in cash, and swear to it. Does he do it? Not he.

The returns of jewelry, money, stocks, bonds and similar property for purposes of taxation in this and other states is a big joke. Whole communities are found without a dollar's worth of jewelry, according to the tax sheets; others will have only a few dollars' worth. The total for the entire state is absurdly small.

We are all tax dodgers, and the lawful authorities help us to dodge taxes. The wealthier we are, the greater tax dodgers we are; the poorer we are the more we pay in proportion to our ability to pay.

But the existing system of taxation, whereby the means of production are taxed instead of the wealth that is produced by them, makes tax dodgers and perjurers of us all. There is hardly a property-owner in the country of any consequence at all that isn't ten times more deserving of indictment for tax dodging than George Washington and his fifteen Fairfax county neighbors were for failing to return their "wheeled carriages."

The price of pie has been raised in New York. An increase in the price of dyspepsia tablets will not be in order, however, because there will not be so much pie eaten.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

W. J. Hickey, former president of the American Association of Baseball clubs, is at the Spaulding hotel. Mr. Hickey is now engaged in the insurance business, but has not forgotten his first love, the great American game, and confesses a great liking for the Detroit Tigers in the world's championship series that is now being played in Chicago.

Mr. Hickey was one of the most efficient presidents the American Association ever had and is one of the best informed men in the country, during his active occupancy of the head of the American Association. He probably knows more ball players than any man in the country, barring, possibly, a few of the old stagers, like Chas. Comiskey. He is a warm admirer of the American league and does not believe that the National League can possibly win the series from the Detroit Tigers, as he clings to the theory the American league teams play faster ball than the teams of the older organization.

While on his important insurance business, Mr. Hickey spent a great part of his time yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock, and during that time he was telling of the progress of the battle between Detroit and Chicago. He is pulling for the success of the team that is composed of many players that were in the American association when Mr. Hickey was president of that league. He personally acquainted with most of the players of the Detroit team, and their capabilities, and, after a careful consideration of the chances in the great world's championship series, considers that the Tigers have the first call in the struggle.

J. H. Dalton, who was a guest at the St. Louis yesterday, is an old horseman and was the most expert that helped to make the opening of Woodland Park a Boston game. The park was opened forty-five years ago. For years he campaigned the famous old game, and he is now a member of the National Horse and Driver's association.

THE WEATHER.

This morning the clouds were heavy, and a northwest wind brought a drizzling rain. Later the clouds lightened and the rain ceased, but still later it grew again. The weather man, however, expects an improvement in conditions by tomorrow, when it will be fair and warmer.

Strong northwest winds were expected, however, and the northwest storm signal was hoisted this morning. Yesterday's highest temperature was 52 degrees and last night's lowest was 42 degrees.

A year ago last night Duluth had a real touch of winter: cold, raw wind and a bleak rain that turned to snow. The sun rose at 6:15 this morning and set at 5:28 tonight, making eleven hours and fifteen minutes of sunlight.

Shays' day states conditions: "A storm of moderate intensity is central over Lake Superior attended by strong northwesterly winds. This disturbance also caused light showers over the western lake region, Ontario and Saskatchewan during the past twenty-four hours. Rains fell during the same period in Atlantic and Gulf states. It is somewhat warmer in the lake region and central valley and cooler in the Gulf states. A high pressure area in the west is causing freezing weather in Monterey and Arizona. Generally fair weather and strong northwest winds may be expected at the Head of the Lakes this afternoon, tonight and Thursday."

Following were last night's lowest temperatures as recorded by the weather bureau:

The Mesaba club is a Duluth political organization of the Democratic persuasion. A short time ago there was a meeting of the club for the purpose of making arrangements to visit St. Paul to see the president and advise with him regarding the future policy of the St. Louis county Democracy. At this meeting the name of Senator A. J. Whitman was proposed for membership, but there was some objection and his application was rejected by a decided majority.

The last number of the Daily News of Minneapolis was issued yesterday. It was started on July 7, W. G. Goodbody and it ran upon a capital of some $2,000, the greater part of which was furnished by several prominent Democratic politicians. The Star has absorbed the News, and Goodbody becomes assistant business manager.

It is generally rumored that the contract for the extension of the Duluth & Iron Range road eastward from Tower has been awarded to Shepard & Winston.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

Red Lake Falls Gazette: This is the time of the year when we are all poor. According to the assessment returns there isn't enough gold and silver plate in Minnesota to stock a battleship, and as for money and credits—why, bless you, who ever thought we had any?

Sleepy Eye Dispatch: The faculty of the state university law school is said to be considering the advisability of raising the standard of scholarship of the law students. Scholarship, however, is the only thing that the law students are in need of a higher standard.

Cloquet Pine Knot: The old woodmen are predicting a mild winter, with very little snow. Better be on the safe side and have a full coal bin.

Virginia Enterprise: A newspaper may boom a town through its editorial and news columns, but a critical investor looks to the advertising columns for substantial evidence of public worth. The extent of public worth, the healthy condition of the collective body of the people, they tell him whether or not the community is up to the times in business matters.

Hibbing Tribune: J. Adam Bede is making a record in handing out postoffice stamps. He is giving away stamps to the poor.

St. Cloud Journal-Press: President Roosevelt told the people of Iowa to stay on the farms. That is good talk, but we fear much that it will not keep the boys and girls from getting about the city. The city is a place where the great mass of the people will be just going in the wheels of industry.

Princeton Union: Is it really necessary to sell 50,000,000 feet of state timber this fall? Good prices will be paid, of course, but pine timber will never be less valuable than it is at present. In fact it will increase in value every year. Not a stick of the state's pine timber should be disposed of unless it is to protect the state from actual loss.

Princeton Union: Pity it is true, but government trust-busting seems to be a total failure, and it is safe to predict that no one living today will see a trust effectively dissolved.

Elk River Star-News: Secretary Taft is sweeping everything before him over in Japan. He is very precise, being reported as for him. Before this thing goes farther, permit us to suggest that the artist wipe off the perennial smile that adorns all the pictures of the routine secretary or people will begin to suspect that he is nothing but a jolliter.

Waseca Herald: It may be, as Secretary Root says, that Mr. Roosevelt will point the candidate, but if Mr. Roosevelt intended to be the candidate what would he do that he is now leaving undone, and what would he leave undone that he is now doing?

WALKER IS CLEARED.

Colored Man, Accused of Assault, Good Witness.

The jury in the case of the state versus Henry Walker, colored, charged with assault and with pointing a revolver at a human being, two counts, was out about an hour last evening and returned a verdict of not guilty. Walker made a good witness when placed on the stand, and told his story in a straightforward manner. He answered every question put to him intelligently and his defense, that the act was committed in self defense, was well presented by his attorney. The case arose out of a quarrel at the Duluth Brewing company's plant over a glass of beer during the noon hour.

Englishman in Duluth
Says Religious Schools Are Burning Problem.

Idle Loafers and Pauper Foreigners Menace to Safety.

R. E. Finegan, Lincoln, England, who is a guest at the Spalding, says that the problem of dealing with religious education is the burning problem in England.

Heretofore religious schools received a certain sum from the government. Several law tests have demonstrated that religious schools are entitled to no compensation from the government, and the sentiment against the schools governed by the churches is giving way to a growing favor of the secular schools.

The idle man still remains a great problem in England. London is crowded with poor that have neither the desire to work nor the character to keep from crime. Many of the laborers of the rural districts have flocked to London and other great cities of England and, knowing nothing of trades, have only proved incompetent, shiftless and idle. They are daily adding to the criminal element of the great cities and have become a problem that English statesmen are endeavoring to do away with. Japanese sentiment is strong in England, according to Mr. Finegan. The treaty with Japan has cemented friendship with the Orient, and the offensive and defensive alliance with Nippon has the sympathy of the politicians of the tight little island, who see in the support of Japan a thwarting of the ambitions of Russia, should that country decide to risk the chances of war with England in the long desired opportunity to gain a foothold in India.

Just at the present time, England is receiving a poor class of immigrants. They are adding, by their inefficiency, to the labor problems of England. The remoteness of the United States from the countries from which the immigrants come, is believed by Mr. Finegan to produce a more desirable class of immigrants. They necessarily have to have some money for the long trip across the Atlantic and by virtue of this fact he believes we are securing the more industrious and intelligent immigrant. In England, which is only a short distance from the great labor producing centers of Europe, the situation is decidedly different, however. It only requires a mere pittance to reach England from the points on the continent from which most of the emigration occurs, and as a consequence Englishmen that are proving a burden to the country.

There is no burning political question at the present time. A bill has been reported compelling land owners to sell at a reasonable rate, land to their tenants, and this bill, it is believed by Mr. Finegan, will do much to reduce the great influx of the country laborers to the cities.

Hard Times in Kansas.
The old days of gold-shoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today, although a citizen, Coach, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CUTS DOWN THE AWARD

Jury Reduces Figures on West End Property
by $4,000.

The property owned by the Western Land association, on Superior street, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth avenues west, and wanted by the Wisconsin Central Railway company, is held to be worth $10,000, instead of $14,000, the price set by the appraisers.

A verdict making the award $10,000 was returned by a jury in the district court, last evening, following an appeal from the award of the appraisers by the owners of the property. As the Press hire from the hall park in Chicago would have been $4,000 better off if it had not appealed, to say nothing of the cost of litigation, the matter stands the Western Land association.

This case was one of a number in which appeals from the award of the appraisers were taken by either the owner, the railroad company, or by both.

STEWART!

THE WORLD'S GREATEST HEATER

The name Stewart on a stove is a guarantee of perfection. They have been the standard of excellence for seventy-five years. In appearance the Stewart Heaters are pleasing beyond expression. Its lines of construction are graceful and attractive and in keeping with the modern home furnishings. The substantial high-class nickel ornamentation that adorns these heaters is the new process, brilliant and easily kept clean. The foot rails, name plate and dome are all "loose nickel" and can be instantly removed without taking out a single bolt or screw. The mica doors surrounding the fire pot are ground so as to be absolutely gas tight. The extra large tea kettle attachment is very convenient and serviceable.

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY A STEWART

The Stewart Base Burners have more actual radiating surface than any other make. The hot air flue that takes the cold air in at the bottom of the stove is five inches wide. This cold air being taken in at the bottom of the stove is so intensely heated when it reaches the top that a match can be lighted by holding it 24 inches above the stove. No other heater made will do this. The magazine is extra large and easily removable. These features, including the revolving fire pot, duplex grates, are but a few of the many reasons why you should buy a Stewart. Remember that a Stewart Base Burner will give one-fourth more heat with one-fourth less fuel. They are guaranteed by us and the makers. We take your old stove as a part payment on a new one. The payments are as low as

DROWNS GETTING WATER.

Tower, N. D., Oct. 8.—William Lattin was drowned in the Mouse river here and a search was made at the river. The Mouse river is quite low and the body was found lifeless close to the place where William was in the habit of getting water. It is thought that the water was somewhat muddy close to the shore and the boy waded out to get clearer water, and took cramps which he was subject to.

CONREID RETURNS IN BROKEN HEALTH.

New York, Oct. 9.—Broken in health and leaning heavily on the arm of a friend, Heinrich Conreid, director of the Metropolitan opera house, who has been in Europe since the close of last season, came ashore today from the Steamer Kron Prinzess Cecilie. Mr. Conreid said his physicians abroad had advised him that he had neuritis. He said his breakdown was due to nervous strain over the arrest and firing of Caruso. Caruso, he said, would sing at the Metropolitan opera house during the coming season.

All Europe," he said, "laughs at us because of Caruso. The king of England and the emperor of Germany will soon. Don't talk to me any more about Caruso. That dreadful thing cost me my health and every time I hear it I feel worse."

Mr. Conreid said he had two new singers, but would not announce their names.

St. Paul.

St. Paul, Oct. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Official announcement has been received from Washington of the appointment of John C. Sweet of Minneapolis, as assistant United States district attorney, with headquarters in St. Paul.

Mr. Sweet will have the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and North Dakota to look after in carrying into effect the new naturalization law. Mr. Sweet's salary will be $2,500 per annum. He was formerly an attorney of Mankato. Under the new law every safeguard is placed around granting full citizenship. The old methods, which were so carelessly carried out during political campaigns, are entirely done away with. The alien himself must pay the fees and the clerks of United States courts from amounts received must pay their clerical assistants.

Capacity in a Few Days.

Work on the plant of the Duluth Box factory, at Forty-fourth avenue west and Polk street, is now practically completed, and the plant is running at capacity. In a few days at the most it is expected the work will be entirely completed, necessary new machinery installed and everything in shape for a run through the winter.

The plant was burned out last July, placing the company in rather a bad way. There were many orders ahead, and the fire came at a particularly disadvantageous time. But the company hastily erected a temporary structure and, with such machinery as was not damaged by the fire, continued to work on the orders.

Gradually the temporary plant was extended into a permanent structure, until now the exterior is completed. The building is not quite as large as that which was burned, but the space is utilized to good purpose, and the capacity will be slightly increased.

CHANCE FOR AN ORE DOCK

Possible That Northern Pacific Will Build in West Duluth.

Has Had Offers of Ore
Tonnage From Cuyuna Range.

The Northern Pacific Railway company may construct an ore dock on the present site of the Merrill & Ring company's sawmill at the head of St. Louis bay, West Duluth.

There is no official confirmation of this report, but the rumors of a new ore dock have been persistent for some time past and, it is claimed, there are matters developing which tend to make the dock proposition not only possible, but probable.

The dock, it is claimed, will be constructed to handle the iron ore from the Cuyuna range, both from the Northern Pacific company's property and from that of other parties.

On the report first came out about the ore dock, a great many regarded the idea as merely visionary, but among the local men interested in mining affairs it is now being regarded in a more serious light and they are giving more credence to the report. Second Vice President Hannaford of the Northern Pacific company was in Duluth a few days ago on a mission that he would not divulge. It is possible that his visit had something to do with the proposed ore dock construction.

Color is given to the rumor from the fact that the Northern Pacific and Soo companies are known to have had offers from Cuyuna range ore interests to ship to Duluth not less than a quarter of a million tons annually. There is said, on good authority, to have been made by one company that is developing an ore property on that range.

The Northern Pacific company has been willing to make a rate of 80 cents a ton to the Cuyuna range ore interests for the transportation of ore to Duluth, but up to recently, it is claimed, the owners held out for a lower rate of 60 cents.

The Northern Pacific company has large holdings of land on the Cuyuna range and has been undergoing a thorough exploration, but there are said to be enough other interests there on which to guarantee the railway company all the business it will care to handle if the range turns out to be rich in iron.

A local mining engineer who has given a great deal of attention to the Cuyuna range says that there is only one property thus far on which ore of a merchantable grade has been discovered, and that this property was explored twice before the discovery was made.

Precious of Low Grade Ore.

In another property that owned by John G. Williams and Archie Chisholm of this city, there are said to be two bodies of ore, the latter eight in number, of depths ranging from 100 to 300 feet, all in low grade ore. In the deepest hole the drills, when stopped, are said to have hit been in ore. The ore body is said to be of a vertical formation, but mining men have expressed an opinion that with the showing made there is likely to be a concentration of good ore somewhere beneath the locality.

When the first exploration work was done on the Cuyuna range, the ore body was said to be running 40 per cent iron, too low a grade to make it merchantable. Some recent assays of ore bodies encountered by the drills are said to show 60 per cent iron and a knowledge of those assays has aroused considerable interest in local mining circles.

Discussing the situation, yesterday, a local mining man admitted that there might be a great deal more in the ore dock report than mere rumor. He said that the Merrill & Ring mill site would be the logical location for an ore dock for the reason that the structure would stand high above the water and must necessarily be built where the railway company will get easy grades.

The lumber company has completed its sawing operations and its dock property is understood to be in the market.

SAYS THEY ARE HOLD-UP MEN

State Begins Trial of Edward Smith and Joseph Adams.

The grand larceny case against Edward Smith and Joseph Adams was given to the jury shortly before noon today.

The two men are claimed to have held up Oscar Olson in the rear of the Denver lodging house last summer, and robbed him of 35 cents.

Olson could not be found when the state was ready to try the case several days ago, but within the last week he was taken into custody by the police while drunk. At the present time Olson is being held in the county jail to answer for contempt of court.

It is claimed by the state that Olson made inquiry for lodgings and that Smith and Adams, under promise of taking him to a good place, got him in the alley and held him against the wall while they went through his pockets. A bartender named Erickson is said to have witnessed the alleged hold-up.

NOTARIES NEGLIGENT OF GARBAGE

Acknowledgments Taken on Range Are Refused Certification.

Because a large number of the notaries of the public residing in St. Louis county, particularly in the range districts, have not complied with the law relative to the recording of their commissions with the clerk of the district court, the attorneys in several important civil actions, in which acknowledgments have been taken, are much perturbed because the acknowledgments have been refused in courts in other states, and are likely to be questioned in the courts of this state. They think it more than likely that the acknowledgments so far taken are worthless, and that their work will have to be done again with added expense and trouble.

Chapter 46, section 2880 of the Revised Laws of Minnesota, makes it compulsory for every notary of the public to record his commission with the clerk of the district court in the county where he resides, in a book kept for that purpose, on payment of the fee of $1. The clerk, when requested, shall certify to his official acts in the same manner, and for the same fees, allowed by law for similar certificates, authenticating acts of justices of the peace.

Within the last few days local attorneys who have a great deal of legal business on the range, particularly in the way of taking acknowledgments to be used in the trial of civil cases involving a great deal of money, have had their papers turned down and a refusal made to certify the same, simply because the notary taking the acknowledgment had failed to comply with the law.

This state of affairs is extremely annoying, besides putting the parties securing the acknowledgment to considerable expense, especially when a trip has been made from Duluth to the range for that purpose.

Some of the attorneys who have had trouble by reason of the carelessness or negligence of the notaries, are profiting by their experience and are making careful inquiry now as to the qualifications of the notary. One Duluth attorney stated yesterday that he was reasonably sure that not more than fifty per cent of the notaries on the range have complied with the law so far as section 2880 is concerned.

The collection and disposal of garbage is a problem which confronts every large city, and Duluth has the problem on its hands now.

The plan which Alderman McEwen has suggested, viz that of placing the board of health under such regulations as will permit it to operate along the lines of other city departments seems to have met with the endorsement of many thinking men, and that it will probably be taken up by the charter commission and put to a direct vote of the people seems likely.

The collection of garbage and methods of disposing of the same, adopted in other cities, may be of interest. The council of St. Louis has just passed an ordinance under which the board of public improvements is to contract for the reduction of the garbage for a term of years. The garbage is to be collected by the city and a reduction plant put in along the lines of the one operated in this city, only on a larger scale.

The city garbage wagons are washed with hot water at the close of each day's work, and are kept as clean as possible while in use, and it is said that no odor is given off from the wagons, even when passing through the cities, loaded. The cost of collection in St. Louis has ranged from $84,000 to $195,000 a year for the past seven years. The cost of disposal during the same period has ranged from $62,000 to $129,000. This cost includes the disposal of dead animals, of which thousands are collected there each year.

The receiving stations are to be maintained in a strictly sanitary condition, free from offensive or disagreeable odors. They are to be provided with suitable approaches, having an inclination not greater than one in twenty, and with hoppers into which the garbage can be expeditiously unloaded; the contractor to maintain the stations. Each of the two stations is to have a capacity to receive 300 tons of garbage in eight hours each day. Their approximate locations are indicated in the specifications. All material delivered by the city is to be removed to the reduction plant before midnight of the same day.

Garbage, which the contractor is to dispose of, is defined as "all organic matter and small dead animals, and all other refuse of vegetable or animal food stuffs, collected by the city garbage collection wagons, and which may contain some foreign substances."

The plan adopted in St. Louis is of course on a more elaborate and expensive scale than necessary in a city the size of Duluth, but it indicates that the opinion of the alderman mentioned to the effect that it is of vital importance to collect garbage promptly and in a sanitary manner is acted upon by large municipalities, and is recognized as a problem, the proper solution of which is essential to public health and happiness.

THE WEST DISCOURAGES A STANDPAT LEADER.

Washington, Oct. 8.—William F. Wakeman of New York, secretary of the American Protective Tariff league and one of the most ardent of standpaters, has seen a light in the great West.

"I was greatly surprised on a trip I have just made through the Middle West at the extent of the tariff revision movement," says Mr. Wakeman. "I believe in telling the truth and so I don't hesitate to say that this is a fact. It is in Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland and Pittsburgh I talked with forty or fifty prominent business men

DAUGHTER OF MAYOR,

Who Aimed to Fine Bachelors, Is An Elopement Principal.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 8.—Mayor Bennett of Fort Dodge, who recently gained fame by issuing a ukase that all bachelors within the city must wed within a year or pay a fine, was taken at his word yesterday by Nolan Snow, a chauffeur, who eloped with the mayor's daughter, Mable. The elopers wed at Fort Dodge and fled to Des Moines.

Mayor Bennett is a great believer in marriage and had an ordinance passed by the council placing a fine upon the heads of all bachelors at the end of a year. Young Snow is just in time to escape the mayor's fine, but not the mayor's wrath.

HIGH PRICES HELP.

Soaring Grain Figures Compensate for the Falling Off in Crop.

Thief River Falls, Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Threshing proceeds slowly in this territory on account of frequent showers that dampen everything and retard the workers. From reports coming into the city, the yield is not disappointing and some exceedingly large yields are heard of. Had it not been for the heavy frosts during the last week of September, it is likely that the crops would have returned an unusually heavy yield, as it is the increase in price makes up for the loss by reason of the inclement weather.

INTEREST IS STRONG

Municipal Politics Already Beginning to be Live Topic.

Republican Chairman Issues Call for Meeting on Oct. 26.

Interest in local politics has never been keener at this early stage of the game than just now, and there is a general hum of political discussion about the city hall corridors in particular.

The deepest interest seems to center about the mayor's office, and its probabilities and possibilities.

It is generally admitted that Mayor Cullum, while he declines to admit as much, will be a candidate again. His actions have been construed as indicating this, and those who can read the signs are of the one opinion, that the mayor will run again.

The Civic league will be heard of in politics this year if indications point to anything. The lid question and its agitation, the success along some lines in temperance work and other encouragements have tended to give the league new blood and ambitions, and it is stated that it will have several candidates for aldermen, and will keep an eye on the mayoralty candidates at the primaries.

Alderman McEwen, President Tessenman of the council, and Mayor Cullum have been prominently mentioned as mayoralty timber on the Democratic side, while the Republicans, who have issued a call for Oct. 26, at which time they will decide upon their candidate, have a number of men who are considered good timber, and several who are said to be in the hands of their friends as to accepting the nomination. Among the Republicans mentioned are C. S. Wilson, L. A. Barnes, Frank A. Brewer, S. F. Staples, L. H. Martin, H. B. Knudsen, Harry Nesbitt and W. S. Moore. James A. Hanks, chairman of the Republican city committee, has issued the call, and on the 26th of the month the Republicans will probably decide upon their candidate for the mayoralty.

Meanwhile the Democrats are biding their time and just who will head their ticket is at present a matter of conjecture.

The company will extend the eight-hour systems to the small stations as soon as possible, it is stated.

GLADDEN IS PESSIMISTIC

Columbus Pastor Says a Social Crisis is at Hand.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Rev. Washington Gladden of Columbus, Ohio, speaking before the national council of Congregational churches yesterday said:

"It is idle, it is fatuous, to hide from ourselves the fact that we are facing a social crisis. The forces which are at work here mean destruction. 'A social order which makes profitable the rise of a Harriman or a Rockefeller is a social order which cannot long endure. The swollen fortunes that many are gloating over are symptoms of disease. They are the reward of social service. They are the fruit of plunder. We have made them possible only by permitting the gate of opportunity to be made narrower and the burden of toil more unrequiting for millions of poor. They exist only by our acts, as we approve by our indifference we consent to monumental injustice. A society which tolerates such conditions cannot live. What has the Christian church been doing while the powers of piracy and plunder have been gathering their forces and spreading their net and heaping up their spoils? Where was the Christian church when the grafters were ravaging the cities and the rebate robbers and the frenzied financiers and insurance sharks were getting in their work? For the most part she has been standing by and looking on, winking her eyes and twiddling her thumbs, and wondering whether she had any call to interfere. Indeed, she has gathered into her communion many of the most conspicuous of the perpetrators of the injustice—they are nearly all church members—and has made herself a pensioner upon their bounty and has been content with preaching to them the simple gospel—that such men always love to hear.

"The fact is plainly apparent that the church has lost its grip upon the world and she is not going to regain it until she finds out what is her real business in the world. Her enfeeblement is due to her failure to grapple with the cases assigned to her. Let her address herself to that with faith and courage and she will soon find her resources returning."

and found them favorable to revision. I must admit, too, that reports received by our organization indicate that the sentiment is general throughout these reports and my interviews with them. Perhaps the sentiment is due to our abundant prosperity. I will say further that if this sentiment continues the present administration will control the next Republican convention and name its legate.

"I believe President Roosevelt wants the nomination and under present conditions will get it, but there is grave doubt in my mind whether conditions will be the same. The convention is nearly a year away. There may be such a change by February as to make the naming of its legate by the administration impossible."

RETURNS TO BLACKBUCK.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. F. J. Barackman announced from the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, that he tendered his resignation as pastor to become effective Nov. 1. He came here from the pastorate of the church at Blackduck, Minn., some sixteen months ago and has proved himself exceedingly popular and competent. He decided that the field at Blackduck had more attractions than the local one and so decided to accept a call to his former town, where prior to coming here, he had labored for three years with decided success.

New York Oct. 8.—Upon the votes of hundreds of small Dutch investors may depend the outcome of one of the greatest battles in the campaign of many years of E. H. Harriman as waging to depose him from the dictatorship of railroads covering one-third the area of the United States.

In the contest of Stuyvesant Fish against Harriman for control of the Illinois Central railroad the Hollanders have sent to Fish it was learned today, proxies for 40,000 shares of stock.

About 20 per cent of the Illinois Central stock is held in Europe, the greater part of it in Holland, and if Fish gets all the European stock, those shares probably will swing the railway election in his favor.

With the Dutch share owners actively at work for Mr. Fish, as was disclosed today, he has a good chance to get all the European proxies. It is also learned that New Orleans and Galveston holders are swinging to the Fish side.

Expect to Have Grading Completed to St. Croix This Fall.

North Branch, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—President Farnham, Vice President Crossman and Chief Engineer Thomas were here yesterday looking over the grading work at Stacy and Sunrise on the new Twin City & Lake Superior Electric Arrow line.

The officers report that grading is completed in all except a few spots between the Twin Cities and Sunrise. Contractor Wendahl has arrived with several cars of grading material and a large crew and has started grading through the town of Sunrise. It is expected to finish the work to the St. Croix this fall so that material can be gotten to Sunrise by rail to build the bridge across the river this winter.

It regulates, strengthens and restores women's health and is invaluable during the period of Change of Life.

Third, the great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time being published by special permission, give absolute evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the illnesses of women.

When the germs of Malaria get into the blood they destroy the rich, nutritive qualities of this vital fluid and reduce it to such a weak, watery condition that it is unable to furnish the system with the nourishment and strength necessary to keep it robust and healthy. The complexion grows pale and sallow, the appetite fails, digestion is deranged, a bilious condition of the system is set up, and often cholera or fever make life miserable for the person in whose blood the insidious poison has taken root. There is but one way to rid the system of Malaria and that is to purify the blood of the germs of the disease, and S. S. S. is the remedy to accomplish this. It goes down into the circulation, destroys the germs, purifies and strengthens the weak, watery blood, making it a rich health-giving and health-sustaining stream, and makes a lasting cure of Malaria. Coach Colton gave the high school football squad a strenuous practice yesterday. The players were given instructions, perfected and good hard work took the stiffness out of the boys' joints. The treatment will be continued all week in preparation for the St. Louis game Saturday. For the boys want to win.

Colton expects to be back in his position at left guard in the game Saturday, having worked out the conditions, which he fears are not too good for the team this fall. He played a great game last year and is a valuable man for the team, so his return is pleasing to Colton and the supporters of the team.

Coach Colton says that the team worked in a scrimmage yesterday, and he will be kept out of practice for a few days. He will be back in the line to help to play Saturday. His arm was badly

The work of the association among the Chinese was to arouse the sympathy and interests of civilization and he was followed by several Chinese officials who spoke in approval of the undertaking. The Chinese officials then gave an elaborate reception by the Chinese residents. This function was outstanding in the history of the city. The decorations were most picturesque, embroidered banners and a multitude of flags and lanterns making the garden look like fairyland.

The promoters of the reception were prominent Chinese merchants representing the Chinese students who formerly in the boycott movement against American manufacturers. Speeches were made by the Chinese and by local Chinese business men and the representatives of the vicority. The Chinese emphasized the cordial relations between the Chinese and the United States, saying the friendship of America had been evi-

SKI CLUB MAKES READY FOR SPORT

Hibbing Skists Are Enthusiastic Over Coming Winter's Fun.

Hibbing, Minn., Oct. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Hibbing Ski club has been reorganized and is making elaborate preparations for carrying on the sport during the coming winter. Martin Embertson, who was so prominently connected with the club last winter, and who did more than any other one man on the range for the sport, was again chosen president of the local club. It is necessary that preparations be started early this season as during a severe storm a few weeks ago the forest was blown down and it has been found necessary to make other changes in the grounds. The maple mountain slide was one of the fastest in the country last year, although no record jumps were made. During the coming season the slide will be made even faster than it was last year and it is expected that some long jumps will be made.

The treble will be moved a short distance from where it formerly stood, to a steeper part of the hill, where the decline below the "treble" will be more rapid than it was before, making it possible to make much longer jumps. The club is composed of practically the same members as it was last year, with a few new ones added. The material for building the new treble is already on the ground and by the time there is sufficient snow on the ground to warrant the riders making a trial, the new hill will be in readiness. Plans are already on foot among the clubs throughout Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin for tournaments to be held early in the season and the members of the Hibbing club are of the opinion that their riders will be able to carry off some high honors. Early as it is, there is already much enthusiasm here over the prospects of the Ski club, and riders and admirers are impatiently waiting for the close of the football season and the arrival of a heavy fall of snow. There are, however, a few "fans" who would gladly postpone the opening of the ski riding season if by so doing they might lengthen the summer. President Embertson says that the local club has a lot of new material from which to select riders and that nearly all of those who figured prominently in the riding last year will be here for the coming season.

SWITCHMAN IS KILLED BY CARS

Churchill Slips From Running Board, is Cut in Two.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—George Churchill was instantly killed at 9 o'clock last night in the Adams yards by being run over by a switch engine on the Iron Range railroad. He was employed as a switchman and slipped from the running board.

The body was cut in two. The remains were taken to the Gleason undertaking rooms. Deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows and the Two Harbors local of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

This was his third year on the road as switchman. Although 21 years of age, he had become very popular among his fellow workers and neighbors. He leaves a wife and two small children. He resided in the Bailey block on Jones street. Before becoming a switchman, he was employed by Mrs. Payne in distributing express.

The news of the dreadful accident came as a shock to his friends and family, who had learned that George Churchill was a capable, as well as amiable trainman. His brother-in-law was so stunned by the news that he could not be induced to view the remains.

CANDIDATES ARE COMING TO FRONT

Several Are Being Mentioned for Office in Virginia.

Virginia, Minn., Oct. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is understood that Aldermen Pejanovich of the Second ward and Mesberg of the Third ward will try for a re-nomination on the Republican ticket. Edward C. A. Johnson of the Fourth ward has not yet decided whether he will run again.

James Sullivan, who is now a resident of the Third ward, is circulating a petition with the object of becoming an independent candidate for alderman. Two years ago he was a candidate in the Second ward and received two votes.

It is reported that Alderman at Large J. L. Kimball was anxious to be a candidate for mayor this year and was somewhat disappointed that he was not asked to run on the People's ticket, and that this accounts for his recent letter announcing his candidacy for re-election as alderman and his vigorous and spirited defense of the present administration from imaginary attacks.

MOST REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

Recommended By A Brother Who Tried Peruna, Mr. Anderson, Of California, Was Rescued From a Seemingly Fatal Illness.

"Peruna certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

MR. ANDREW ANDERSON, 1319 E. 16th street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes:

"No one seeing me today would think that I was at death's door a few years ago with pulmonary troubles. I had frequent bleeding from the lungs, my stomach was out of order, and when I came here for my health no one thought I would recover."

"My brother in the East had been cured of a very hard cold on the lungs by using Peruna and he wrote me and advised me to try it. I had little faith, but thought I would give it a trial."

"I noticed a change in my appetite the very first week, and found that soon began to sleep well. Gradually I began to feel better and took on flesh. Recovery was slow for I was so far gone, but after seven months steady use of Peruna I was my old self once more."

"I now weigh 173 pounds, am in fine health and spirit and have been a well man for two years, thanks to Peruna. It certainly saved me from an untimely grave."

Tonic and for Colds.

Hon. B. J. Irvin, mayor of Washington, Ga., writes that he has frequently used Peruna in his family, and has found it excellent for colds and as a tonic.

THAT "GIRL IN BLUE"

Telltale Tattoo Mark Gives Chicago Man Away.

When Ed Smith, alias John Burns, alias William Swartz, completes the sentence the court will impose upon him for robbery in this city, it is probable that he will be met at the prison doors by deputies from the state penitentiary at Chicago on a warrant charging him with breaking his parole as a prisoner of that institution.

Smith, as he is known here, was found guilty of burglary by the district court yesterday. The crime of which he was found guilty was the robbery of a man in an alley between Fifth and Sixth avenues west last June and advice from Chicago to show that he was paroled from the state penitentiary here April 9, 1907.

A tattoo mark of a girl's form in blue and red on his arm, and other unmistakable scars and identification marks, served to connect Smith with the escaped prisoner and proved his undoing.

The discovery came about in a peculiar manner and reflects credit upon the keenness and good memory of Secretary Lamb of the local police force. Last evening a book containing photographs and records of escaped and paroled prisoners from the state penitentiary at Illinois was received at the headquarters and Secretary Lamb, in glancing over the book came across the photograph of one John Burns, alias William Swartz. The face looked familiar to Lamb, who has a keen memory for faces, as has been proven before. He carefully went over the photograph of the man and found that the sharp eyes of the secretary had not deceived him, although the photograph of Smith, taken five years ago and under a different name, looked different from the one taken but a few weeks ago in Duluth.

Chief Troyer overheard the remark and an investigation showed that the sharp eyes of the secretary had not deceived him, although the photograph of Smith, taken five years ago and under a different name, looked different from the one taken but a few weeks ago in Duluth.

Comparisons of the measurements taken by the Bertillon method, the scars and other marks tallied and finally when the sentence, "girl in blue and blue tattooed on arm" was reached in the description, the officers were confident that they were correct in their surmise. The mark in question was a peculiar one and noted at the time the man was measured in the city police station cell some months ago.

The local police department has something like 600 photographs of prisoners and suspects who have been handled in this city within the past several years and is well equipped to identify crooks and suspects.

The Illinois authorities have been notified of the discovery and will undoubtedly hear when Minnesota is through with Smith.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

At the first session of the Women's Synodical Society of Home Missions of Minnesota, which was held at the parlors of the Pilgrim Congregational church this morning, a special honor was conferred upon Mrs. Mary L. Whipple of this city, who was elected vice president of the board of the synod at New York. Minnesota is entitled to four vice presidents and the honor is one of the highest in the gift of the society. The annual election of officers also took place and the following will serve the society during the ensuing year: President, Mrs. C. F. Noyes of St. Paul; recording secretary, Mrs. L. Taylor, Lesueur; corresponding secretary, Mrs. McClintock of St. Paul; secretary, Mrs. A. Burke of St. Paul; secretary of literature, Miss Lydia Peterson of Minneapolis; secretary of young people's work, Miss Alice Braden of Minneapolis.

The meeting today was the twenty-third annual meeting of the society in Minnesota and more than fifty out-of-town delegates were in attendance in addition to a large number of Duluth women. RAILROAD NEWS
CAR SHORTAGE AGAIN
THREATENS TO BE ACUTE

September, the heavy movement was not on. Can They Handle It? "Will the railroads be able to take care of the grain business from now on?" is the question. The fact that the crop was shorter this year than last does not make any difference in the amount offered for shipment between now and Christmas. The shortage of the crop will only become apparent at the end of the season, when the shipments of grain from the country elevators are concerned. The car receipts for the first week of October, given above, indicate that there will be a tremendous amount offered to the railroads to transport, and it is a hard matter to get cars now, what will it be a little later on? The car receipts of all grains for the month of September, 1907, were 8,372, as compared with 11,311 for the same month last year. These figures bear out the figures giving the smaller, as has been explained, because of the lateness of the crop. In the total receipts for September as compared with last year, it will be seen that barley is the only grain that shows a gain over last year. This was because of the strong barley market. Shippers hurried their barley to market in order to take advantage of the high prices which prevailed. Grain men expect to see the receipts for October considerably eclipse those of last year, despite the crop shortage. They say that not only does the shortage of freight cars menace, but that there are many tedious and expensive delays in the yards at the head of the Lakes, because the roads are unable to accommodate the switching properly. Shippers and receivers say that cars of grain stand for days in the yards here and at Superior because the roads have not sufficient switching facilities. They are urging the railroads to speed up some of their cars and there are not enough to properly take care of the business.

The following table shows the receipts of grain at Duluth during September, 1907, and the same month a year ago:

Wheat	4,920,071	7,045,605
Corn	9,583	25,607
Oats	235,378	612,085
Rye	28,284	20,280
Flax	2,479,491	1,847,019
	412,731	932,998
Total of all grains	8,102,578	11,143,594

All of the officials of the different roads tell the same story. The competition for cars is so close at the present time that if a shipper wants to secure a car he must have his order in at least ten days before the time designated for the shipment. The movement of potatoes, wheat and coarse grains, coupled with the usual fall traffic has rendered the situation very critical. Whether the situation will extend beyond the fall wheat movement is a question. The car situation is already beginning to assume serious aspects and the shippers are beginning to look up against a hard proposition. The only thing that the agents can do is to prompt the cars at the earliest opportunity. They are not fulfilling the promises in many cases, as shippers have ascertained, and Duluth merchants and shippers are becoming impatient with the shippers of the Northwest in general.

The Grain Movement. A number of things combined to make the grain receipts at Duluth smaller during the month than they were during the same month in 1906, but the most important and the one that was really responsible was the lateness of the season. There are excellent prospects that people shipping grain to Duluth will have to contend with the car shortage position and it is true that they have already had a taste of it, but the decrease in the September receipts was hardly due to that cause.

The receipts during this month in comparison with last October's will tell the story, as the crop is now moving in earnest. The movement was lighter in September because of the late season. It will be recalled that harvest began two or three weeks later than usual in the Northwest this season, and this had its effect upon shipments.

The car receipts of all grains from Sept. 30 to Oct. 5 this year were 4,067 cars, as compared with 5,701 for the same time last year, showing a considerable gain and indicating that the heavy movement of grain has begun. In September, the heavy movement was not on.

Library Roof Repairs Outlined at Joint Meeting Yesterday.

At the joint meeting of the library board and the board of public works held yesterday, it was decided to follow out the plans recommended by the council and President Sam of the board of public works, and to proceed with the work of repairing the roof of the library by day labor, the work to be begun at once.

Architect Young was present at the meeting and explained fully the conditions existing which make necessary the repairs to the roof.

The pipes which carry off the water from the roof are placed along the outside and the roof being almost flat the drain to the pipes is slow. As a consequence, the water freezes in the pipes and this has caused no end of trouble.

The plan now is to remodel the roof so that it will slope from the outside to the center from either side and the drain pipes will be run down on the inside of the building, thus preventing freezing and serving to carry off the water to better advantage.

A superintendent will be selected by the board and the work will be begun as soon as possible as it is desired to have it completed before weathering. Other repairs will go over until another year in all probability.

ENGINEER HUNTS WOLF WITH HIS LOCOMOTIVE

J. H. Gurry of Iron Range Road is Lucky Nimrod.

Runs Down Wolf and Then Kicks It Under Wheels.

Wolf hunting with locomotives has been successfully attempted in St. Louis county and, hereafter, the rule, instead of the exception, will be tame methods of killing the wily animals.

J. H. Gurry, a well known locomotive engineer on the Iron Range road, is the first man to introduce the new method of wolf hunting to the north of the country. Mr. Gurry has presented a wolf pelt at the county auditor's office for which he collected a bounty of $5. He declares in writing, across the face of his certificate, that the animal was killed by a locomotive.

The statement that the wolf came to its death by an unusual method attracted the interest of the courthouse officials and they insisted that Mr. Gurry told them how he got the wolf or they would think he was stringing them.

The engineer took the chaffing in good

INDIANS LOOKING FOR ESCAPED MAN

Le Noir Got Away on Reservation, Reds Giving Chase.

Minot, N. D., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—No trace has been discovered of A. J. LeNoir, the prisoner who escaped from Sheriff Lee's custody on route from Great Falls, Mont., to Minot. LeNoir was wanted on the charge of forgery in the third degree, sworn out by the Sherman Nursery company, whom the young man represented. LeNoir had been placed under bonds, but left the city, going to Great Falls, where he was employed in the hardware business. When arrested he was very penitent, claiming that the mistake would break his mother's heart. On the train, however, he was orderly and well behaved. Just after leaving Oahego and while on the way to Wolf Point, the young man got permission to enter the toilet room. Sheriff Lee posted himself in the vestibule and saw his prisoner hunt himself through the window. The train was stopped and a pursuing party of Indians, whose reservation was but a few miles distant, was secured. For two days the sheriff directed the hunt, finding tracks of the man, who had taken to the timber along the Milk river. The Indians are still engaged in the search, and report daily to the sheriff in Minot.

Breakfast Monotony

—the same old chops, or bacon and eggs, and biscuit, for breakfast—may be avoided. Try

Fruit (preferably cooked),
Four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts with cream or milk,
Eggs, one or two poached or soft-boiled,
Cup of Postum Food Coffee with cream and sugar,
Toast, one or two slices nice and crisp.

This will give you an ideal combination of the three principal food elements—proteins, carbohydrates and fats—in the most easily digestible form.

And it means a wide awake individual with energy and a clear head to make a stir in the world; it replaces that dull, sluggish feeling which so often follows the too-much-meat-and-biscuit breakfast.

The man who has work to do can't afford to be overloaded with the kind of food that requires undue effort on the part of his digestive organs for a time and leaves him with a "gone feeling" just about the time of day when he needs his best mental and physical powers.

Grape-Nuts food affords real strength of mind and body with little effort (or waste force) in getting it converted in the system into energy and staying-power—the power to act and to endure.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MRS. NAYTON LOSES LIFE

Indian Woman Killed by M. & I. Train in Cass County.

She Was Returning From Cranberry Picking When Struck.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. James Nayton, an Indian woman, was struck by the northbound passenger train on the M. & I. railway, yesterday evening, about a mile this side of Hackensack, sustaining injuries from which she subsequently died at the hospital in this village.

Mrs. Nayton, whose Indian name is Nece-de-nice, had been picking cranberries in company with several other Indians, on some lowland north of Hackensack. The party got on the railroad right-of-way and had their bundles placed close to the rails, when the passenger train came in from the south. Mrs. Nayton struggled with her bundles in an endeavor to get them far enough from the track, she failed to get out of the way of the train and was hit by the pilot of the locomotive, the wheels of the engine mangled her right leg and left arm.

The train was stopped and the Indian woman was placed on the cars and brought to Walker. She was taken to the Walker hospital, where the injured leg and arm were amputated. The woman's injuries were such that an operation was of no benefit, and she died at 9:30 last evening.

The body of the dead woman was taken to Ojibwa Lake, Leech Lake Indian agency, and will be interred in the Indian burial ground.

BOY IS FINED.

Muled for Ten Dollars Because He Shot Muskrats Too Soon.

Bemidji, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—A. G. Rutledge has returned from Akeley, where he had been to investigate some reports of alleged violations of the state game laws.

The warden went to Akeley and drove to Kabeokan lake, and found a cabin where a man named Lukenbill and his son, David, were camped. The son was the only occupant of the cabin at the time of the visit of the warden. A number of muskrat hides were hung up in the cabin to dry, and the warden, seized a room in the Hotel Antlers, on learning that the Grand Forks, police authorities, were searching for him. On the night of his escape, Lukenbill was arrested on the charge of killing muskrats out of season, the lawful season not opening until Nov. 15.

Young Lukenbill was taken to Akeley, where he pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs for violating the law.

WRECK A TOUGH ONE.

Hard Task Clearing Away Debris in the East Grand Forks Yards.

East Grand Forks, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Great Northern railway has no small task before it in clearing away the wreckage of the Duluth Brewing company's building here.

The big 1,000 engine is buried almost to the cab, and is leaning heavily against the brewing company's structure. The engineers of the wrecking crew have a force of men digging a trench under the engine, and when this is completed the derricks will lift the iron monsters and the section men will construct a track. When the track is ready the engines will be put on the rails and pulled out.

It is understood that practically all of the railroad men who were involved in the wreck will be dismissed from the service of the company. Witnesses of the wreck and people who were near at the time of the crash, say that Engineer Larson, on the freight did not blow his whistle as he approached town, and consequently did not have the chance to stop on this account. Several discredited rumors as to the switchmen being in a certain place and not attending to business were circulated by persons who do not realize the seriousness of the accusations.

STATE SANATORIUM.

Two of Houses to be Erected This Year at Walker Completed.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—Three years ago the state legislature passed an act establishing a sanatorium for the care of tuberculosis cases. Mr. Walte, the contractor, has just completed the last two houses to be erected this year. These buildings are to be used for extreme cases. They are built in such a manner that the patient can receive all the benefits of camp life without enduring its hardships.

The sewer systems and waterworks are completed and the entire plant will be turned over to the state board of control next week for acceptance.

LANDMARK MUST GO.

Old Building in Wisconsin to be Torn Down.

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Tank cottage, the oldest frame building in Wisconsin, located on the west shore of the Fox river in this city, is to be torn down or removed from its present site this fall. The Green Bay Box & Lumber company owns the site and building and needs the land for yard purposes.

Efforts to preserve the cottage are to be made by the South Side Improvement association and the public grounds committee of the city council. The cottage was built early in the last century, and a much interesting history surrounds its early life. For its years, the cottage is in good shape, being of log construction. Citizens will try to have the building placed in Union park.

MANY LOGS WERE HELD BY DIETZ

Timber Long Held Up by "Outlaw" is Being Skidded.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. E. Moses of Northfield, Minn., has begun skidding the 5,000,000 feet of logs which John F. Dietz has been holding up in the Thornapple river during the past three years, and hopes to have them ready for hauling to the Flambeau river by the latter part of November. There are about 300,000 feet of logs on Dietz's farm, but these will not be touched by the contractor. The logs which will be floated down the Flambeau river will be saved in the mill here. The removal of these logs from the Thornapple river marks the close of the operations of the Mississippi River logging company in this river and also ends all contest between Dietz and the company, as the corporation will now have no further use for the Cameron dam, which was washed out two years ago. Dietz, however, still has to deal with the state, as there are three criminal warrants against him in the hands of Sheriff Clark of Sawyer county.

MARINE TUGS NOT REQUIRED

Major Fitch Will Not Order Vessels to Use Them.

Government Engineer Sends Reply to Request of Jobbers.

Major Graham D. Fitch will not order vessels to use tugs in proceeding to the docks in the upper harbor as was requested in a letter addressed to him by five of the large jobbing firms of the city Tuesday, regarding the frequent interruption of freight traffic by reason of collisions of vessels with the bridge between Duluth and Superior.

In his answer the letter Major Fitch explains that the expense of operating the vessels in the Duluth harbor would be too greatly increased by making it necessary for all to use tugs. Each vessel using a tug pays from $8.50 to $15 and as there are between 5,000 and 6,000 vessels using the harbor every year the total expense every year would be $90,000. It would also be necessary to have a larger fleet of tugs than is now necessary.

Major Fitch explained that everything has been done to operate the bridge safely by the government. A careful revision of the rules for vessels and bridges was made after the destruction of the interior bridge a year ago. A return signal must be given to boats by the bridge tender and the boats must proceed under full control. If the bridge is out of commission or cannot be opened the tender must give the danger signal to the vessel master in time for him to slow down. At present the Northern Pacific bridge is being practically rebuilt and the secretary of war has ordered that the spans across of seventy-five feet. This, it is expected, will obviate the danger of collisions in the future. The bridge repairs will be completed by the opening of navigation next season.

The fact that boats of the largest type can navigate the local harbor without the aid of tugs is one of the greatest results attained by the government in its improvements here, in Major Fitch's opinion. He claims that in ordinary weather the largest vessels can go clear up to the coke ovens without a tug. It is also claimed that tugs do not always interfere with the movement of boats and several instances of boats hitting bridges are given in the communication.

Major Fitch suggests as one solution that the pier of the bridges be protected by additional construction, such as fenders or sheer beams and he says that he believes the railroad company now has some such plan under consideration.

Diver Is Injured.
Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Oct. 10.—Owing to an accident to Diver Thomas Isbell, operations on the sunken steamer C. B. Fackell, sunk in Pigeon bay, were at a standstill the past week, it having been impossible to get anyone to take his place. Capt. Isbell was hurt while at work on the deck of the steamer, the pump (lifting water) was taken to the back, the flow affecting the left kidney so badly that he was obliged to go ashore for treatment. Isbell reports that there is only one more hatch to cover to complete the work under water.

Freighting Entry Approached.
The big dredge, Old Hickory of the Duluth-Superior Dredging company, was taken over to Superior yesterday and began working on the lake approach to the Superior entry. During good weather she will continue to work and as the weather conditions are such that she cannot work outside she will be operated inside the Superior harbor dredging out the Nemadji shoal.

Capt. Henrich Moves Office.
Capt. Frank Henrich, local compass adjuster, has established an office at 163 Board of Trade, where he will be within close call of the majority of the vessel owners at the Harbor. Capt. Henrich's office was formerly in the Providence building.

Grain Rates Advancing.
The grain trade remains about the same as it has been for the past week. Grain tonnage is in good demand but there are not many boats taking orders. Yesterday, the rate on barley went up 2 1/2 cents and that on wheat 1 1/2 cents. This rate is equal to 90 cents on ore but the vessel owners are still shy on chartering their boats.

Boats Have no Trouble.
Detroit, Oct. 10.—President Livingston of the Lake Carriers' association, states that the new boats for the Detroit river vessels at the mouth of the Detroit river is working smoothly, and is giving good satisfaction. The new boats are being run through was the steamer W. P. Snyder.

SHE QUIT

But it was a Hard Pull.

It is hard to believe that coffee will put a person in such a condition as it did a woman of Apple Creek, Ohio. She tells her own story.
"I did not believe coffee caused my trouble, and frequently said I liked it so well I would not and could not quit drinking it, but I was a miserable sufferer from heart trouble and nervous prostration for four years.
"I was scarcely able to be around, had no energy and did not care for anything. Was constantly and had a constant pain around my heart until I thought I could not endure it. For months I never went to bed expecting to get up in the morning. I felt as though I was liable to die at any time.
"Frequently I had nervous chills and the least excitement would drive sleep away, and any little noise would upset me terribly. I was gradually getting worse until finally one time it came over me and I asked myself what the use of being sick all the time and buying medicine so that I could indulge myself in coffee?
"So I thought I would see if I could quit drinking coffee and go to bed. I put in to help me quit. I made it strictly according to directions and I want to tell you that change was the greatest step in my life. It was easy to quit coffee because I had the Postum which I now like better than the old coffee. One by one the old troubles left, until now I am in splendid health, nerves steady, heart all right and the blood all gone. Never have any more nervous chills, don't take any medicine, can do all my housework and have done a great deal of extra work. 'There's a Reason.' Read 'The Road to Wellville' in packages.

Reason for the Search Light. People who did not know about William Mack's scheme for letting theatergoers know that the Mack-Leone players were holding forth at the Lyceum, wondered at the rays of a powerful searchlight which were being thrown about the city last night from the top of one of the high buildings.

WAS CAMPING IN THE CHURCH

Christ Peterson Escapes Drowning and is Arrested.

Christ Peterson, the man who narrowly escaped drowning in the slip back of the Marshall-Hills building Monday evening was brought to the central station last evening by Mattie Parolman, Redfish, who discovered the man cowering in a corner of the Methodist church, Ninth avenue east and First street.

Peterson gave some trouble at the hospital, and it was with some difficulty that he was compelled to leave that institution. He recently conceived the idea of accounting in the church without first consulting the members for the use of our last plans for comfortable domicile. He was arraigned on a vagrancy charge and released on $500 bond.

Robert McNaughton, to whom Peterson in all probability owes his life, states that he heard mournful sounds coming from the slip on Monday night at about 8:45, and upon investigating discovered Peterson in the water clinging to a rope which tied the ferry to the dock.

Mr. McNaughton flashed his lantern down, calling to the man to cling hard and he would be saved. With the assistance of J. H. Gary, Peterson was pulled up and the ferry boat by Mr. McNaughton and the police sent for. Two officers arrived and he was rolled on a barrel until revived. He was then taken to the hospital and when recovered declared to leave.

His mind seems to be affected and his chronic diarrhoea. For Chronic Diarrhoea. "While in the army in 1883 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief until Mr. A. W. Miles of this place persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by all druggists.

MASSONIC NOTICE. All members of Palestine and Ionia lodges A. F. & A. M. are requested to attend the 100th Anniversary of the founding of our order, to be held at 1400 p. m. for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late Brother Nels P. Olson. JAMES H. NELSON, Secretary.

EVILS RESULTING FROM CONSTIPATION. How This Trouble May Be Readily Corrected.

You are drowsy, heavy, loggy, lack energy—every exertion is an effort—your head is not clear and it is hard to think, you have a full and oppressed feeling in your stomach and bowels—your limbs and body ache—in fact, life seems hardly worth living under such conditions. Ask yourself, "Do your bowels move regularly?" If you feel as above your answer will be "No"—that is the cause of your troubles. If not properly corrected this condition will lead to much more serious disorders of the blood and body, due to the poisons in the waste matter which should be promptly expelled off.

And it seems so foolish to suffer when nature has provided her own wholesome and certain remedy in the pure Mineral Laxative Water—HUNGARIAN JANO'S—from the famous Springs in Hungary. Half a tumblerful of this wonderful water drunk in the morning (slightly warmed for best results) will give you within an hour a delightfully pleasant and complete movement. This will clear your head, sharpen your appetite and make a new man of you. Try it and see.

In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. Sold by all druggists.

An Interesting Time. At the races, Friday afternoon, Oct. 11.

Reason for the Search Light. People who did not know about William Mack's scheme for letting theatergoers know that the Mack-Leone players were holding forth at the Lyceum, wondered at the rays of a powerful searchlight which were being thrown about the city last night from the top of one of the high buildings.

Folks going home after dark with goodly loads of rye or other nose-paint aboard, thought they "had" 'em when they lit up with the brilliancy of day every once in a while. Many people gave explanations of the thing, but all did not know the true significance of the searchlight. The manager of the Mack-Leone players hit upon the plan as one to call attention to the fact that the Mack-Leone company was playing at the Lyceum.

FLOUR IS TO BE BOOSTED

Grocers Are Notified That Prices Are Going Up.

Bread Prices May Also be Increased by Bakers.

Housewives of Duluth should lay in a supply of flour this week, for unless they do, they will have to pay from 15 to 30 cents more a hundred pounds for it, and there are excellent chances of its going still higher.

A hundred pounds of the best patent flour can now be secured from local retail grocers at $3.15, but next week this price will advance to $3.30 for a hundred pounds, and the further advances will depend upon the condition of the cash wheat market.

Many grain men and millers are very bullish about the situation, and confidently expect to see cash wheat reach $1.25 for No. 1 northern in Duluth and Minneapolis before the next crop comes in. If it does go higher, flour prices will be boosted accordingly.

Every time there is a bulge of 5 cents in the price of cash wheat, the millers are obliged to increase the price of flour. The present advance is one of the most spectacular in years.

There is an undoubted shortage in the world's wheat crop, and prices are bound to maintain a high level. This means that consumers must pay a good price for flour.

Retailers have been notified by the big milling companies of the impending advance, and given an opportunity to order some goods at the old prices. Some of them have taken advantage of this chance to get their flour at the prevailing prices, and others will do so before tomorrow.

This will serve off the advance in retail prices until next week, most likely, but then the prices on the flour stacks will be marked up. All grades of flour will advance in price, as every grade of wheat used in milling is advancing.

The millers must increase the prices for their product in order to do business soundly, and the retailers, in turn, must put the prices to the consumer higher. Whether there will be any recession from the high level this winter will depend upon the price of wheat.

Flour men have warned me that the price of flour is going up and given me an opportunity to buy some at the present prices, so that prices to the retailer will not go up before next week," said M. M. Gasser, who is a big retailer of flour today. "Then, I suppose that some of us will be selling flour at the advanced prices when we bought it at the present level, but we have to take those profits now and then in order to break even for times when there is no profit at all. There is more profit in flour when it is cheap than when it is high."

"The market is certainly stronger than it has been in years and everyone must accept the advances in view of the fact, as a matter of course."

The next step will doubtless be an increase in the price of bread.

RAILROAD HAS ONE DAY MORE

Friday, Oct. 11, is the last day of grace for the acceptance of the Eastern Minnesota franchise to build and operate a double track elevated trestle of steel, iron, or stone, to be used for a steam railway bridge across the bridge of the Duluth & Superior Bridge company at Rice's Point.

Thus far nothing has been heard from the company, and it would appear that the franchise will be "decided with thanks" as intimated by the attorney of the road, J. Murphy of Superior.

Mr. Murphy stated today that he had forwarded copies of the proposed franchise to the company shortly after the passage of the same, but thus far nothing has been heard from them as to their intentions in the matter.

Asked as to his opinion whether or not the company will accept the franchise, Mr. Murphy replied, "I do not know." He expressed his opinion to the council, however, that the company would not accept the terms of the proposed franchise.

This matter has been hanging fire some time and was finally disposed of, so far as the council is concerned, on Aug. 12, when the ordinance was passed granting the company a franchise under certain conditions. The sixty days allowed for acceptance or refusal expires tomorrow.

CITIZENS SEEM TO FAVOR GROUPING OF BUILDINGS

Many of Those Inspecting Plans, Pleased With Them.

Some Object to the Expense and Possible Delay.

The alacrity with which the citizens are responding to the invitation of the courthouse commission and the architects to view the plans of the proposed new courthouse and the schemes for the grouping of the public buildings of Duluth, was demonstrated today by the steady stream of visitors to the rooms of the commission on the third floor of the Prudential building.

Just now the new courthouse seems to be an all-absorbing topic, and anywhere about the town, where two or three citizens are gathered together it may be correctly surmised that they are discussing the plans and the schemes which Burnham & Co., the architects, have submitted for a grouping of the public buildings.

The water color picture of the proposed courthouse and the floor plans brought here by the Chicago architects, seem to meet with general approval from all who have seen them. The idea of a solid, substantial, business like structure, yet one that has been designed enough along the old classic lines of architecture strikes the fancy of Duluth people generally, in a pretty favorable light, and so far as expressed, public sentiment seems to approve of the idea that Burnham & Co. have developed in the way of a courthouse.

Seem to Favor It. Expressions of opinion show, too, that there is a strong sentiment among the local taxpayers, at least, for the grouping plan for the public buildings. With hardly an exception those citizens who have been asked for an opinion declare that the grouping plan would be a fine thing, that it should be carried out if the proper amount of territory and provide the funds necessary to carry through the plan, said City Attorney Bert Fealer, this morning, with reference to the grouping plan. It seldom happens in a period of many years that we are confronted with a situation where the county, municipality and government are all about to make some building improvement. The city has been calling for plans for an additional story to the city hall; the government has bought more land on which to erect another federal building, and the county is planning a new courthouse. It may be twenty-five years or more before there is such an other combination of circumstances, and the time seems to be propitious for the working out of the grouping scheme. The city hall property on Superior street is increasing in value, it can very easily be remodeled into a block for commercial uses and would, in event the city should decide to build a new city hall elsewhere, provide no inconsiderable amount of funds for that purpose. It is believed that the idea should be given careful consideration at this time.

"Although I have not yet seen the plans," said Judge W. D. Edson, "I have been much impressed by the general statement in the papers concerning the grouping plan. It seems to me to be a good policy to have the public buildings in the city so located with reference to each other that business transactions can be carried on quickly and conveniently. The county and the city are, probably, in a position where the matter of finance would not stand in their way, but the question is whether it would not require a long time to bring the government into the scheme. The government usually moves very slowly in such matters."

J. P. Johnson's Idea. "The grouping plan is a very attractive one," said J. P. Johnson, clerk of the district court of St. Louis county, "but the question is whether a working out of the scheme might not mean another long delay in the starting of the construction work of the new courthouse. Anybody who has visited the present courthouse will realize that the county officers are now working at a great disadvantage. They are cramped for office room and the vault room is wholly inadequate."

Have No Money. "Of course, it is beautiful," said Capt. Ray T. Lewis, "but so is the palace at Versailles beautiful. We could spend $10,000,000 on a courthouse if we had it but we are not in a position to do that. What we want is a building that will fulfill the requirements of the county's business and the cost of which is within our means. This talk about taking up Fifth avenue west and all that sort of thing is all rot and I would not take the time to go to see any such plans."

The courthouse planned by the architects will utilize all of the ground when the county has purchased for the purpose and makes no provision for the county jail. The inference is given that the retaining position of the north half of the block, now occupied by Capt. McDougall's residence, will have to be purchased by the county if the jail is to be located in proximity to the new courthouse.

Anything that will tend to cause a further delay in the building of a new courthouse scarcely seems the right thing. The plan which the architects have presented for a building on the site already purchased by the county, seems to me to be a splendid one in every way and just about what we need. It strikes me that it would be a good thing for the commission to go ahead and erect the courthouse on the site already purchased, according to the plans, then if the city, a little later, decided to build, let it purchase ground in the vicinity of the courthouse and federal government building."

Hanford Enthusiastic. "There is nothing like it," said H. H. Hanford, the well known real estate man, discussing the proposed grouping plan. "I have always been in favor of the grouping of public buildings. Years ago an act was passed by the legislature providing for the purchase of the block where the Wolvin building now stands, as the site for the city, county and federal buildings, but the East owners kicked it over. At that time they had not given the idea that the business center would move Eastward."

"I am very much in favor of the grouping plan," said Beriah Macguffin, who saw the plans this morning. "I think the plan is a very good one. It would be in favor of taking ground from First street as far up the hill as the alley between Second and Third streets and between Fourth and Sixth avenues west, to provide suitable locations for the groupings of the public buildings."

Where Is Money Coming From? "I think the plan showing the grouping of the public buildings is fine," said Assistant United States Engineer John H. Darling. "It is an idea that is being carried out by the larger municipalities all over the country. The only question in my mind is 'How are we to meet the bill?'"

"It is a fine idea," said Roger S. Munger, who inspected the plans today. "I have always been a lover of the architecture and favor the grouping of all public buildings, with respect to convenience and harmony."

Have No Money. "Of course, it is beautiful," said Capt. Ray T. Lewis, "but so is the palace at Versailles beautiful. We could spend $10,000,000 on a courthouse if we had it but we are not in a position to do that. What we want is a building that will fulfill the requirements of the county's business and the cost of which is within our means. ## WILL PASS ON PLANS

Steel Corporation Officials Will Discuss the Building Scheme.

Street Railway Extension Plans Awaiting Outcome of Meeting.

Next Monday Eastern experts of the steel corporation will arrive in the city for the purpose of going over and passing on the building scheme for the big plant at Spirit Lake.

While the general site has been selected, the exact location of the individual buildings is to be finally decided upon at the meeting next Monday.

It is understood that the joint meeting of the council committee and the street railway company for the purpose of discussing ordinances passed at recent meetings of the council will not be held until after the steel corporation officials meet, and they will be consulted as to what will be best suited to their interests relative to the street railway extension.

The street railway company seems anxious to extend its lines to the big plant and to make the desired improvement asked for in the two ordinances, but it stated that until the exact location of the company's buildings is determined and the building scheme finally decided and passed upon by the railway company cannot act intelligently along some lines.

The matter will be taken up shortly after the ordinances discussed carefully with an idea of serving the best interests of all concerned.

F. L. Young, Local Architect, Has Advocated "Grouping Plan."

The idea of D. H. Burnham & Co. for the grouping of the public buildings of the city with reference to convenience and harmony of architecture, and the construction of the new courthouse at the end of a vista, is not original with the Chicago architects.

Some months ago Architect F. L. Young of this city suggested a similar plan of grouping with the courthouse built directly on the present corner of Fourth avenue west and Second street, the necessary portions of the avenue, First street and the alley to be vacated for the purpose. Mr. Young's idea was taken up by a number of the local citizens and was received with much favor.

Why Colds Are Dangerous. Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold, but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by all druggists.

NEWS ON THE IRON RANGES

PUSH WORK ON HIBBING SEWER

Contractor McDonnell Succeeds in Getting Men to Work.

Hibbing, Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Contractor McDonnell is pushing the construction work on the new sewer system being laid in Hibbing at a rapid pace. The main sewer is completed as far as Railroad street, the deepest and hardest part of the work being finished, although up to the present time progress has been slow. The work done has been very satisfactory. Mr. McDonnell has met with many obstacles, not the least of which was securing help, but this has been overcome to a large degree and there is now a large crew of men at work on the job. From now on it is expected that the laying of the sewer will go on rapidly as it will not be necessary to dig so deep and the contractor is of the opinion that by the middle of December the work on the main sewer will have been completed.

As yet there has been nothing definite done in regard to the extension of time for the completion of the job asked for by the contractor. It is understood that the council will grant the request as soon as the consent of all parties concerned has been granted. The additional time asked for by Mr. McDonnell is to the end of the year and it is expected that the city council will be ready to grant the request at their next meeting. When the main sewer on Third avenue is completed, the remainder of the work will not consume any great amount of time, as the sewer on the side streets will be smaller and will not be laid so deep. With no bad luck the entire system will be completed before spring and Hibbing will have the best sewer system on the range. Contractor McDonnell is still looking for men to add to his crews here and is paying $2.50 per day for common laborers. There have been a few minor changes made in the original plans for laying the sewer, but none of importance.

THIRD TRAIN IS IN GREAT FAVOR

Eveleth Business Men Say They Will Benefit
by It.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The action of the Business Men's association in voting that a committee be appointed to communicate with the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Pacific toward establishing a third train, has been met with approval by the traveling public who visit Eveleth and find little time to transact business on the range, because of the comparatively long time between incoming and outgoing trains. Traveling businessmen have made it customary to pay a lawyer's expenses to Duluth, rather than making the trip to the range town.

Agent Irwin of the Missabe railroad, made a canvass of the town some time ago to find out whether the time of the 12:47 p. m. train could not advantageously be changed to later in the afternoon, but it is reported that many expressed themselves as satisfied. That sentiment is being carried over to the business men who wish to do business in Duluth and return on the same day. At present, arriving at 10:30 a. m. and leaving at 2:40 p. m., the time margin is generally admitted as insufficient. With a later train out from Duluth, much more would be accomplished.

The promoters of the third train claim that the mail service would also be greatly improved by giving the merchant his mail at 7:30 a. m. instead of 11:30 as it now is.

ROBUST HEALTH.

Great Remedy Cured Skin Disease of Long Standing.

Mr. J. Weber, of 1065 Vine street, San Jose, Cal., writes an interesting story of terrible skin suffering which ended in robust health when he found a remedy which cured him like magic. Here is Mr. Weber's own story: "In July, 1906, my face began to be affected with a terrible skin disease. I went to a doctor, and he told me that I had been poisoned and wanted to operate on me. I refused to let him do so and after a few months my face was an awful sight. You could see that I was diseased to the bone. Some people claimed that I had cancer. Great boils would appear, increasing in size and pain. I began to doctor again, but no one could help me; large pimples and boils would continue to come. At that time I had as many as ten on my face. I was such a terrible sight that my friends could not bear to see me. I doctored for five years until my funds gave out and I had to stop. During this time I tried over 300 remedies.

"One day I happened to hear of D. D. D. Prescription and learned that it had cured several bad cases of Eczema. I purchased a bottle and then I got a second bottle. The use of five bottles cured me. It has been over a year now and the disease has not returned. My friends ask what it was that cured me of the awful skin trouble and I answer that it was D. D. D. which healed me."

We know that every word of the D. D. D. Prescription, the great remedy for eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, dandruff, etc., because all the cures it has made appear to be lasting. Come in and talk to us about this remedy. Lyceum Pharmacy, Duluth, Minn.

CITIZENS NOW HAVE CHANCE TO DECIDE THE KIND OF COURTHOUSE THEY WANT

GROUND PLAN PROPOSED FOR GROUPING OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS IN THE TWO-BLOCK SITE.

The courthouse commission was "at home" yesterday afternoon to citizens and taxpayers who were interested in viewing the four schemes which Burnham & Co., architects, have planned for the new St. Louis county courthouse. A large number of people took advantage of the opportunity and E. R. Graham and Pierce Anderson of the firm of architects, were busy nearly all the afternoon in explaining the plans.

The members of the commission and the architects are desirous that the people whose taxes are to build the new county building, shall look over the drawings and express their opinion relative to the different schemes presented. Toward that end Messrs. Graham and Anderson, who expected to return to Chicago last evening, consented to remain over until this evening.

The drawings are on quite a large scale, the perspectives being done in color. One scheme or plan contemplates a four-story building, the east half of the block containing the present courthouse. The other scheme contemplates a four-story structure along classic lines and bearing, in a general way, a similarity to the style of architecture found in the custom house and public library in New York, as well as other public buildings over the country, of comparatively recent style of architecture. This building, it is said, will meet the present requirements of the county and the cost would fall within the $700,000 limit fixed by the county board.

The second plan provides for a courthouse for the future business fifteen or twenty years from now, one with eight courtyards instead of four, and other things in proportion. The cost of this building would exceed the $700,000 limit, in fact it would cost nearer $1,400,000.

The third and fourth schemes provide for a grouping of the public buildings of Duluth, the courthouse, the federal building and the city hall, with those buildings as the units. One of these plans contemplates the utilization of the two entire blocks bounded by First and Second streets and Fourth and Sixth avenues west, including the vacation of that portion of Fifth avenue west and the alleys within those limits. According to this plan the courthouse will occupy the upper portion of the block and the city hall, located at the end of a vista looking up Fifth avenue west. On either side, in the lower corners, are planned the federal building and the city hall, the idea being to do away entirely with the old federal building.

An Elaborate Plan. The fourth scheme contemplates the grouping idea on a still larger and more elaborate scale, and includes the four blocks bounded by First and Third streets and Fourth and Sixth avenues west. This plan provides for a larger grouping of public buildings, and would, it is claimed, afford the opportunity for Duluth men of wealth to follow the lead of wealthy citizens elsewhere, who have contributed large sums for public buildings of one sort or another.

John O. Ferrie, who is prominent in the business affairs of Burnham & Co., and who designed the Court of Honor at the World's fair, as well as many other notable pieces of architecture, gave The Herald the following statement, last evening: "Our visit at this time is for the purpose of showing the commission and the people here the four schemes we have prepared, and a view of getting their ideas about them, find out what is wanted, and then make the final plans in accordance with those ideas."

"We shall leave the four schemes here in Duluth for a week or ten days, with eight courtyards instead of four, and other things in proportion. The cost of this building would exceed the $700,000 limit, in fact it would cost nearer $1,400,000."

NEGLECTED COLDS
EXTREMELY DANGEROUS

Very Instructive Lecture at Mothers Conclave.

At the recent mothers' convention at Jamestown, the meeting was addressed by the venerable Dr. Hartwell, the Southern physician of national reputation. The principal topic of his lecture was the necessity of prompt attention to what most persons neglect, namely, common colds. He stated that three-fourths of the dread diseases of the present day have their origin in common colds which when they get into an acute and feverish state render the system liable to the attack of almost any disease with which it may come in contact.

He also stated that his long experience has taught him that the most effective remedy for the quick relief of chronic and acute coughs and colds and throat troubles is pine and adonis which is known to the profession as Concentrated Oil of Pine.

This is to be used in the following formula: Two ounces of glycerine, one-half ounce Concentrated oil of pine, half pint of first-class whiskey; these to be mixed and used in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours, shaking the bottle well each time. The ingredients are obtainable at any good prescription drug dist and easily mixed at home. Care should be taken to get only the Concentrated Oil of Pine which comes put up for dispensing in half ounce vials securely sealed in round birch wood cases. The cheap adulterated medicine imitations usually cause nausea and other undesirable complications.

TOO ENTHUSIASTIC.

Virginia, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Gerda Johnson of Duluth, and Fred Johnson of this city, were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at their residence on Poplar street. Rev. F. O. Hanson of the Swedish Lutheran church, performed the ceremony. They went to housekeeping at once. During a charivari which was given there Tuesday night, some one of the celebrating party struck the plate glass window in the front of their home and shattered it.

EVELETH EVENTS.

Ladies Aid, Minister Reassigned and Other Current Happenings.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church has arranged with the Columbia Tennesseans to give their quaint musical entertainment at the hall opera house next Saturday evening, Oct. 12, for the benefit of the church.

Rev. R. J. Taylor has been re-assigned to the Eveleth ministry. The Episcopal charge for the coming year is organized. The following members of the Northern Minnesota conference of the Methodist Episcopal church met recently in Minneapolis.

At the Presbyterian church the Christian Endeavor society has been re-organized. The following members have been elected for the year: President, James Murray; vice president, Miss Noel; recording secretary and why it should not fall in line with the other large cities over the country, which are now turning their attention to the grouping plan of their public buildings, a scheme which has for its good points the orderly and convenient arrangement of the buildings in an attractive manner. This is yet a young city, younger by far than some of the large cities that are now giving attention to the scheme suggested, but this is additional reason why the city, growing as it is, with such a low of wealth through it at the present time, and a future destined to bring a larger flow, should not begin immediately to build for the future.

"Convenience for transacting public business, together with harmony of arrangement is the thing sought after nowadays and it is the wise city or county administration that buys its real estate with the future in view, for property in this city can be purchased much cheaper now than fifteen or twenty years from now."

"With a country of the wealth of St. Louis county and a city as prosperous as Duluth, it would seem strange that a few thousand dollars should stand in the way of an improvement that is to be made, not for the present alone, but for future generations."

"The schemes proposed contemplate the substantial assistance of the government. This assistance, I believe, will be given, as the government has thus far shown a liberal spirit in the case of other cities which have been giving the idea of municipal improvement."

"It is not the idea that all this scheme we propose can be worked out all at once. What we intend is the construction of public buildings, the new courthouse, for instance, along lines and on a location that will be in harmony with the grouping when other public buildings shall have been erected."

"An illustration of their point this architects have prepared a drawing of the proposed new courthouse on the site now owned by the county and of the old federal building now standing in the west half of the block.

the new system, decided the abutting property shall be assessed 6 cents per foot of sixty for a twenty-five foot lot. This is considered very cheap and property owners are satisfied that the village authorities have kept the expense down to a minimum.

WAS MATT LOZKA.

Identity of Miner Killed in Leetonia Mine is Established.

Hibbing, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Subsequent investigation shows that the man run down by a train of empties at the Leetonia mine Tuesday was Matt Lozka, who has a family at Kelly Lake. Lozka, when struck, was pulled out of the railroad tracks by the approach to the pit while one train was backing into the pit and another was pulling out. He died of the train pulling out, but did not see the empties, probably thinking the noise it made was by a train crossing overhead on the bridge.

LIKE MR. SWINNERTON.

Regret in Hibbing Over His Transfer to Cloquet Church.

Hibbing, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The announcement in The Herald of the transfer of Rev. Rupert Swinnerton, pastor of the Mahoning Street Methodist church, leaving upon by the Minnesota conference, was read here with considerable interest.

Mr. Swinnerton has a large circle of friends in this city who will regret to learn that he will not return to Hibbing for another year. He was an enthusiastic worker in the church and accomplished much for its good during the two years as pastor of the local church. Rev. J. F. Pickard, formerly of Hutchinson, Minn., will succeed Mr. Swinnerton.

Mr. Pickard will arrive in the city this week and will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning for the first time. He is held in high esteem by the people of Hutchinson and will undoubtedly meet with success in his new field.

SPARTANS CONFIDENT.

Citizens Believe They Hold Trump Card in Matter of Townsite Change.

Sparta, Minn., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Now that it is an assured fact that Sparta is to be moved in the near future, there is considerable speculation as to what valuation real estate will have in the new town. When the citizens met with the Steel corporation officials, the latter stated that the people holding lots in the present location would be given $100,000 for the lots they held. This offer, after all that had been supplied would be sold at a very reasonable figure, as the officials stated they were not interested in the ore business. This undoubtedly will be looked on with disfavor by promoters of the Gilbert townsite. The townsite is now being put up the hill from the railroad, as they opened their auction sale some time ago by having two lots bid in by a blind bidder for $1,000. This was the only bid received that was considered. People are pointing out it is sold at a low price in Sparta, where they have advantage of railroad, electric light, water

Two Men Meet Death in the Vicinity of Proctor.

The lifeless and mangled bodies of two men, railroad employees, lie at the Stewart undertaking rooms awaiting instructions from relatives as to the disposition of their remains.

They were both literally ground to death under the wheels of a heavily loaded cars yesterday afternoon and died within a few hours of each other at St. Mary's hospital.

W. A. Shocklee, aged 24 years, employed as brakeman on the Duluth, Missabe & Northern, slipped and fell from the top of a car between two cars at Proctor and received internal injuries from which he died at St. Mary's at about 6 o'clock last evening. His body was horribly crushed and he never regained consciousness.

His relatives live in Sioux, Mo., and efforts have been made to communicate with them.

A man walking along the Missabe tracks near Proctor yesterday afternoon was run down by a heavily loaded train and his body fearfully mangled. His arm was nearly torn from the socket, face crushed and both lower limbs torn from the trunk. In spite of these terrible wounds the man retained consciousness and was brought to this city on a freight train.

He was hurried to the hospital and efforts made to operate upon him, but he died at about 7 o'clock. Nothing on his person would lead to an identification. The remains were taken to Stewart's undertaking rooms and will be prepared for burial.

SLIGHT GAIN IN PIG IRON

Production for September Somewhat Greater, With Market Dull.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Iron Age says: Pig iron production is continuing at the recent gain, in fact, there has been a slight gain in September. The weekly capacity was 311,397 tons Oct. 1, as compared with 307,788 tons Sept. 1, two new furnaces, the Lorain and the Indiana, having started. The September production of anthracite and coke iron was 2,132,478 tons in August. The steel works product was 1,147,153 tons in September and 1,455,935 tons in August. The mills of the United States Steel corporation broke all records of steel production Oct. 2, the output reaching 48,326 tons of ingots that day. There have been some modest accumulations of pig irons in some sections, but generally speaking, furnace yards are bare. It is the avowed purpose of the Steel corporation not to accumulate iron, when the time of lessened finished output comes, but to blow out furnaces as the requirements for pig iron fall off. The pig iron markets through the country are dull. While in some quarters a slight improvement in orders for finished products has been observed, so far this month, as compared with September, others complain that business for forward delivery is small. In billets in the Chicago district at lower prices, but in other sections the business in steel is at a standstill. Bethlehem has taken an order for 15,000 tons of open hearth steel rails from the Lehigh Valley. The Santa Fe road has placed some work with the Colorado and Illinois works, the latter taking 6,000 tons. The Wisconsin and Northern has placed 6,500 tons, and other contracts for 5,000 tons have been awarded. The Panama lot of 4,300 tons has gone to the Maryland Steel company.

In structural steel a good deal of work is in sight, but there is much delay in its coming out, and the work has been exceptionally quiet. For two lake boats, 7,000 tons of plates and shapes have been contracted for. Bids for European cast iron pipe works for work in Panama have been a surprise to American works, the figures being $7 below our own. A further decline has taken place in copper, and apparently efforts to support the metal market have been given up.

WILL DOUBLE ADMISSION FEE

It Will Cost More to Join Y. M. C. A. Next Year.

It will cost more to be a member of the Duluth Y. M. C. A. after the first of next year, when the new building will be formally opened, as it has been decided to double the membership fees. The board of directors of the association so ruled at the quarterly meeting last evening at the old association building.

An admission fee of $5 a year is charged at present, and this will be increased to $12 with a renewal fee of $10. A limited membership will be allowed to enter at the rate of $6 a year, but this will not include the privilege of using the gymnasium and bath. It will cost $5 to renew one's membership in this class.

An active campaign to increase the membership of the association was planned at the meeting last evening. Every effort will be made to add several hundred names to the rolls.

The board of directors were beaming over with enthusiasm when the new building was discussed, and this discussion took up most of the evening, going a little beyond the usual routine being done. Only the interior work on the building still remains and this will be rushed to completion as soon as possible.

ARE CONVICTED OF ROBBERY

Smith and Adams Case Keeps Jury Out Ten Hours.

It required a ten hours' session before the jury in the robbery case of the state against Edward Smith and Joseph Adams could reach a verdict. Smith and Adams were found guilty of robbery in the second degree. The men were charged with holding up Oscar Olson in the alley back of the Denver lodging house, and robbing him of 35 cents.

Olson admitted that he was drunk at the time and he could not identify the accused, who had been robbing him. The two men were convicted on the testimony of a bartender, named Erickson, who claims that he had his attention attracted to them early in the evening and later saw them take Olson into the alley and relieve him of his money.

CONFESSES TO ROBBERY

Wife of Millionaire Admits That She is a Thief.

She Implicates Negro and White Man in Her Crimes.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—In a remarkable confession to the police, Mrs. Charles J. Romadka of Milwaukee, wife of a millionaire manufacturer, admitted that she was responsible for a series of burglaries and petty thefts that have baffled the authorities for weeks. Mrs. Romadka's confession followed her arrest on a charge of robbing the C. E. Beck, where jewelry valued at more than $1,000 was stolen. She implicated in her peculiarities, a man named Jones and a man known as Ralph Smith.

The former is a well-known street car thief and the latter is a well-known petty thief. In her confession Mrs. Romadka said that her first theft was committed in April. "I saw an advertisement in a paper," she said, "for a trained nurse. I went to the home of Mrs. David P. Baker, 454 Forestville avenue, and secured the position. I stayed there about a day and a half, stealing a diamond ring, a diamond bracelet and a silver cane case."

After relating several similar experiences, she said that she had stolen a diamond ring, a diamond bracelet and a silver cane case. "I stayed there about a day and a half, stealing a diamond ring, a diamond bracelet and a silver cane case. I went to the home of Mrs. David P. Baker, 454 Forestville avenue, and secured the position. I stayed there about a day and a half, stealing a diamond ring, a diamond bracelet and a silver cane case."

Attorney F. Donovan of Milwaukee, who represents the woman's husband and who in a court, says that Mrs. Romadka went to Milwaukee from Oshkosh when she was 19 years of age. She was married to Charles J. Romadka, the ceremony taking place at Oshkosh. According to the attorney, the new life to which Mrs. Romadka had been introduced after turning the woman's back on her husband and her home in Oshkosh, she insisted upon moving to New York or Chicago. After much opposition her husband permitted her to come to Chicago.

She brought with her her daughter, then a baby, and was kept well supplied with money by her husband. Mrs. Romadka was arrested Saturday evening at a downtown restaurant after jewelry worth $1,000 was found on her person. She was recognized by Mrs. Beck, wife of the C. E. Beck, who was a well-known street car thief. Mrs. Romadka was in the company of H. B. Jackson, a broker of Chicago and Mrs. Pincus, a well-known street car thief. She was introduced to Mrs. Beck by a man who was known to her as "Ralph Smith." Mrs. Beck refused to give a statement until she had been allowed to return to her home at a hotel. Later, however, she was arraigned on a charge of robbing the C. E. Beck. Information secured from Jones, after his arrest last night, Mrs. Romadka was taken into custody and her confession was then made. She was held at the Harrison street police station.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Duluth Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action. Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Duluth people testify to this. H. G. Hibke, clerk in the Northern Pacific R. R. freight house and living at Hunter's Park, Duluth, Minn., says: "In a testimonial given by me in 1898, which has been published often in the Duluth papers, I told how Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a severe attack of kidney complaint from which I had suffered for a long time. I believe that it was brought on in the first place by exposure to all kinds of weather and the jarring of driving. Backache set in and the pains and aches made stooping and lifting very painful. When I took cold it settled in my back and aggravated the trouble. The kidney secretions became disordered, irregular and contained a sediment. I also had frequent attacks of headaches. However, as I have emphatically declared in a testimonial given in 1898, Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of all these conditions and today not a symptom of my former trouble remains."

SYNO HARD AT ITS WORK

Presbyterians of State Have Begun Their Annual Sessions.

Dr. Bushnell of Minneapolis, Retiring Moderator, Gives Sermon.

Rev. John E. Bushnell, pastor of Westminster church, Minneapolis, opened the sessions of the Presbyterian synod of Minnesota at the First Presbyterian church last evening, when, as retiring moderator, he preached a stirring sermon to his fellow-workers and their friends.

His plea was for the older kind of religion, wherein the God played the all-important part and was not a secondary consideration. He said that there were many things about life today which did not please him and that he believed that God himself was not satisfied with conditions as they exist today.

Dr. Bushnell thinks life should be made sweeter and that we should remind ourselves that a terrible disease demands a great physician and that a great misery and a great despair demands a great evangelist.

"One thing is fundamental and it was fundamental when Adam sinned," said Dr. Bushnell, "and that is that you cannot find any method of bettering men by placing at their disposal material things and complete confession of sins."

"Men are willing to confess the sins of the society which they move but they do not like to mention their own. You cannot improve the world when you have to deal with men who have never trembled before God. People are absorbed too much in the things of the world and while they don't deny that there is a God, they forget it."

"Life is so busy; life is throbbing with so many feverish pleasures that it is hard to get outside this world of shining lights to think of homely, priceless things like an eternal life. I wonder if the world will recover its sanity?" "The message of the pulpit today is telling the world that there is no antidote whereby men who give reign to lust and every kind of vice can escape the consequences and eternal ruin. In the great war of sin and evil, he that sows must reap."

However, Dr. Bushnell is optimistic concerning the future. He thinks that the work of the church will be spoken in the coming years, as well as from the pulpit. Rev. Willard Ward of Crookston, was elected moderator of the synod to succeed Dr. Bushnell. Rev. A. H. H. Laverne, is permanent clerk and Dr. M. D. Edwards of St. Paul assisted clerk. Brooks Hilditch of Minneapolis was elected temporary clerk, to assist Rev. Mr. Carver.

"Evangelism and Evangelism" is the general topic the synod is discussing today, and the subject of the evening session was "The Sabbath school and its work." The morning session today opened at 9:30 with the singing of hymns. Rev. B. Latimer preached on "Is It Worth While?"

Most of the morning was devoted to routine business matters and the discussion of the subject of the evening session. The speakers were: Rev. J. E. Horton, secretary of the Bible society, who spoke on "The Work of the Bible Society Among Foreign People"; Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D. D., representative of the evangelists, who spoke on "The Home Mission Jubilee"; and Rev. Robert N. Crahan, D. D., representative of the Home Missions, who gave an address on "Home Missions."

This evening, when the Sabbath school will furnish the topic of discussion, W. M. Locker, secretary of the Minnesota Sunday school association, will speak on "Training the Sabbath School Teacher." Henry Noble Wilson, D. D., will deliver an address on "The Sunday School and the Church."

The evening session will conclude with "Brief Addresses From the Pulpit Line" and a communion service.

Following is the program for tomorrow: 8:30 a. m.—Devotional half hour. Subject: "Mind of Christ."

CUBS GET ONE VICTORY

National League Champions Defeat Detroit Tigers, 3 to 1.

American Leaguers are Unable to Bunch Hits Off Pfeister.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The Chicago National league team defeated the Detroit Tigers in the second game of the series for the world's championship yesterday afternoon. The score was 3 to 1. Slow pitching and several slight accidents caused the contest to drag over two hours, the delays which again filled almost every man of seating room.

The local team discarded the new gray uniforms in which they appeared yesterday, appearing in their usual and worn white home uniforms. The change seemed to put them more at ease and also apparently benefited the Detroit players, for both teams played more steadily than in the opening day. After the first four and a half innings had dragged through an hour and thirty-five minutes some sparkling hitting and sharp hitting and base running hastened the contest to an end.

Mullin and Pfeister were the pitchers and Paine went behind the bat in place of Schmidt. Otherwise both teams lined up as on the previous day. Schmidt's retirement was due mainly to his inaccuracy in throwing, but in this respect the change brought some improvement as the five stolen bases credited to the local team testify.

Playing conditions were improved for the second game as the crowd numbering 21,501 as against 24,000 Tuesday, while warm sunshine and the absence of the chill breeze of the first day kept the spectators and players in more comfort. While wind there was blow across the diamond and added the play more than it hindered it.

The receipts for yesterday's game as announced by Secretary Bruce of the national committee last night, were $35,480. The players will next receive $34,272.30 and each club is entitled to the extent of $4,706.46. The national committee receive the balance $2,627.

BIDDING FOR SKI TOURNEY

Munising and Houghton Are Already in the Game.

Duluth Club Preparing for Great Event in January.

A merry contest for the honor of entertaining the National Ski association in 1909 is promised at the annual meeting of the association to be held in connection with the big national tournament here the latter part of January. The selection of a place for each season of the association always brings on a contest, but at the meeting here, it promises to be warmer than ever. The towns are getting into the game early and they promise to stay until it is all over and the last vote counted.

Munising has been in the game for two years and the little Cleveland-Cliffs town on the shore of Lake Superior turns up smiling again this year, with many inducements and much determination. Munising has a fine crowd of ski riders for a little burg. They get right into every national tournament and take away a few of the lesser honors, usually, and, though they don't get the prizes, they make the winners put their best front on in order to surpass their marks. Munising is lively, takes a big interest in skiing and promises to show the national association a real tournament if given the chance.

Next comes Houghton with a bid for the tournament. The County town hasn't done much in the skiing line, but it hasn't the ski riders to enter. But in arranging a tournament, pulling it off and entertaining the ski riders and visitors, nobody has any doubt of Houghton's ability to make good. The businessmen there are talking of coming to Duluth in hordes and bidding for the tourney, and, if they do, many will think twice before voting against them. Houghton had always sent delegations to the Ishpeming tournaments, before the location of the annual event moved to here. Skiing has spread to a point where many of the big cities are bidding for the tournaments, so the little town will have a chance to get in some good work next year, at least.

The local ski club is preparing to spend a good deal of money on their grounds near Chester creek. Negotiations are for the purchase of twenty-four acres of ground, on which their slide is located, and the deal will probably go through. A fence, grandstand and a clubhouse will be constructed, and efforts will be made to have the Duluth tourney the biggest ever held in the United States.

TAKES SEVEN HEATS.

Tennessee Stake at Lexington Brings Out Great Racing.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 10.—General Watts yesterday easily won the Kentucky Turfity in three straight heats. At no time was the seat even extended, winning with his driver, Mike Bowerman, holding the lines in one hand. Kentucky Todd went to nothing when it came to a driving finish. The only struggle was between Biss, Baron McKinley and Bonnie. The latter won the first heat and the second and Bonnie the third heat in the unfinished 2:08 pace.

TWO FAVORITES WIN.

Copperfield and Deuchland Take Purse on Latonia Track.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 10.—Copperfield and Deuchland were the only winners at Latonia yesterday. Pomeroy, 20 to 1, won the second event in a drive from Marcus Aurelius. The track was slow.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

Old Northern League Will be Revived This Year.

Includes Twin Cities, Winona and La Crosse in Circuit.

"Winipeg, Grand Forks, Fargo, Winona and La Crosse will be conferred with and a meeting called in St. Paul or Minneapolis within the next two weeks for the reorganization of the old Northern league, with the Twin Cities included in its membership," said one of the owners of the Duluth franchise this morning. "The meeting will not be held next Sunday, however, as we have not reached a point in the negotiations yet where this meeting can be held."

We have the assurance of the American association that the Twin Cities will be in, the American association parks in both cities to be used and the schedule so arranged that the Northern league will not play there when the American association teams are at home. The old Northern league towns are anxious to get into the game again and Winona also wants a team. La Crosse is a probable. President Elliott of the La Crosse club sees a good opportunity for baseball there by entrance into the proposed new league, especially since Winona, an old rival of La Crosse, will be entered.

"I don't think we have lost a great deal by our failure to get into the Wisconsin State league. We would have dropped from Class C to Class D, and that's something. Then again, if this proposed new organization goes through, and I think it will, Duluth will see the fastest baseball it has seen in the history of the Northern league. An eight-club circuit will be a money maker all around, and at the same time it will give better baseball than any other arrangement we could make."

ENTERED IN BIG EVENT

Six Fast Pacers Will Go in Free-for-All Friday.

Last Race Matinee of Season Will be Good One.

The last race matinee of the year in Duluth and probably the final race meet of the season in Northern Minnesota will be held at the West end driving park tomorrow, when some of the best talent in the Northwest will step off a free-for-all, a 2:22 pace and a gentleman's driving race.

The different horses are just coming in after the fall racing season in fair towns throughout Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin and they are in the greatest shape possible, after good work on fast tracks. The free-for-all tomorrow will probably be the greatest race of the year on a Northwest track. Six of the fastest pacers brought together in this part of the state this year, will go and they should put up a great race. The entries are: Custer, 2:08, owned by Pat Chantelero, Iron River, Wis.; Dr. D., Lady Maid, 2:14, owned by G. W. Davis, Duluth; Little Jim, 2:14, owned by Frank Anley, Hibbing; Toney Boy, 2:16, and O. G., 2:18, owned by Elliott & Runquist, Duluth; Shamrock, 2:16, owned by H. C. Beck of Superior.

The 2:22 race will bring together Olive S., Bumble Bee, Kitty Roan, Kitty D., Dr. D., Lady Maid, Toney Boy, Mack and other fast pacers. In the gentleman's driving race, some good drivers, former stars of the track, will be entered. There are several horses in Duluth capable of going a good half mile, although their regular racing days are over, and there is considerable rivalry between their own Duluth lovers of horse racing have had little opportunity to enjoy the sport

BEELL AND GOTCH.

Two Great Wrestlers at the Metropolitan.

This evening at the Metropolitan opera house, where Frank Beell is appearing this week, Fred Gotch, the Wisconsin wonder, will go against the champion. It is not yet known whether the time limit will be placed at fifteen or thirty minutes, but it is improbable that Gotch will take the Marshall mat on at the lesser time limit. The usual $100 will be offered if Beell is able to stay the limit, playing purely on the defensive.

HOPE TO BEAT ST. CLOUD.

Coach Colton Gives First Team Hard Practice This Week.

The high school football squad was given strenuous practice last night at Athletic park. Ostergren, the right end, who was injured in practice Tuesday evening, may be out of the game for the season. In that case McFadden will be shifted to right end and Duncan placed at left end. Good hard work is necessary to fit the team for the game with St. Cloud Saturday, and Coach Colton and the boys are hopeful of winning.

more stringent canons on marriage and divorce.

Amendments without number were offered to the preamble, the most important of which was the substitution of words, "the word of God" for "the record of God's revelation of Himself in His son." A spirited debate followed before the amendment prevailed.

Later another amendment was carried which resulted in both expressions being adopted. The men's offering was announced at a great meeting last night. It amounted to $75,000, of which J. P. Morgan contributed $10,000.

FOLLOW THE HOTELS.

Appleton Boarding Houses Have Formed Trust to Raise Prices.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 10.—This city claims to have the distinction of the first boarding house trust in the country. Since the action of the hotels in the state, run on the American plan, in raising their rates from $2 to $2.25 and $2.50, all of the private boarding houses of the city have joined in a movement to increase their rates, and boarders received their first notice of an advance of 10 cents a week, to start next Monday. As there are 200 male students attending Lawrence university who board in the city, the advance will be felt.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

A good liniment or plaster, or some good home remedy will usually give temporary relief from the pain of Rheumatism, but the disease is more than skin deep and cannot be rubbed away, nor can it be drawn out with a plaster. Such treatment neither prevents nor cures the excess of acid, which produces Rheumatism, is still in the blood and the disease can never be cured while the circulation remains saturated with this irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The trouble will shift from place to place, settling on the nerves and causing pain and inflammation at every exposure or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. When neglected or improperly treated, Rheumatism becomes chronic and does not depend upon climatic conditions to bring on an attack, but remains a constant, painful trouble. S. S. S. drives out Rheumatism by neutralizing and expelling the excess of acid from the blood. It purifies and invigorates the circulation so that instead of an acid-laden stream, constantly depositing uric acid in the joints, muscles, nerves and bones, the entire system is nourished and made healthy by rich, life-giving blood. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired will be sent free to all who write.

FOLLOWED BY TOUGHS

Girls Molested by Hoodlums Near Old Oneota Depot.

USE RIFLES ON RIVER

People on Shores in Danger From Glancing Bullets.

Building is Nuisance and People Want It Removed.

Some People Will Rejoice When Hunting Season Ends.

The agitation for the removal of the old Oneota depot was given new impetus last night, when a gang of young hoodlums, hanging around the depot, gave chase to several young ladies returning to their homes from a meeting of the Epworth league of the Memorial church, at the parsonage.

They were walking along together, when a crowd of four or five young fellows appeared from the shadow of the building and started to follow them. The girls were followed a considerable distance by the toughs, who finally gave up the chase. The fellows may have only had in mind a scare, but the girls were badly frightened when they reached their homes. Rev. Briggs, pastor of the church, was notified, and he tried to get the police, but did not succeed immediately. When the depot was visited the crowd had disappeared.

The police have been notified now, however, and they will break up the gang. The occurrence was a serious one, as the young ladies were badly frightened, and serious results might have come of their fright.

The Oneota depot has been a thorn in the side of West Duluth for a long time past. When the Northern Pacific discontinued the use of it, it was turned over to an oil company for storage purposes, and for that reason it is doubly objectionable. The old frame structure is thoroughly saturated with oil, and so inflammable that, if it once took fire nothing could prevent a spread of the flames, as the firemen would not be able to approach it. The fact that cigarette smoking youngsters make it a loafing place makes the possibility of a fire more imminent, and the movement to have it removed, which was brought to the attention of the council last spring, will doubtless be taken up again, as a result of last night's outrage.

PASTORS ARE RETURNED.

Reassignment of Rev. Briggs and Rev. Grace Pleases.

Rev. S. G. Briggs, pastor of Merritt Memorial M. E. church, and Rev. Thomas Grace, pastor of Asbury church, have returned home after the annual conference of the Northern Minnesota district held at Minneapolis. Both Mr. Briggs and Mr. Grace were returned to West Duluth for another term, the former entering upon his fourth and the latter on his third year as pastors of their respective churches. Considerable satisfaction is expressed by the members of both churches over the return of their pastors. Both have won favor with their parishioners by ardent and effective work in the church cause and the departure of either would be sincerely regretted.

Likewise among the business men of West Duluth, pleasure is expressed over the return of the M. E. pastors. Mr. Briggs and Mr. Grace are well known to almost every business man in West Duluth, and they are held in high esteem by all, both as clergymen and as social and business friends. Under their direction, the two M. E. churches of West Duluth have progressed wonderfully in the last few years, and their reassignment is a recognition of conscientious effort.

Both he and his bride are popular among Duluth's colored population. They will make their home in West Duluth.

SENSATIONAL TURN GIVEN CASE OF MISSING HEIRESS

Helen Maloney Said to Have Been Married Twice.

First Time in 1905 to Arthur Osborn, Princeton Student,

Who Says That the Marriage Has Never Been Annulled.

New York, Oct. 11.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance, more than a week ago, of Helen Maloney, daughter of Martin Maloney, the Philadelphia millionaire, was given a highly sensational turn today. At the time of Miss Maloney's disappearance, Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman who had paid her marked attention, also dropped out of sight, and it was reported, and generally believed, that the couple had eloped and been married. Last night came the news from Montreal that the missing pair had appearance Is Causing a Sensation Among Society People of the East.

been married by a Catholic priest in that city, and then had returned to New York and sailed for Europe. Following the Montreal announce- ment comes the publication here to day of an unqualified statement from

Millionaire's Daughter Still Unknown.

Arthur Herbert Osborn, a young broker of this city, that Miss Maloney is his wife. According to Osborn, he and Miss Maloney were married Dec. 28, 1905, and the marriage never has been annulled. Osborn says records in the notary's office at Mamaroneck, which show that Herbert Osborn had married Helen Eugene on that date, will prove his statement. He said assumed names were used, because at the time Miss Maloney desired to keep the marriage a secret. The fact that the marriage had taken place did de-

ALL RECORDS ARE BROKEN

By the Steamship Lusitania of the Cunard Line.

Average Speed of Ship,
27.60 Land Miles
an Hour.

New York, Oct. 11.—Four days, nine- teen hours and fifty-two minutes out from Queenstown with every trans- Atlantic speed record in her possession, the majestic Cunard liner, Lusitania, swept by Sandy Hook lightship at 1:17 a. m. today and after a pause of the bar to await daylight, steamed slowly up the harbor to receive the recogni- tion of her right to the title of Queen of the Sea. Three records were writ- ten down in her log book, two of them wrested from the great German rivals of the Cunard and one from the swift Lusitania of her own line. They were the shortest time from any European port to New York, the fastest average speed for any trans-Atlantic voyage, 23.99 nautical miles per hour, and the longest daily run, 617 nautical miles. Translated into land miles her speed average for the run was 27.60 miles an hour. Her achievement is a triumph for British shipbuilding and sailors and may mark the passing of the old-fashioned reciprocating engine and the beginning of the universal installation of the turbines which have made it possible for this ship to carry all rec- ords by the boards.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—Detroit was baseball mad today. Thousands of enthusiastic baseball fans owned the city. They crowded the streets, the hotels, cafes, street cars and all other public places all morning, and this afternoon they crowded Bennett park for the fourth game between the De- troit team of the American league and the Chicago Nationals.

All reserved seats for both games had been sold out days ago, but the general admission patrons began to gather early, immediately after break- fast some made their way to the ball park and lined up before the gates. At 10 o'clock the sale of tickets began, and the gates were opened soon after. The weather during the morning was threatening, but the sun broke through the clouds at times and gave hope to the anxious fans.

The sky grew more cloudy as the morning passed, and about 11:30 o'clock a light shower fell in the down-pour section of the city. It last- ed but a few moments, and had no effect on the constantly increasing crowd which was streaming into the park avenue to the ball park. The temperature was in the neighborhood of 55 degs. at noon, and weather- observers forecast it would stay between 50 and 55 probably during the afternoon. He also said that while there might be a light shower or two during the game, he did not anticipate any rainfall heavy enough to interfere with the game.

The Chicago National league team spent the morning in their rooms at the Hotel Tux, where they had been assigned for their accom- modation. Occasionally a member of the team would get away from the lobby to a moment, but Manager Chance kept them away from the crowd of yelling, excited enthusiasts who filled the corridors of the hotel. All of the other hotels were likewise jammed with shouting men, with flags and banners. In the hotel Cadillacs the "rooters" from Chicago with their hand kept up a constant pandemonium uttering their songs with cheers for favorite players. Every train and suburban trolley car that arrived during the morning was filled with its capacity of baseball en- thusiasts, who hurried to the park to secure admission before it be- came crowded to its capacity.

At 1 o'clock, a light rain fell for about ten minutes at the ball park. An hour before the game started the park was about two-thirds filled. The Detroit and Chicago teams came onto the field together at 1 o'clock and Detroit immediately began bat- ting practice.

At 1:50, the sky had cleared and the sun was shining brightly at Bennett Park. Excepting a section of standing room behind center field, the park was crowded. Just before the game began, Mayor William Thompson presented to Manager Jen- nings at the plate, a huge floral tiger and a gold watch, on behalf of local admirers.

The batting order was announced as follows:

DETROIT.
Jones, 1f.
Schafer, 2b.
Crawford, 3b.
Cobb, rf.
Rossman, 1b.

FIRST INNING.
Chicago—Slagle flew out to O'Leary. Schekard singled to center. Schekard out, Schmidt to O'Leary, in attempt- ing to steal second. Chance was struck on the right hand by a pitched ball and the game was interrupted while he had it bandaged. One of the flin- gers was badly crushed, but he pluck- ily resumed play and went to first base. Chance stole second. Steinfeldt flied to Cobb. No runs.

Detroit—Jones walked. Schaefer sac- rificed. Overall to O'Leary. Jones flied to Cobb. No runs.

SECOND INNING.
Chicago—Kling struck out. Evers flied to Cobb. Schulte out to Crawford. No runs.

DETROIT—Rossman out. Overall to Chance. Coughlin singled to left. Schmidt hit to Tinker, who doubled Coughlin, unassisted, near second base. No runs.

DETROIT—O'Leary grounded to Tinker and was out at first. Donovan hit a short fly to right field and Schulte, by sharp fielding, threw him out at first. Jones bunted and was thrown out at first by Overall. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.
Chicago—Scheckard flied to Craw- ford. Chance grounded to O'Leary and was out at first. O'Leary making a very pretty throw and pickup. Steinfeldt drove one over second base and was safe at first. Kling flied in deep left field. No runs.

DETROIT—Schaefer flied to Schekard. Crawford hit a high foul, which Steinfeldt caught. Schulte flied to center field for a three-base hit. Rossman singled to left, scoring Cobb. Coughlin singled and Ros- sman reached second. Schmidt walked. Three on bases. O'Leary struck out. One run.

FIFTH INNING.
Chicago—It was raining when the in- ning began. Evers grounded to O'Leary who was slow in handling the ball and Evers reached first. A sharp shower began when Schulte was at bat and Umpire Sheridan called time. Indi- cations were that the shower would be of short duration. The band played "Wait Until the Sun Shines, Nellie." The rain began to let up and the players re- sumed their places. After fifteen min- utes intermission, play was resumed with Schulte at bat and Evers at first. Schulte walked. Tinker sacrificed to Rossman, advancing Evers and Schulte. Overall hit to center. Evers scored. Schulte going to third. Slagle flied to Jones. Schulte scoring on the throw in. Schekard grounded to O'Leary, who re- corded Overall at second unassisted. Two runs.

DETROIT—Donovan flied to center. Jones out. Evers to Chance. Schaefer fanned. No runs.

SIXTH INNING.
Chicago—Chance sent a pop fly to Coughlin. Steinfeldt singled to left. Kling struck out. Evers drove a liner to Cobb. No runs.

DETROIT—Crawford out. Evers to Chance. Cobb drove a hot liner at Tinker and was thrown out at first. Slagle captured Rossman's fly after a hard run. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING.
Chicago—Schulte safe on grounder, which Donovan could not field to first in time to catch him. Tinker endeav- ored to sacrifice bunting to Donovan, who threw high to O'Leary, and Schulte was safe. Tinker making first. Schmidt threw O'Leary out at first on his sacrifice hit. Tinker and Schulte advancing a base. New York, Oct. 11.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance, more than a week ago, of Helen Maloney, daughter of Martin Maloney, the Philadelphia millionaire, was given a highly sensational turn today. At the time of Miss Maloney's disappearance, Samuel Clarkson, a young Englishman who had paid her marked attention, also dropped out of sight, and it was reported, and generally believed, that the couple had eloped and been married. Last night came the news from Montreal that the missing pair had

ALL RECORDS ARE BROKEN

By the Steamship Lusitania of the Cunard Line.

Average Speed of Ship,
27.60 Land Miles
an Hour.

New York, Oct. 11.—Four days, nineteen hours and fifty-two minutes out from Queenstown with every transatlantic speed record in her possession, the majestic Cunard liner, Lusitania, swept by Sandy Hook lightship at 1:17 a. m. today and after a pause of the bar to await daylight, steamed slowly up the harbor to receive the recognition of her right to the title of Queen of the Sea. Three records were written down in her log book, two of them wrested from the great German rivals of the Cunard and one from the swift Lusitania of her own line. They were the shortest time from any European port to New York, the fastest average speed for any transatlantic voyage, 23.99 nautical miles per hour, and the longest daily run, 617 nautical miles. Translated into land miles her speed average for the run was 27.60 miles an hour. Her achievement is a triumph for British shipbuilding and sailors and may mark the passing of the old-fashioned reciprocating engine and the beginning of the universal installation of the turbines which have made it possible for this ship to carry all records by the board.

The records which she has broken were:

That held by Kaiser Wilhelm II of the North German Lloyd line, which crossed from New York to Plymouth at an average speed of 23.58 knots as compared with the Lusitania's 23.99.

That held by the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland of five days, 11 hours and 54 minutes from Cherbourg to New York.

That held by the Cunard liner Lusitania, which crossed from Queenstown to New York in 5 days, 7 hours and 23 minutes.

Besides, the Lusitania has broken her own record for the shortest time from any European port to New York, the fastest average speed for any transatlantic voyage, 23.99 nautical miles per hour, and the longest daily run, 617 nautical miles.

The Lusitania in her daily runs of 601 knots previously held by the Deutschland.

Counting the days from noon to noon, the runs were as follows:

Sunday, Monday, 580; Tuesday, 608; Wednesday, 617; Thursday, 600 and from noon Thursday to 1:17 a. m. Friday, 624 miles.

The new Cunardier is the first "four day boat" to enter New York harbor, having completed the passage in less than five days, shortening the record held by the Lusitania by more than eleven hours.

Late in the afternoon the emperor expressed a wish to walk in the park, but his physicians declined to allow him to do so.

Bulletins are sent twice daily to the German emperor informing him of the condition of Emperor Francis Joseph.

CUES WIN AGAIN FROM DETROIT

Hits Bunched in the Fifth and Seventh Innings.

Overall and Donovan Again the Opposing Pitchers.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 11.—Detroit was baseball mad today. Thousands of enthusiastic baseball fans owned the city. They crowded the streets, the hotels, cafes, street cars and all other public places all morning, and this afternoon they crowded Bennett park for the fourth game between the Detroit team of the American league and the Chicago Nationals.

All reserved seats for both games had been sold out days ago, but the general admission patrons began to gather early, immediately after breakfast some made their way to the ball park and lined up before the gates. The sale of tickets began, and the gates were opened soon after. The weather during the morning was threatening, but the sun broke through the clouds at times and gave hope to the anxious fans.

The sky grew more cloudy as the morning passed, and about 11:30 o'clock a light shower fell in the downtown section of the city. It lasted but a few moments, and had no effect on the constantly increasing crowd which was streaming out Michigan avenue to the ball park.

The temperature was in the neighborhood of 55 degs. at noon, and Weather Observer Conner said it would stay between 55 and 56 probably during the afternoon. He also said that while there might be a light shower between 5 and 6 p. m., he did not anticipate any rainfall heavy enough to interfere with the game.

The team spent the morning in their rooms at the Hotel Tullier, where an entire floor was reserved for them. A member of the team would get down to the lobby for a moment, then away from the crowd of yelling, excited enthusiasts, who filled the corridors of the hotel. The other hotels were likewise jammed with shouting men, with flags and banners. In the hotel Cadillac, the band kept up a constant pandemonium, alternating their songs with cheers for favorite players. Every train and suburban trolley car that arrived here during the morning brought its capacity of baseball enthusiasts, who hurried to the park to secure admission before it became crowded to the limit.

At 1 o'clock, a light rain fell for about ten minutes at the ball park. An hour before the game started the park was about two-thirds filled. The Detroit and Chicago teams came onto the field together at 1 o'clock and Detroit immediately began batting practice.

At 1:50, the sky had cleared and the sun was shining brightly at Bennett Park. Excepting a section of standing room behind center field, the park was crowded. Just before the game began, Mayor William Thompson presented to Manager Jennings at the plate, a huge floral tiger and a gold watch, on behalf of local admirers.

The batting order was announced as follows:

DETROIT: Jones, cf.; Schaefer, 2b.; Crawford, cf.; Rossman, 1b.; Schmidt, c.; O'Leary, ss.; Donovan, p.

A sharp shower began when Schulte was at bat and Umpire Sheridan called time. Indications were that the shower would be of short duration. The band played "Wait Until the Sun Shines Nelly." ## CHADWICK IS NO MORE

The Famous Female Financier Passes Away in Prison.

Secured Millions of Money From Various Bankers.

Columbus, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, whose amazing financial transactions culminated in the wrecking of an Oberlin, Ohio, bank, died in the woman's ward in the Ohio penitentiary at 10:15 last evening. Mrs. Chadwick had been in a comatose condition for some hours previous to her death, and the end came peacefully. No friends or relatives waited at her bedside, only the prison physician and his attendants. Her son, Emil Hoover, had been summoned from Cleveland, but he arrived fifteen minutes after his mother expired.

Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Bigley, was a native of Woodstock, Conn. She first came into public notice in Toledo, Ohio, about twenty years ago, where she told fortunes under the name of Madame De Vers. While in that city she forged the name of Richard Brown of Youngstown, Ohio, and for this crime she was sent to the penitentiary at Columbus for nine years.

She served but a portion of the sentence, and then located in Cleveland, where she married a man named Hoover. Her second husband was Dr. Chadwick of Cleveland, a man of good family and excellent standing in his profession.

In the latter part of 1902, or early in 1903, Mrs. Chadwick, in the presence of her husband, gave to Ira Reynolds, the cashier of the Wade Park bank of Cleveland, a box containing notes signed with the name of Andrew Carnegie. These forged notes are alleged to have amounted to $7,500,000. Reynolds gave to Mrs. Chadwick a receipt for the papers, which described the notes and the signatures upon them. Mrs. Chadwick left with Reynolds as an explanation of the existence of the notes the statement that she was a natural daughter of Mr. Carnegie.

With the receipt of Reynolds in her possession, Mrs. Chadwick went to different banks and many capitalists made loans for which she paid not only high interest to the banks, but heavy bonuses to the bank officials who loaned her the money. The extent of these transactions will never be fully known, but they ran into millions. They involved men of high standing in the financial world, and caused heavy losses to many banks.

In November, 1904, she was sued by a man named Newton of Brookline, Mass., from whom she had borrowed a large amount, which she was unable to pay. Other creditors came down upon her, and within a short time she was placed under arrest by the federal authorities on the charge of conspiring with Charles Beckwith, the president, and A. B. Spear, of a national bank at Oberlin, Ohio, which had been looted. Mrs. Chadwick had obtained from this institution such large sums of money that they were compelled to close their doors, causing

EIGHT BREAK JAIL.

Men Being Held in South Dakota Lockup Make Getaway.

Aborted, S. D., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald)—The largest jail delivery in the history of the state took place here Tuesday night, when eight prisoners being held in the Brown county jail, made a successful get away and their capture is a problem. Several others, some being held for more serious offenses than those who escaped, refused to participate in the delivery.

Sheriff Anderson discovered the escape when he returned to the jail after the trays and dishes, which had been used in giving the prisoners their supper. He found that two iron bars on one window had been sawed away presumably with files furnished by outsiders and the window broken.

Those who escaped and the charges against them are: Tom Sloan, shooting Harry Lockhart at Perry; Theodore Taylor, shooting and killing a bartender named Nelson at Glenham; McCarthy, breaking mirrors; Long and Adams, stealing farm; Duran and Bent, holding up a man; George Williams, petit larceny.

BIG EVENT IS PLANNED

Farmers' Institute at Jean DuLuth Farm Will be Hummer.

Professor Haecker Will Speak—Real Estate Exchange Will Attend.

Duluth citizens are waking up to the fact that the coming series of Farmers' Institutes, which will be held at various points in St. Louis county during the week beginning Saturday, Oct. 12, are of great importance, not only to the farming and dairy interests, but to the business interests.

The opening meeting will be held at the Jean DuLuth farm, one week from Saturday, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Duluth Real Estate exchange, comprised of the real estate men of the city, will attend the meeting at the Jean DuLuth farm in a body. At the last meeting of the exchange it was unanimously voted that he members should attend the Farmers' Institute, the expense of the trip to be borne by the exchange.

It is understood that the real estate men will leave Duluth for the Jean DuLuth farm about noon, Oct. 12. The coming institute is also receiving the attention of the Commercial club, and it is probable that the public affairs committee, or some other delegation representing that organization, will attend the meeting at the farm.

In view of the great interest that is being taken by the citizens of Duluth in the first meeting at the Jean DuLuth farm, the local men who are assisting in the arrangement of the program have made special efforts to make the event a larger one than was at first anticipated.

Prof. Haecker, who has charge of the dairy department of the University of Minnesota, has been invited, and yesterday a letter of acceptance was received from him. Prof. Haecker states that he is very busy with his classes, and that it is a difficult matter to get away, but he will come.

A. D. Wilson, superintendent of the State Farmers' institute, has also been invited. He has written local parties stating that if he is in Minnesota next week, and can possibly get to Duluth, he will be present at the meeting on the farm.

With the program previously arranged by Supt. A. J. McGuire of the state experiment farm, who will have charge of the series of institutes, the meeting at the Jean DuLuth farm is assured of a strong list of speakers, men who are experts along their lines of agricultural and dairy development.

C. P. Craig and John G. Williams, owners of the farm, have extended a general invitation to the public to attend. Circular letters and cards, signed by Supt. A. D. Wilson, are being mailed today, calling attention to the fact that the State Farmers' institute are paid for by the taxpayers, and that each taxpayer should attend the meetings and get his money's worth. No admission will be charged, and the state will distribute its yearly book on agriculture. The men who will be in charge, and who will address the farmers and others, will be ready to answer questions, and offer any suggestions that they can along lines that will help the agricultural and dairy interests of this part of the state. Interpreters will be present to help those who do not understand the English language.

Mr. Craig and Mr. Williams suggest that Saturday, Oct. 12, be made a sort of holiday, that everybody visit the farm, meeting along their lunch baskets and fodder for their horses, and come prepared to spend the day.

It is planned to make the Jean DuLuth farm meeting a sort of county fair. Stock experts will be on hand to judge horses and cattle, and discuss breeding and feeding methods.

It is believed by those in charge that the Farmers' institute at the Jean DuLuth farm will be attended by several hundred people if the weather is at all propitious.

CONVENTION HALL ALSO SUGGESTED

As Part of Plan for Grouping Public Buildings.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Great achievements can, as a rule, be traced back to a combination of circumstances which have been seized upon and taken advantage of, and Duluth has now the opportunity to achieve what it may never again have the chance to do, because the combination may not be again possible. The richest county in this and many other states is suffering for a place in which to transact its legitimate business; the United States government has taken steps to enlarge its public buildings; the city government of Duluth is seriously handicapped by the public buildings it occupies; there is a healthy sentiment in favor of laying the foundation for a modern and an artistic city beautiful; there is a warranted wish feeling in the pockets of the people.

As long as the buildings as the present ones occupied by the city and county are permitted to disgrace this locality, there can be no permanent increase in civic pride or ideals, but with the grasping of the situation, as above outlined, and adoption of the plan (or a modification of them), presented to the courthouse commission, the whole trend of opinion on such subjects would be changed, there would be no necessity for smoke ordinances nor billboard regulations; the only thing to delay the city beautiful would be the vacant lot nuisance and absentee ownership.

To me it seems almost a crime not to take advantage of the opportunity presented, and I am emphatically, unequivocally and uncompromisingly in favor of the plan of grouping the buildings somewhat in accordance with the plan presented, and will pay my share of the cost if necessary.

But I want to draw attention to the need for this growing city of a convention hall, and suggest that such accommodations be provided in the general plan ultimately to be adopted. Those of us who have had experience in this country, and a large meeting place, fitted with facilities for transacting business is a necessity. We also need such a hall for our own local meetings of all kinds, and as our city grows, as it is going to do, and is doing, this need will be felt more keenly with each recurring year.

Therefore, as a public necessity, I suggest that a convention will be taken into consideration when working out the details of our present magnificent opportunity for placing Duluth before the people of the country and ourselves as a live, progressive, beautiful and sane city. Yours truly, Duluth, Oct. 11.

RAISE FOR LUMBERMEN

Assessment of Minnesota Companies Boosted
25 Per Cent.

Their Urgent Plea to be Let Alone is Ignored.

St. Paul, Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—A raise of 25 per cent was ordered in the assessment of a number of lumber companies over the state by the board of equalization late yesterday afternoon. It was agreed that this class of property was not paying what it should, and the raise followed.

In answer to citations, many of the lumbermen appeared before the board and pleaded to be left alone. The most of them were frank enough to admit that their assessments were low in proportion to the value of their property, but they excused this fact on the ground that the local rate was in some instances as high as 8 per cent. To add to the state rate would only increase their burden locally.

Governor Johnson led in the movement to increase the assessment of the lumbermen and in the case of the Crookston Lumber company, read a letter from the county auditor at Bemidji saying that the valuation given by the concern was ridiculously low. The companies affected and the raises ordered were:

Crookston Lumber company of Bemidji, assessed $200,000; raised 25 per cent.

Crookston Lumber company of Crookston, assessed $400,000; raised 25 per cent.

Red River Lumber company, Akeley, assessed $172,200; raised 20 per cent.

Clequot Lumber company, $200,000; raised 25 per cent.

Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company of Scanlon, $250,000; St. Croix Lumber company of Winton, $36,000; each raised 25 per cent.

A motion to add 25 per cent to the assessment of the Virginia Lumber company of Virginia resulted in a tie vote. Further action on it and also a motion to increase the assessment of the Shaw-Hopkins company of Winton was laid over until today.

The increase in the value of timber and the fact that the companies had escaped taxation in the past figured strongly in the discussions leading to a raise made. It was this Governor Johnson told the board that largely influenced him in voting for the increase.

TRIAL ABOUT COMPLETED

Maxim-Brigham Case is Ready for the Jury—
Other Cases.

The suit of the heirs of Eliza Maxim, deceased, against John H. Brigham, to recover $5,000, alleged to be due them on the sale of some iron ore property near Biwabik, was expected to reach the jury some time this afternoon. The trial, although a short one, has been hard fought and the attorneys have had some sharp passages.

The suit involves a number of complicated questions, but in the main, it is the purpose of the heirs, it is possible, to compel Mr. Brigham to turn over to them half the proceeds he received from the sale of some property that turned out to have been under it. They claim that Mr. Brigham acquired their interest for $500 through misrepresentations and then turned around and sold the property for a large amount.

Mr. Brigham claims that he represented interests adverse to the heirs for some years and that he finally bought out their interest for a speculation, his venture happening to turn out very successful.

The jury in the personal injury case of Joseph Otaniches and several other miners against the Shenango Furnace company was given to the jury shortly before noon today and no agreement had been reached at a late hour this afternoon.

In Judge Cant's room testimony is still being taken in the damage case of Carl Janson against the Minnesota Land & Construction company.

CAN GET GOOD REVENUE FROM OLD CITY HALL

City Could Rent It to Water and Light Department.

Rentals Would Carry Interest on Bonds for New Building.

Is the city of Duluth so situated financially that it can enter into the grouping plan for Duluth public buildings and erect a city hall on a location in proximity to the proposed county courthouse and federal building.

This is a question which a great many of the citizens are asking themselves, or each other, and over which there has arisen more or less discussion.

That the grouping plan for the public buildings has struck a popular chord and public sentiment is strongly in favor of it, is shown by the expressions heard from citizens from all walks of life. Not one in ten who have been asked for an opinion of the scheme have declared themselves against it, although some have stated that they favor the scheme, but cannot see where the funds are coming from to carry it out.

That the city of Duluth must do something pretty soon in the way of increasing its present quarters by erecting additional stories to the present city hall or by erecting a new building, is undisputed. The city officers are cramped for office space and they must soon have larger quarters.

City Attorney Bert Fesler, in a statement to The Herald yesterday, in which he advocated the grouping plan for public buildings, suggested that the city is in a better position to go ahead with a new building than many taxpayers think.

He pointed out the increasing value of the present city hall property at the corner of Superior street and Second avenue east as a substantial asset, the property being located in the business district, and the buildings could easily be remodeled for commercial purposes.

New Plan Suggested.

Today another plan has been suggested by a local city official, which opens possibilities that seem even more favorable than the asset suggested by Mr. Fesler. The water and light department of the city, as practically everyone conversant with city affairs knows, is paying an annual rental of $2,400 for the quarters that it occupies in the Howe building on the corner of First street and Third avenue west.

On the basis of a 4 per cent rate, this annual rental means about the same as the interest on a bond issue of $60,000, at the estimated rate of interest of 4 per cent.

It is suggested that the water and light department rent the base and the first floor of the present hall and pay the city the $2,400 rental now being paid owners of the Howe building. This would leave the second floor of the city hall and the police station property available for other rental purposes, the revenue to depend on the use to which the floor space should be put.

The $2,400 rental from the water and light department, together with the revenue from the rest of the city property, would, it is claimed, be enough, or nearly enough to pay the interest on any indebtedness that the city might incur in building a new city hall on a new location.

Board is Favorable.

The board of water and light commissioners, it is understood, have given this matter some thought and the sentiment of the commissioners is said to be rather favorable to the plan suggested. It is claimed that the location of the water and light department in the old city hall building would not make it too far removed for the convenience of those who go to the office to pay their water and light bills, while the department would be located on a street car line and convenient to the railroad for the handling of the freight it receives in the form of stoves and other heavy material.

The city charter, it is claimed, on good authority, will permit of the water and light department renting from the city and an income of $2,400 which is now being paid out annually to private parties, would in a few years amount to a considerable amount of money.

In fact, the department has paid out in rent for its present quarters enough to cover the expense of building a substantial new structure, the cost of which would be paid to private parties, would in a few years amount to a considerable amount of money.

The idea as above described, is only one of several that have been suggested to the city and will suggest themselves to the taxpayers of the city who have an interest in seeing a new hall built and a new structure to private parties, would in a few years amount to a considerable amount of money.

Means More Taxes.

"This idea that we can build a fine courthouse on a larger site and in conjunction with a federal building and city hall, without increasing the taxes, is all wrong," said a county official this morning, who keeps pretty close in touch with the county's financial affairs.

As a matter of fact, the taxes this coming year are going to be higher. They can't help but be higher with the levies which have been made by the school board and the city and which will be made by the county, in addition to the one mill tax. Let us look the matter fairly and squarely in the face and understand that from the start that we cannot go ahead with a large improvement without raising our taxes. It is better to go about this thing with our eyes open than to do it blindly and then complain afterward when we have to foot the bill.

I believe, however, that this is the logical time to take steps toward carrying out a grouping of the public buildings, such as suggested in the two-block plan submitted by Burnham & Co. While the larger scheme is a magnificent one, I believe that the taxpayers of the county would not sanction the proposition.

The future of this county is assured. The future of Duluth is assured, and now is the time, if we are ever going to expand, to secure enough ground which will provide for the ultimate carrying out of the grouping scheme.

I would not suggest that this thing be done all at once. I would suggest that the plan be worked out gradually, and I believe that it can be so worked.

"Public sentiment is strongly in favor of the two-block plan, as nearly as I can determine through inquiry. I believe that the people want the courthouse, the city hall and the government buildings, together, and built with a view of harmony in architecture. The location, with reference to the depot, the business center, and yet far enough removed from the noisy streets of the city to make the two blocks selected an ideal site."

The idea of a public meeting for the taxpayers to express their sentiments in the matter of the courthouse plans and the scheme for the grouping of the public buildings, has been suggested, and seems to meet with general approval. The courthouse commission is likely to take some action in the matter at the next meeting. In the meantime the plans are being exhibited in the office of the commission, in the Providence building, and every citizen is invited to look at them.

SALE OF ARMY GOODS

Hundreds of Articles Still Left.

The great sale of United States army goods will not close until Monday night, Oct. 14. Unforeseen events render it necessary for us to remain in Duluth two days longer than previously advertised, and so our store will remain open all day Monday and until 10 o'clock p. m. This is likely your last chance to take advantage of Uncle Sam's clearance sale, and if you don't realize the stupendous bargains that are offered, read our large ad in another page of this paper, or call and see one of the largest collections of army goods and curios ever shown in Duluth at 18 Lake avenue north. Don't forget that the things offered for sale at a ridiculously low figure can be had nowhere else.

AGITATORS DRIVEN OUT.

Crystal Falls, Mich., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—Within the past two weeks the citizens and authorities of Crystal Falls have driven out two alleged labor agitators who came to the town for the purpose of working in the interest of the Western Federation of Miners. It is claimed. The last man, name unknown, was driven from town only after he made a grandstand play of braving the citizens, but was gently led to the train and told to depart or something might happen. The first man, John Kolu, who came down from the range of Northern Minnesota, left on first notice, served on him after he opened a meeting of miners.

DIVINITY SCHOOL IN HARD STRAITS

Theological Department of Northwestern University Cries for Succor.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—That the financial affairs of the Garrett Biblical Institute, the theological department of Northwestern University, are in a critical condition because of the economic manipulations of its fund a year ago by Dr. Robert D. Sheppard, its business agent, was revealed yesterday. It was a closing hour development of the Rock River conference in St. James Methodist Episcopal church. The institute was described by Rev. Dr. C. J. Little, its president, as "shaken to its foundations" by the "unsuccessful crisis" which it may not succeed in passing through.

BOLD ROBBERY CLEARED.

Sparrows Made a Nest of an Iowa Woman's Jewels.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 11.—A diamond ring, two pearl necklaces, a sapphire-studded brooch, a gold-mounted hair comb—these were only a portion of the jewels belonging to Mrs. Ernest Nelson of East Des Moines that tumbled from an English sparrow's nest when the bird fell to the ground.

TO THE POOR FARM.

Langtry Woman to be Cared for There by Friends.

Irene Langtry, the woman who arrived in the city Thursday from St. Paul and whose peculiar actions led the huckman she engaged at the depot to take her to the police station, has been taken to the poor farm and some of her friends. It is understood, will pay for her care at that institution.

Fall Fashions

There is a distinction of line and curve in an authoritative portrayal of fall fashions in our new overcoats that can be looked for in vain outside the creations of the most exclusive custom tailors.

We look to making many converts to Mellin & Co. clothing this season for the high efficiency of our tailors has given to Mellin & Co.'s clothing an undoubted style supremacy that will commend it strongly to all careful dressers.

BUSINESS VERY ACTIVE

Michigan Street Dealers Report an Excellent Week's Trade.

Butter and Eggs Very High—Poultry is Plentiful.

Brisk trade has marked the produce market this week, and from now on trade will be active. The indications of cold weather coming soon and the desire of every thrifty housewife to replenish the larder while the occasion offers, have brought more buyers to the markets this week than previously, and the conditions will probably continue.

Meats Hold Firm.
Duluth people may feel satisfied with the prices they are paying for meats, considering the advance in other cities. Meats are wholesaling here at the same prices they did a month ago, in nearly every respect, and if pork chops and veal cutlets are a little high, beef, lamb and bacon remain the same and poultry has been very plentiful and reasonable in price.

Vegetables in Plenty.
Fall vegetables are arriving in quantities and most of them are good, firm specimens. Beets, turnips, squash and pumpkins can be obtained on the markets from one end of the week to the other, and there are still some fine specimens of fall radishes, young onions, and green truck to be found, although their day is about over.

Onions From Spain.
A fine shipment of Spanish onions, splendid firm ones, arrived today, and dealers are taking to them kindly. They are wholesaling at $1.75 per crate and are pronounced the finest ever seen in Duluth.

Apples are king of the market this week. Large shipments from New York have arrived and are selling as follows: Twenty ounce pippins, $2.50 per barrel; round sweets, $3.00 per barrel. A fine lot of York state quinces can be seen at prices quoted from $4.00 to a little higher. Bitter Root valley apples, splendid firm ones from that famous section of Montana, apples in which so many Duluth people are interested, are bringing $2.50 per box. They are good keepers and about the best offered at present.

Pears, Grapes and Peaches.
Pears and peaches are arriving the latter from York state and the paches from Washington. Golden pears are bringing $7.50 per barrel, and the Washington state varieties are quoted at about the same figure.

Concord grapes are plentiful and are wholesaling at 30 cents per basket. The early frosts have added to their flavor and grapes will be plentiful for some time to come.

YOUNG MAN IN TROUBLE.

Must Explain Possession of Razors and Watches.

Vincenzo Belardino, the young Italian boy who was arrested in Superior recently, and wanted in this city for alleged complicity in the robbery of a Michigan street second-hand store, will have to explain some things to the satisfaction of the district court, or serve a term in the penitentiary.

Belardino was gathered in by a Superior detective, and when arrested had enough watches, razors and cutlery on his person to start a second-hand shop of his own.

Eleven watches, five razors and a suit of underclothing were among the goods Belardino had about his person. The rear door of a store at 604 West Michigan street was discovered forced open last week and a quantity of watches and other things were missing.

Belardino is a young man, and does not appear to be a hardened criminal. He claimed that he secured the watches, one of which he was attempting to pawn, when arrested, from two strange men who promised him $5 per cent commission on the sales of the goods.

BOY MAY DIE.

William Delahaunt Accidentally Shot at Kansas City.

Should William Delahaunt, contractor, see these lines, he will learn that his son William, who is a jockey at the race track at Elmdridge, near Kansas City, is lying in a hospital there seriously injured and that relatives are seeking the father, as his son may not recover from his injuries.

A recent letter to Chief Trover from the authorities at Kansas City stated that young Delahaunt was accidentally shot at the race track mentioned about a week ago and that he lies in a hospital there suffering from the wound.

The letter to the chief states that the physicians attending the young man hope for his recovery, but that the presence of the father is desired, as a change may take place at any time and the boy die.

BERTILLON EXPERT.

James E. Walsh, Former Prison Guard, Employed by City.

The police department has been augmented by the addition to the force of James F. Walsh of Stillwater, Minn., an expert in the Bertillon and finger print methods of identification, who assumed his duties this morning.

The police believe they have secured a valuable man, as Mr. Walsh was for five years a guard at the Stillwater penitentiary and has a wide knowledge of criminals. He practiced the Bertillon and finger print method of identification while at the state penitentiary and has become very proficient in it. Under the charter a detective is not obliged to take the civil service examination and Mr. Walsh started in at once upon his duties as soon as arrangements were made with Chief Trover.

A GREAT FEAT OF NURSING.
Pittsburg Correspondent Philadelphia Record: Frank Pifer, Jr., aged 16 years, is at death's door here, having just succumbed to fatigue and disease incurred in the most remarkable feat of nursing ever known. Pifer's father three weeks ago became ill with fever at Johnstown, ninety miles from Pittsburg, and the lad went to nurse him.

Mrs. Pifer then took the fever in her home here, and the young man for three weeks circulated between the two couches, waiting on his father by day and his mother by night. He finally succumbed, and is said to be dying, while both father and mother, thanks to his nursing, will live.

NEWS FROM THE WEST END

WOULD HAVE A Y. M. C. A.

West Enders Want a Branch Established There.

Declare Cost Would be Moderate and Field Large.

With the advent of several new industries and the consequent employment of many men, West enders feel that a branch of the Y. M. C. A. should be established in that section of the city, and a mass meeting to boost the project was held at an early date.

The Clyde Iron Works plant will employ a large number of men and many young men already reside in the western part of the city, to whom a branch of the Y. M. C. A. would be a great boon.

A movement of this kind was started once before, but it was never carried to a successful conclusion. B. A. Martin, who is now in the West for his health, was a prime mover in the agitation.

The ministers would like to see a branch Y. M. C. A. started in the West end and have signified their willingness to help along the project to secure one. A petition may be circulated and presented to the directors of the association.

The West enders realize that the association is under considerable expense in going into the new building, but they feel that a store room or some other suitable place could be secured for a Y. M. C. A. reading and lecture room.

Study classes could be held there and it might be made a branch of the public library. At the present time, the public library has only one branch, and that is located at West Duluth.

Minor feel that the need of a branch would be regular members of the association, as well, and would have access, as such, to the new building, now being completed, at Third avenue west and Second streets. But the new home for the association is a long way from the West end and those in that section of the city who are agitating the matter feel that the need of a branch room is great at the present time.

Several new buildings are going up and some of them will likely contain apartments that would fill the needs of the Y. M. C. A. The branch plan will be set before the officers and directors of the organization.

PLAN PLEASANT SEASON.

Adams School Alumni Will Have Good Time This Winter.

The Adams School Alumni association is planning to give a number of social affairs and entertainments this winter, and those were discussed at a well attended meeting held this week in the school rooms.

The report of the officers showed the organization to be in good condition and growing in membership all the time.

The next meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in November, when a program will be given and the affair made something of a social function. Graduates of the school who are not members of the association will be invited.

HORNGREN SUGGESTED

As Republican Aldermanic Candidate in the West End.

Andrew Horngren, president of the West End Republican club, was suggested at a meeting of the organization last evening as a candidate for alderman from the West end, to oppose Alderman Mark, Democrat, in the coming campaign.

It is probable that Alderman Mark will be a candidate for re-election and it was the sentiment of those Republicans present at last evening's meeting that President Horngren of the club would be a good man to run against him.

A number of talks were given and committees were named to draw up bylaws and enroll new members. An

OFFERING ODDS ON TOM JOHNSON

Cleveland Man Says He is Favorite in Race.

F. W. Martin of Cleveland, who is at the St. Louis, says that the men who are supposed to be most familiar with the majority race in Cleveland, between Tom Johnson and Congressman T. E. Burton, are offering odds that Johnson will be re-elected.

The city election in Cleveland has assumed somewhat the aspect of national politics. The president has sent letters urging the support of good Republicans in the belief of Mr. Burton, the Foraker faction in Ohio, while not actively engaged in working in the interests of Johnson, is conducting a quiet campaign that is intended to injure the chances of the Republican candidate.

The whole country is interested in the Cleveland election. Mr. Johnson says that the campaign is being conducted with an intensity that holds the attention of the whole state of Ohio. Mr. Johnson is standing on his record, while Congressman Burton has promised reforms in the city government in the event of his being elected. He asserts that the whole municipal government is in a state of improvement and has promised the voters that should be successful at the polls he will cause a change in the personnel of the city's employees that will be radical to say the least.

Mr. Martin believes that Johnson will be re-elected. Great influence is being mustered in Mr. Burton's behalf, however, and he is conducting a strenuous

MRS. PEPPER-VANDEBILT IS PLACED UNDER ARREST.

New York, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Mary Ann S. Pepper-Vanderbilt, the spiritualist medium, was formally placed under arrest yesterday on a charge of grand larceny. The charge is an outgrowth of the recent proceedings brought by relatives of Edward Ward Vanderbilt, after he had married Mrs. Pepper as a result of which he was declared incompetent to manage his affairs.

It is charged that Mrs. Pepper-Vanderbilt obtained Vanderbilt's house and lot in Brooklyn under false pretenses.

Mrs. Pepper-Vanderbilt went to the office of the district attorney and surrendered herself. Before she could be arraigned in court her counsel appeared, and she was released in $1,000 bail.

MRS. ROMADKA SLIPS AWAY

Milwaukee Woman Disappears After Giving a Heavy Bond.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Charles J. Romadka, wife of a rich manufacturer of Milwaukee, and a self-confessed thief, disappeared from Chicago yesterday, following her release on $1,000 bonds. Charles Jones, the negro, accomplice, is still in a cell. Mrs. Romadka appeared in court late in the afternoon accompanied by Attorney John P. Donovan of Milwaukee and Clement Romadka, her brother-in-law.

After the formal arraignment, Attorney Donovan secured a continuance of the case until Oct. 15, and Albert J. Ward, a brother-in-law of the missing woman, signed the bonds. Mrs. Romadka and the attorney immediately entered a cab and drove to a hotel, where they remained for a few minutes later and have not been seen since. Early in the day the woman confessed to a sixth robbery.

FASTER THAN THE TURBINE

England Considering Powerful New Engine for the Navy.

London, Oct. 11.—The British admiralty has under consideration a new form of marine engine and propeller which, the inventor claims, will revolutionize not only naval warfare, but the navigation of the whole world. At first sight the engine resembles a turbine, but closer inspection reveals important differences.

Steam from any type of boiler is brought to bear upon a shaft fitted with twelve chambers, divided into two sets of six each. Shaft and chambers are all steel, cast in one piece, and of great strength. Exactly what the arrangement of these chambers is, the inventor deems it imprudent at present to disclose, but it is much that the admission of steam through the orifices at the ends of the shaft to revolve at a tremendous

So great is the power of the new form of engine that the inventor considers it useless to apply it to the ordinary screw propeller, lest the terrific race should result in the formation of a complete or partial vacuum in which the screw would "race" without exerting its propulsive force. The race accordingly does not, of course, is that each blade works in its own water, instead of in that through which its fellow has cut but a

DISTINCT STEP IN ADVANCE

(Auburn, N. Y., Daily Citizen.)

Chronic Bright's Disease may have been an incurable disease in the past, but it is certainly curable now. M. L. Walley, the druggist, tells us of a remarkable recovery in this city. There was no question about the genuineness of the case. The patient, a lady, is connected with one of our prominent families. She was in a hospital swollen with dropsy, and the albumen was in such enormous quantities as to solidify in the tube.

Death was expected daily by the physician and family, when she was put on a California treatment that was alleged to be curing Bright's disease in that state. The results created astonishment. Symptoms began to subside and recovery was then gradual till finally complete. The patient has since actually passed for insurance.

The peculiarity of the treatment is that it does not seem to wear out the patient in question taking over eight bottles. —Auburn, N. Y., Daily Citizen.

We heard about this and sent for it in the interest of patients here and will give any calling full information.

StreetANARCHISTS IN ITALY

Are Dangerous to Both the Church and Government.

Congratulations on Escape Follow Attack on Merry Del Val.

Rome, Oct. 11.—It is a mistake to suppose that the anti-clerical eruption in Italy is directed solely against the Roman Catholics. There is, no doubt, a bitter feeling against these churches in the minds of those who have thrown aside all reverence for God and morality. Among the crowd gathered in Marino to attack the cardinal secretary of state, Merry Del Val, were members of the association known as that of the "29th July," the date of King Humbert's assassination, and the simplest can guess what is the attitude of members of this association to the Italian monarchy. It would be tedious to mention the names of the other associations which the anarchists have chosen as expressions of their lines of action, but practically every religious denomination is affected. A notable result of the attack made on Cardinal Merry Del Val was the outbreak of good will and affection on the part of the people in Castel Gandolfo and all the neighborhood. The municipal pally of Castel Gandolfo came officially to present him with their congratulations on his escape from injury, and to express their cordial detestation of the object. From other places, and from many parishes in Rome, addresses and protests have been sent to him in sympathy. Letters and telegrams and messages of kindness from all over the world have been pouring into Castel Gandolfo. The event at Marino has awakened the feelings of Catholics in many lands, and has shown them the brutal nature of the contest which is being waged, the words of "liberty" on their lips and brutal tyranny and outrage in their deeds. This is the outcome of the grand "union of Italy," which was so admired of the nations. Was it to achieve the liberty of beating priests and other clergymen in the streets of Rome and insulting and abusing the cardinal secretary of state at Marino that the cannons of Victor Emmanuel II battered down the old walls of Rome? In the thorough

The honors, however, are divided. The anarchists who shout, "Viva Breve!" the assassin of King Humbert, and wail, the flag of 29th of July are as bitter enemies to the monarchy as they are to the church, and this fact is evident to many of the monarchists. To Italians who respect their country must suffer deep shame at seeing deeds committed by these anti-clerical and anarchists. That in this country a clergyman runs risk of being molested solely by a clergyman is a thing to be regarded with astonishment. And that the cardinal secretary of state should be made the object of the aggression of the same class of organized disturbers is indicative of what would happen to the pope if he was approachable. In the thorough feelingness of the authorities in presence of this outbreak of insult and outrage to the clergy, one can only hope that the pope and other high dignitaries may be safe. The fact that pilgrimages of Catholics from distant parts of Italy and from other lands to Rome, appointed for the month of September, were suspended, first gave a subject of serious consideration to the people whose daily bread depends upon what is euphemistically termed "the movement of strangers." The extension of this suspension to the pilgrimages appointed for October has opened the eyes of many to the detriment consequent on priest hunting and the slandering of religious charitable institutions.

The decision of the Vatican, says one of the journals published in Rome, that sent a silent encouragement to the demonstrations recently made—the decision of the Vatican to suspend the pilgrimages already appointed for October has a repercussion not to be lightly passed over—at Rome especially, and also elsewhere. There, of course, the personal pride of the new Italian gets vent, and the journal says: "Let us say, with our habitual frankness, that it does not appear either handsome or dignified to make on this account every sort of lamentation, as if the greater part of the economic life of the capital of Italy depended on the pilgrimages of the Vatican, and if the want of them should spell extreme ruin."

The capital of Italy has so many other resources in its present and in its past that it is able to consider with sufficient tranquility the want, "certainly neither expected nor desired, of some thousands of persons who come from all parts of the world. But, while admitting that it is wise or prudent or patriotic to bring things to this point, The economic and practical loss, which is not by any means a negligible quantity, is, of course, only secondary to the moral and political reasons. Naturally the opposition journals blame the government for its culpable inactivity.

After every priest in Rome had armed himself, with the permission of the municipal authorities, for protection, a law was notified to the prefects and other administrative officials employed in the public service that any outrage, whether by act or word, upon a priest shall be punished by immediate imprisonment for thirty days or by a fine as an alternative. This has had some deterrent effect. During a visit to Marino, the scene of the outrage to Cardinal Merry Del Val, it was learned from an eye witness of the event that the blow which the police delegate received on the chest was aimed directly at the cardinal. He was in an open carriage, and the anarchist, carrying a very thick bar of wood, swung it with evident force, and made toward the cardinal from behind the carriage. If the blow had reached him he would have been badly hurt and perhaps killed. The police, of course, strove to minimize the matter.

Rome is threatened with the loss of one of her most beautiful landmarks—the hanging garden of the Villa Aldobrandini, which never fails to call forth the admiration of the tourist as he turns the abrupt angle after leaving the Piazza Venezia to ascend the Via Nazionale. The clusters of pine and stately cypress and the wealth of shrubs and flowers which overtop the lofty parapet at the height of at least sixty feet above the level of the street, make one of the most refreshing effects imaginable in a modern thoroughfare. Although a splendid ornament to the city, these grounds are too valuable to remain unimpaired. The present owner, therefore, proposes to build upon that portion fronting the street. Part of the garden will be left free, but it will not be visible from the main thoroughfare.

DOG SHOT MAN WHILE IN TREE

Man Was Dog's Master and Dog Didn't Mean It.

Trenton, Pa., Oct. 11.—Hardly could herder Jack befall human kind, more usual than to which George Steigleman of the Sugar Camp end of Rose valley, fell a victim a few days ago. Steigleman early in the season, when his buckwheat was in blossom, had trailed a bee to its lair, about two miles over the hill from his place, near the head of the Sugar Camp timber. He found that the swarm had lived in a hollow oak, about eight feet from the ground, in a generous opening caused by the falling out of a rotten limb. The number of bees at work showed to him that the hive was a large swarm, and nearly all of them appear to be working on his buckwheat.

A few days ago, carrying a fifty-pound hard can and his double-barreled shotgun, and accompanied by a small spaniel, Mr. Steigleman went to the honey tree. The tree was an easy one of ascent, but because of the location of the opening, which the swarm were hived he had difficulty in applying the sulphur fire used by him to destroy the bees that had been nesting about the hole. He had rested his gun on the ground, the muzzle leaning against a small sapling. While engaged at smoking out the bees his attention was attracted to the spaniel, down on the ground, which seemed to be sniffing about the honey tree, and was barking and growling for dear life.

Steigleman thought the dog might be putting up a bluff at a bear, but he could not bring himself to shoot. He was holding his gun, so he hesitated. He had succeeded in more than half filling his hard can, when suddenly the spaniel set up a terrible ado. This time Steigleman saw what the trouble was. A pair of raccoons that had been nosing about under a nearby tree at that instant were making a charge upon the noisy dog; the latter, in his cowardice and fright, leaped backward against the hammerless gun and his head coming into violent contact with it, the gun went off.

The great portion of the charge came up into the tree, and Steigleman was fairly riddled with shot. He lost hold of his honey can and it went flying down among the rocks, the honey scattering in a dozen directions. Fortunately, he was able to maintain his equilibrium in the tree, and, after a time, succeeded in sliding down to the ground, where, from pain and loss of blood, he lay helpless.

The spaniel, evidently appreciating that something had happened to his master, set up a terrible barking until several men who were driving along the Sugar Camp road, in the direction of Proctor, came into the woods and investigated.

They found Steigleman, helped him out to the wagon and hurried him home.

Steigleman says that if he had been a boy in a farmer's red-apple tree and the farmer had turned a blunderbuss on him the shot could not have come thicker or straighter than when his dog fired his own gun at him.

HORSE PICKED UP DIAMOND

Master Makes $50 Out of His Steed's Misfortune.

Hanover, N. J., Oct. 11.—James Haskins, an itinerant tin peddler who tours Northern New Jersey, is $50 richer.

He drove into Hanover with his horse so lame it could scarcely stand and went directly to the blacksmith shop. There it was found that the animal had picked up a stone which was so tightly wedged between the shoe and hoof that the former had to be removed. A handful of dirt was between the stone and the shoe, and in this something glittered and sparkled in the light. It was a large diamond.

Hiram Cooke, a farmer, who keeps summer boarders, said one of his patrons, a Mrs. Leonard White, of New York, had lost a diamond, for which she had offered $50 reward. Haskins called on Mrs. White. She said it was her diamond and paid the reward.

B. A. SHUMAN IS BACK IN DULUTH

Will Speak at the Y. M. C. A. Meeting on Sunday.

Secretary B. A. Shuman of the Buenos Ayres Young Men's Christian association and representative of the Minnesota associations in South America, has returned to Duluth after having spent several months attending the conferences and institutes at Lake Geneva, Wis., and at Silver Bay, N. Y. He will remain in the United States for about three months longer. Yesterday Mr. Shuman was the guest of honor at an informal luncheon given for him at the Commercial club by the officers and prominent members of the local Y. M. C. A. and he delivered an interesting address regarding the situation in South America and the work which has been done there in the past half a dozen years.

In his review of the work he told of the organization of the association at Buenos Ayres and its subsequent growth. It now has an unusually large membership and is still steadily growing. Financially he stated that the South American association has been able to get enough funds to construct a new building, which is a thing to be proud of. Mr. Shuman told of the needs of the Buenos Ayres association, stating that active workers and teachers were needed as badly as anything else.

Several others of those present at the luncheon delivered short addresses after that of Mr. Shuman. The purpose of the luncheon was to create a greater interest among the members of the local association in the work in South America and also to create an interest in another meeting and luncheon to be given Sunday afternoon.

Just fifteen were present at the luncheon. They were as follows: B.

M. Wheeler, chairman of the "Shuman committee;" Frank Upham, Judge W. D. Edson, Edward Rank, A. G. Strong, Chas. Petersen, Dr. A. C. Taylor, A. J. McLennan, W. L. Seaton, J. L. Cromwell, W. L. Smithies, Rev. McLaughy of Two Harbors, Secretary Bevis and W. H. Lippold.

Secretary Shuman will deliver another address at a special meeting for men to be held at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Sunday afternoon. Following his address a luncheon will be served at the association luncheon room at 5 o'clock and at this time Mr. Shuman will again speak. His talk will probably be about the work being done in South America and the needs of the association there. Special music for the meeting has been arranged. Mr. Shuman will remain in Duluth but two days and then will return to the Elks. His next visit to Duluth will be about Nov. 1, after which he will remain here until Jan. 1, when he will begin his long journey back to Buenos Ayres.

DRAWS SCOTLAND IN.

Government Seizure of "Scots College" in Paris Causes Complications.

Glasgow, Scotland, Oct. 11.—No one would have thought that Scotland would be drawn into the struggle now going on in France between church and state. The struggle is, of course, nominally over, as the separation has been decreed. But it will go on for many a long year still about the property of the church confiscated by the government, and it is by this seizure of church property that Scotland has been drawn into the matter. The French government, with the other church property, seized the Scots college in the Rue Cardinal Lemoine. Against this the British government has entered protest, and negotiations for its surrender are being conducted by its British ambassador and M. Iriand, minister of public instruction. To this department the former ministere des cultes, of ministry of ecclesiastical affairs, belonged, and it is M. Iriand, who is carrying out the liquidation. The seizure of the Scots college was to many people the first revelation of its existence. The Scots college was founded by King Robert, the Bruce. At the time of its foundation there was a healthy rivalry between him and John Balliol as to who should do most for education in Scotland. Balliol favored English influence and founded Balliol college at Oxford. Robert the Bruce declared in favor of French culture, France being the ally against the common enemy, England. He accordingly founded the College des Ecoles in Paris in 1326. The first building was in the Rue des Amateurs, which was in the vicinity of the quarter where the Scots students lived in the Rue des Ecoles. But in the latter half of the seventeenth century the then principal had the college removed to the existing building in the Rue Cardinal Lemoine. This lies on the eastern slope of the hill on which the Pantheon stands, a stone's throw from the beautiful old church of Saint Etienne du Mont. It is not particularly striking building from the outside. A large barrack-like erection, five stories high, it fills half the eastern side of the street. Over the main entrance, cut in the keystone of the arch, are the words College des Ecoles in the old spelling of the word. The building is a fine specimen of the French degree of bachelor of arts.

RIFLE AND KNIFE.

Weapons Used by Crazy Lover in Killing Girl and Himself.

Montello, Wis., Oct. 10.—The refusal of Susie Austin, who lives four miles from here, to marry him, prompted Frank Hassenfuss to kill the girl and himself. He shot her with a repeating rifle. Then he shot himself, but as he did not die fast enough, he completed the job by cutting his throat with a jack knife.

CUBS WIN BY HITTING

Chicago Champions Hit Tiger Supporters Have Not Lost Hope of Victory.

Tigers Are Unable to Do Anything Against Reulbach.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The Detroit American league team yesterday was given its second successive defeat at the hands of the Chicago Nationals, scoring only one run. Chicago tallied five times, four of the runs being the result of solid hitting. Siever started to pitch for Detroit, but the locals took to his curves and batted him out of the box in four innings. Killian then took up the box work and was found for three hits and another run in the fifth.

Detroit tried vainly to break through the Chicago defense. Reulbach pitched strongly in the opening inning and when he showed signs of weakening in the fifth and sixth innings his teammates came to his rescue with fast double plays. For some inexplicable reason the game failed to attract the usual large crowd to the grounds. The official attendance figures made the total 2,214, and the many empty spaces in the extended bleachers made the gathering appear even smaller than it was.

The crowd was more demonstrative than the big outpouring of Wednesday. Reulbach's brilliant pitching in the early innings and the crashing hits of Steinfield, Evers and Sheikard roused so Chicago partisans while the Detroit contingent cheered the more heartily that the visiting team might not think itself deserted.

The receipts yesterday were $15,212.50, divided as follows: To the national commission, $1,521.25; to the players, $9,727.50; to each club, $2,968.75. The detailed score follows:

HERALD'S WEST DULUTH DEPT.

JUSTICE AS MEDIATOR OF STREET

He Settles the Troubles of Husband and Wife.

Wife Claimed to Have Taken Note and Insurance Policy.

Justice Plack was called upon yesterday to assume the role of peacemaker again in a family row. As a result of his efforts, Mr. and Mrs. John Berron of 230 North Sixty-second avenue west, left his office on more congenial terms than when they entered, although all was not forgiven and forgotten, by any means.

Berron appeared at the police station yesterday morning and reported that his wife had secured possession of a savings bank note for $160 in his favor, and his life insurance policy of $1,000, and that she intended to flee the country. He said they hadn't been on the best of terms of late and that he feared the woman intended to leave. He said she secured possession of the papers, the most valuable things in the house, and was going to carry them off with her.

Mrs. Berron was summoned and she boldly denied that she knew anything of the note or policy. The justice was stumped. The man had lost the papers, the woman didn't have them, and the thief was therefore unknown. But he didn't give up. He assumed his most impressive judicial bearing, gave the woman a straight and pointed talk, and she dug down into her pocket and fished out the missing note. Berron later found the insurance policy at home and his financial standing is secure, even if the woman does leave.

EXTENSION OF STREET

Ramsey Street Will Soon Reach Site of Dock.

Material From Grading Found to be Good Filling.

People, with whom the Ramsey street dock has been a hobby, look out to the east end of Ramsey street now and smile complacently. For, with the exception of a narrow strip, the stretch of water between the shore line proper and the point at which the street formerly stopped, has been bridged with earth.

When grading was begun on Ramsey street for the pavement it was suggested that the board of public works instruct the contractor to dump the material taken from the street into the bay at the foot of Ramsey street, to bring the thoroughfare out to the site of the proposed dock, which has been hanging fire for many months. The suggestion was acted upon and the results are pleasing.

The material taken from the street consists of old cedar blocks, gravel and dirt, and it makes an excellent filling. It has been dumped into the bay up to the level of the street and a roadway formed of the same width as the roadway of Ramsey street. It is the plan to fill the dock with the portion of Onota street to be paved is graded, the extension will probably be completed.

The season is now too late to allow the construction of the dock this year, but it will very probably be constructed early in the spring so as to be ready for use shortly after navigation opens. The greatest cause of delay over the building of the dock was a controversy in regard to the approach. The original plans called for the only approach on Forty-ninth street. There were decided objections to it on the part of West Duluth business men, who wanted the approach on Ramsey street. With Ramsey street extended to the site of the dock there will be no grounds on which the controversy can continue, and the dock will probably be built.

Joe Banhrukoska, Sixty-fourth avenue west and Wadena street, yesterday contributed $1 and cents to the city coffers through the medium of Justice Plack's court. Complaint was made against Banhrukoska by Northern Pacific officials, the charge being trespass, for sweeping grain from cars standing in the yards. Banhrukoska pleaded guilty to the charge. The justice decided that a man with such a name had troubles of his own, so he let him off with $1 and cents.

SALESMAN IN ALASKA

Duluth Jobbing House Sends Representative to Frozen North.

The Territory of Duluth Wholesale Houses is Rapidly Extending.

Nothing better illustrates the marvelous growth of Duluth jobbing interests than the action which has just been taken by the new Northern Shoe company in placing a salesman in Alaska.
George Thayer leaves Seattle today for Alaska, where he will represent the shoe company and endeavor to place Duluth made shoes on the feet of the people of that country.
A few years ago it was considered that the territory of Duluth jobbers did not extend beyond the Dakotas and Northern Minnesota. But there is a different story to tell now. Practically every Duluth jobbing house considers all the country east of the Rockies, as far south as Missouri and Kansas, and as far north as Winnipeg within its territory. Salesmen from Duluth houses are energetically pushing westward into the coast states. Some of the local firms have branch houses in Washington and Oregon, and those which have not branches there are breaking into this field with salesmen.
But the latest field to be touched is Alaska, and now a Duluth firm will compete with the Seattle and Portland jobbers for the Alaskan trade.
It is not unlikely that within the next few years Duluth shoes and Duluth dry goods, and Duluth hardware will be found in far off Dawson and Nome.

Just the Color
If you have any particular color in mind for your fall suit or overcoat, you will find it at the Fitwell Clothing Parlor. They carry the largest stock and have the biggest assortment to choose from. Give them a trial.

SHE GOT HER SODA.

She picked up the two grass porch mats from underneath the car, and this happened in a suburb, where folks live in houses—and said to him "Let's go out front."
So they did. It was very warm and humid. The afterglow in the western sky had the coppery look that follows a day of extreme torridity, says the New York Sun.
"See the new moon," she said to him.
"Dry looking, isn't it?" turning his porch mat over so as to find the cool side. She adjusted her flowing white skirt with great care and precision.
"My, even one's clothes feel as if they'd just been taken out of a oven," she exclaimed, dryly—very dryly.
"Uh-huh," said the young man, picking imaginary dust from one of his shoes.
A boy passed down the street making a peculiar sort of buzzing sound through his teeth.
"Queer how some of these boys can imitate things, isn't it?" she said, as the boy's odd music died away on the humid air. "A boy that puffed the rolling chair we rode in on the Boardwalk when we were down at Atlantic City could give a perfect imitation with his teeth, and lips of the drawing of soda water," and she shot him a crafty glance out of the corner of her eye.
"That's?" mildly inquired the young man, giving his trousers a series of tugs at the knees to prevent them from bagging.
An expression of disappointment crossed the girl's face as she drew her handkerchief through her fingers.
A man living in the house next door began to wet down the front yard grass.
"Well, the grass is getting a cool drink, isn't it?" commented the girl pointedly.
"Yep, so I see," replied the seemingly thick skulled youth, trying to form into his stute three toothpicks that he pulled from his pocket.
"By the way, when we visited Greenwood cemetery the other day we saw an odd thing," said the girl, rather irrelevantly, after a long pause. "Among the peculiar looking monuments was that over the grave of a soda water manufacturer. A very rich man he was, we heard. Well, his monument looked for all the world like a soda water fountain. They told us that it was made so at the express wish of the dead soda water manufacturer; he left the plans and plans as to how it should be built in his will."
"Stitch old smudge, wasn't he?" commented the young man, chucking the toothpicks away impatiently, the stick refusing to fashion themselves properly.
"The girl was looking quite flustered, but he appeared not to notice it. Her lightning began to flicker in the west and a dark cloud sailed bulkily over the horizon. She called his attention to the cloud.

"What a queer chocolate color it is, isn't it?" she asked him in a significant tone.
However, he ducked.
"A locust hummed like a piece of cheese to me," he replied.
"We had the doctor in for mamma yesterday," said the girl after another considerable hiatus. "And what do you think the doctor told her? He said that she didn't drink half enough of fluids to tell her that the more fluids folks drink the better it is for them—not intoxicating fluids, you know, of course, but—er—well, just fluids."
"You're the sure on-high chips, these doctors, nowadays, aren't they?" the young man asked her idly.
A locust hummed his brief lay in one of the front yard trees.
"What a dog day sound, isn't it?" exclaimed the girl, and her voice had certain hoarse, nervous breaks in it by this time. "Makes one think of the droughts of Egypt and all that."
"Ye-eh," he replied, twisting the pup's ears through his fingers.
But she had gone the full distance, and she couldn't stand any more of it. She rose.
"I am going in to make some ice water," she said frigidly. "Will you have some?"
Then he, too, rose and grinned at her. "Right thirsty, aren't you, Gert?" he said, innocently.
"Yes, I am," she replied, right like that. "I am simply perishing of thirst."
"Uh-huh," he said genially. "All right. Come on down to the corner chemist's and I'll take you to a crock of the chocolate soda. But say, Gert, it's just as well for you to get it right. I was next to the ice men's place when they were making out the list of the day's ready-made stuff in on top of 'em. Ready? Well, come on!"

Do Your Meals Fit?

Do You Feel Snug and Comfortable Around Your Waist Line After a Hearty Meal?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have putted your roundness in girth and felt proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Do you feel rosy now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form, and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour risings or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak. If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloated feeling of aversion to food, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty, and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—each grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong, powerful stomach. They actually digest your food for you. Besides, they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested, it will give you strength, vim, energy, and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all around your waist line after every meal and it will make you feel food all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel happy after eating a good, hearty meal. Take one or two after eating. You'll feel fine—then your meals will fit, no matter what or when you eat.

We want to send you a sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets free of charge, so you can test them yourself and be convinced. After you have tried the sample, you will be so satisfied that you will go to the nearest drug store and get a 50c box.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Rumors of Changes in Administration of the Sudan.

Cairo, Oct. 11.—Since the beginning of the year, rumors have been current as to possible changes in the administration of the Sudan, and now that the autumn statement is made that civil and military affairs will be placed in the near future in the hands of two officers instead of one there is a disposition to accept it as accurate.

It has been realized for some time that a division of functions was inevitable. Immediately after the reconquest of the Sudan it was sound policy to give practically supreme power to one man. But the work of reconstruction and consolidation has been done. What remains is the development of government, and it is in accordance with the best informed opinion that the two sides should be separated.

The belief is that the change will be effected at the close of Sir Francis Wingate's term of the combined offices of governor-general and commander-in-chief. Names mentioned as his likely successors are Lord Edward Cecil for the governor-generalship and Lord Curzon for the command-in-chief. Lord Edward Cecil has had much experience in Egypt, and in the Sudan he is the under secretary for finance at Cairo, a post formerly held by Lord Milner.

Dies in Great Agony Unknown to Mother Who is Sick.

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 10.—(Special to The Herald).—Playing about the house, the 3-year-old daughter of John Dahl of Waukegan, Gogebic Iron range, managed to get hold of some sort of poisonous concoction, which she swallowed. She died in agony shortly afterward. A particularly sad feature of the case is the fact that the mother of the child has been lingering between life and death in a Chicago hospital and has not yet been informed of her daughter's death.

HAD BAG FULL OF RATS.

Officer Beatty Will Never Bother This Hoboken Man Again.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 11.—"What have you in that bag?" asked Policeman George Beatty, standing on Orchard avenue at 3 a. m., and who he thought was acting suspiciously.

"Rats," was the answer.

"That's absurd," said the policeman. "Tell me what's in the bag or I'll take you in."

"You can take me in if you like," was the reply; "but all there is in that bag is about a dozen rats—live ones at that."

"Are you any relation to the Pied Piper of Hamelin?" asked the policeman.

"No," said the man, "I live in West Hoboken and I've been hired to catch a lot of rats for a rat-baiting that is to come off somewhere in North Hudson."

Beatty did not believe the statement, and insisted that the bag should be opened. The man handed over the key, telling Beatty to open it for himself. Beatty did so, and then dropped the bag as the dozen rats swarmed out and scurried to safety. The man roared with laughter at Beatty's trick.

The policeman allowed him to go without even taking his name. He said he did not care to meet him again.

THE WALKER SANATORIUM

Dr. Marcley Tells About Open Air Treatment For Tuberculosis.

State Institution is to be Opened Early Next Month.

The new state sanatorium for consumptives which the state of Minnesota has provided for and which will be opened Nov. 1 of this year at Walker, Minn., was the subject of an interesting paper by Dr. Marcley, at one of the sessions of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs, held recently at Faribault. Dr. Marcley has made an extensive study of the outdoor cure for the consumptive and has been engaged by this state to superintend the Walker sanatorium. The Federation of Women's Clubs is much interested in the work to be attempted and Dr. Marcley's paper will be of interest to many. It is, in part, as follows:

"Tuberculosis went into the wilderness of the Adirondacks over thirty years ago, very ill with consumption, but came practically well there and established at Saranac Lake the first sanatorium in America for the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis. This was the beginning of the organized campaign against tuberculosis in this country. Dr. Marcley had been carrying on the open air treatment in Silesia for several years. He taught that climate was not the most important factor in treating the disease, that the greatest importance should be attached to how, not where the patient lived, and that he should be under constant supervision, and therefore would make the best progress in a sanatorium designed especially to treat him.

"Tuberculosis' splendid work in the Adirondacks has attracted the attention of the whole world and in many of the states of our country an interest has been awakened in the sanatorium treatment resulting in the establishment of state sanatoria.

"The first state sanatorium for the treatment of this disease was opened in Massachusetts, nine years ago, in a climate formerly thought to be not only unfavorable to the pulmonary invalid, but to some extent the cause of his illness. The capacity at first was 175 patients. Two subsequent enlargements have increased this number to 250. The institution represents today an investment of $500,000 and more than $100,000 is appropriated every year by the state legislature to maintain it.

"In 1901, in the legislature of Minnesota, a law was passed creating a commission to study the tuberculosis question and report upon the advisability of establishing a sanatorium for consumptives in this state. The commission composed of Dr. H. L. Taylor of St. Paul, Dr. J. L. Camp of Brainerd and Dr. W. S. Wattam of Warren. They visited the various sanatoria in this country, investigated the subject thoroughly and emphatically recommended that the state establish such a sanatorium.

"A location was selected near Leech Lake, in Cass county, 740 acres of land were procured and the institutional building begun. Today two cottages and one of the wings of the main building are ready for occupancy and the sanatorium will be opened about Nov. 1 next.

"The site is ideal. It is near the town of Walker on the Minnesota & International railway, 200 miles due north of St. Paul. A beautiful forest surrounds the buildings, a dense growth of pine trees protecting them from the bleak north and west winds of winter. The lake, which furnishes an excellent water supply, is a quarter of a mile distant and about 200 feet below the building, so that the dampness from the water will not reach the patients. The sandy soil allows very good drainage. Abundant sunshine and the best of pure air abound and railway facilities are nearby. The sanatorium is situated on the grounds, one-half mile distant from the buildings. There is an admirable opportunity for gardening and grazing, making possible the production of vegetables, milk and eggs for use in the sanatorium. In fact, here are all the features desirable for an institution of this kind.

"The buildings are planned especially for the carrying out of open air treatment. The present main building is but a part of the general plan, and has been adapted to present needs, containing the dining room, kitchen, laundry, apartment for superintendent, room for other employees and a ward each for men and women patients, with locker rooms and excellent bathing facilities. The piazzas are sufficiently large for all patients to sit out at one time and are thoroughly screened. The two cottages are erected on the plan of the open air 'lean-tos' used at some other sanatoria. Each has a central section heated and containing a sitting room and a bath room, well equipped, including shower baths, lockers and a sleeping pavilion, extending out on either side, open to the south, screened and provided with canvas curtains to be used during inclement weather.

"Patients sleeping in these pavilions are practically out of doors. The circular about to be published with reference to the opening of the sanatorium contain the following statements: As this institution was established for the treatment of those cases that are showing the first symptoms of pulmonary tuberculosis, it will be the endeavor, in accordance with the law, to admit only those patients who have slight disease, and who offer a hope of cure, or of such amelioration of symptoms that they may become wage earners again. It is further intended as an educational institution, where patients will be taught the simple but important laws of hygienic living. The sanatorium should in no sense be considered a home for the hopelessly sick. Patients must have resided the route for one year.

Application for admission should be made to the superintendent at Walker. When a vacancy exists, he will send an order for the patient to go to an examiner. The examiner will send the report of his examination to Dr. Marcley, who will admit the patient if he is considered a suitable case for treatment. The charge for patients will be uniform, at the rate of $7 per week. County commissioners are authorized to pay this charge for any patient they send.

It is wise for the State sanatorium to admit only those applicants who offer hope of great improvement, and perhaps complete recovery within a few months. Experience has shown that there are many of these cases who never come to the sanatorium, well-known, oft repeated, but important and interesting fact that a large majority of post-mortem examinations upon cases dying of other diseases, show signs of healed tubercular lesions in the lungs. Many people have in the past been cured of tuberculosis, not knowing they were tubercular. The state sanatorium should make every effort to find the incipient case. There are in this state enough of these early cases to fill the new sanatorium many times over. Examiners have been appointed in every county in the state. Three or six months spent at the sanatorium, when the disease is just beginning to show itself, may prevent years of suffering and incapacity and financial distress.

"Contrary to the popular opinion, the sanatorium is the most cheerful place that one can imagine. Various sports are indulged in, every sanatorium having its own specialties. Golf, boating, canoeing, skating, snow shoeing, fishing, shooting, nature study, the workshop, needle work, baseball even—almost all of these features may be instituted at Walker. The person who loves nature will surely find there many paths of pleasure and profit as he follows the prescription to walk one hour daily, or two hours or as much as he can, in some of the most beautiful scenery in the state. Let us give him a fair chance. Because he has been an inmate of an institution for consumptives, let us not brand him as dangerous, but let us rather remember that for that very reason he is infinitely more to be desired as an intimate companion than those untutored persons who are careless regarding the proper hygienic ways of living."

Madrid, Oct. 11.—A British firm will probably be invited to undertake the supervision of the construction of a new navy for Spain in the Spanish navy yards. A new administrative system is being arranged. The commanders of the Ferrol and Cartagena dockyards will be concerned only with military surveillance and the maintenance of order; and at the admiralty the four existing officers concerned with construction will be replaced. A new post, to be filled by a state mayor, will be the central authority. There will be a second for new construction, machinery, ordinance, etc., a third, to be known as the director of the mercantile marine; and a fourth for other branches of the service.

The vote for new construction will be practically $40,000,000, to be spread over eight years, and to include the improvement of naval bases as well as new construction. The vessels to be laid down upon the passing of the act are three battleships of 15,000 tons, costing each $3,000,000; three destroyers of 500 tons displacement and twenty-eight knots speed; twenty-five torpedo boats of 150 tons, and three gunboats of 50 tons and thirteen knots speed. Provision is included for the completion of the two cruisers Reina Regente and Galatin, now in hand. The naval works will include a new dock at Ferrol.

DULUTH-SUPERIOR BRIDGE.

Tunnel Suggested That Would Cost Less Than a Bridge.

To the Editor of The Herald:
I was much interested in your recent editorial about the "Bridge Accidents." Though far from you I am always interested in Duluth and particularly in those things with which I had anything to do in the old times. A lot of us protested vigorously when they put that bridge there in the first place. With as much traffic as you have thereabout, any kind of a bridge is a nuisance and a detriment, and a drawbridge is particularly so. If they felt that they must have a bridge in preference to a much cheaper and better crossing, then why not have had a bascule bridge, one that lifts up at the ends, leaving an absolutely clear channel and as absolutely closing off any possibility of trains running into the river? Such a bridge needs no central, obstructive pier for the draw. What we hammered for and begged for at the time, and something that The Herald could and should vociferously clamor for now, is a tunnel, not the ordinary type of tunnel that is bored away below the bottom of the river, but one that is, in reality, a "submerged bridge." That is, it is a series of tubes, much like the old "whalebacks," joined together and sunken from the surface into a previously dredged ditch in the bottom of the river. The top of these tubes need be but just below the depth of required channel. The tubes are made of steel and concrete and are put together, actually made, at some adjacent point, towed to about where they belong, the bulkheads knocked out, the tubes filled with water and sunken and then joined by a diver, the tubes anchored in place so that their buoyancy will not bring them to the top of the water and float, the water pumped out, and there you have a completed tunnel at less than half the cost of the regulation tunnel scheme, at less cost than a bridge, and without the necessity of maintaining men and power for the working of the draw, and it is something that is always in use, without delays to trains and offering absolutely no interference to navigation.

We first exploited that scheme for Duluth a great many years ago, when several of the railroads were planning to use the Point for freight terminals and it became necessary to cross the canal with something that would not obstruct navigation. Even when that scheme was abandoned, the tunnel project was kept alive with the idea of using it to cross the canal (tubes for street railway, vehicle and foot traffic) to what it was planned to make a grand suburban residence section. But hard times came along and knocked all those schemes. At that time many engineers thought us very visionary fellows and swore by all that was holy that such a plan of tunnel was unfeasible, the "fright idea of a lot of dreamers." But since then, Paris has installed such a "submerged bridge," and engineers in this country and elsewhere have used the same idea in part at least, and now we have at least three similar projects in this country and two in England that are reasonably sure to materialize.

Yes, for interested and disinterested motives, I would strongly urge The Herald to clamor for a tunnel crossing instead of a bridge, the clearing away of all obstructions to both railroad and marine traffic. If the people get together and ask such a thing of the railroads and make their request loud enough, they will be listened to.

Department of Justice Likely to Cause Some Arrests Soon.

Will Prosecute Those Selling Compounds Under Name of Whisky.

FROM THE HERALD
WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Washington, Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—The department of justice is preparing for a wholesale raid upon violators of the pure food and drug act, and it is probable that within the next few days arrests will be made in various cities of saloonkeepers who are selling improperly branded labeled compounded liquors.

Dr. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, says that the pure food law which was enacted on June 30, 1906, has resulted in placing upon the American market purer foods and drugs than ever were offered for sale before, and that the United States today is living under a law which absolutely insures purity in our foods and drugs.

A remarkable fact, said Dr. Wiley, "that of all manufacturers who are affected by the law only those making whisky have shown any disposition to evade or dodge the provisions of the act as interpreted by the attorney general. Packers of all sorts of canned goods, salmon, sardines, vegetables and fruits, came around to the law without the slightest trouble and this, in spite of the fact that hundreds of dollars worth of labels had to be destroyed. The manufacturers of whisky, however, especially those known rectifiers, are endeavoring to do everything in their power to nullify the act. Under the advice of their attorney many of them, the great majority of them—have absolutely refused to place the proper words on the bottles which they sell. The reason for it? Why, the reason for it is that they are afraid of the public. They are afraid of the law and how much pure alcohol with some little coloring matter added is sold under the name of whisky or compound whisky. There is nothing to do with the prosecution of violators of this or any other law, we rather the difference and the attorney general does the rest, and the attorney general is now prosecuting the violators in this country and two in England that are reasonably sure to materialize.

Yes, for interested and disinterested motives, I would strongly urge The Herald to clamor for a tunnel crossing instead of a bridge, the clearing away of all obstructions to both railroad and marine traffic. If the people get together and ask such a thing of the railroads and make their request loud enough, they will be listened to.

Recently Secretary McCall entered into a contract with the Electric Boat company of New York, for the construction of seven torpedo boats. The secretary had at his disposal an appropriation of $3,000,000 made by the last congress. It being provided that the boats which stood the severest tests should be adopted. Under that law the secretary decided to consult the attorney general and the president, that he had no right to carry out experiments to ascertain whether or not any other inventors have produced serviceable, safe and satisfactory sub-marine craft. It is understood that any inventor who can demonstrate to the satisfaction of a board appointed by the secretary of the navy that he has such a craft will be permitted to sell to the department one or more of his boats.

For generations the "water-witch" as the operator of the diving rod has been called, has gone down the country detecting the presence of underground water by means of a device ranging in complexity from the forked branch of a hazel, peach or other wood to more or less elaborate mechanical or electrical contrivances. Through-out the rural districts, superhuman powers being ascribed to the operator of its ability to tell of the presence of underground streams of water. So many and so curious have the stories been in conjunction with the use of the divining rod, that the government has decided to conduct a geological survey, began experiments with a divining rod of the witch hazel type and recently made his results public, which results disprove the myth and legends surrounding the water-witch. The geologists found after many tests that the down turning of the rod resulted from slight and unaided for-unconscious changes in the inclination of his body, the effects of which were communicated through the arms and wrists to the rod. No movement of the rod from cause outside the body could be detected, and it soon became obvious that the view held by other men of science—that the operation of the "divining rod" is generally due to unconscious movements of the body or of the muscles of the hand. The experiments made by the scientist in question show that these same movements most frequently where the operator's experience has led him to believe that water may be found. The usefulness of the divining rod is indicated by the fact that the rod may be worked out will by the operator. That he fails to detect strong currents of water running in tunnels and other channels that afford no surface indications of water and that his locations in limestone regions where water flows in well defined channels are rarely more successful than those dependent on mere guesses.

THE CLOUDS ARE NOT ROLLING BY Writer of the Famous Song Lands in Police Court.

London, Oct. 11.—It is the irony of fate that Tom Maguire, the one time famous composer of popular songs, who wrote "Wait Till the Clouds Roll By," should find himself heavily beset by the clouds of adversity. Blind, deaf and compelled to earn an insufficient living by playing the concertina before the lines of people who wait at the doors of London's theaters, he has been arrested for "creating an obstruction" and haled into court, but was discharged by a kind-hearted magistrate.

Maguire's case is a striking contrast to the stories one reads of thousands of dollars made out of popular songs. In his day Maguire's songs were as popular as any, but if thousands were made from them, he, at least, never saw any of them.

"Wait Till the Clouds Roll By," and "Three Leaves of Shamrock," both of which were written by Maguire, were almost as popular and widely known in the United States as here. His "Soldier's Sweetheart," "The Soldier's Letter," "The War Song," "Mother Dear," and "Kathleen Ashore," all made big hits here, and thousands of copies were sold, yet Tom never received a penny of royalty. For his "Three Leaves of Shamrock" he was paid $10; "Soldier's Sweetheart" he netted him $35, and "The Soldier's Letter" he sold for $18.

Maguire's songs have been the stepping stones to popular favor for many of England's famous music hall stars. He wrote the words for "Oh Jerusalem, Don't You Go to Sea," which was one of the early successes of Marie Lloyd. Marie is now the highest paid singer in the English halls, and earns more per week than Tom earned for all his songs put together. The two Macs, Henry Melville, Charles Russell, Harry Tate and Harry Monkhouse sang others of his songs nightly. At Deacon's Music hall, the old Gaiety and other famous halls of days gone by, Maguire makes his way about with the help of his wife. He plays some of his old tunes, and she tries to sell cheap copies of the music. His concertina is cracked, and the music is wretched, but the devoted wife can see no blemish.

MANY YEARS' SEARCH

For Grave of Her Soldier Brother, Successful at Last.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 11.—After forty-three years of constant search, Mrs. M. L. Holman of Dallas, Tex., has been made glad by the discovery, in Camp Chase cemetery, Columbus, of the grave of her brother, Newton M. Pettit, a soldier of the Eighteenth Texas Cavalry, who died here while a prisoner of war. This grave was found by her son, Henry Holman, a national organizer for the American Federation of Labor, who identified the inscription, "No. 28—M. M. Pettit, Eighteenth Texas Cavalry," on the headboard as that of his uncle, Newton M. Pettit, of whom the family only knew he had died in a Northern prison.

Col. W. H. Knauss has promised to rectify the error in the last letter of the name of the headboard, which the family will replace with a marble shaft.

Mr. Holman picked a bunch of brilliant autumn leaves from a tree over the grave, to send to his mother in Dallas, whose long search for her brother's grave is so happily ended.

A FLOATING MACHINE SHOP.

Ship to be Added to British Fleet is Most Complete.

Glasgow, Scotland, Oct. 11.—There will be added to the British fleet in a week or two, at a cost of $1,000,000, one of the most interesting and complete floating engineering factories yet constructed. This vessel, named the Cyclops, is 400 feet long, 55-foot beam, and 11,300 tons displacement. Her extensive holds have been fitted up as shops similar to those to be found in large engineering works. There is, for instance, a large foundry to produce the heavy castings, and electric power cranes are fitted to manipulate these. There is a smithy with electric fans for the blast, large steam hammers and equipment for making large forgings. There are furnaces and bending slabs for bending plates, bars and angles; copper smithy, with forge; bending machines, power hammers, etc.; plumber shops and kindred departments, with machine tool shops for working the forgings and castings to finish dimensions.

Such a ship in peace time will accompany each fleet to undertake repairs, but it is evident from the fact that the speed is only twelve knots that she will not be required to attend a squadron in action. Each ship, however, has its own repairing department.

SENSATIONAL TURN

Osborn, however, according to Osborn, and he declares that among those who learned of it was young Clark. He says that not only did Clark know of the marriage, but that only a short time ago he sought to have it annulled, having gone so far as to consult a New York lawyer on the subject.

Osborn was a student in Princeton when the marriage with Miss Maloney was alleged to have taken place. He said today that after the ceremony the young woman returned to her home, while he remained with his parents. There were frequent meetings, and when the young woman sailed for Europe with her family, last January, he was at the pier to bid them goodbye. During her stay abroad the young woman wrote frequently. He never has seen her since she sailed in January, however, as he was unable to meet the steamer when the Maloneys returned, and something always happened to prevent them keeping several engagements which were made after her return. He frequently talked with her on the telephone, however, he said, the last time on the Saturday before she disappeared.

Osborn is the son of the late William E. Osborn, for many years an officer in the American Sugar company. He is 23 years old, an only child, and a fortune will come to him at the death of his mother. The Osborn family came originally from Newton, Mass.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—The nearest relative of the Maloney family that could be found in this city today was Mrs. Andrew P. Maloney, wife of Martin Maloney's brother. She said she knew nothing of the reported marriage of Helen Maloney to Samuel Clark, beyond what has been printed in the newspapers, and added that she never heard that her niece had been married several years ago. The interview with Arthur H. Osborn published, in which it is alleged that Osborn and Miss Maloney had been married several years ago, puts a serious light on the affair, she said, but she felt that she was not justified in speaking for her brother, who is out of town.

The activity shown by the servants about the Maloney winter residence in West Logan square, this city, today indicates that the family is about to return here for the winter.

Andrew P. Maloney, uncle of the missing girl, when found later in the day, said that his brother, Martin Maloney, was prostrated as the result of the disappearance of his daughter and that all interviews said to have emanated from him are untrue.

Mr. Maloney said he believed his brother, while not in communication with his daughter, knows of her whereabouts and expects a message from her at any time. Mr. Maloney said that it occurred to him that his niece may be in Hot Springs, Va. He added that it was also possible that Clark and the girl went to England on the steamer Majestic under assumed names and are now in London.

Mr. Maloney added that he had found a man who had come over from England with Clarkson, and the latter had told this friend that he was coming to America to be married and would return to London with his bride.

Mr. Maloney said he knew nothing of the reported Osborn marriage and was not in a position to discuss it, although he believed it to be untrue. He knew Osborn, he added, as a friend of Miss Maloney's and concluded that it was up to Osborn to prove the marriage.

Miss Clara Dahl of Virginia Becomes Mrs.
Herbert Huff.

Virginia, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Clara Dahl, a young woman of many accomplishments, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dahl, pioneers and prominent citizens of Virginia, was united in marriage Wednesday morning to Herbert Huff, banker of Forsyth, Mont. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents and the service was performed by Rev. J. P. Swenson of Summit, S. D., an uncle of the bride.

The bride's maid was Miss Inga Johnson, while Sigvert Dahl, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. The ring was brought by little Dorothy Dahl, the bride's sister.

Immediately after the ceremony lunch was served and the bride and groom left on the 1 o'clock train for Chicago. They will be at home in Forsyth, Mont., after Nov. 6.

Dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Dahl to the invited guests at 3 o'clock, and the guests from out of town were: Mr. J. N. Dunn of St. Paul, the latter a sister of the bride; Dr. Swenson of Blaine, N. D., and P. N. Swenson of Menomonie, Wis., uncles of the bride.

Mrs. Huff has been prominent in both business and social circles on the range.

For a time she conducted a furniture and piano store at Hibbing, and is also interested in iron ore explorations.

JUDGE PRINCE BETTER.

Expects to Preside in Court Saturday--

Other Eveleth Events.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Vivian Prince has been unable to attend to the municipal court cases as he has been ill in bed with a serious cold. The judge expects to be in court Saturday. He has been subject to the pulmonary attacks for the past three years. His close attention to the political campaign has done very much towards confining him to bed.

Thomas P. Terry, late of the firm of Terry & Terry, has been undecided whether he should yield to the solicitation of his friends and become a candidate for municipal judge or not.

Because of Mr. Terry's familiarity with municipal court routine, it is very probable that he will become a candidate.

J. Surian, brother of D. Surian, the local clothier, has been seriously ill with a complication of diseases, in Sparta, where he is located. His condition is reported as improved.

Along Pierce street, where the Monitor hall is located, work has been started on the sidewalk and gutter that is to be installed there by the Monitor society. The city is to pay for the cost as it was done for J. C. Poole and F. Rabun.

At the corner of Grant and Jones streets work has been commenced to bring the side of the street to the grade of the newly placed cement.

For the first time in the city's history, the street crossings are being kept clear of mud. Under the present street commissioner and council chairman of streets this innovation has gone into force, to the intense satisfaction of the feminine portion of the population.

Thursday evening, Oct. 17, an entertainment will be given in the Monitor hall by the Monitor society. The ladies' choir will furnish the music. Rev. M. Martinson will address those present on "The Swedish American." The address will be in English.

Gilbert Townsite Scheme

Sparta.

Sparta, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the business men's meeting held in the village hall last night several warm speeches were made by some of the leading citizens. The townsite situation was the chief topic. A letter was received from General Manager Postecost Mitchell of the Oliver Mining company, stating that civil engineers were now on the ground platting the townsite and that the company would be ready to meet the citizens of Sparta in a few days. The Gilbert townsite proposition was roasted to a pretty brown and the citizens to shoulder the burden. It is charged that some of the promoters then got busy and organized a new townsite adjoining the Duluth & Iron Range tracks and advised them to buy again in the new townsite, saying the railroad makes the town. Sparta is promised both the Duluth & Iron Range and the Duluth & Northern railway and a union depot.

During the meeting a commercial club was organized with fifty charter members and the following officers: President, A. R. Anderson; secretary, Ammon C. Jones; treasurer, L. Rubenstein.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—For the present the fire department will remain as it is. Ready for Instant Use Without Cooking.

Almost everyone likes cereal food of some kind at breakfast and supper, but the ordinary way of cooking cereals results in a pasty mass that is hard to digest, and if not properly digested the raw mass goes down into the intestinal tract where gas is generated and trouble follows.

Everyone knows that good food properly digested keeps the body well, while poor food, or even food of good quality that is poorly prepared and not digested, is sure to bring on some kind of disease.

The easiest food to digest in this line is Grape-Nuts, made from wheat and barley, some twelve to sixteen hours being consumed in the different processes of preparation. The food, therefore, is ready for instant service, and the starch has been changed to a form of sugar, so that it is pre-digested and ready for almost immediate absorption.

A Chicago lady writes that she suffered for years from indigestion and dyspepsia from the use of food that was not suitable to her powers of digestion. She says:

"I began using Grape-Nuts, and I confess to having had a prejudice at first, and was repeatedly urged before I finally decided to try the food, but I have not known what indigestion, since using it, and have never been sicker or in better health. I have increased in weight from 109 to 124 pounds."

People can be well, practically without cost, if they will adopt scientific food and leave off the indigestible sort. "There's a Reason."

Grape-Nuts Food is crisp and delicious to the taste. It should be served exactly as it comes from the package, it is made up into puddings and other desserts—Bowl of delicious rice, and "The Road to Wellville," in packages.

At present the department pays $1 for each call and $1 for the first hour's work, and a result many want to fire men.

The roll is not called until after the fire so that men appear for roll-call instead of getting out with the cart.

JUDGE PRINCE BETTER.

Expects to Preside in Court Saturday--

Other Eveleth Events.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Vivian Prince has been unable to attend to the municipal court cases as he has been ill in bed with a serious cold. The judge expects to be in court Saturday. He has been subject to the pulmonary attacks for the past three years. His close attention to the political campaign has done very much towards confining him to bed.

Thomas P. Terry, late of the firm of Terry & Terry, has been undecided whether he should yield to the solicitation of his friends and become a candidate for municipal judge or not.

Because of Mr. Terry's familiarity with municipal court routine, it is very probable that he will become a candidate.

J. Surian, brother of D. Surian, the local clothier, has been seriously ill with a complication of diseases, in Sparta, where he is located. His condition is reported as improved.

Along Pierce street, where the Monitor hall is located, work has been started on the sidewalk and gutter that is to be installed there by the Monitor society. The city is to pay for the cost as it was done for J. C. Poole and F. Rabun.

At the corner of Grant and Jones streets work has been commenced to bring the side of the street to the grade of the newly placed cement.

For the first time in the city's history, the street crossings are being kept clear of mud. Under the present street commissioner and council chairman of streets this innovation has gone into force, to the intense satisfaction of the feminine portion of the population.

Thursday evening, Oct. 17, an entertainment will be given in the Monitor hall by the Monitor society. The ladies' choir will furnish the music. Rev. M. Martinson will address those present on "The Swedish American." The address will be in English.

COMPANION OF WELLMAN BACK

Milwaukee Man Believes That Explorer Will Yet Succeed.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—Major H. B. Hershey of the Milwaukee weather bureau has returned from his visit in the neighborhood of the North pole in company with the Wellman polar expedition. "I feel that Mr. Wellman has better than an even chance for success," he said. "The destruction of a portion of our balloon house by a gale, early in July, delayed us more than a month, as we had to go to Norway to get lumber to rebuild it. If it had not been for that accident, I think we should have had a good chance to have reached the pole this summer."

"I have never seen a man more sincerely in earnest than Walter Wellman has been in his efforts to make this expedition a success."

Four men remained at our camp to take care of the equipment through the winter and to conduct some experiments. If Mr. Wellman decides to make another attempt next summer, he will probably have fewer difficulties to contend with than he had this summer, and that much more chance of being successful."

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

TO DEVELOP MUD RIVER

Eastern Money Will Fur- nish Power From Stream for Aitkin.

J. A. Murray of Phila- delphia is Reported Behind the Scheme.

Aitkin, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Mud River water power, near this place, which has been considered by C. S. Nathan for some time as a desirable one to improve for the purpose of furnishing power and light for the village, is now in the hands of being taken up by Eastern capitalists and improved within a very short time. J. A. Murray of Philadelphia, who has been interested in water powers in the West for some years, has been here for a few days looking the ground over and before leaving for home, stated that he expected to return and take hold of the project. While it is not a very large one it is thought the stream with its two heavy falls will provide all the current needed here for years to come.

The reservoir system back of it is extensive. As the village is now running a municipal lighting plant, it is expected with the pumping plant for the city water, some arrangements with the council will be attempted, whereby the village will go out of the business and give the water power company a clear field with reasonable restrictions and provisions for a lower rate than it is possible to make with a steam plant. The people and especially the users of light power are enthusiastic over the prospects.

The warden said that he had been told that Hemmes was a resident of Milwaukee, but that he had not been able to find him. ### Brings Down Mother Bruin and One of Her Cubs.

Brainerd, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—The hunters of this section are receiving reports of their being encountered and occasionally killed. John Anderson of Maple Grove brought in a mother bear and one of her cubs, which he sold to E. C. Kane. When first seen the mother bear was in a tree shaking down acorns to her cubs. Mr. Anderson, who was digging potatoes, saw them and went to a neighbor and secured a gun and returned to the spot. They were still there, and he shot the mother bear, knocking her out of the tree. He then shot one of the cubs, killing it, and then killed the mother, who had been wounded by the first shot. The other two cubs escaped, but his sons were searching for them yesterday.

FARMER POST AND EXPRESSMAN WON

Horse Deal That David Harum Might Have Enviied.

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—In a horse trade between John J. Flannigan, a Marquette expressman, and Albert Houle, a Chocoma farmer, Houle says he got the worst of it. He took the matter into court, and there a second time he got the worst of it. Flannigan sold the horse to Houle for $45. A month after the sale Houle brought the horse back to Flannigan's barn and left it there. Flannigan refused to return the cash, and Houle brought suit. At the hearing in court the farmer contended that the animal kicked and was unmanageable. Flannigan testified that nothing had been said about the horse's kicking propensities when the sale was made. The jury returned a verdict in favor of Flannigan, and awarded him $5 for caring for the horse after Houle had left it in the barn.

ANOTHER OLD PERSON IS MISSING AT YOLA.

Yola, Minn., Oct. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—This community is again agitated by the disappearance of William Siefert, aged 32 years, who has been missing from his home for a week past. The case is a strange one and bids fair to rival that of Mrs. Emily Chase, who disappeared from her home near this place, three months ago and has never been found.

Siefert has lived for a number of years on his claim three miles northeast of Lake George. The old gentleman was rather infirm but perfectly able to take care for himself. He was first missed about ten days ago, but it was not until three days later that it was ascertained for a certainty that his whereabouts were rather infirm but perfectly able to take care for himself. He was first missed about ten days ago, but it was not until three days later that it was ascertained for a certainty that his whereabouts were rather infirm but perfectly able to take care for himself.

the missing man, but in spite of their efforts, they were unsuccessful. A son of Mr. Siefert, who lives at Minneapolis came to Yola a few days ago and began searching. These investigations have been fruitless.

The country around Mr. Siefert's cabin is covered with dense timber and heavy underbrush, and the land is of a swampy nature. Many of the settlers in this vicinity believe that Mr. Siefert became lost in the woods and died from exposure and that his body, like that of Mrs. Chase, will never be recovered.

STRIKE-BREAKERS GIVEN TOUGH DEAL.

Their grips were taken away from them or they were scared and dropped them. The crowd then broke up and the men left for the Twin Cities yesterday morning.

Much depends on the teachers, he maintained, and they should be prepared for the work.

It is not difficult thing to establish these training schools for the teachers, explained Prof. Locker, and once they are established though even in a small way, they will soon grow larger and the results of the training will soon be apparent in the greater success of the Sunday schools.

After the addresses yesterday afternoon, the synod listened to the report of Mrs. Elliah Burton of Minneapolis, corresponding secretary of the woman's board of home missions. She gave a detailed report of the work and was of great interest to the delegates. After a debate in which several of the delegates took part on the question of vacating the office of synodical superintendent, it was finally decided to postpone consideration of the matter until the next session. Gen. R. N. Adams, who has held the office for years, has been chosen as field secretary of a number of synods and his former office is now vacant. The question was taken up again this morning.

A plan was recommended by the committee on home missions for the self-support of the churches. It was decided to plan each church shall return annually to the board of home missions the amount contributed by the board. The report on home missions as read yesterday afternoon by Rev. T. M. Finley of St. Cloud, former pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of this city.

PERRY BREAKS DOWN.

Didn't Remember Slashing George Dey-car With Knife.

One year in the state prison at Waupun for Frank Perry, and one year in Green Bay reformatory for Oscar Lundgren, were two of the sentences handed out by Judge Smith in superior court yesterday. Perry pleaded guilty to a charge of attempt to murder George Dey-car three weeks ago. Perry claimed his mind was a blank in regard to the affair, he having been intoxicated at the time. He broke down when sentence was imposed yesterday.

Lundgren was convicted of raising a Great Northern time voucher from $8 cents to $18.50. He said he did it as a joke, but the judge thought jokes of that kind were too serious, so he gave Lundgren a year to think over and probably come to the same conclusion.

Lid on Clothing Store.

Inspectors Notified.

In the case of the Duluth-Superior Milling company via the Wisconsin state grain commission, John B. Coombs, a member of the Wisconsin grain inspection department, testified that at times the Minnesota inspectors had been notified in advance of the consignment of cars of grain to firms at the Head of the Lakes. The testimony was introduced in an effort to show discrimination. Several other witnesses for the defense were examined, but their testimony had little bearing on the case.

Wife Refused to Come.

After thirty-three years of married life and with one of the defendants thousands of miles away, Judge Smith in superior court yesterday granted John Oja a divorce from his wife in Finland. The couple were married in 1874. Seven years later, Oja came to America, expecting his wife to follow soon after. She didn't do so. Eleven years ago, he sent her money to come, but she took the money and didn't set sail. He secured divorce on the grounds of desertion.

EATING DOGS IN GERMANY.

Harper's Weekly: North American Indians eat dogs because they love them so, also because they are convenient, and, moreover, an eaten dog never bites. But in Germany the people eat dog because beef, mutton and poultry are very scarce and high.

During the year 1906 there were slaughtered for food in the kingdom of Saxony (which constitutes one-third-sixth of the area and contains about one-fifteenth of the population of the empire) 12,222 horses, 13,779 dogs, and an increase of 224 horses and 133 dogs over the year 1905. In all Germany, during the year 1906, there were slaughtered for food 182,000 horses. This is an increase of about 10,000 over 1905, and of about 47,000 over 1904.

Complete figures are lacking in regard to the number of dogs for food in the German empire, but fragmentary statistics indicate that the total number was about 1,000, probably more, rather than less.

In the city of Chemnitz alone 68 dogs were slaughtered in 1906, an increase of 8 over 1905, and during the same period 1,079 horses, an increase of 57 over 1905. While these two items show an increase of 175, the total number of animals slaughtered for food in that city during the year 1906 was 1,085 less than in 1905. Saxony also consumed 244,000 head of cattle (steers, bulls and cows), 42,361 calves, 1,747 ewes, 29,082 sheep and 21,424 goats. These latter figures, excepting those for the goats, are all slightly lower than those for 1905.

Horseflesh is very generally advertised in the German newspapers, especially in the case of the large industrial centers, and most German cities have at least one market which makes it a specialty, claiming for it a higher percentage of nourishment than that of other beef, veal, mutton or pork. Neither is it unusual to find advertisement of dog meat for the purchase of dogs for slaughter.

Nor is it possible to read the German newspapers for any length of time without coming to the conclusion that a great many dogs are killed and eaten that do not give up their lives under official inspection. News items denoting the arrest, trial, conviction and punishment by fine or imprisonment of men charged with killing and eating dogs are not infrequently quite recently such as item told how the police at Cassel, a city of Hesse-Nassau, while searching for a lost dog, for whose recovery a reward was offered, located a private dog slaughterhouse and arrested four men who were apparently making a regular business of stealing and killing dogs. Several live dogs, several half slaughtered carcasses, and evidences of the slaughter of dozens of other dogs were found on the premises.

SALVATION OF NEGROES

Christian Education Their Only Hope, Says Colored Teacher.

The Office of Synodical Superintendent is Abolished.

Taxes are paid by the negroes in the state of Georgia, almost on property valued at $200,000,000, was the surprising statement made by Mrs. A. S. Clark, colored, in an eloquent plea for additional funds to carry on the work among the negroes of the South before the morning meeting of the Presbyterian synod.

Mrs. Clark is a teacher of the Gillespie Normal school located at Cordale, Ga., which is conducted under the direction of the Freedman's Board of the Presbyterian Church of America. She delivered an address this morning following the report of the secretary of the state freedmen's board.

The total value of farms owned by negroes in the United States amounts to $200,000,000. These figures show that not all of the negroes in the South are vagrants, thieves and degenerates. Some are slowly advancing and becoming prosperous and cultured.

"There is not another department of the church work in which the money contributed can be used to such great advantage and is so badly needed," explained Mrs. Clark. "The schools are already very good, but there is room for improvement. More schools are needed and more funds are required to conduct them."

"The progress of the negro race has been wonderful and it has been made under the most adverse conditions. Forty years ago when the negroes were emancipated from slavery there were no graduates from high schools or colleges. Now there are thousands of educated men and women of the black race who are successful professional men. At present there are over 100 lawyers of the negro race, 2,000 doctors and over 30,000 teachers. This shows that some of the negroes are trying to do something."

Only hope is Christianity. "Christian education among the negroes is the only hope of advancement. There are all varieties of minds among the negroes and the teachers must know how to work among and to teach them how to make an honest living."

"Ninety-five per cent of the negroes of the South earn their living by manual labor. The most of these are living and working on farms. If they were taught how to do the work in the most scientific manner and how to farm scientifically, these people would rapidly come to the front."

"At present these negroes do not have a good chance to being anything at all. One negro boy out of four has a chance to go to school and not more than one in ten has enough learning to be called an educational man. So far just a start has been made. It must be taken to their very doors. It is a tremendous opportunity for the Christian workers of the South. The churches are doing something, but not their whole work among the negroes is an important one. It is more important than the work of the churches in the rest of the world. The future of America depends a great deal on how the negro problem is solved."

After Mrs. Clark had finished speaking the recommendations of the Freedman's Board, the report of which was read by Dr. W. R. Kirkwood, asking that additional funds be provided for this work were adopted.

The morning session was taken up with the reading of various reports and the transacting of general business. The session was of question of whether or not the position of synodical superintendent should be abolished. This question was postponed from yesterday afternoon's session was again taken up this morning.

Dr. Adams, who had occupied the office for several years, had been recommended that the office be abolished for a year and the question be reconsidered. The question was decided to do this. No one will occupy the office for the coming year. The question of whether or not the office should be abolished was decided to do this. No one will occupy the office for the coming year.

PLEASANT ISLAND.

A Bit of Land in the Pacific Named for the Natives' Amiable Traits.

The solitary little island of Nauru rises from Pacific depths of about 1,600 feet some 400 miles west of the nearest land of the Gilbert group. It is scarcely as large as an American township, but it is an atoll, but it is a dumping ground for the world's refuse. It is the greatest wonder in the world to the natives.

There is an island in the Caribbean which is smaller in its history to Pleasant Island. It is the Dutch island of Curacao, which was once an enormous atoll, but was lifted by subterranean forces from the ring around the lagoon, became dry land. On the solid side of the island large deposits of phosphates have been discovered, and the beds are now the scene of an important industry.

SALVATION ARMY COLONIES.
A great colonization scheme in Canada, drawn up by the heads of the Salvation Army, has just been approved in principle by Gen. Booth and government officials, says the London Chronicle, and it only awaits the sanction of a joint commission of the army and the Canadian government to be carried into effect.

These are its chief features: The government to sell to the Salvation Army ten townships in the great hay belt, comprising some 230,000 acres. (The land is in the districts of Nipissing and Algoma, Northwest Ontario.) The price to be 25 cents per acre, payment of the same to be spread over a period of ten years, without interest. The army to locate 14 settlers on every township, each having the usual sized homestead—160 acres. These settlers to be under the supervision of Canadian experienced in clearing land for agricultural purposes as well as of officials of the army trained in settlement work. The commission referred to recently surveyed the land and is now on its way to the Salvation Army headquarters in London. The commission, so a prominent officer associated with the Salvation Army emigration department informed a Daily Chronicle representative.

London Globe: Eggs and bacon being the real palladium of British liberty, for few self-respecting Englishmen consider their breakfast complete without them. It is really serious news to hear that the supply of native pigs is falling off. So serious is the deficiency that the Butchers and Pork Butchers' Trade association of Birmingham and district have thought it necessary to issue a special circular calling attention to it. From this we learn that for the year ended June, 1906, there was a decrease in the number of pigs in the United Kingdom of 50,000, and that 1907 showed a further decline of more than 20,000, which would have been much greater but that Ireland had an increase of more than 80,000.

MORE FOAM ON "SUDS"

The Wholesale Price of Beer Has Been Advanced.

Means Smaller Glasses of the Brew Will be Served.

The price of grain has exerted an influence upon the price of beer. Agents of one of the breweries in Duluth has informed liquor dealers that the price of beer is to be advanced 50 cents a barrel. The brewery in question has found that the exceptional high price on barley has reduced profits on beer to such an extent that a life in the price was imperative. Old customers in some cases are going to receive beer, the old price, but new customers of the brewery will have to buy beer at the new figure. Of course the price on retail beer will not be increased, but the customer may find that bartenders will not be so particular in the future as to the amount of foam in the glass. Also he may find that unless he asks for "a high one" he may receive a small glass of suds. Whether the increased price upon beer is temporary, or whether the wholesale price will remain at the new figure has not been definitely determined. It will depend in a great measure upon the price of barley. At the present price upon that commodity, however, the breweries are finding their profits reduced to the point where some action is advisable.

IRON CLEATS FOR CONCRETE WALKS

Believed That Will Keep Pedestrians From Slipping.

City Engineer McGilvray is experimenting on a scheme he has which he believes will do away with many tumbles on slippery concrete sidewalks built on grades this winter. While it is admitted that wooden walks are the safer for steep inclines, the city engineer believes that by the use of iron cleats walks can be made as safe as wooden ones and far more slightly than the walks leading up to the hill streets with wooden cleats nailed on the side to assist the pedestrian in climbing the heights and in coming down. Several walks are being put in on the steep grades and he proposes to try the experiment upon these. Another scheme which he will promote next spring is the use of hands on street rollers when concrete paving is being laid, the hands being enough to give the surface of the street a washboard appearance which he believes will do away with horse slipping.

FROM THE TOP SEAT.

Man Tells Court of Terrific Fall He Sustained.

"I got the blues and fell off the water wagon, that's all," remarked Guy Vandt when arraigned in police court this morning. "How far did you drop?" queried the city attorney. "Clear from the top seat," replied the young man who wore a red sweater and a crestfallen look. Vandt was arrested in the penny arcade on Superior street and had just put on the first act of a wild west show of his own when his revolver was taken away from him and he was taken to the station. He was given the option between $5 and costs or five days.

SECOND ADVANCE NOT PROBABLE

Local Millers Say Flour is at the Top Price.

Are there going to be additional advances in the price of flour beside those which have already been announced? Local millers do not think so, but the Minneapolis papers have it that a boost of 25 cents a barrel is going to be made in addition to the one of 35 cents a barrel already forecasted. "Much of this talk about big boosts in the price of flour is all bosh," said A. D. Goodman, manager of the Duluth Universal Milling company, today. "Here, there will be a 20-cent increase per barrel in the price of flour, but I do not think there will be any more for the present, not unless the market goes away up." According to the Minneapolis writers, the 25-cent increase is to be piled on top of the 35-cent increase there, at once. Although there was a decline in the options today, cash wheat held fairly firm in the local market. No. 1 northern wheat at $1.16 1/2 a bushel. It is upon the rise and fall of this grade of cash wheat that the price of flour depends. It pays to advertise in The Herald. Ask the Columbia.

ARE STOCKS GOING DOWN

Another Bear Day is Seen in Copper Market.

Weakness in the Metal • One of Chief Factors.

It was another bear day in the copper stock market and there were further declines in the leading issues, on bearish news from all sides. The best stocks on the list tumbled and did not regain anything at the close. They were lamentably weak throughout the session and many of them beat previous low marks. A bit of news that did a great deal to encourage the decline was a report from Boston to the effect that a large producer of copper had attempted to sell a block of several million pounds of electrolytic copper at a price ranging from 13 to 13 1/2 cents a pound and that the best bid he was able to secure for it was 12 1/2 cents, and that the bidding was not at all firm. It was also rumored during the day that the Amalgamated mines at Butte were going to shut down entirely next week. North Butte opened at $43.37 1/2—the high price of the day—and sold off almost steadily to the close. Just before the close, which was $40 bid and $40.25 asked, it sold at $40. Amalgamated opened at $56.37 1/2, sold off to $54.37 1/2 and closed at $54.75 bid, Calumet & Arizona opened at $37, slumped to $34.75 and closed at $35 bid and $36 asked. Butte Coalition opened at $11.25, declined to $11.75 and closed at $11.50 bid and $11.50 asked. Anaconda opened at $34.50, advanced to $34.87 1/2, declined to $32.62 1/2 and closed at $33 bid. Superior & Pittsburg was heavily traded in at $8.75 and $8.87 1/2 and declined by the close to $8.12 1/2 bid and $8.25 asked. Heavy trading in Greene-Canaan also marked the day. This stock

An amusing incident occurred in police court today when Attorney M'Keon was called upon to prosecute his namesake, Thomas J. M'Keon, for a violation of the law existing between the two. The city attorney was busy looking over some papers when the judge called "M'Keon." Thomas J. M'Keon, were present.

The city attorney looked at the judge and then to the prisoner. "What about this man?" asked the judge. "If he is anything like his namesake he is a bad one," remarked Chief Troyer. "One dollar and costs," declared the judge.

NO BITTERNESS AGAINST PHELPS

Hansen Smith Says There is No Personal Feeling in Suit.

Hansen Smith has no personal bitterness against H. H. Phelps, he claims, and started the suit against the latter to recover certain properties, in an endeavor to secure what he believes to be justice to the creditors of the defunct Merchants bank. The denial of any personal feeling is made in the reply of Hansen Smith and James P. Smith to Mr. Phelps' answer to the original complaint. The reply denies that Mr. Smith attempts to place the property out of the reach of the creditors, but alleges that instead of this he has, since his discharge in bankruptcy, used several thousand dollars of subsequent earnings to assist the creditors in endeavoring to recover properties, the proceeds of which rightfully belong to them.

It is admitted that the Northern Securities company, of which Mr. Smith was president, prior to the failure of the bank in the amount of $5,000, but alleges that it was paid in full, and the creditors lost nothing by the transaction.

It is further admitted that there was a corporation, known as H. E. Smith & Co., organized with full knowledge of H. H. Phelps, and for the purpose of conserving and protecting the assets of the estate for the benefit of the creditors of the estate. It is also admitted that though some exploration of the range lands had been made, some years ago, it was not an extensive one, and there was no knowledge of any ore. The ore was discovered during a more recent exploration made by a corporation, in which the defendant, Fairchild, is heavily interested. Smith had a small interest in the property, but had in view the protection of the creditors. The petitioners are represented in the action by John A. Keyes. The reply to Mr. Phelps' answer was filed yesterday afternoon with the clerk of the United States court.

MOTHER LOSES SAVINGS ALSO

Son Already Under Arrest for Stealing From Brother.

After seeing her son arrested this morning on the complaint of his brother, who charged him with grand larceny, Mrs. Mary Dutkowski became anxious lest the boy had stolen from her also, and going home examined the little bag in which she kept her savings hidden in her bed, and found $80 missing. The young man, it is claimed, stole $80 from his brother, and now his mother claims he stole $80 from her. The mother and daughter, with the father's assistance, support the family, the father being very feeble. The mother and daughter, by hard work and self-denial, have saved $420. Of this $80 was missing, and they think the young man stole it, although he denies it.

He already is under arrest on the charge of stealing from his brother, and will probably be bound over to the grand jury this afternoon, as he is said to have admitted the theft to the police.

KING AS AN ARTIST.

Other Members of European Royal Families Who Have Talent.

King Edward can not only boast that he has had a picture exhibited at Burlington House at an earlier age than the most precocious of our present Royal Academicians, says London T. T. Bits, but that his picture was purchased for a substantial sum by the public even set eyes on it.

This remarkable, and little known episode in his majesty's life occurred more than half a century ago, when Queen Victoria's children contributed sketches to an exhibition which was held at Burlington House in aid of a fund for the soldiers wounded in the Crimean war. The record price in the exhibition was realized by a sketch entitled "The Battlefield," the work of the Princess Royal, which found a purchaser for the sum of 150 guineas.

The Prince of Wales' sketch (he was only 15 at the time) was bought for 10 guineas; and drawings by the still younger princes and princesses fetched 30 guineas each.

There is, as a matter of fact, scarcely one of Queen Victoria's descendants who has not inherited in some degree her love of art. The late Empress Frederick was throughout her life passionately fond of painting and exhibited so much skill that the Berlin Academy of Arts enrolled her among its members in recognition of her talent as a composer and a draughtswoman.

Prince Henry of Battenberg is little less skillful with the brush, as is proved by the three beautiful landscape pictures which he painted in Queen Victoria's sitting room at Osborne and by many other pictures which have honored places in almost every royal palace in Great Britain. Princess Christiana's talent taken the form of exquisite designs for the tapestries produced by the Royal School of Art Needlework; and Princess Victoria, her daughter, is one of the most skillful amateur painters of flowers in England.

But undoubtedly the best artist in our royal family is Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, who can produce with equal skill a beautiful picture or a life size statue which will compare not unfavorably with most professional work. Nor is proficiency in art by any means confined to English royalties. It is not long since a sumptuous volume was published for a charitable cause, the illustrations of which were largely supplied by royal artists. The German emperor contributed a striking picture of a large ship riding at anchor on a placid sea, surrounded by smaller boats and with a background of distant snow-capped mountains. Queen Amelie of Portugal was represented by a study of a duke's head, ornamented with a diadem, and the queen of Spain by an exquisite study of flowers. The Empress Frederick by a powerful sketch of a boy's head, and Princess Clara of Bavaria by an ambitious and successful etching.

The German emperor, as is well known, is an artist of much more than average skill. One of his pictures, "Fight Between Battleships," is a remarkably powerful piece of work, exhibiting rare skill and technical knowledge, while his design for the tower of the Church of Our Saviour at Cransac proves that he is no mean architect and draughtsman.

King Carlos of Portugal, however, is by universal consent the ablest artist among European sovereigns. Year after year his convalescent crowds of admirers at the exhibitions of the Lisbon Salon, while at the Paris exhibition a pastel entitled "Tunny Fish on the Portuguese Coast" won for him the honor of a silver medal.

The young man, it is claimed, stole $80 from his brother, and now his mother claims he stole $80 from her. The mother and daughter, with the father's assistance, support the family, the father being very feeble. The mother and daughter, by hard work and self-denial, have saved $420. Of this $80 was missing, and they think the young man stole it, although he denies it.

He already is under arrest on the charge of stealing from his brother, and will probably be bound over to the grand jury this afternoon, as he is said to have admitted the theft to the police.

KING AS AN ARTIST.

Other Members of European Royal Families Who Have Talent.

King Edward can not only boast that he has had a picture exhibited at Burlington House at an earlier age than the most precocious of our present Royal Academicians, says London T. T. Bits, but that his picture was purchased for a substantial sum by the public even set eyes on it.

This remarkable, and little known episode in his majesty's life occurred more than half a century ago, when Queen Victoria's children contributed sketches to an exhibition which was held at Burlington House in aid of a fund for the soldiers wounded in the Crimean war. The record price in the exhibition was realized by a sketch entitled "The Battlefield," the work of the Princess Royal, which found a purchaser for the sum of 150 guineas.

The Prince of Wales' sketch (he was only 15 at the time) was bought for 10 guineas; and drawings by the still younger princes and princesses fetched 30 guineas each.

There is, as a matter of fact, scarcely one of Queen Victoria's descendants who has not inherited in some degree her love of art. The late Empress Frederick was throughout her life passionately fond of painting and exhibited so much skill that the Berlin Academy of Arts enrolled her among its members in recognition of her talent as a composer and a draughtswoman.

Prince Henry of Battenberg is little less skillful with the brush, as is proved by the three beautiful landscape pictures which he painted in Queen Victoria's sitting room at Osborne and by many other pictures which have honored places in almost every royal palace in Great Britain. Princess Christiana's talent taken the form of exquisite designs for the tapestries produced by the Royal School of Art Needlework; and Princess Victoria, her daughter, is one of the most skillful amateur painters of flowers in England.

But undoubtedly the best artist in our royal family is Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, who can produce with equal skill a beautiful picture or a life size statue which will compare not unfavorably with most professional work. Nor is proficiency in art by any means confined to English royalties. It is not long since a sumptuous volume was published for a charitable cause, the illustrations of which were largely supplied by royal artists. The German emperor contributed a striking picture of a large ship riding at anchor on a placid sea, surrounded by smaller boats and with a background of distant snow-capped mountains. Queen Amelie of Portugal was represented by a study of a duke's head, ornamented with a diadem, and the queen of Spain by an exquisite study of flowers. The Empress Frederick by a powerful sketch of a boy's head, and Princess Clara of Bavaria by an ambitious and successful etching.

WE'RE 1 YEAR OLD TOMORROW

YOU ARE INVITED TO OUR BIRTHDAY PARTY

Some said we'd never reach that age in Duluth; that we couldn't sell groceries and meats at the prices we are getting and keep on. They didn't figure on the tremendous volume of business that our low prices, square dealing, prompt service and courteous treatment would build up; nor on the fact that we would have absolutely no losses. Credit stores must necessarily do business on the old policy of long profits and a fair patronage; ours is the modern way; very close profits and an immense and constantly growing list of customers.

We extend our sincere thanks to the hundreds of patrons who have co-operated with us in making this store the Popular Trading Center of Duluth. We shall use every effort to better our service and add, in any way, to the benefits we have been enabled to extend. As a mark of our sincere appreciation for past favors, and to properly celebrate our first birthday, we offer the following magnificent values for Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Come one, come all and share in the generous feast prepared for you:

LITERARY AFRICAN CHIEF.

Mutahangara of German East Africa at Author and Publisher.

The richest and most intelligent native chief in the western part of German Africa is becoming well known in Germany because of his excellent qualities and his great helpfulness, as the friend and ally, as well as subject, of the ruling white power. Every public act and many of the private enterprises of the Sultan Mutahangara are deemed worthy of record in the German newspapers, because he has much power and uses it wisely for the good of his people and the Germans, as well as for the advancement of his own interests.

Mutahangara is lord over a beautiful and beautiful region to the west of Victoria Nyanza in the Bukoba province of the colony. His country is Kisiba district, a land of plain and mountain from 4,000 to 5,000 feet above the sea. More than 50,000 people own him as their native ruler, says the New York Sun.

The Germans give him entire charge of the collection of the hut tax on the 10,000 habitations of his subjects and pay him a commission for the work. This is one of the few districts in the colony where the white rulers have no difficulty in collecting the full tax imposed upon the natives.

When Mutahangara first heard of the arts of reading and writing, he became very eager to acquire them and gave a hearty welcome to the teachers who came into his country. He has been a student for nearly twenty years, and is now one of the most proficient native scholars in tropical Africa.

He has some imagination and a gift of literary expression and has recently begun to publish his writing both in his native language and in Ki-Sua-hell, the coast tongue which is known all over tropical East Africa and to some extent even to the Atlantic coast.

The following facts from the Deutsch-Ostafrikanische Zeitung of Dar es Salaam, the capital of the colony, are the latest that have been published about this remarkable man.

He knew long ago that some of the learned men of Europe were especially desirous to collect information about the customs and arts of the less advanced races, to study their history and to record their folklore and traditions. This was an opportunity which the Sultan gladly embraced.

He wrote a history of his people as far as tradition and the memory of living men could hand it down. He made a large collection of the tales, fables, proverbs, songs and myths that are current in his country.

He described his land with its diversity of resources, the advent of the new civilization and its effect upon his subjects. He wrote from fullness of knowledge and with the advantage which his high position and exceptional intelligence gave him.

Of course his writings are not scientific works, but they have their special value as giving the native point of view, and as a large collection of facts recorded by a man who desires to tell the truth, and is well qualified to get at the real gist of things. If a large proportion of Arab blood mingled with the Bantu blood in Mutahangara's veins, he would have been more diffuse and indulged in many speculations.

He imported a printing press, and

STEEL STEAMER CYPRESS LOST ON HER SECOND TRIP DOWN LAKES==TWENTY-ONE OF CREW PERISH

ONLY ONE MAN SAVED

Second Mate Is Washed Ashore Lashed to a Raft.

Condition Is Such He Is Unable to Tell of Wreck.

The Ill-Fated Boat Cleared From Duluth on Thursday.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 12.—The steel steamer Cypress, owned by the Lackawanna Transportation company, on her second trip down the lakes with a cargo of ore, was wrecked last night in Lake Superior off Deer Park, about thirty miles from Grand Marais, Mich., and all of the crew of twenty-two, excepting the second mate, were lost.

C. G. Plitz, the second mate, was washed ashore near Deer Park in a life raft and barely alive. He is in a critical condition and thus far has been able to tell only that the steamer was the Cypress and that he is the sole survivor. He is being given careful medical attention in the hope that his life can be saved. He has suffered terribly from cold and exposure in addition to the battering of the waves. The bodies of the first mate and a watchman have also been washed ashore at Deer Park.

The Cypress was a new boat 440 feet long with a capacity of 7,400 tons. It is believed here that the machinery of the Cypress must have met with an accident as the northwest storm last night was not severe enough to wreck such a strong ship.

No details are expected here until the second mate revives sufficiently to talk.

A careful patrol of the beach is being made by the life saving crew in the search for bodies.

Washington, Oct. 12.—News of the steamer Cypress disaster on Lake Superior was telegraphed to the life

THE SERIOUS ILLNESS OF EMPEROR STARTS GOSSIP CONCERNING SUCCESSOR

General Opinion That Archduke Ferdinand Will Wear Crown In the Event That Francis Joseph Passes Away.

Archduke Has Appeared in More Favorable Light Lately.

Vienna, Oct. 12.—The condition of Emperor Francis Joseph took a turn for the worse at noon and is now considered serious. The following bulletin has been issued by the official news agencies: "The coughing continues, though the emperor spent quite a good night."

The report from Madrid that the visit of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria to Vienna has been postponed indefinitely is confirmed.

The emperor was able to rise at his usual early hour this morning, after having passed an unexpectedly good night. He coughed less and slept more quietly. The catarrhal inflammation, however, has not diminished and his appetite continues bad, although he takes enough nourishment to maintain his strength. His temperature was only slightly above normal, and at 8 o'clock, an hour after his temperature had been taken, the emperor received his aide-de-camp, General Baron Boller von Ahnenburg, and others, listening to the reports which they read.

An unsatisfactory symptom of the emperor's condition is his recurring indifference to what is going on around him and to his own state of health, which his physicians declare is only slightly improved today.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand has shown himself in a much more favorable light as a man during the last two or three years, and during recent months he has demonstrated that he is capable of dealing with public business. The policy of the emperor in preparation for the succession has been to push the archduke forward and take no decision of importance without the latter knowing all about the subject.

W. E. McEWEN APPOINTED

By Governor Johnson to Be State Oil Inspector.

Will Succeed John McDermott, Taking Office on Nov. 1.

St. Paul, Oct. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The resignation of John McDermott, state oil inspector, was today announced by Governor Johnson. It becomes effective Nov. 1.

The appointment of W. E. McEwen of Duluth as Mr. McDermott's successor was also announced by Governor Johnson. The salary is $2,400 a year and the position carries with it not a little political power.

According to the information given out, Mr. McDermott will be the Western representative of a large Eastern concern. He will have headquarters in New York after the first of the

WILL EXPLORE SOUTH AMERICA

Party of Students and Scientists to be Gone Five Years.

New York, Oct. 12.—George Melville Boynton, an explorer, announced that with a party of students and scientists he will penetrate the center of the South American continent and explore thoroughly a wide strip of country from ocean to ocean, where white men never have been. The party will start from New York next January and may be gone five years.

Cannibals infest the country where the explorers will spend most of their time, but no particular danger is apprehended from them. Mr. Boynton lived with them for months several years ago, when he explored the head waters of the Amazon.

The unknown country, into which the explorers will go, is full of natural wonders, among them the black orchid. It is expected that the expedition will cost in all about $100,000, and this will be supplied by members of the party.

year and will move his family to that city.

Mr. McDermott was quite a strong factor in the executive official family, and of late has figured extensively in the governor's presidential boom. Much of the publicity given the boom was said to be due to his activity.

In securing W. E. McEwen of Duluth as his successor, the abiding interest of the governor is in labor circles, is an alderman in Duluth, edits a labor paper, and is chairman of the St. Louis Democratic committee.

ASHLAND WILL LEASE PLANT

Lighting Problem Settled and City Will Not Build.

Ashland, Wis., Oct. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The municipal lighting plant proposition for Ashland was shelved last night, the city council voting to accept the proposition of the Chippewa Valley Construction company to transmit power from Copper Falls, the city to lease the power for three years with the option of purchase at the end of that time. A. E. Appleby of Boston, who built the interurban line between Chippewa Falls and Eau Claire, heads the company. He promises to bring 6,000 horse power from Copper Falls, eighteen miles south of Ashland, by next year.

This eliminates the idea of the city building its own plant. Connected with the deal is a $300,000 business transaction which will develop later. The White River Power company will also have its plant completed and 1,000 horsepower transmitted to Ashland inside of a month.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 12.—Under a sky overcast with threatening clouds, and with a chill wind sweeping through the stands and over the diamond, and weather conditions less favorable for baseball than on any day of the series, the Detroit and Chicago teams met again today for the fifth game of the national championship.

The crowd was even smaller than that of yesterday. Discouraged by Detroit's three straight defeats, the interest of Detroit fans flagged a little, and the unfavorable weather kept many more away. Weather conditions did not deter the Chicago fans, who gathered in the city for the two games. They bunched up in heavy overcoats, and made their way to Bennett park, cheerful and happy, hopeful that the game would be the last of the series and that their favorites would return champions.

Before the game Capt. Chance of the Chicago team was confident of victory. Manager Jennings of Detroit was hopeful of preventing Chicago from making it four straight victories.

STEALS AND SPECULATES

Trusted Manager of Oliphant & Co. Goes Wrong.

New York, Oct. 12.—George H. Brouwer, confidential manager of the stock exchange of the firm of James H. Oliphant & Co., who is directly charged with the larceny of a check of $2,750, the property of Jay F. Carlisle, and who is held under heavy bail at the request of the district attorney's office, in the belief that there are large discrepancies in his accounts, has been considered one of the trustworthy managers in the financial district. He has held that position with Oliphant & Co. for six years.

Mr. Carlisle, who had had room in the Oliphant office, went to Europe a few months ago. Before leaving he had been negotiating the sale of a farm which he owned. Mr. Carlisle entrusted Brouwer with the matter. He told Brouwer if a sale was made to turn over the sum to Mr. Oliphant. The farm was sold, and Brouwer received in payment a check for $2,750.

A few days ago Mr. Carlisle, shortly after his return from abroad, learned by accident that the farm had been sold, and that the check had been turned over to the manager. Brouwer, it is claimed, cashed the check and kept the proceeds.

When confronted with the canceled check, Brouwer broke down and confessed. He said he had spent the money.

It was deemed wise then to look into Brouwer's dealings with the firm, and many irregularities, it is stated, were found. James H. Oliphant said that the firm's losses might reach $100,000, but he could not tell exactly until the experts finished an examination of the firm's books.

Bail was fixed at $50,000, which was furnished. Brouwer is said to have speculated heavily in the market, and the slump wiped away his investments.

OLD BARN AN EYESORE

Complaints Are Made by Many Residents of East End.

City May Take Steps to Remove Unsightly Shacks.

Complaints have been made to the city authorities relative to the presence in residence districts, of old, rickety barns, about to fall down, and which are an eyesore and a nuisance to those who occupy homes near them or contemplate building.

A recent complaint has been made to the health department relative to an old barn near lot B, block 33, Endon division, and the matter is being investigated.

It appears that this barn, according to the report of the party making the complaint, is occupied by several horses and that men who own them have fitted up quarters and occupy the same building. The complaint states that they keep a fire in the building, cook their food there and that residents in the vicinity are in danger of fire from the old fire trap at any time.

Complaints are made that the barn is obnoxious from a sanitary point of view, as it is reeking with the odors of the stable, and in a filthy condition.

How far the city can go in the matter of the removal of old barns in residence districts is being investigated by the city attorney. It is understood, and some steps will probably be taken in the near future to amend the city ordinance governing the question, if such action is necessary. The health ordinance will permit of the enforcement of cleanliness and the fire ordinance will prevent smoking and keeping fires if there is danger of a fire starting, but the object most desired is the removal of the unsightly old barns themselves from different parts of the city.

Several complaints have been made of late and the matter will be thoroughly gone into.

ST. PAUL IS SELECTED

Will Entertain Presbyterian Synod of State Next Year.

Sunday Closing Law is Endorsed—The Convention Adjourns.

St. Paul will entertain the next annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Minnesota.

The invitation of the House of Hope church of St. Paul was the only one read this morning when the matter of next year's meeting was taken up. It had been understood that the church at Albert Lea would ask for the next meeting, but no invitation was extended this morning.

The delegates present were all in favor of St. Paul being the next meeting place. The semi-centennial anniversary of the establishment of the church there is to be held then, and it was the general opinion that the next session should be held there. Mr. Taylor, an elder of the House of Hope church, made a few remarks after the invitation from his church had been read.

Session Is Ended.

At noon today the annual session of the Presbyterian Synod of Minnesota came to an end after three days of the busiest meetings ever experienced by the delegates. At first it was thought that the work would be completed last evening, but this was impossible and another meeting was called for this morning.

During the last few hours of the morning session the synod was almost swamped with work. Numerous reports were left unread and many minor matters were still on the program to be taken up. These were hurried through with as rapidly as possible and the meeting was brought to a close at noon. Most of the delegates have left the city on the afternoon trains, although a few will remain over in Duluth until Monday in order to participate in the religious services in the various churches tomorrow.

Thank Local Church.

Before the meeting adjourned a resolution of thanks addressed to the local entertainment committee, members and pastors of the First Presbyterian church and the associate churches in the city was adopted. It reads as follows:

"The Synod of Minnesota hereby expresses its high appreciation of the successful efforts of the pastor and people of the First Presbyterian church of Duluth and those of associate churches to minister to our comfort and well being. We assure them that we have greatly enjoyed the fellowship with them in their homes and that they have left nothing to be desired in their ministry to the physical man and we will return to our homes holding them in constant and grateful remembrance."

The session this morning was devoted wholly to routine matters and the finishing up of the work of the synod. The report of the committee on religious work at the University was read and adopted. It was optimistic in its tone and demonstrated what good can be done in this direction. Rev. D. D. McKay of Minneapolis was appointed on the committee to take the place of Chas. Hubbard.

Sunday Law Endorsed.

A resolution endorsing the Sunday closing law and its enforcement was unanimously adopted after several strong speeches had been made on the subject. The committee on benevolence and finance reported as did also the committee on the American Tract Society. An address was given by A. E. Glickson of the Bemidji Bible conference and the work which had been accomplished during the past few years. Reports of the standing committees were read and adopted and the committee appointments for the ensuing year given out by the moderator.

Owing to the reason that the conference this year has been so badly crowded with routine work it was suggested that the meeting next year be begun on Wednesday evening, as was the case this year but that they be extended over Sunday and Monday. This was made a motion and was adopted by the synod.

An attempt will be made at the sessions hereafter to induce all of the delegates to remain through to the close of the sessions. A large number of the delegates left the city yesterday and only a handful were on hand to attend this morning's session.

The topic of the meeting yesterday afternoon was "Home and Foreign Missions" and it was one of the most interesting sessions of the synod. Rev. William S. Marquis of Rockford, Ill., ably discussed the matter and Rev. John Dixon of New York, assistant secretary of the board of home missions also spoke on missions. Rev. Guthrie, a missionary who is working at Etah, Africa, also addressed the meeting and told of his work in the Dark Continent.

The board of home missions caused to be circulated among the members a plan of the model missionary church, which is a most comprehensive. Rev. Campbell Coyne and Rev. Henry Swearingen both delivered addresses at the meeting last evening and on the subject, "China and Japan" was treated by Mr. Noyes.

THE POLICE COURT GRIST

Colored Woman Declares That She Fled From Assailant.

Man Looking for Easy Money Tells Poor Robbery Story.

Lillian Davis, colored, was arraigned in court this morning on the charge of drunkenness, and after hearing her statement Judge Windom set the case over for this afternoon.

Lillian was discovered on Michigan street by an officer shortly after midnight last night, feeling, she claims, for her life from the attacks of one Dick Clark, who had been one of a party at a can-rushing feat held in a cottage on St. Croix avenue.

"We had some beer and he got jealous," said Lillian to the court.

"Who got jealous?" was the query. "Dan Clark. He just kicked me hard right in my side," and Lillian winced under the pain the memory of her alleged treatment actuated.

Lillian was attired only in a chemise and a petticoat and was in her bare feet when discovered by the officer and she was making excellent headway down the street when accosted.

This morning she appeared in a sweater that had at one time been white and other wearing apparel she secured through friends who came to her rescue last night.

According to Lillian she came over from Superior for a "party call" on her friends in the cottage, and after several pails of beer had been discussed she excited the wrath of Clark, who set upon her and she fled into the night.

She had been invited to remain at the house for the night and accounts for her scanty clothing by the statement that she had prepared to retire when she was assailed.

A warrant was sworn out for Clark and he was arrested, charged with assault. The case will come up late this afternoon. Lillian being held pending the outcome.

Peter Antiel visited one of the houses in the tenderloin district last night and had considerable money about him. He dreamed he was robbed and reported it to the woman of the house, who found his pocketbook in his clothing and gave it to him with its contents intact. William went out and discovering an officer had another dream of robbery.

The officer investigated and the pocketbook was discovered for the second time, this time hid away in the sock of Antiel.

He was arraigned this morning and the court evidently concluded that he was looking for easy money last night in attempting to give the police the idea that he had been robbed. Antiel will pay a fine of $15 and costs or serve fifteen days with the rock pile squad on the hill.

Chester P. Young came in on a lake boat yesterday and met some companion. Chester claims he was doped, for the four small beers he drank would hardly tend to put him in the mental condition he found himself when he started trouble in the Lyceum theater and was elected by an employee who turned him over to the police. He pleaded guilty to drunkenness, but denied disorderly conduct, and his case will be heard this afternoon.

A mattress maker from the West end, giving his name as John Ingalls, admitted that for three days he had been busy at other things than making mattresses. John felt his disgrace and was anxious to return to work. He was in a bad condition physically and the court thought three days would aid in untangling the knots in his much shattered nerves.

John McConnell, an old timer, overworked the patience of the court, as he has repeatedly promised to be good and quit drinking. He pleaded, but the court was firm. Five and costs or five days was the prescribed antidote for John's ailment.

Olaf Johns admitted that he had been drinking and was "just a little drunk." Olaf's plain countenance shone with gratitude when the minimum sentence was imposed.

N. Stuberger fell asleep in a saloon on Railroad street and the proprietor of the place removed his watch to prevent his being robbed. When Stuberger awoke he declared he had been robbed and reported it to the police. His watch was returned to him today.

TAFT IS AT HONGKONG

Secretary is Warmly Welcomed on Arrival at Chinese City.

Will be Dined by Governor and Then Sail for Manila.

Hongkong, Oct. 12.—The weather was splendid and Secretary Taft was warmly welcomed on his arrival here today, the United States revenue cutter McClellan and the gunboats Wilmington and Callao, assisting in the greeting given him. Immediately after his arrival he visited the governor of the island, Sir Matthew Nathan.

A luncheon, given in honor of the secretary by American Consul General Wilbur, was attended by many representative Chinese, including Wu Ting Fang, recently appointed minister to Washington. Speaking in Chinese at the banquet, Wu Ting Fang said that China and America had always entertained the friendliest relations. His duty after arriving in the United States would be to continue these relations, which are being cemented, strengthened and brought closer day by day.

Secretary Taft, in conclusion said that all improvements that can take place in China, whether governmental or administrative reform development of the resources of the country, the elevation of people by education, the betterment of the civil service or any thing increasing the strength of the empire, cannot take place without America's cordial sympathy and support.

This afternoon Secretary Taft attended a meeting of the Chinese Young Men's Christian association and a reception given by the leading Chinese.

He will dine tonight at the residence of the governor, and after the viceregal reception, will embark at midnight for Manila.

SUPERIOR NEWS

Files Injunction.

City Attorney McIntosh today filed injunction proceedings in circuit court against the Eastern Minnesota and the Great Northern Railroad companies in an effort to restrain the companies from filling in street ends along the bay shore. The railroads have purchased considerable land along the shore and are filling it in. The city contends that the street ends extend to the shore line and the companies have no right to fill them in. The city wishes to retain the present termination of the street ends, in order that slips may be formed.

Injunction Refused.

In superior court today, the injunction case of Josephine Lundberg vs. the Great Northern railway company was heard and the injunction refused. The woman owns land on Connor's Point, where the Great Northern is working. Condemnation has not yet been secured but will probably be granted and the company is pushing the work in the meantime. The injunction was requested to prevent the company from carrying on the work until the land is condemned.

Mass Meeting Called.

Next Monday evening a mass meeting of citizens will be held to consider the proposed agreement between the city and water company. The agreement, which is to be brought up at the next meeting of the council, provides for an increase in the cost of rental of hydrants to the city and a decrease in the cost of water to private consumers. The aldermen thought better to have a hearing at a mass meeting before definitely coming to an agreement.

Company Will Build Depot.

The people residing in the East end are surprised and pleased over the action of the Northern Pacific Railway company in agreeing to build a new depot in that part of the city. A petition had been sent the state railroad commission asking for the depot and a hearing was to have been held on the petition Oct. 15. The company has notified the commission it will erect a new depot within a year.

STAR FISH INTELLIGENCE.

Boston Evening Transcript: That the little star fish can think and act is certainly highly complex and highly intricate reactions or in other words, it is able to work its different spines and tentacles with intelligence, was the gist of one of the papers before the zoological congress. The speaker was Professor Herbert S. Jennings, and he pointed to actual intelligence in these four organisms in directing their behavior toward certain definite ends. Thus, if the creature is placed upon its back it occupies a position which permits systematic movements whereby to locate itself and escape from danger. In preceding actions of its feelers, it is directed to the one purpose. It is a creature that has no mind, but whose actions which have been watched by many observers are so intelligent that the relationship to intelligence has not yet been pointed out. It may truly be said that the creature understands its situation and modifies its behavior in accordance.

PRAISE FOR NORTH MINN.

Advantages of This Section Should be Told to World.

State Officers and Others Extol Fine Farm Resources.

Bagley, Minn., Oct. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The advantages of Northern Minnesota were clearly and forcibly pointed out by men prominent in the affairs of the state who participated in a public meeting held here yesterday afternoon in connection with the Clearwater county fair, which closes this evening. The meeting was held in the town hall, President A. Kleas of the Bagley Commercial club presiding. Secretary of State Julius Schmah delivered a telling address that was warmly received, and he praised the people of this section for the enterprise shown in this, the first county fair.

He said he had seen the products shown at the fair, and wanted to be understood as saying that the vegetables, grasses and grains could not be excelled anywhere in this or any foreign country. He referred to the dairy industry of the state, and declared that it had developed from $1,000,000 to $27,000,000 in seven years. He told the farmers and their wives and children assembled that they could not afford to leave the rich soil of this country and go to the cities, where ill-health and early-matured youth abounded. Great wealth was to be found where the blooming cheek abounded, and where robust health was the universal rule.

George A. Welsh, commissioner of the state board of immigration, said he believed that the best advertisement for the state would be to show to outsiders the contented and happy faces before him—those who had come here to better their lot, and who were now so well settled. He said that more people could be secured for the lands of Northern Minnesota, if each person present would write a letter from the state, and tell him or her of the wonderful possibilities of this section. The commissioner said that he would build the country into one of the best in the state.

Senator Stephens followed Mr. Welsh, and spoke of the advancement in the dairy industry, and of the more scientific farming, and of the fact that the boys and girls of the farms are better educated than those of the city. This afternoon A. J. McGuire of Grand Rapids, Minn., superintendent of the Northwest experimental station, delivered an address.

PUT DYNAMITE IN BUNDLE OF WHEAT

Threshing Machine is Wrecked and Engineer Instantly Killed.

Valley City, N. D., Oct. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dynamite in a bundle of wheat is thought to have caused an explosion that wrecked the threshing outfit of M. J. Olson at the farm of his brother Sam Olson, and instantly killed C. A. Lundgren, the engineer.

The cause of the accident is a complete mystery, except on the dynamite theory, and the coroner of Barnes county is investigating.

A threshing crew was working at the Olson farm, which is four miles west of Sanborn, in Barnes county, when suddenly a terrific explosion took place in the threshing machine. The machine was blown to bits and several of the crew burned and cut. Lundgren was standing half way between the engine and the threshing machine. He was struck in the temple by a flying bolt and instantly killed. The explosion also started a fire in the straw stack, but this was soon extinguished.

No one has a theory to fit the accident, except that there was dynamite in a bundle of wheat. Mr. Olson knows of no enemies who would take such murderous means of revenge. In advance of the theory that a bottle of nitro-glycerine caused the explosion. They say it might have been thrust into a bundle of some of the yegmen who are frequenting North Dakota.

Morris also sent a handsome letter to the sheriff, asking him to dispose of the bundle for him. He sets the price at $50, and will use the money to buy books to use during his incarceration.

Sheriff Lee is much interested in young Morris' case and will make an effort to dispose of the bundle. He gave the proceeds to the convict. Those who recall the young man say that he was a very good student, and gave promise of being a great scholar, but it appears that after he left Minot he went to ranching in the West and fell into bad company. He was convicted of manslaughter in Montana, and sentenced to twelve years in the state penitentiary. He has now served seven months of the period.

THIS MAN STOPPED TO THINK! HOW ABOUT YOU!

DOLLARS PAID FOR RENT MAKE THE RICH MAN RICHER, AND THE POOR MAN POORER.

Did you ever consider the thousand and one advantages in being your own landlord, and the great advantages resulting therefrom?

Did you ever ponder the pride and satisfaction which comes from being able to say: "This home belongs to me?"

Did you ever know that instead of paying someone else Twenty Dollars, Thirty Dollars or Forty Dollars per month, you could be applying it on your own property, and at the same time be living in more commodious quarters than you are now occupying?

If you have never thought of all these things, we want you to come to our office and join us in a friendly talk about our lovely homes, and our plan that will help you to purchase one.

We have succeeded in getting scores of families in Duluth to "reason a little," and then adopt our "better way."

YOU THINK YOU CAN'T.
WE KNOW YOU CAN.

REAL ESTATE MARKET SHOWS LITTLE ACTIVITY

Few Sales Have Been Made During the Week, Although There Has Been a Good Inquiry and Many Offers Submitted—Chris Sanders Will Erect a Fine Apartment Building Near Third Avenue West and Third Street.

Light trading has marked the week's operations in the local realty market, although there has been considerable inquiry and several offers have been submitted. The tendency has been for higher prices right along, and for this reason some of the negotiations have progressed slowly, for the reason that the offers have been made on the basis of the figures that the owners asked a year ago, and for which they do not care to sell this year. Unless there is some reason for making a quick sale of realty, the owners are not offering any special inducements in the way of lower prices. The extensive improvements that have been made during the past year, and those which will be made the coming year, are among the things which have made Duluth real estate a desirable investment, and those who possess either improved or unimproved property are in no hurry to sell, unless they get offers which they believe are in keeping with the new order of things. Some of the real estate men claim that the money market is a little too tight at the present time, and that this has made the market rather inactive, but they are looking forward to more encouraging conditions before the winter is over.

N. J. Upham & Co. have closed the sale of several residence properties during the past two weeks. They have sold the residence property at 2111 Dingwall street to H. A. Sedgwick for $2,950; the residence property at 410 Sixth avenue west, from the Newark investment company to A. C. Barth, corner of Thirty-first avenue west and Superior street, for $3,000; the Superior street, from A. C. Weiss to Henry Conan, for $2,500; and have taken earnest money for block 14, Hunter's Park. The latter property is located across the avenue from the Forest Hill cemetery, and is held at $4,500.

Among the acreage sales this week has been one of a 40-acre tract, adjoining Kenwood park, for a consideration of $4,000. The sale was made through the office of Stryker, Manley & Buck, the seller being W. H. Snyder of Philadelphia, Pa., and the buyer being a local party.

H. S. Benson has purchased from A. J. Johnson a residence property on the upper side of Seventh street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues west, the consideration being $2,600.

C. W. Britts has sold P. A. Maguire a residence property on the upper side of Fifth street, near Twenty-sixth avenue west, for $2,500.

A $6,000 residence property on the east side of Sixteenth avenue, above Second street, has been sold by Leila Daggett to N. C. LeMotte. The property comprises lots 1 and 2, block 7, Endion.

Frank Gottwald has purchased from E. S. Fuller, for $1,500, a fifty-foot lot on Central avenue, between Bristol and Nicollet streets.

M. Zalk has purchased from the Midland company a twenty-five foot lot on the lower side of Fifth street, between First and Second avenues west, for $1,250.

C. G. Anderson has sold P. H. Brende a residence property on the lower side of Fifth street, near Twenty-sixth avenue west, for $3,000. The property is located in block 15, Second division.

G. M. Gauld has purchased from Elizabeth Anderson a residence on the upper side of Seventh street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues west. The consideration was $4,500. The property is described as lot 105, block 96, Third division.

Chris Sanders is having plans made for a notable building improvement near the southeast corner of Third street and Third avenue west. The plans, which are being prepared by Bray & Nystrom, the architects, call for a large modern apartment building. The figures are not yet available, but it is understood that the project will cost quite a large sum. The building will contain eight eight-room apartments and eight four-room apartments. One of the unique features of the plans is a provision for a garage for the use of tenants who own automobiles. This improvement is a pet plan of Mr. Sanders and he has visited a number of cities during the past season getting ideas as to the sort of a building he would like to erect on his lots at the location mentioned. The apartment building, when completed, is expected to be one of the finest of its class in the city. Work on the improvement will be started within a few days.

Bray & Nystrom, architects, have plans ready and are taking bids for the construction of a double frame house at 1517 South street east. They have plans ready for a frame residence at Seventh avenue east and Seventh street for John Persgaard and are taking bids on the new Polish church superstructure.

Duluth has spent nearly $500,000 this season on street improvements. The aggregate $2,216,506, against $1,530,362 for the same period last year. The building reports from the leading cities in the country show that Duluth leads them all in the increase of its building improvements for September.

The following comparative table shows the gain and loss in the various cities for September this year and September, 1906:

The contract for the new plant of the Northern Cold Storage & Warehouse company has been awarded to McLeod & Smith and the construction work will be started immediately. The plant will cost $150,000 and will be erected at the corner of Railroad street and Seventh avenue west. One section is to be completed ready for business next summer. The plant will be thoroughly modern in construction and equipment and will be operated by A. M. McDougall and F. E. Freese, who are backed in the enterprise by Joseph Sullivan, Capt. Alexander McDougall and W. H. Cole.

P. McDonnell, the contractor, will erect a three-story business block on the corner of Ramsey street and Fifty-fourth avenue west after he has completed his contracts with the city for paving Ramsey street.

SIX CLAIMS ARE PURCHASED

By the Calumet & Arizona in the Dragoon Mountains in Arizona—Production at Bisbee Reduced But Development Increased—Good Showing at the Wolverine & Arizona.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 1.—Voluntarily keeping the scale of wages for miners up to the figure which prevailed at the time copper was selling above 18 cents, the managements of the Amalgamated and other mining companies have agreed in relation to the various unions whose members are employed in the mining and smelting industry, stating that wages would not be reduced for the present.

It was stated that since wages had entered into a few months ago, miners were getting 18 cents a pound, and had remained at 18 cents a pound or higher. With copper selling below 18 cents a pound for a period of several days, the scale of wages was to be reduced to 17 cents.

It is understood that the companies have served the notice on the unions in order that there be no further action of the companies waiving their rights under the contract.

The Amalgamated Copper company and subsidiary companies are now producing about 90 per cent of the output of copper, and only about half the number of miners are being employed at the mine as were on duty when the order to reduce wages was issued.

At the Clark properties the reduction in the number of miners has been made, but employed has not been greatly reduced.

The September output of the Butte district was 12,000 tons, or about the ordinary monthly output for several months past.

The figures for September, compared with the previous month, are as follows:

Boston & Montana	2,750,000	7,000,000
Butte	1,200,000	2,750,000
North Butte	1,200,000	2,750,000
Butte Coalition	800,000	2,575,000
Butte & Anaconda	1,000,000	2,575,000
Washoe	450,000	1,000,000
Parrot	200,000	625,000
Trenton	325,000	850,000
Butte & Anaconda	1,000,000	2,575,000
Pittsburg & Montana	200,000	400,000
Butte & Anaconda	1,000,000	2,575,000
Miscellaneous	750,000	1,000,000
Total	11,875,000	24,335,000

Tombstone, Ariz., Oct. 12.—At the Calumet & Arizona interests are well pleased with present results from work done in the Dragoon mountains is evidenced by the terms of an agreement filed here in the recorder's office, between Kate and Matt Costello and the Calumet & Arizona interests. The high option to Col. L. W. Powell on the Casey group of six claims in the Gleason mining district. The consideration for the option is $100,000, and 10 per cent of which has already been paid and the final payment is to be made within 120 days.

A supplementary agreement executed by Casey and Costello permits the latter to make the above mentioned claim, one of the above mentioned group, and to take out free of any obligation twelve tons of ore free of expense for the purpose of determining whether development work be suited to its reduction.

There is no development work is spoken of in connection with the Casey properties and great things are expected of them. The Dragons and the Gleasons are in the proper hands. The Dragoons have long been looked upon as carrying the best prospects in the state and a district of great possibilities under aggressive and economical mine management.

In the local mining field, the big operating companies devoting most of the attention to development work and the small ones to the bookkeeping elements to the various smelters have been maintained at the normal standard of activity so that no work is being done on Sundays, which fact takes four days' shipment out of the total.

The management of the Copper Queen is making a deal of attention towards the working out of the plan formulated some time ago to entirely close down the mines. Such a radical change in the system will require a vast amount of work, and the drifts connecting the shafts with the Sacramento, have been pushed down to the level of the Copper Queen have also been made.

At the Calumet & Arizona, and Sullivan properties, the development is practically unchanged, development work and prospecting being done in the same manner as the smelters at Douglas are being maintained at about the normal amount. The work of the latter is being opening up of new ore bodies, and no special effort is being made toward the development of the old bodies of ore time owing to the unsettled condition of the market.

Also been erected, and is working satisfactorily.

Operations which were resumed on the 1st inst. after a short time ago resided in the opening up of a new high grade oxide ore body. On the 700 and 800 level the work has been done to greater part of the shipments being made from this portion of the mine. The claim at the 800 level has been discontinued temporarily. On the 900 the drifts have been pushed down to the level having passed through a large body of low grade sulphide ore. The equipment on the 900 level is being used to push the drifts through the sulphide and is completed in every particular.

A new shaft at the Calumet-Arizona, the work of which is being pushed forward, is being conducted in which the shaft owing to the breaking down of the sucker pumps, has now been completed to the 1,200 level. The shaft had been sunk to the 1,200 mark, had to be discontinued temporarily, but has now been resumed. The intention to drive the drift in an easterly direction at this level, and as soon as the shaft is completed, the ore body encountered on the 1,000 and 1,100 levels. The work of putting in a raise in the shaft is being pushed forward steadily in the ore body and will be finished within comparatively short time.

Extensive development work is spoken of in connection with the smelters. Further efforts are expected of the Dragonos now that properties there are in the proper hands. The Dragonos have long been looked upon as carrying immense bodies of copper, and as a district of great possibilities under a private and economical mine management.

The Casey group includes the Head Center, Smile of Fortune, Tinhorn, Nipper and Black Hawk claims, and the latter is the only one which is a property now being worked under bond by the Calumet & Arizona interests.

It is said by this district that Mr. Costello will add to his interest in his already amassed wealth. Rumor has it that he obtained the option on the Black Hawk claim from the district, but the oxide is kept on the dump.

The new compressor is giving great furnaces of the Copper Queen smelters at Douglas, and the fact that on this account practically no custom ores are being shipped to the Douglas smelter company has discontinued shipping its oxide ore to Douglas temporarily, and attention will be devoted to the shipping of its oxide ore to Globe daily to the reduction plant at Globe. About the same amount of ore is being shipped to the Douglas smelter, but the oxide is kept on the dump.

The plan of using oil for fuel will probably be carried out within the next few days. The new water system is already completed, and one of the big storage tanks is nearing completion. No shipments are being made from the Douglas smelter this district, that the Copper Queen is only handling a very small amount of custom ore.

It is said by this district that the ore was discovered on a group of claims belonging to J. Kelly and F. Frazee, in close proximity to the Black Hawk claim.

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 12.—T. B. Chatterman, chief of the company which is interested in mining properties in the Dos Cabezas district, left on Monday for a visit to the district to inspect progress being made on his mines.

He stated that there has been no development of the copper work on the west side of the Colorado river, but that the company is now operating in the district. "Not a great deal is said about Dos Cabezas," but he believes that the company is now operating in the Dos Cabezas region that have produced the sums amounting into the hundred thousands," he remarked. "There have been a number of large strikes in the district and there is no the least doubt in my mind but that the region will become one of the big copper districts of Arizona."

The Calumet & Arizona people are operating in that section on quite an extensive scale. This big company, which has its principal mines in Bisbee, is gradually branching out over Southern Arizona, and in addition to its workings at Dos Cabezas, has property in the Tin Butte district, as well as the Mammoth district, both of which are tributary to Tucson.

The Mascot Mining company in that district is about to sink a three-compartment shaft to the 500-foot level. This company is composed of several companies, there are a number of other companies which are also working on an extensive scale. The Calumet & Arizona will put up a gasoline engine on its property for hoisting purposes.

Dos Cabezas was originally worked as a gold camp and it is just within the last few years that it has been discovered that there is copper in the camp.

Bisbee, Ariz., Oct. 12.—There has been little of interest during the past week

Old Dominion smelter is employing others. The Globe Consolidated Gem shaft has just passed the 1,000-foot mark and sinking is progressing at the rate of about eighty-five feet per month. The Globe Consolidated Gem exceed 250 or 275. All, except a very few of these were Mexicans or Slavonians. It is not probable that more men will be laid off unless the price of

On account of the present quotations on copper, the Cananea and Douglas smelters refused to handle the Arizona Commercial ore and it required. ## ALL SUNDAY WORK STOPPED

Cananea, Mex., Oct. 12.—All Sunday work has been stopped under a recent order in the mechanical departments of the Cananea Eastern. The character of this order will continue in force during the period of curtailment of activities in the camp. It effects principally maintenance work in the machinery. In Bisbee the mining companies stopped all Sunday work two weeks ago. The character of this order is different at present in prospect here.

At the concentrator the No. 1 mill was closed down last week and will remain closed until the end of the month until the temporary program of curtailment comes to a conclusion. The concentrator consists of three mills, however, and operations will continue, being connected for this purpose with the No. 2 mill. The production of the mill is estimated to be about between 1,600 and 1,800 tons a day.

At the Cananea Duluth shaft the new railroad ore bin is now in service. The shaft is now being worked. It is also in commission and doing work increase the mine production, which it is understood, will be done. The ore Cananea Duluth is producing is of the same character to the reduction division.

Calumet & Sonora is now operating the machinery it had on its property at Cananea. It is also operating at Catalina and Norton denunciations, on the northeast. On the Catalina shaft it is in constant contact, and that the Norton is down about sixty feet. Ore showing in both is considered very good, the values being about 100 lbs. per ton. It is expected that shipments will be made before a great while to Deming or El Paso smelters. Returns from which would be definitely known.

The directors of Cananea Eastern have re-elected the old officers of the company. The new program of development will continue along the lines followed during the last year. Several drifts are now being run in the mine. The new drift to the tunnel and shaft work are continu-

Will Run Over $2,000,000 in Value, Says Expert Concentrating Man---Returns of Mill Runs at Larder Lake.

New York, Oct. 12. A Toronto special to the Sun says: The concentrator at the Comagras mine in Cobalt is now working and is proving a success. The work of this concentrator, which is the first in New Ontario, is being watched by the mining community. However, the treatment of the peculiar cobalt ore by concentrators has been more or less of a speculation. E. A. Fultz, an expert consultant, has been called in to inspect the dumps at the mines at Cobalt will run over $2,000,000 in value. He states that the ore which is now being treated will return to the mine owners from $100 to $150 per ton. The ore passes through their hands. Many of the dumps will, it is expected, run as high as $100 per ton.

Reports of mill runs from veins at Larder Lake sold fields are now beginning to appear. The Ontario Development Co. on the Proprietary gave ten pennyweights of gold to the ton and another run on a ton of ore gave twenty pennyweights. At present this company is the only one in the district that has a stamp mill on the ground, but two others are now under construction. Eleven companies now actively engaged at Larder Lake over 150 men are steadily employed. The first day of work has been made within the last few days. The Kinney-Dunn property at Cobalt, The Cobalt mine, which is the largest vein of good ore, was located at a depth of 150 feet, and part of it assayed 60 per cent. of cobalt. The Cobalt property made a find at the 125-foot level, which is an extension of the first vein.

The settlement at North Cobalt is growing rapidly and many persons are moving away from the town. The settlement, which is not much further from the Cobalt mine, is now being made, since blasting operations have been made there than ordinarily dangerous in the mine.

At the Cobalt Central mine some very rich ore is being obtained from a ten-foot vein. The vein is about 100 feet from the main shaft. This company is now working seventy-five men and a ton of ore will give twenty pennyweights. In all, the company has uncovered over 100,000 tons of ore. This is very important of these being the Big Pipe,

The Loretto Iron company is commencing the work of diverting the channel of the Sturgeon river in order to carry the stream away from the mill race. The work has been tested by churn drills. It is proposed to employ a steam shovel in excavating the new channel. At present all the ore in stock at the Steel corporation's big Aragon mine has now been shipped to the new plant. Three logging swamps have been established by the company in the Go-nowicki tract. The swamps are 100 feet of mining timber will be cut this winter. A model "dry" or mineless swamp will be cut on the big Newport property at Ironwood on the Go-nowicki. Plans for this structure have been prepared by a Marquette architect. The Newport, which is a 100 foot by 100 foot building at Milwaukee, has developed into one of the largest and best mines on the Go-nowicki tract. The Steel corporation's Jones & Laughlin Steel company is said to be meeting with fine results in the new plant. The mill is now being rebuilt, and a new boiler and engine house of brick is being constructed. The new plant is situated on the Western Go-nowicki, where the Re-

CLUBS AND COURSES

LUB classes and courses of lectures, French classes and very small bridge clubs are the order of the day. There are few large affairs, and one pessimistic forecaster of the social life for a few months to come, foretells a dearth of large or formal affairs during the winter. Almost everybody who plays bridge belongs to a small club of four or, at most, eight players, who gather once or twice a week for an afternoon at the favorite pastime. The meetings are so very informal that nobody knows about them but the active participants. Club life promises to occupy most of the attention of Duluth women during the next six months.

Large numbers of local society women are contributors to the Needlework guild, and the last two weeks of this month will be occupied with active preparations for the round up and showing of garments. The last two cold days have induced particular thoughts for the clothing of the poor during the winter months.

Mrs. C. W. Elston and Mrs. C. A. Britts were hosts at a bridge reception yesterday afternoon at the home of the former, 1609 East Superior street. The rooms were simply decorated in autumn leaves and the game was played at ten tables. The favors were won by Mrs. John Pantan and Mrs. M. E. Cullum. The service in Mrs. Elston and Mrs. Britts entertained at five hundred. The game was played at eleven tables.

Mrs. Lucia Judd McCallie left this afternoon for Chicago, where she will study during the winter with Emil Torrens. During the week Mrs. McCallie was the guest of honor at a number of delightful little functions. Mr. and Mrs. George Tyler were hosts at dinner Tuesday evening in her honor, and Wednesday evening Mrs. C. F. MacDonald entertained at dinner in compliment to Mrs. McCallie. Wednesday and Friday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Judd, Mrs. C. H. Thornton and Mrs. A. E. Gilbert entertained informally in compliment to her, and Mrs. J. G. Ketchum was hostess at luncheon Tuesday, with Mrs. McCallie as the guest of honor. Thursday afternoon Mrs. E. F. Burg entertained at cards.

AN ENVELOPING OPERA
WRAP OF ROSE VELVET—

All-Enveloping Opera Wrap of Rose Velvet.

Velvet and its first cousin, velveteen, in the soft chiffon quality of the silk velvet, are used in the making of a finding extensive use in the winter's opera trappings. Opera gatherings of fashionably dressed women will present scenes of royal court and of the East in the velvet wrap, in all the light pastel shades, in the demure cry of fashion. Half a cape and half a coat, this rose colored velvet wrap is made of a material that has no shoulders to skirt hem is cut in gore to give the smooth fit over the shoulder with the fullness of the skirt falling to the feet. Each gore is set off with a wide band of contrasting material, and the sleeves which are very full and kimono-like are banded with the same contrasting material. The wrap is made being set on the broad band trimming the underarm seam. A broad yoke-like collar is made of the contrasting material, and applications of white Irish crochet and darlings of deep rose silk. Above this is a wide band of the contrasting material, and the wrap is finished with the application of the Irish lace. Heavy white cord ornaments with Irish crochet pendant fringe are favored, and the lining is white satin with a draping of white

A Simple Design with Elaborate Trimnings:

So elaborate are the new trimmings and so beautiful the materials which they are made of, that it is now possible to successfully in either gown or dress to develop them artistically and simply. The illustrated evening coat is a striking example of this simplicity of design which brings out the beauty of the materials. The lines of the figure but shows off the materials and trimmings to the best advantage. The bodice is of a fine, wide breadth of soft satiny flush, with trimmings of soutache applied on net, and a broad, ruffled collar of the same material fitting over the shoulders, but the skirt is very circular, falling in many graceful folds. The bodice and skirt sleeves are set in with few gathers to the mandarin armhole, and over them fall a wide, shirred collar of the same material, the foundation for the soutache bridlings. All around the edge of this sleeve drapery and the shirred collar are set in wide, heavy front trimmings depending from the points of the simulated collar of silk and satin, and the shirred collar with loops of soutache posed on the side. A touch of contrasting color is seen in the shirred collar, which is of a pale green pattern of the lace picked out with black, grey and gold threads. The full sleeves are set into the bodice with a wide shirred embroidered like the collar, a pale green satiny lining complements the green in the

The Mack-Leone Players Will Present "The Earl of Pawtucket" During First Half of Week, Repeating "Secret Service" During Last Half.

"The Earl of Pawtucket," the comedy which the Mack-Leone players will present the first half of next week, opening Sunday matinee Oct. 13, is from the pen of Mr. Augustus Thomas. This gentleman's plays are and always have been, very popular in Duluth. "The Earl of Pawtucket" is a comedy based on the experiences of an English lord traveling in America under an assumed name and trying to pass as an American.

The name which the earl adopts on his visit to the states chances to be the last one in the world which he should have taken, as it chances that there is a gentleman by this name, an American, who is in bad repute in the city of New York, owing to the fact that he is wanted by the state of New York for contempt of court in refusing to pay his divorced wife $5,000 a year alimony. When the earl assumes the name he assumes the obligations and thereby hangs the story. Theaters were prone to believe that after a gentleman with such a peculiar personality and style as Mr. Lawrence D'Orsay had been seen in the past, the play could not be successfully given without him in the cast, but such is not the case, as the Earl of Pawtucket has been a distinct hit in stock in Boston, Providence, Cincinnati, Philadelphia this season with no better players than the Mack-Leone people. Duluth theaters goers can therefore look forward to a splendid production and enjoyable performances of "The Earl of Pawtucket." Mr. Mack will be seen as the earl and Miss Beatrice Meade as Mrs. Fordyce, the lady for whom the earl leaves "Dear Old Lunnon."

Matinees will be given Sunday and Wednesday.

During the last half of the week

"Secret Service" will be repeated by special request.

Lyceum Notes.

Henry W. Savage will bring his sumptuous revival of Pinter & Luder's musical opera, "Woodland," to the Lyceum Nov. 15 and 16.

The complete production carried for the new play dealing with Texas life, "An Old Sweetheart of Mine," will be here Nov. 1 and 2. W. A. Whitecar is starred in the play.

That happy satirical farce-comedy, Hoyt's "A Texas Steer," will be given at the Lyceum, Monday, Oct. 21, by practically the original company.

Louis James and his company are coming this way, and will be one of the early attractions. Mr. James this season is devoting his entire repertoire to Shakespearean comedy, producing "The Comedy of Errors" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

The old favorite, "The Prince of Posen," is headed this way.

Marie Cahill will be a fall attraction at the Lyceum.

Rose Melville can't get away from "Sis Hopkins." She will be seen here this fall.

Adelaide Thurston will, of course, be a fall booking at the Lyceum.

Willie Colver will be at the Lyceum in November.

BUSH AND ELLIOTT, Comedy Acrobats at the Bijou Next Week.

tionally good and their singing has placed them in the foremost ranks in vaudeville. They have been one of the biggest successes ever in the international circuit.

A feature gymnastic act will be given by Bush and Elliott, whose feats of acrobatic work are said to be nothing short of marvelous, while their comedy stunts are funny and entertaining.

A pleasing rural playlet entitled "Looking For Detsy" will be played by Homes and Hollister. The sketch has many pathetic scenes as well as humorous situations.

An exceptionally strong comedy act will be given by Miller and McCauley, who are black face eccentric comedians, whose rapid fire comedy and funny sayings are said to keep their audience in roars of laughter while they are before the footlights. They are also expert dancers.

An interesting turn will be given by Sadie Whiting, a singing and dancing soubrette, whose popular songs and catchy dances always please.

A good novelty will be that of O. H. Roberts, comedian, and his comedy bull terriers, who perform all kinds of antics from punching bags to performing acrobatic stunts.

H. E. Parkhurst will render "Oscar Lou," illustrated with colored views.

The moving pictures will be "The Lover's Helmet" and "The Red Specter."

Matinees are given daily at 2:45 and evening performances at 8 and 9:30. Seats may be reserved by either telephone between 2 and 4 p. m. A special school children's matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon and regular performances on Sunday afternoon and night.

GOSSIP OF THE RIALTO

"The Evangelist," Study of Christianity in Slums, is Poor Play--Howard Kyle a Personal Hit in Principal Role.

New York, Oct. 12.—The latest play of Henry Arthur Jones is called "The Evangelist," and was performed for the first time on any stage at the Knickerbocker last week, with the distinguished author present in person to lend eclat to the occasion.

He was called out, too, between the acts, but even with the friendly disposition apparent in the expectant audience, which greeted him cordially and sat in respectful judgment on the play, "The Evangelist" failed to make a favorable impression. The author's "Hypocrites" at the Hudson last season, it is said that Mr. Jones had exclusive jurisdiction over the composition of the cast. If so, he made a good choice in assigning to Howard Kyle the leading part of that of Sylvanus Rebbings, the revivalist—and not so good a choice in Dorothy Thompson as the leading female role of Christabel Nehemiah, the erring young wife of an elderly husband.

The play has many of the genial touches which have made Mr. Jones a famous playwright. He was never better in his sociological and religious pronouncements than in this play. In it he contrasts the practical Christianity of the Salvation Army, uplifting the moral derelicts of the darkest corners of civilization, with the ceremonialism of the church of England, which surmounts the lord bishop. But it is just a little hard to reach an understanding by over stages of Christabel's part as a wife, who entertains secret relations with another man in the interesting ecclesiastical problems which the author brings upon the tapis, except as a pretense for showing that this practical Christianity of the slums is potent even to apply a cure to the moral leprosy of this higher society.

In the part of Christabel appeared Miss Dorothy Thompson. She is a young English actress, tall, slender, dark and beautiful, younger Mrs. Patrick Campbell in many points, save genius. Much of the failure of the play to ring true was due to her inability to make Christabel seem real, and it is hardly fair to say what the play fought to be with a more convincing actress in the leading part.

Howard Kyle's connection with the play forms an interesting story. When Jones came over some time ago to read the play to his American managers, the difficulty presented itself of finding an actor suited to play the part of the evangelist. One after another was discarded as unsuitable or unsatisfactory to the author Jones returned to England, leaving the dilemma in statu quo, while the search was continued here without result.

Kyle was the last man thought of. He was an obscure actor who had been only in the minor theaters, where he enjoyed a sort of vague popularity. He starred in James A. Hackett's production of "John Ermine," presented on the Stair and Havill circuit, under the title of the Yellowstone. He was capable, but the big managers knew him not.

It was with difficulty that Mr. Jones's managers were persuaded by an influential friend of Kyle to consent to his reading the part of Sylvanus Rebbings to them. When they heard him finally they called to Jones in London that they had found the man for the part. Would he hear him read it? Once called back to the Yellowstone, he was capable, but the big managers knew him not. epoch making play, and those who expected too much received too little, while those who entered the theater in a daily receptive frame of mind were not disappointed.

The author has simply gone about his process of rehabilitating a Camille type in a new way. He calls it a modern morality play. The term should give offense to nobody in this age of mystery and miracle. From an allegorical first act, laid in the midst of a wilderness, where Body is revealed to Mind in the form of beautiful hamadryad, who swears a life-long attachment, the auditor is transported into the practical realities of modern life. First, a college club, next, the gorgeous boudoir of the sterner, and last, Mind's studio at night opposite the church, with a religious chant breaking on the scene to the strains of a sonorous organ, fitly accompanying the death of Body.

Only the first act has the touch of the old morality play. The next three are as modern as scenes from "Zaza" or "Frou Frou." Even in the deep morality atmosphere of the first act the characters are modern, and they reappear under conditions that make this allegorical introduction seem a sort of dream, or state of subconsciousness, in which the relations of Body and Mind are always under the spell of an intense predestination, or let us say, fatality.

In her rebirth as part of the after event—which form the real drama—Body is first introduced as the housemaid of Prof. Worldly Wise, sustaining an interesting liaison to Mind, the leader of the graduate class. Thence on their lives are linked. But not in the way most of us imagine.

Body deserts Mind and sets up a fashionable house of her own, where all kinds of distinguished people meet—specimens of the modern world in France—with frequenters all wooing for the favor of the sterner goddess.

There is real tragedy in this act and the author depicts life with a master touch. Living proof is seen before the eyes in strange procession. First there is the fallen pugilist, who once basked in the sunshine of her favor, but is cast aside now that the championship has been wrested from him through his overdevotion to her. Next comes the famous actor, upon whose brilliant faculties parents have laid his withering hand. He is led away. The soft strains of a violin are wafted up from the street and the fiddler is led in to amuse the queen of sin. In the shabby wreck of genius the audience is made to recognize the first victim of her whims. He casts the alms at her feet and sweeps out of her presence with a last flicker of pride.

Then comes the banker, the great man of affairs, who deserts wife and home for her and starts upon his career of ruin. And all this is but a prelude to an array of implacable events mind maintains the easy attitude of a cynical philosopher. The prospective writer of a great work on psychology, for which she furnishes opportunity for her body, a sort of chorus of the Greek drama.

With admirable skill the playwright makes these scenes as real as any in the contemporary drama, and if the cabalistic formula in which he envelopes his events were dispensed with, as well it might, no one would suspect that a deeper purpose than the mere amusement of a miscellaneous audience had inspired the author. The soft strains of a violin which follows holds one in a steady grip of interest.

Like Madame Bovary Body has an awakening of conscience when she has fired of every other experience, and she stands transfixed with religious ardor in the presence of the young evangelist. But, who invades her saint in the midst of his labors. Mind, the cynical, diagnoses it as a new sensation, but we in front shall never know the truth. We only see her swept away by this new feeling, and sacrificing herself to its sincerity by a dose of poison, when Soul's congregation of worldly wise people hasten violently to divert him from his ministry for stretching out his hands to save this repentant sinner.

The play is written in a spirit of unapprising analysis, and forms a strange fusion of the metaphysical with the hard facts of modern life. For the best part of the evening it exercises a sort of hypnotic interest, largely due to the graphic power of the characterization of Mind and Body and some of the minor figures, and not a little to the admirable acting of Arthur Byron as Mind and Florence Roberts as Body. The play may or may not take with the great mass of theatergoers, but in sheer justice to the author it must be recorded that he has created an old story in a new way—in a manner at least that holds your attention till the last curtain is down.

An interesting incident connected with the production is the personality of Florence Roberts as an actress. Here where the public is supposed to get the best that the theatrical market affords, people often appraise the merit of an actress by the standard of her dramatic power in an explosive scene, which generally occurs at the end of the third act. Along comes an actress from the wild and woolly West and shows these New Yorkers that it is not necessary to rant and founder all over the stage to get effects. Her work is not unlike Mrs. Fiske's, with the difference that hers is slightly quiet but expressive, and where she is expected to explode in a volley of heroic pyrotechnics she sobbies up your sympathy by an appealing method of restrained intensity.

Disappointing, but her command of the technical resources of the art of acting has again proved a revelation. "It is natural that this Western actress should excite interest. She is a New Yorker by birth, but she was but 2 years old when taken beyond the Mississippi by her parents. She grew up on the coast and started her stage career as a soubrette, expecting to outdo Lotia. Lewis Morrison, whom she afterward married, engaged her to play Marguerite to his Faust, and it was Morrison who directed her into the emotional field. For years she tried to get a hearing in New York, but it was not till last season in "The Strength of the Weak" that she succeeded.

Peter Schlemihl, it will be recalled, was unhappy because he lost his shadow. James O'Neill is unhappy because he can't lose his. He is one of those unfortunate beings who, like Frankenstein, is always pursued by his incubus. The announcement is made that he will close in "Virgilus" in another week and revive "Monte Cristo." Time and again the actor has said that he is morally tired of Dumas' romantic hero and would never again play Edgar. But in spite of the personal hit he has made in Sheridan Knowles' old play of the Roman satirist who slays his daughter in the cause of honor, the necessity of keeping the pot boiling compels him to announce "Monte Cristo" for a change of bill. However, his anguish is mitigated by the prospect of a new drama, a short series of performances before he closes his engagement at the Lyric. Mr. Antonio in "Julius Caesar," and there is a vague prospect that he may also be seen in "Macbeth."

Dan Frohman is said to have discovered a new playwrighting genius in the person of a young newspaper writer, Thompson, who has written a city, whose play, "The Castle Comedy," dramatized from the novel, will be produced as soon as a suitable actor to impersonate the seventeenth-century hero can be found. It is said that the role was offered to Kyle, but he who said he was too old for the part and recommended Hamilton Reedy, "The Girl Behind the Counter," an English book revamped by Edgar Smith. The attraction banished Virginia Harned to the exclusiveness of the vicinity where the majestic stands, and sufficed to draw a large audience to the Herald Square, where the actress has been doing well in "Anna Karenina." The Fields show made a hit, and "The Girl Behind the Counter," which should really feature the "Man Behind the Soda Counter," is expected to enjoy a prosperous run. It is one of the best attractions of this character that has been seen in New York for some time.

Henry Miller tells the story of how Nazimova, the Russian actress, came to be "discovered." The actress first appeared in this country with a band of Russian players, headed by Paul Orloff, at an east side theater. They were supposed to be political refugees, excited because they had presented a play in St. Petersburg which gave offense to the government. Alla Nazimova was then known as Nazimova, the wife of a Russian count. Nazimova is the feminine of Nazimoff. She has since been granted a divorce from her husband. The troupe, after a series of performances which attracted attention, disbanded because of poor support in its success, and many literary Americans have promised to support it this season.

Another special feature, which costs the management of the Belles a pretty penny, is the Three Famous Arm-Strongs, the well-known comedy cyclists and acrobats. Their stunts are a feature of the vaudeville part of the entertainment, and are said to be out of the ordinary rut.

AERONAUTS FEAR THE GREAT LAKES

New York, Oct. 12.—All the European aeronauts who are to compete arrive on the Touraine tomorrow.

Fear of dropping into the great lakes is the chief concern of those who race the night balloons. The officers of the Aero Club of America, who requested that all newspapers throughout the lake section print a notice to miners to look out for balloons.

For twenty-four hours after the start of the race at 3:30 o'clock, the Ohio and Indiana officials of the lakes are requested to keep a sharp watch in all directions especially at night. The prevailing wind, at St. Louis at this time, is from the southwest and that will carry the balloons toward the lakes. It is especially feared, as they probably will be more nearly in the track of without wind enough to carry it to the other side, the aeronaut would be almost certain of drowning unless he was rescued by some craft.

One of the reasons for selecting this time of the year is that the lakes swarm with commerce toward the close of navigation and this, together with a full moon renders the water less perilous than at any other season. It is not likely that any of the balloons will remain in the air longer than forty hours, and it is expected that with a good steady wind, that they will all be down within twenty-four hours.

Interesting Anecdote of Benjamin West.

Benjamin West, the great American artist, was in his boyhood what the world calls an infant prodigy. When only seven years of age he drew a remarkable likeness of his oldest sister's baby as it lay asleep in its cradle. This bit of crude art—so full of the marks of genius—was accomplished by means of a pen and red ink and a tattered piece of writing paper. Once when a band of friendly Indians happened to stop at the home of the Wests they were so pleased with the little Benjamin's drawings of birds and flowers that they gladly taught the young artist how to prepare the colors red and yellow as used by them to paint their faces and weapons. On learning this wonderful secret Benjamin was happy, but he soon found that he could not apply the colors nicely with his fingers or pen. A neighbor seeing the boy's dilemma explained that colors were put upon pictures by means of camel's hair brushes. But such brushes were not to be found where Benjamin lived. But being a boy of resources he betought him of his pet cat. Secretly he pulled the soft fur from her tail and luck in quantity sufficient to make himself a set of tiny brushes. With these he painted his birds and flowers, using for his palette the red and yellow the Indians had taught him to make, and some indigo blueing that his good mother gave him from her laundry supplies. But when that same good mother saw the fortiori cat, half bald of tail and back, and learned the cause of her plight, she explained to the wondering Benjamin that such a method of procuring brushes was cruel. And it is said that after that there were no more "cat tail" brushes. Some of the right kind were sent for and presented to the little artist, thus making him supremely happy.

When Sammy Got Lost in the Forest.

BY ANNIE JAMES.

Sammy was ten years old. He lived with his parents on a farm many miles from neighbors or town. Stretching far to the northward was a deep and formidable forest into which his father, a hunter, went with his father hunting for squirrels or after wood. But they rarely penetrated the woods to any depth, for it was well known by the hunters that bears and wildcats were numerous in the heart of the forest, and Sammy's father had no relish for big game; besides, he would not take his little son into any danger, for, as is well known, wildcats are most treacherous animals, hiding themselves in tree branches and leaping upon the heads of the unwary who chance to be passing their way. And Sammy had been taught to fear the depth of that forest, his parents always warning him of the dangers that lurked there. But one day there came to Sammy's home a man and a boy who wished to go hunting and fishing in the wood, and they asked that Sammy might accompany them as guide, for unless one understood the forest it was difficult to find the stream that was hidden away within its deep shelter of brush and cliff and rock. It was agreed by Sammy's father that Sammy should act as guide to the strangers, taking them into the woods and putting them upon the "trail" that would lead them to the stream which was full of fine fish. And after accomplishing this errand he was to return home at once. The task promised to be a pleasant one for Sammy, for strangers in his part of the world were rare, and he enjoyed the presence of this man and boy, entering into conversation with them as they walked along. The strange boy told Sammy of many exciting adventures he had had in company with his father, who loved to explore wild regions and to study the ways of bird and beast in their natural haunts. About mid-day Sammy put the man and boy on the foot-trail which would lead them to the creek where they would

NAUGHTY ROSIE GOES TO A PARTY.

BY MAUD WALKER.

Little Rosie was six years old, and a most naughty little Miss, she was, too. Indeed, I doubt very much if any of the little girls who read this story ever knew so naughty a child as Rosie Snel. But, listen, and I'll tell you why Rosie was so naughty. She was SPOILED—yes, SPOILED! She had no brother or sister and she had a very devoted mother and father and a doting grandmother and grandfather. So, you will readily understand why Rosie felt that she was the only little girl in the world and that everyone should run at her beck and call. Her mother and father meant well by their little girl, but—well, some parents are quite foolish, you know, and instead of rearing their children to be unselfish, sweet-tempered and loving towards others, both old and young, they are blinded by their love for their children and think them better, cleverer, and more beautiful, than any other children on earth. So, the children are not entirely to blame, I say, for thinking as their parents think. And so it was with Rosie Snel. No matter what Rosie wanted there was one of the parents or grandparents to see that her wish was granted. If Rosie got ugly tempered—which she did very often—her mamma never reprimanded her, but on the contrary, gave up to the putting little girl's demands, no matter how absurd they were; or her grandpa, and at times Rosie had both parents and grandparents busy with tempting her with toys, sweet-meats, and coaxing, to induce her to stop her naughty crying. But in vain did they coax: Rosie screamed and kicked and fought till she felt she had done so enough. Then she stopped and asked for whatever she wanted, getting it, too, if such a thing were possible. Why, her papa had been known to go out in the worst storm you could imagine, just because his little daughter had taken it into her head to have some ginger cakes from a confectioner's shop several blocks away, and could not be persuaded to eat the nice frosted cookies made at her own home, although the home-made sweetmeats were far superior in taste and quality to the heavy ginger cakes to be had at the confectioner's shop. But Rosie had set her heart—maybe I should say her stomach—on the latter, and no peace could be had in the house till she got them.

Well, I set out to tell you about Rosie's going to a party; but I've got a long way off my subject. However, it is well that you should have an introduction to Rosie before meeting her at the party. Well, this party took place on a Saturday afternoon, and many little boys and girls were there. It was given by a dear little girl by the name of Laura Davis, and although she knew that Rosie was a very naughty little girl, and might cause disturbances at the party, she could not avoid inviting her, for Rosie's parents and Laura's parents were neighbors, and it would have been a slight unpardonable to have left Rosie's name off the list of invited guests. And so it happened one fine afternoon that Laura came to call on Rosie and to invite her to the party which was to be given on the Saturday of that same week. (Laura attended the public school, and was a great favorite with teachers and pupils. Rosie's mamma instructed her little daughter at home, fearing to send her, to school lest some of the children might hurt her feelings, or the teacher punish her for some slight offense.)

Rosie was delighted with the prospect of a party, and began telling Laura what she wanted for refreshments and what games she wished played. Laura looked at her little neighbor, saying: "Mamma prepares what refreshments she wishes to give us, and I do not know what they are to be till they are set before us. And we'll play all sorts of games, some to please you and some to please the other children who come. We must all have a nice time, and may I tell you that I want to play with you and your mamma. This was strange talk to Rosie, whose wishes at home had never been questioned. But she said nothing more at that time about her wishes regarding games and refreshments. On the afternoon of the party Rosie's mother dressed her little daughter in a sweet white frock and lovely pink ribbon sash, her brown curls also being adorned by pink ribbon-bows. Indeed, so far as looks were concerned, Rosie was a most pleasing child. At the hour stated for the party Rosie, with huge doll in one arm and a new Teddy bear in the other, appeared at the home of Laura. She arrived at the same time with several other little girls; but in a very rude way she pushed the other guests aside and walked into the parlor without so much as ringing the door bell. She found the seat which she liked best and perched herself upon it, not waiting for an invitation. Laura and her mamma greeted Rosie graciously, the former taking her little guest's hat and jacket (for it was a chilly October day) and running into another room put them on the hat and wrap rack. When she returned to the parlor Rosie cried out to her: "Where did you put my hat and jacket? I want them here beside me. Some one might carry them off."

Now wasn't this a very naughty thing to say? She really did not know how rude she was. Poor Mrs. Davis hurried to the hall rack and fetched Rosie's hat and jacket, placing them on the piano where their owner might "keep an eye on them" as one of the jolly, mischievous boys put it in a whisper to a comrade. (The fact is, Rosie was known by reputation, and had very few playmates in consequence.)

After all the guests had assembled Mrs. Davis led them to the big sitting room where they were given full sway to play games. All the furniture had been removed so that there might be nothing to interfere with such games as Blind-man's buff and London bridge.

"Well, what shall we play?" asked Laura, looking about in the faces of her young guests. "Let's have Blind-man's buff," suggested one boy who loved no other game so well. "All right," cried a chorus of happy voices. "Blind-man's buff! It's great sport! Who'll be the blind man?" "Sammy Travers," cried other voices, naming the boy who had proposed the game. "All right, bring on your blind," laughed Sammy, taking the centre of the floor. But just at that moment—and as Mrs.

"I want to eat with the party," she cried out; her temper making her face ugly.

by deep ravines. Sammy stopped and looked about him. Surely, he had not left the path. He had walked straight on, and he was sure of it. And worst of all, clouds had gathered to obscure the sun, so that Sammy had no way of ascertaining the points of the compass. "It must be getting pretty late," he mused to himself. "I should think," he added to himself, "well, just so the wildcats and bears do about now. I'll feel all right. I must be going towards the prairie land for there's but this one path, and I came into the forest on it, so it must take me out again."

But Sammy did not then know how perverse a forest path could be. One might think one was going straight ahead, and all the time be turning in a circle, following what appeared the straight and only path all the while. Soon it began growing dark, the daylight going sooner in the heavy woods than outside it, just as it gets darker in the house than out of it. Sammy now felt very anxious indeed. To remain in the forest all night might mean being eaten by a bear or torn into pieces by a wildcat. And not a weapon of defense did he have, not even his pop-gun!

Sammy sat down to rest a few minutes and to think over the situation. Just then he heard a noise behind him, and glancing back he beheld a sight which made him forget his courage. His hair stood on end and his eyes seemed grown to the object which caused his fear. There, passing along at his left, went a huge black bear. Sammy thought he could hear his breathing, but of course that was his wild imagination. Not once did he move, but sat as rigid as a post, his eyes on the huge animal that went along in such an unconcerned manner. Surely, it had not seen or scented him! Sammy's heart began to beat again, for the bear had taken its way in an opposite direction from the spot where he sat, and for the present he was safe. But still he did not move till the dark form had disappeared from sight entirely. Then drawing a deep breath of relief Sammy rose very cautiously and peered about and above him. What was he to do? Oh, what was he to do? His mother—bless her dear loving heart!—would be distracted about him when he did not return with the evening. And his good, kind father—he would be set ting forth with dog and gun to hunt for the missing boy! But—would he find his lost Sammy?

Thus meditating, poor little Sammy's heart became so heavy that he could not keep the tears back, and down his brown cheeks they fell in a perfect deluge, blinding the usually merry brown eyes till they could see nothing. In this plight Sammy sank to the earth, suffering all the misery and despair of one lost. Lost! Away from home, and night coming on. Bears and wildcats everywhere about him! The home, where he was so happy, far, far away, but just where Sammy did not know.

Then courage came, and leaping to his feet he began calling out with all his lung power: "Help, Help! I'm lost! Help!"

Then, to Sammy's happy surprise—for he had hardly hoped to hear a human voice in response—there came an answering cry: "Hello! Hello!"

Sammy's heart was once more light. Someone was near him and soon he would have the protection—or companionship, at any rate—of a human being. Then, answering with his cry, "Here I am," he waited till the owner of the answering voice appeared. And lo! it was none other than the strange man, with his young son, whom Sammy had conducted into the woods that morning. On beholding Sammy the strangers were almost as much surprised as was Sammy on beholding them. Then the man explained to Sammy that he had taken a trail that had circled about and had brought him near to the fishing place where the father and son had spent the afternoon. "And now we are off for your house where we shall beg a night's lodging and a supper," added the man, a merry twinkle in his eye. "Do you suppose your good mother will take care of us?"

"Yes, sir, she certainly will," said Sammy emphatically. "If you take me home safe and sound there's nothing about my house too good for you—so my papa and mamma will think, sir."

"Ah, then you shall be turned in safe and sound," declared the man. "And you shall share these with us, too, my little fellow," and he held up a fine string of fish.

Then on they went, the man leading the way, while Sammy and the companionable little boy exchanged stories, Sammy telling in a guarded whisper of the bear that had passed so close to him in the woods that he could hear it breathing.

And at the edge of the woods they met Sammy's father, coming to hunt for his truant boy. So they continued their way towards the cozy farm house a mile away, where a fine supper was then in preparation for them.

And to this day Sammy really believes that the great brown bear passed so close to him that day in the woods that he could hear it breathing and look into its face.

John's Opinion.

"Things are just right," said little John. "The seasons all, I mean. For when Vacation Days are here The skies are blue and days are warm, And swimming pools are clear, And fun abounds for all boy-kind, During summer-time each year. "But when the School Days roll around Chilly Autumn comes, you know; And followed is by frost and blast, And freezing Winter's snow. So everything is right, I claim, About this big world round; And nowhere could a better place Than this old Earth be found. HELENA DAVIS.

Can You Find It?

Mary got so frightened that she lost her head. Can you find it for her?

being allowed to have her own way, regardless of the plans of Mrs. Davis and the wishes of others, she burst out crying angrily. In vain Mrs. Davis tried to pacify the naughty child, her cries rose higher and higher. There was no such thing as playing games—or having the pleasure they had anticipated—by the fifteen other little guests. A number of them whispered their disapproval of the naughty Rosie's conduct, and all looked their condemnation of her.

"Well, if you will not play, nor will cense your crying," said Mrs. Davis a bit sternly. "I shall have to put your hat and jacket on you and take you home to your mamma and grandmamma. You see, my dear child, there are others here who must be considered, and you are spoiling their pleasure."

"But I don't want to go home," wailed Rosie. "I want to stay to the party." "Then you must stop crying at once and be a nice child like the other children, who are behaving so prettily while you are acting so naughtily. Now, shall I take you right home—or will you try to be good and play merrily with your little comrades?" asked Mrs. Davis in a determined way, for Rosie had worn out her patience.

Rosie looked into Mrs. Davis' eyes and saw there a look that she had never seen in her own mother's eyes, so she knew she must abide by that lady's decision. "I'll stay and be good—if I can," she sniffed. "But please, let me stay to the party."

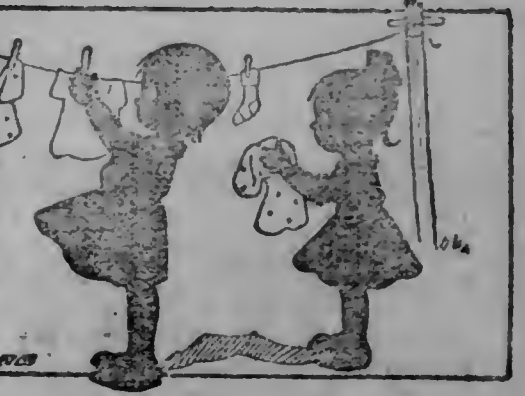

And strange as it may seem, she remained at the party and behaved very nicely. All she needed was a firm hand and a determined will to make her know her place. And that day's lesson was never forgotten by Rosie, either, although she may not have been benefited so much by it as she would have been had her mamma learned the lesson, too.

On Saturday.

It's baking day and wash day, too! Oh, such a lot of work to do! There's pies and bread and cake to bake; And other goodies, too, to make.

School Room Don'ts.

Don't be untidy in your dress. Neatness of apparel is quite as necessary in the school room as elsewhere. Don't fail to endeavor to be one of the best pupils in the school. If this rule were observed by all school children the school teacher's problem would be solved. Don't think that you spite the teacher by failing to have your lessons. Her future in no way depends upon your success or failure. The school is an institution wholly in the interest of the children. Don't be tardy at school. There can be no excuse for a boy or girl sauntering into the school room after the opening exercises are over. Begin life by being prompt at school, and the splendid habit of promptness will cling to you throughout life. Don't cheat at your exams. You, and you alone, will reap the evil consequences of such dishonest conduct. There will come a time when you will regret not having colored your school days into knowledge. Don't forget that school days come but once, therefore make the most of your opportunities. One million blossoms are drained to make one pound of honey. The King of Portugal is so expert a shot that he can pick off the fish as they rise to the flies in the palace lake. It is estimated that twelve million letters are mailed all over the world annually and that eight million of them are written in the English language.

KELLOGG CONTINUES HIS EFFORTS TO LEARN ABOUT LOANS OF STANDARD OIL

Comptroller of New Jersey Company Unable to Explain.

Some of the Loans Were Ordered From London Office.

William G. Rockefeller Summoned to Tell What He Knows.

New York, Oct. 14.—Alfred H. Brainard, comptroller of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and many of its subsidiary companies, was questioned today, when called as a witness in the government's suit against the oil combine, concerning large loans made to James McDonald by the Anglo-American Oil Company. Testimony was given last week that the Southern Pipe Line Company had loaned over $200,000 to Mr. McDonald, and that the books of the company showed that it had never been paid back. Mr. Brainard said that he was the American secretary of the Anglo-American company, and that Mr. McDonald was the managing director in London. He was asked concerning loans made by the Anglo-American company of $2,175,000 in 1905, and $1,427,500 in 1906 to Mr. McDonald. Mr. Brainard said that the loans had been ordered from London, and that he did not know of them.

Mr. Brainard said that it was likely (Continued on page 12, sixth column.)

THE CANADIANS ARE STIRRED UP

Assert Deep Waterway Scheme Would Ruin Their Commerce.

Ottawa, Can., Oct. 14.—Strong representations against the proposed American deep waterway canal from the lakes to the Mississippi and Ohio, and for an energetic protest by the Dominion government to the authorities at Washington are made in quarters interested in the Canadian waterways. The main contention, not a new one, is that the diversion of water from the lakes for the purpose of deep waterways to the South would be sufficient to practically ruin the Canadian system of water transportation as it exists today, and, further, that the decision of the international waterways commission in the Niagara affair shows that the commission cannot be trusted to concede what Canada claims to be her proved rights.

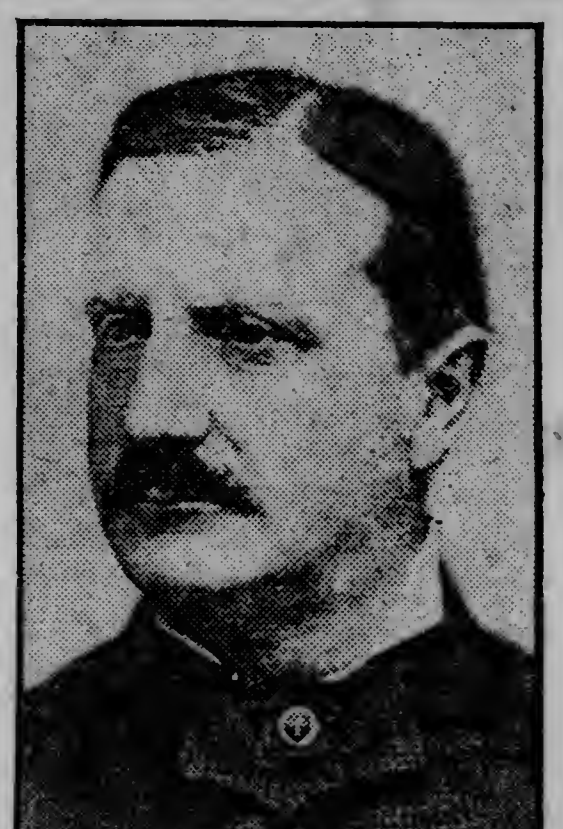

The findings of the commission in the various cases brought before it and submitted to both governments and now under consideration remain inoperative permanently until the treaty advised by the commission embodying its recommendations is accepted by other action taken.

CANADIANS BACK CLERGUE

In Movement to Change Management of Lake Superior Corporation.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Efforts of F. H. Clergue, a director of the Lake Superior Corporation, to elect a new president of the company, to succeed C. D. Warren of Toronto, has caused considerable friction in the corporation, and resulted in postponing until November 6 the recent annual meeting called in Jersey City. Clergue is understood to be acting for the Canadian Improvement company, the underlying syndicate, whose financial help the old company was reorganized, and which is not satisfied with the results obtained by the present management, but is opposed by the Ontario government and the Philadelphia directors of the company.

The last annual report of the company for the fiscal year ending June 30 last, showed that the gross income had decreased from $1,127,744 to $755,511, and the surplus from $226,885 to $25,520. These results are not satisfactory to the Canadian Improvement interests, and they have announced their desire to elect a new president, with Clergue to have a more active participation in the company's affairs. It is claimed that President Warren is only a financial man, whose banking office compels his presence in Toronto the greater part of the year, and that the company needs a practical operating executive, who should be able to give his undivided attention to the company's management.

TYPEWRITER GIRLS MAY BE DRIVEN OUT

New York, Oct. 14.—Typewriter girls may find their occupation gone if what is said of a new invention turns out to be true. It is exhibited at the business show now in progress in Madison Square Garden, and is an automatic typewriter run by compressed air and capable, it is said, of writing from 5,000 to 10,000 words an hour for twenty-four hours at a stretch. The inventor is A. McCall of Columbus, Ohio.

BIG FLEET GATHERING

England Assembling a Powerful Flotilla in the North Sea.

Will Number 110 Pennants Under Lord Charles Beresford.

London, Oct. 14.—There is now assembling in the North sea and the English channel for maneuver, under the command of Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, a fleet of British warships, representing an aggregation of naval power surpassing all the immediately available resources of any two countries of Europe, and yet not a single ship of this fleet has been drawn from the reserves, the Mediterranean fleet or the Davenport and Portsmouth divisions. The home fleet, which is now assembling, consists merely of the ships maintained in the vicinity of the British Isles, and which throughout the year have been engaged in war training. It numbers 110 vessels, and is composed of twenty-six battleships, fifteen armored cruisers, several protected cruisers, various auxiliary vessels and forty-eight torpedo vessels. The battleship Dreadnaught is not taking part in the maneuvers, as she is being fitted with a new steering engine before being subjected to a further series of sea trials, which, it is hoped, will prove of assistance in determining the design of the future large battleships.

The first section of the coming naval maneuvers, covering four days, will be of a tactical description, and the final days will be devoted to studying the problem of defending ships against the torpedo attacks. With the "Mosquito fleet" attacking the large warships, the coming operations are expected to be most interesting.

MRS. VANDERBILT ABOUT TO WED COUNT HERSELF.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 14.—Announcement of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt's engagement to a count, whose identity has not yet been disclosed, is to follow a month after the marriage of Mrs. Vanderbilt's daughter, Gladys, to Count Szechenyi, according to close friends of the family. It is said the second wedding will follow a month later. The bridegroom-to-be is acknowledged to be a close friend of Count Szechenyi, although much older than the latter. He is expected to be in this country to attend the first wedding. Mrs. Vanderbilt, the elder, is said to have arranged already for the relocation of her future husband's somewhat heavily encumbered European estate, where it is expected she will live after the marriage. Mrs. Vanderbilt, Sr., has been a widow for about eight years. The prospect of her marriage is understood to have caused a serious disagreement between Reginald Vanderbilt and his mother.

ALCOHOLIC COMPOUNDS

In Shape of Alleged Medicine Must Pay Special Tax

When Found That They Are Suitable for a Beverage.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Capers has rendered a decision relative to the manufacture and sale of alleged medicinal alcoholic compounds, where on analysis it is found that the said alleged medicinal compounds are suitable for use as a beverage.

Summing up an elaborate opinion the commissioner holds as follows:

"That a special tax is required for the manufacture and sale of alleged medicinal alcoholic compounds, or for the sale of malt extracts manufactured from fermented liquors, the drugs used in the manufacture of which are not sufficient in amount or character to render the product unfit for use as a beverage; or, in the case of cordials, extracts and essences, in which the amount of alcohol is greater than is necessary to preserve the ingredients, or to extract the properties of cut the oils, and hold same in solution."

"Manufacturers of alcoholic medicinal compounds, malt extracts, flavoring extracts, essences and soda water syrups, who wish to avoid liability for special taxes must satisfy themselves that their products are within the limits defined by the commissioner, and that the value of the medicinal ingredients is greater than the value of the alcohol, and that the risk of being required to pay special taxes for the manufacture and sale of same."

FARMERS GET BIG RETURNS

Prices for Crops Are Higher Than for Many Years.

Farro, N. D., Oct. 14.—Because of the high prices being paid for all cereals, North Dakota farmers, especially those of the Red River valley, are receiving greater returns from their crops this year than for any of the last half dozen seasons. Outside the famous valley, the actual yield was not so large as last season, but it was taken off cheaply, and the farmers are realizing heavily. Wheat is selling at more than one dollar per bushel at all stations in the state, and at some places has almost reached that figure, while flax ranges away above those figures, and oats and corn are bringing higher prices than ever before in the history of the state.

CONFERENCE ON COMBINATIONS

Will be Attended by Leading Men From All Sections.

New York, Oct. 14.—The conference on trusts and combinations, which is to meet in Chicago from Oct. 22 to 25, under the direction of the National Civic Federation, which will probably be the largest gathering of well-known people ever assembled in this country for the purpose of discussing trade combinations.

Among those who have signified their intention of being present are Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations; E. B. Clarke of the interstate commerce commission; F. B. Kellogg, special assistant attorney general of the United States in charge of the government cases against the Standard Oil, Seth Lowe of New York and Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama. The government officials who have been probing big trade combinations and corporations are expected to have something of interest to say on the work they have already done.

The American Bankers' association, the American Bar association, the National Wholesale Druggists' association, the National Grange and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America will send delegates. Among the delegates who will represent states are Gustave C. Pabst of Wisconsin and Bartlett Tripp of South Dakota.

Private Views Do Not Share Optimistic Reports From King.

Vienna, Oct. 14.—Optimistic accounts of the progress made by Emperor Francis Joseph were received here from Schoenbrunn castle this morning. Though his night was repeatedly disturbed by bad fits of coughing, the emperor felt considerably easier when he arose, somewhat later than usual and seated himself in his chair, and his mood was noticeably cheerful.

Dr. Herzl, the imperial physician, who examined the emperor carefully today, found that the patient's expectation was abundant and that though the inflammation continued it had not increased. His majesty manifested more interest in affairs of state than in recent days, and so it is hoped that any steps contemplated for transferring part of the official business to other shoulders and insuring the smooth running of the state machinery can be postponed for a few days, even should it become necessary at all. ## QUITS PULPIT TO PLAY GOLF Massachusetts Minister Will Devote His Time to Pleasure.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 14.—The Rev. Dr. Willard Scott of Piedmont church has resigned his pastorate so that he can devote all his time, it is stated, to golf. The churchman, who has conducted a successful pastorate here for nine years, is quoted as follows: "The presentation of my resignation was a cool and contented action. I have a whole lot to do outside of it. I want to do it, but I want to loaf and play golf."

"I have worked hard, yes, I have done more work in thirty years than a good many men do in sixty years. I have collapsed twice under the strain. When business interferes with pleasure, drop business."

"That's what I am going to do—drop business and play golf continually."

Panama, Oct. 14.—The American engineers are having trouble with the Cucharcha slide, at the south end of the Culebra cut. This point of land, always a source of trouble to the French when they tried to dig the canal, is again in motion and will prove a hindrance all during the season.

About half a million yards of dirt is in motion. All of this must ultimately be removed, but the engineers would rather get it slowly than have it pushed on them.

TRIAL IS RESUMED

State Expects to Finish Magill Case Tuesday Evening.

Will Ask Judge to Then Order Verdict of Guilty.

Deatur, Ill., Oct. 14.—The Magill trial was resumed here today. The state's case will not be finished before Tuesday evening. The prosecutor will ask the judge to order a verdict of guilty, but Judge Cochrane is expected to refuse.

Testimony today showed that for years before Mrs. Magill's death, Fay Graham was at Fred Magill's house several weeks and stayed there all night many times. No improprieties were proved, however. Undertaker G. C. Oakman testified that Fred Magill's right hand, wrist and forearm were swollen, but not bruised. He ascribed the swelling to rheumatism. Fred Magill, it was testified, found his wife's body about 3 o'clock on the morning of May 30, but did not call the first doctor till 6:20.

PREPARING TO BE EMPEROR

Berlin, Oct. 14.—Crown Prince Frederick William today began a year's work in the Prussian ministry of the interior, as part of his preparation for assuming the crown in due course of time. He will study the working of each department of the ministry according to a program approved by the emperor and under the personal supervision of the minister of the interior. The prince will be present at the conference between the minister and the chiefs of the bureau and also will be required to prepare reports on selected subjects for submission to the cabinet.

GOOD TARGET WORK BY THE COAST ARTILLERY.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Record target practice has been made by the One Hundred and Fifteenth company, coast artillery, now stationed at Fort Rosecrans, Cal., which, by the way, has heretofore shown its marksmanship in the matter of accuracy of fire. In the last case the command made 100 per cent on a moving target at a range of average of 6,883 yards, and six shots from big 12-inch guns were fired in five minutes and forty-two seconds. All of them would have had passed through a target six and a half yards high by sixteen yards wide, and for this excellent practice Capt. P. J. Dengler will be officially commended.

Range of Prices at Opening Showed Some Uneven Declines.

Rebound Convulsive and Relieved Many of the Losses.

Many Stocks Carried Well Over the Saturday Closing.

New York, Oct. 14.—There was a nervous and gloomy atmosphere in the neighborhood of the stock exchange before the trading began today, as fears were general of the consequences of the unsupported condition of the market revealed in Saturday's demoralized slump. Violent breaks in the opening prices of stocks, therefore, caused no surprise, but a prompt rally disclosing some measure of effective support brought a quick feeling of some relief. Foreign money centers were disturbed over the position here and that feeling was reflected in some support selling of stocks for export account, which added to the burdens of the New York market. The Sunday interval had brought in many selling orders to brokers' offices from holders frightened by the precipitancy of the fall in prices and from those who did not respond to calls for additional margin. The range of prices on the opening sales showed very uneven declines, some of the most representative stocks making some show of resistance, while others fell away weakly. American Smelting, for instance, opened at an advance of a point and the Western railroad stocks and Amalgamated copper were comparatively little affected. On the other hand United States Steel, preferred, dropped 1/4 and 8,000 shares of the common sold simultaneously at 22 1/2 and 23 1/2 compared with 23 1/2 on Saturday.

American Steel Foundries, preferred, broke 4. General Electric 3 3/4. American Locomotive preferred and Central Leather preferred 3. People's Gas 2 3/4. Litchfield and Westinghouse Electric 2. Canadian Pacific, Great Northern, Erie Certificates, Reading, Erie first preferred, National Lead and American Gas 1 1/2 to 1 3/4. The rebound was convulsive and retrieved some of these losses at a jump and carried many stocks up to Saturday's closing level, among them American Smelting, Tennessee Copper, St. Paul, Union Pacific, Great Northern preferred, New York Central, Amalgamated Copper and Anaconda.

OPERATORS RETURNING

Several Telegraphers Are Reinstated at the Cleveland Office.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 14.—Notwithstanding the formal resolution adopted yesterday at a meeting of the local branch of the Telegraphers' union to continue the strike indefinitely, a number of men applied for their old positions today, and in several instances were reinstated. Supt. Collins of the Postal company said he has accepted the applications of some first-class operators this morning, simply because their services were no longer needed. Among the men who returned to work today were two former operators in the local branch of the union. At the Western Union office, it was stated today that the force of men at work was adequate to handle all business promptly.

LABOR UNIONS

New York, Oct. 14.—The Central Federation union has received an appeal from President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, which has been sent to all the affiliated unions, asking them to request all political candidates in the present campaign to commit themselves openly as to government by injunction. Gompers said that the misuse of the power of injunction occurs constantly and is dangerous to the liberty of the people. It was the duty of the labor unions to investigate all candidates for judicial and legislative offices, so that they can be put on record as to how they stand on the question of government by injunction.

NEWS ON THE IRON RANGES LUMBER COMPANY WILL OPERATE

Grand Rapids Will Be Used as Base of Supplies.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Arrangements have about been completed whereby a great lumbering concern will operate in the country north of here on the Bigfork river and vicinity, and will use Grand Rapids as a base of supplies. The magnitude of the company and its operations may be imagined when it is stated that the work will require the construction of a logging railroad twenty-five miles long to land the timber at the head of the Prairie river, waters down which the logs will be driven to the Mississippi at this point. It is reported that the company has about 600,000,000 feet of timber to cut in the section in which it will operate, and that between twenty and thirty millions a year will be taken out until the work is completed.

This place has been decided upon as the base of supplies, in fact, it is about the only place from which it is convenient to handle the work, and that will mean that all the hauling and other business, taking in men, etc., will be done from here.

It has not yet been given out where the operations will commence, but there is no doubt that the work will be done in supplies for the work in the woods, for the railroad, such as equipment, rails, etc., will be done this winter, and that work on the road itself will be started as soon as possible and convenient.

Among the promoters of the enterprise are B. F. Hanson, formerly of this city; R. J. Powell and A. Y. Merrill, the Minneapolis lawyers; Soren & Mackie, and other prominent business men of the lumber trade.

MONEY IN POTATOES.

Itasca County Farmers Coming to the Front as Tuber Producers.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Itasca county is soon to give the Mille Lacs and Anoka counties a run for their money, as a potato raising section. Potatoes are proving such a good crop that many farmers are paying a good deal of attention to their culture, and the results are astonishing.

Among those whose potato patches have come to the attention of the Mille Lacs and Anoka counties are John G. Fraser, who has about fifteen acres; Niel Mulling, who has sixteen acres; and A. M. Sisk, whose potato patch covers nine acres. These men state that the potato is one of the best vegetables adapted to this section, that the crop is usually large, that it generally brings good returns, and that taken all in all, it is a crop that handled the way they handle it, is not hard to raise and pleasant to take care of. All have machinery with which to handle the biggest part of the work, such as planters, cultivators, diggers, etc., which make the work comparatively easy.

"We do everything we can by machinery," said Mr. Fraser. "We can do more work and do it much more easily and cheaply than we can do it by hand."

DEER RIVER TRUSTEE.

A. McCallum Appointed to Succeed the Late William Gray.

Deer River, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village council has appointed A. McCallum, trustee to succeed the late William Gray.

Mr. McCallum is secretary of the E. O. Moore & Co. The application of E. R. Brooks for renewal of his saloon license was filed and ordered published. The very serious matter of the water system substantially for the winter was the chief topic of the meeting. Under present conditions it was pointed out that when cold weather comes there would be no water in the town. The Ingersoll well is laid on the top of the ground and it will freeze. The new well, which Contractor Moore has been working on most of the summer is not completed, and it was resolved to have Mr. Moore complete the job at once, instead of that the Ingersoll well will have to be bought and the pipe laid deep underground.

NELSON GIVES BOND.

Aurora School Treasurer Said to Have Better of the Fight.

Aurora, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. F. Nelson, who was appointed treasurer of the school board, vice Charles Olson, removed, has furnished a bond, according to a current report, and thereby further fortified himself in his contest with Mr. Olson for the position. It is expected that Mr. Nelson will ultimately win as a member of the board and that the outcome of the fight over the office will result in his favor.

LOOK OVER BRIDGE.

Lake County Officials Also Decide Upon Some Important Road Work.

Two Harbors, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Commissioners C. M. The hill at the south end of the new bridge will be cut down about fourteen feet.

ENGINEER LOSES HIS LIFE IN BAD SMASH-UP ON THE MISSABE ROAD

THE WRECKED ENGINE AND FREIGHT CARS.

Pinned under the wreck of his engine, George F. Birch, met his death, early yesterday morning, as the result of a wreck on the Missabe ore dock. His fireman, Frank Gosper, barely escaped with his life, and is suffering from the most painful burns and bruises at St. Mary's hospital.

Mr. Birch was backing down the hill with a heavily loaded train, and running at quite a high rate of speed when he struck the curve. As he was rounding the curve he ran into an open switch and crashed into a string of empties standing on track No. 2.

Neither of the men had time to jump. Ten of the cars were piled up in a heap, and the engine was overturned, pinning both Mr. Birch and the fireman beneath it, where they were horribly burned by the escaping steam and boiling water. The fireman was extricated in time to save his life, but Mr. Birch was too far under the engine to be reached, and it was nearly three hours before his body was taken out. He was probably killed by a blow on the head.

The fireman, a young man about 23 years of age, whose home is in Eau Claire, will probably recover.

The fire department was summoned as soon as the accident occurred, and the firemen made a quick run to the scene, and worked with the employees of the dock to extricate the two men. Five of the cars were hurled over the embankment, and the others were piled up in a heap on the track. The engine was also a complete wreck.

The blame for the wreck has not yet been fixed. It is said to have been due to the action of a switchman in turning the switch the wrong way, and allowing the loaded train to run into the empties. Coroner McCuen is making an investigation this morning, and taking the statements of witnesses. If necessary an inquest will be ordered.

feet. The earth will be dumped at the north end of the bridge, making the thoroughfare as level as possible. The new steel bridge, which is sixty feet in length, and its two abutments, fourteen feet high, the county board has ordered. The committee has instructed Peter Johnson, the commissioner of the Second district, to improve and clear the road leading from Shaaf Lake to Little Maize, the distance is more than seven miles. This improvement will be of benefit to winter travel generally. Heretofore there has been no highway communication between Shaaf Lake and Little Maize, and travelers from this section have been forced to drive to Beaver Bay to make connection with the Duluth & Northern Minnesota railway.

TO EMPLOY MANY SCANDINAVIANS

Large Number Are Expected in Eveleth This Week.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is expected that from 500 to 1,000 new workers will be received at the Spruce-Adams and Fayal mines. They are in the main to be Scandinavians.

The Steel corporation has instructed John Mide to immediately induce a large number of Scandinavians to work. He has secured from New York and other Eastern cities sufficiently large number to make it sure that a large crew will arrive during the week.

This is construed as an attempt on the part of the Steel corporation to replace its former employees with a more industrious class of men. The Scandinavians now employed are giving the most satisfaction. They are undoubtedly induced by the corporation to secure more of that nationality.

During the past week, fifty Scandinavians arrived and were put to work on the Spruce-Adams mine. They are employed under Scandinavian supervision.

All the drills about Eveleth are manned by Scandinavian crews.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS.

Break Into Store at Eveleth and Steal Some Guns.

Eveleth, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Siegel Brothers' furniture store was entered early Sunday evening and a large quantity of cartridges, the deed was done by three small boys. They were arrested by a policeman, who, with John Siegel, compelled the boys to tell where they had hidden the revolvers under a sidewalk. The guns had been loaded and an accident was narrowly averted by the bullets from the revolvers.

The boys got in by breaking a back window and removing the bars. Mr. Siegel has not decided as yet whether he will punish the youthful offenders or not.

GRAND RAPIDS WINS.

Itasca County Boys Too Strong for Bemidji on the Gridiron.

Bemidji, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—In a hotly contested game of football Saturday afternoon, the Grand Rapids high school football team defeated the Bemidji high school football team by a score of 25 to 5.

The two teams put up a good game, but the visitors were too fast for the locals, they evidently having enjoyed the benefit of good coaching.

In the first half of the game Capt. Getchell of the Bemidji team ran the entire length of the field for a touch-down, and it looked as though the game was going to be a walk-over for Bemidji all the way through, but there was a sudden reversal of form on the part of the Grand Rapids team.

After the line-up when the first touch-down had been made, a fumble on the part of Grand Rapids was followed by one of the visiting team getting the ball and going for a touch-down.

The ball was again kicked off and the Grand Rapids players at once swept down the field to the Bemidji goal for a touch-down.

FIND ANDERSON'S BODY.

Recovered by Dragging Where He Perished in the Lake.

Two Harbors, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The body of Ole Anderson, who was drowned Friday night at the ore docks, was recovered Saturday afternoon, after but a few minutes dragging.

Anderson had been employed by Ole Gurvin, ice dealer, the past summer and was assisting the latter in delivering ice to one of the ore docks in the harbor.

In handling up a piece of ice from a roveland in which it was carried, he lost his balance and fell backward. He is supposed to be struck under the ore boat as he came up, for he was not seen after he fell in and it being dark no assistance could be given. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

Coleraine Proved Better Versed in Skill of Game Than Boveyites.

Coleraine, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The superior skill of the Coleraine football eleven was well illustrated Saturday in the first game of the season played here when the locals defeated the heavier Bovey eleven by a score of 17 to 0.

The visiting eleven out-weighted the locals, but they were out-classed by the Coleraine. The heavier weight of the visitors stood them in shape and will begin shipping within a few days. The Coleraine mine, a new property at Pettit will also increase their shipping and will begin shipping today from their newly opened West Adams pit. the help apparent, is in constant touch with the foreign minister.

If the emperor's condition does not become any worse, perhaps it will suffice if the baron, in his quality as minister of the imperial house, concludes the necessary negotiations with the Hungarian emperor to attend the assembly, carrying out of the recently concluded arrangements between the two governments, providing for the measures in the common expenses of the dual monarchy.

It is known, however, that difficulties have arisen between the baron and the premiers of Austria and Hungary concerning disputed points on the future position of the Hungarian kingdom towards the crown and towards Austria, and it was rumored yesterday that the baron had handed his resignation to the emperor, but it was semi-officially stated today that the differences are not serious enough to make the baron's resignation necessary.

The optimistic official opinion expressed regarding the emperor's health are not confirmed from the best informed private sources, whence it is persistently stated that the inflammation continues to be a bad symptom, and does not give promise of the patient's speedy convalescence. The imperial physicians, it is added, desire to give the emperor to another and more suitable room, but he steadfastly refuses to permit them to do so. The room now occupied by his majesty is the one in which he was born, and, therefore, he has a sentimental attachment for it.

HANGS SELF WITH TWINE

Farmer Johnson of Red Lake County is Tired of Life.

He Was Well-to-Do and Happy in Home Relations.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frod L. Johnson, a well-to-do farmer of the town of Comstock, just north of this city, ended his life by hanging, Saturday evening, without any apparent cause whatsoever, except that he must have been tired of life.

He had been working at the threshing for one of his neighbors during the day, and towards evening the machine was moved on to his farm in order to be ready for the next day's work. Mr. Johnson left his home before nightfall, saying that he was going to one of his neighbors to get him to assist at threshing. He did not return home in the evening, but his family was not alarmed, thinking that he had come to stay overnight, as it was very dark, and it was known that Johnson was near the machine. When he did not put in an appearance in the morning, his folks thought that he had gone to another neighbor's farm, but when they went there, they began to suspect that something was wrong.

At noon the whole threshing crew began a search for him, and after a time found him in a small poplar grove, a short distance from his home, his body hanging from a tree by a piece of binding twine.

Word was sent immediately to the county authorities, and Sheriff Forsberg and Coroner Baker went to the scene of the suicide, but held no inquest, as it was plain that the deceased had met his death at his own hands. Neither his family or any of his neighbors had any light on the cause for the action. His domestic relations have always been pleasant, and he was in easy financial circumstances. The owner of 300 acres of land and other farm property, all unincumbered by debt, and besides had money in the bank. He was not a drinking man, and his habits were simple. He was 52 years of age, and had lived in the town of Comstock for twenty-five years.

FLOODWOOD PLEASD.

Prospect Bright for Stave, Heading and Box Factory.

Floodwood, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—During the past week a number of enterprising business men have been looking over the timber in the vicinity of Floodwood, with a view to establishing a stave, heading and box factory at this place, and people here are in high hopes of securing this valuable enterprise. The men who have been looking over the place are George E. Hansson, Bartley Kline, Charles H. Lettorelli, F. S. Shue and P. J. Kampa of Foley, Minn. They all seem well pleased with location and made a most favorable impression upon the people of this village. M. H. Schneider and C. D. Rutherford have generously offered to contribute a most desirable site for the plant. There is no doubt that a business of this kind will prove a paying investment, and a great benefit to the neighborhood.

BUY SWAMP LAND.

State Officers Make Extensive Purchase Near Hartley's Farm.

Bemidji, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—State Senator L. O. Cooke of Wabasha county; George H. Ralph, engineer to the state drainage commission; George Welsh, state commissioner of immigration, and Julius A. Schmah, secretary of state, have shown their faith in Northern Minnesota by the purchase of 5,000 acres of so-called swamp lands situated in the southwestern extremity of Itasca county and Northern Aitkin county, through which the Great Northern railway traverses, and on which the station of Wawina is located.

The land adjoins the celebrated island farm of G. G. Hartley of Duluth, on the western boundary of that tract of swamp lands.

The negotiations for the immense tract was the direct result of the visit of the most of these purchasers to that territory two weeks ago. The four men who made the purchase paid a second visit to the tract Saturday and stated that they were more than pleased with their purchase.

While Messrs. Schmah, Cooke, Ralph and Welsh were at Wawina, they made preliminary arrangements for the systematic drainage of the tract, ditches to be constructed either side, with laterals at an interval of every quarter of a mile, thus establishing one of the most perfect systems of drainage in the state. The main ditches will run north to the Floodwood river and south to the Rice, with a fall ranging from eighteen to twenty-eight feet.

RAILROAD SETTLES.

Great Northern Disposes of Mrs. Yaeger's Suit for Damages.

St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Kate Yaeger has effected a settlement with the Great Northern Railway company for the death of her husband, the late Adam Yaeger, and her daughter, who were killed at the Osseo crossing in this city early last spring. The figures of the settlement have not been given out, but the settlement was satisfactory to Mrs. Yaeger.

Adam Yaeger and his daughter were struck by the Winnipeg flyer in this city last March. Mr. Yaeger was killed instantly and the daughter died from her injuries at St. Raphael's hospital a few days later.

Some weeks ago Mrs. Yaeger brought suit against the Great Northern company for $10,000, $5,000 for the death of her husband and $5,000 for the death of her daughter. Since that time the company has been making an effort to settle the case.

EAU CLAIRE MAN ON BORAH CASE

Helped to Defend Senator and Denounces Government Methods.

Eau Claire, Wis., Oct. 14.—C. T. Bundy, local attorney, counsel for the Barber Lumber company of this city, who has just returned from Boise, Idaho, where he went to assist in the defense of Senator Borah in the federal court on the charge of being implicated in timber land frauds and incidentally look after the interest of certain members of the Barber Lumber company also accused, has returned and declares the trial of Borah will go down in history as one of the most remarkable of criminal trials. The political differences between Borah, the district attorney and Judge Beatty, who presided when Borah was indicted, are alleged to have cut a large figure in Borah's prosecution.

As soon as this indictment was found, the enormous power of the federal government, with its secret service department and special agents, said Mr. Bundy, "began looking for evidence upon which to convict. It all resulted in the trial which has just ended, during which forty-two witnesses testified in behalf of the government, and none on the part of the defendant. Not an objection was made to the reception of any kind of evidence the government desired to introduce, much of it being so utterly immaterial and irrelevant that the court of its own motion and without any objection on the part of the defense occasionally felt called upon to restrain the prosecuting officers. None of the government witnesses were cross-examined by the defendant, and when the evidence was all in and the assistant attorney general closed his case, a very able and impassioned argument to the jury, lasting nearly three hours, Senator Borah, through his counsel, waived argument and submitted his case to the jury without discussion, without witnesses and without cross-examination of the witnesses called to testify against him.

From the time the jury left the jury box, after having received the instructions of the court, until they returned with their verdict of not guilty, just fourteen minutes elapsed. Friends of Senator Borah had made arrangements for a demonstration, when the verdict was received. As soon as the marshal reported that the jury had agreed and five minutes before the jury was in the court room, the signal was given, fire bells began ringing, motor cars, as well as steam locomotives, began blowing their whistles, fire department running up and down the streets and the brass band playing "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

SECOND FINNISH BAND IN COUNTRY

Has Just Been Organized by Finns of Calumet.

Calumet, Mich., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Calumet can boast of a full fledged band, the second of its kind in the United States.

At a meeting a few days ago of those interested in the movement it was decided to organize a band of Finnish musicians for the purpose of giving concerts, promenades, and to furnish music at various events throughout the country. The organization has been named the Huma Finnish band. It is composed of twenty-eight men and has elected W. Wahlstrom, formerly solo cornet player of the famous Astabula, Ohio, band, as its leader.

Mr. Wahlstrom is in Calumet, and two practices have already been held. The band is holding its rehearsals in the old Laurum Baptist church on Hecla street, Laurum, owned by the Laurum Finnish Temperance society. The public engagement of the band will take place on Nov. 9, when a dance will be given in the Light Guard armory. It is expected there will be a large attendance, especially of Finnish people. Director Wahlstrom will arrange a splendid program of dance and other numbers for the occasion.

TUBERCULOSIS AMONG CATTLE

North Dakota Live Stock Sanitary Board to Fight It.

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The state live stock board created by the last legislature, has already demonstrated the wisdom of its creation. It has waged war on glanders among horses and at its last meeting here the board decided to attack bovine tuberculosis and to that end adopted the following resolutions asking federal help:

Whereas, a large proportion of the cases of bovine tuberculosis in this state can be traced to the importations of infected breeding and dairy stock from other states, and

Whereas, the necessary supervision of shipments of cattle can only be imperfectly carried on by this board, and

Whereas, the elimination of the source of infection mentioned would have a beneficial influence upon the suppression of cattle tuberculosis within the state, therefore,

Be it resolved, that the North Dakota Live Stock Sanitary board pray the Hon. James Wilson, United States secretary of agriculture, to establish and enforce such regulations as he may deem necessary for the prevention of interstate shipments of cattle with tuberculosis breeding and dairy stock.

FAMILY WIPED OUT.

Husband Kills Wife and Then Turns Weapon on Himself.

Minot, N. D., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Passengers arriving here from Fargo, Minn., reported that a tragedy took place in the Montana town while the train was changing engines. Mrs. Sylvia Reed, day clerk in the Havre hotel, aged 27, was shot and killed by her husband, a sign painter. Reed then turned the weapon on himself, dying in the hotel lobby and was witnessed by several people. Reed had arrived in town the day previous and demanded from his wife certain papers which she promised to give him. Not satisfied, the murderer then approached his wife who was standing near the cigar stand in the hotel lobby and shot her. Reed then killed himself.

CRIMINALLY LIABLE.

Great Northern Blamed for Killing Farmer at Rugby, North Dakota.

Rugby, N. D., Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—That the Great Northern was primarily the cause of the death of Andrew Iversen Haugen was the verdict found by the coroner's jury in the case of the farmer, who was killed by a switch on a crossing here Friday afternoon. A late morning logging train, in which Haugen was driving, demolishing it and killed one horse.

The report of criminal negligence was brought as a result of evidence submitted to the effect that a car on the track shut off a switch which was the approaching engine, that the engine was being run by a switchman, instead of the engineer, who stood on the platform about 40 feet away, and because of the fact that there was no one on the fireman's side of the locomotive to keep a look out. Fireman Whitney has had only eleven months' experience in his work.

YOUNG WIFE STRANGLED; HUSBAND SUSPECTED.

Minneapolis, Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. George Paloutz, the 17-year-old wife of a Polish railroad laborer, was found murdered in an upstairs room here Sunday. Her husband was missing and has not been seen since Sunday, Oct. 6. The woman is believed to have been murdered on that day. She had been strangled to death.

Haydon—Duck hunters, who have been accustomed to find their quarry along the lower reaches of the McIntosh, have found that the German carp have destroyed the vast field of wild rice by eating the roots. What few ducks alight this fall only pause for an instant in their flight.

Chippewa Falls—Grace Harrington of this city, has returned from a visit to the John F. Dietz domain on the Thoraple river. Miss Harrington is one of the few women of the United States who has made the alleged outlaw a visit, and she is much pleased with her recent trip.

DO YOU WANT A PIANO

At a saving in cost to you of from $75.00 to $100.00? If so, we can furnish it.

The only store in Northern Minnesota selling pianos on the One Price System is French & Bassett. Only thoroughly reliable, high-grade instruments are sold. Every piano is plainly marked at its very lowest cash selling price.

There is no price dickering—you are not in doubt—YOU KNOW no one can buy the instrument for one cent LESS than you are getting it.

When you go into a piano store and the salesman says: "Here's an instrument for $450," perhaps it's a make you have not heard of—a stenciled brand piano of no particular reputation—you may have a piano at home and to complete the deal he will allow you $30 discount if you intend paying cash—that gets it down to $350. You may think you are saving about a hundred dollars, but you are not—BECAUSE

You don't know the correct selling price of the piano—it was not marked in plain figures—

The big allowance for the old piano and the big cash discount were all added before you came in—

The same instrument, sold by the same salesman, to another party—if it looked as though it wouldn't be a sale—might be bought for $250.00.

That is the ordinary way of selling a piano.

With our One Price System we have only high-grade, well-known pianos for sale. The price is plainly marked on each instrument—it is the very lowest cash price. If you wish the piano on time the price is the same—but you pay 5 per cent interest on deferred payments.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

"The object of the Young Women's Christian association in America, South America or anywhere else it may happen to be located, is not primarily to make good Bible students, better teachers nor more competent stenographers, but to prepare the young women for home makers and mothers," said Mrs. B. A. Shuman yesterday, in her address before the members of the local Y. W. C. A., at the meeting held yesterday afternoon at the lecture room of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Shuman has been in close touch with the efforts to establish the Y. W. C. A. work on a permanent and active basis since living in Buenos Ayres, and is deeply interested in the work undertaken by Miss Jean Batty, the American woman who has been sent to the South American city as secretary. Minnesota associations are especially interested in the work, as Minnesota and Pennsylvania associations are particularly responsible for the salary of the secretary.

"It is just that thing that we are working for in South America," continued Mrs. Shuman. "American women, with all the opportunities that are offered them in this land, where woman is esteemed and respected and protected, cannot imagine the struggle

LEAVE TODAY.

Local Committee to Inspect Association Buildings.

Mrs. Wesley Feehan, general secretary of the local Young Women's Christian association, and Mrs. J. A. Waterworth, chairman of the building committee for the proposed new building, left today for Chicago for a ten-day trip visiting various of the large city associations, to secure ideas for the plans of the Duluth building. Mrs. Feehan and Mrs. Waterworth will visit Cleveland, where a new $100,000 building will be dedicated, Nov. 2. The building is now being used in part, and after that date will be occupied entirely. It is expected that the trip will be a most helpful one, and that the committee will return with many new and helpful ideas for the local institution.

Return From Chicago.

Quite a little coterie of Duluth women were in Chicago last week for autumn shopping and informal theater parties between whistles. The trip, for the most part, were of brief duration and among those who returned Friday or Saturday were Mrs. George C. Stone, Mrs. Gibson L. Douglas, Jr., Mrs. O. C. Hartman, Mrs. A. W. Hartman, Mrs. D. G. Cutler, Mrs. W. B. Silvey, Mrs. J. B. Cotton, Mrs. H. P. Williamson, Mrs. E. P. Towne, Mrs. R. M. Sellwood, Mrs. R. P. Dowse, Mrs. A. B. Wainman and Mrs. B. F. Meyer. Among those who will go to Chicago this week are Mrs. W. J. Olcott and Mrs. G. G. Hartley.

Christmas Presents.

Christmas sales are already looming large on the horizon and many of the church societies are busily engaged in making plans for the December events. Among the first of the church societies to actively engage in plans for a Christmas sale is Circle No. 3 of St. Paul's church, the members of which planned for a large holiday sale of dainty hand-made gifts and food delicacies, to be held the first week of December. At a recent meeting held with Mrs. Frederick Lee Gilbert of 1201 London road, active preparations were begun.

that it will be to bring new light and thought for the growth of the young women of the Argentine. They are hampered by tradition and a lack of appreciation. Parents do not consider the education of their daughters essential. The first efforts and most interest are centered in their sons. The girls lead an aimless, but much-guarded life until marriage, which to the young woman of the Argentine is liberty. Naturally the girls of the country look forward to marriage as the earliest and best possible solution of their hedged-in existence. The most vital influences in the education of an American girl are probably Sunday schools, clubs, study classes, athletics, literature and culture in many lines. These are all denied the young women of South America. The available writings in the Spanish literature are not such as to attract girls, and their little reading probably consists most in the French novels of the lower class. It is through the young women that we hope to bring a different standard to the home.

"The Young Women's Christian association hopes to change many of these conditions. A boarding home has been established out from the business center, and rooms have been opened in the center of the business

What Retail Markets Offer.

Buckwheat flour, 5 cents a pound. Maple syrup, 35 to 50 cents a quart. Fresh lima beans, 50 cents a pound. Large chestnuts, 20 cents a pound. Pork sausages, 18 cents a pound. Mince meat, 20 cents a pound.

The power that decreed that man in the generic sense, must rise from a couch of slumber and happiness, ease and joy, every morning before breakfast, provided one material comfort that temporarily takes the bitterness which almost cannot be borne out of the imperative necessity of getting up. There is in all the gamut of human misery nothing quite so bad as rising before breakfast, and the last touch is added when after one has risen, fighting his better nature which bids him stay in bed, when one has protestingly garbed one's self, and in lonely solitude bewailed the fact that custom does not arrange that breakfast be served before rising, then the last drop of bitterness is added by having some blithering idiot ejaculate "Good morning."

LYCEUM—Mack-Leone players in "The METROPOLITAN—Burlesque.

"THE EARL OF PAWTUCKET"

Mack-Leone Players Give an Excellent Production.

The English dialect is a new venture for Willard Mack, the versatile manager and leading man of the Mack-Leone company, but he acquitted himself most creditably as Lord Cardington in the "Earl of Pawtucket," which was presented at the Lyceum before two big audiences yesterday.

Mr. Mack followed very closely along the lines of Lawrence D'Orsay, who made such a success of the part, and considering the time Mr. Mack had for preparation and the time Mr. D'Orsay put upon it, Mr. Mack has nothing to fear from comparisons.

Miss Beatrice Moude was never seen to better advantage than as Harriet Fordyce, and the other members of the company made an excellent showing. The scenery deserves special mention, and it is a tribute to the play given a better setting by even the D'Orsay company. The complete sets have been painted especially for this play.

"The Earl of Pawtucket" is one of the cleverest farces that have been produced of late years, and the production given by the Mack-Leone Players should attract big crowds during the remainder of the engagement. It will be repeated tonight, tomorrow and Wednesday with a Wednesday matinee.

CLAIMED TO HAVE ANNOYED GIRL

Prisoner Given Stiff Sentence for Following Young Woman.

After administering a stinging rebuke in which he took the prisoner severely to task for his actions, Judge Windom today sentenced James McVernon to pay a fine of $40 and costs or serve forty days at hard labor in the county jail.

McVernon was arrested last night by Officer Stewart in the charge of being drunk and the court imposed the extreme penalty because of the alleged circumstances connected with the case.

It was stated that McVernon followed a young woman in the east end of the city to her home and finally chased her, endeavoring to follow her into the house when she at last escaped and sought refuge within doors.

Neighbors told the policeman of the man's strange actions and he was arrested. He denied the charge, claiming that he did not remember anything about it. The court was inclined to doubt his story and gave him a severe lecture in pronouncing sentence.

Joe Morrison, who claims to make $2.50 per day, but could not account for not having any money, was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy today and pleaded not guilty. His case was set for this afternoon. He has been in police court before and it is claimed refuses to follow any steady employment.

Charles Turner, a typical "cockney," who came in on one of the lake boats, was given a fine of $1 and costs or three days.

Turner told the court his story in typical English fashion and amused the crowd of spectators assembled in the courtroom.

Daniel O'Neil was lucky enough to visit the sale of army clothing before he tried to drink up all the booze on the Bowery. In consequence Daniel appeared in court attired in a complete outfit of soldier clothing and admitted the charge of drunkenness. "I'm guilty, judge, no denying it. I was pretty drunk." The court thought three days would tend to relieve O'Neil's nervousness and he will reside on the hill for that period, unless he pays a fine of $1 and costs.

Ed Josephson forfeited bail in the sum of $10 rather than face the court on the charge of drunkenness. The city was enriched by three other forfeitures of similar amounts on charges of drunkenness.

Charles Peterson denied the charge of drunkenness and his case was set for this afternoon at 2 o'clock before Judge Windom.

COMMITTEE HERE THIS WEEK

Steel Plant Experts Will be Here Several Days.

The committee of the United States Steel corporation which is overseeing the plans for Duluth's new steel plant, will arrive in the city Wednesday to inspect the site and go over the plans that have been formulated for the establishment of the new industry here. The personnel of the committee will include W. B. E. Brunson, John Reis, H. Daniels, E. C. Slick, M. A. Neeland and T. W. Robinson. It is quite likely that the committee will remain in the city several days, as it has considerable work to do here. The plans for the plant, the railroad terminals and transfer lines and other matters will be put before the committee.

It is understood to be the intention of the steel company to go ahead with the actual construction work as fast as conditions will permit and the committee's work here will further that end.

Next Friday, Oct. 18, is Donation Day for the Benefit of St. Luke's Hospital, of Duluth and the occasion is peculiarly timely for the friends of humanity and the charitable inclined to loosen their purse strings as generously as possible. W. S. Bishop of the First National bank of Duluth is treasurer of St. Luke's hospital association, and all checks and other forms of cash donations should be sent to him. Sums in any amount will be gratefully appreciated.

October 13 is the twenty-sixth anniversary of St. Luke's hospital of this city, and it has had a long and useful career, which is extending in its scope and importance every year. It has been the custom ever since the establishment of St. Luke's hospital to assist donations on each anniversary of its founding for the benefit of the institution. The present hospital at Ninth avenue east and First street is a credit to the city and to the North-west, but the demands upon it have already taxed its facilities beyond their capacity, and there is a demand in the name of humanity that it grow. The association has purchased, without having the funds at hand, the property at the corner of Second street and Ninth avenue east, immediately back of the present hospital building for hospital purposes. There are three buildings upon the property that will be utilized for the purpose, and it is expected eventually to erect permanent hospital buildings upon this site. The cost of the property was a little in excess of $5,000.

$10,000 in Donations on its 26th Anniversary Next Friday

which sum would be applied to paying for the property just purchased, and for the current needs of the hospital. There are also outstanding bonds of $25,000 and the bonds fall due in 1910.

The purchase of the property at Second street and Ninth avenue east, with the three buildings on it, will be of great assistance in enlarging the general hospital capacity. One of these buildings will be devoted to the care of patients afflicted with contagious diseases. Ample room for nurses and other purposes will be provided for the present. Eventually the site will be occupied, it is expected, by a first-class addition to the present hospital, as already stated.

St. Luke's hospital has been obliged to turn away patients because of lack of room to properly care for them. The city needs more hospital room, and the St. Luke's Hospital association is anxious to provide it. The general public is doubtless well aware that St. Luke's hospital does much charitable work. No patient is turned from its doors whether he or she has money or not, providing there is room to receive him or her. Many patients are received as patients who expect to pay for their attendance, but who find they cannot, and have no friends who are willing to pay for them. The hospital has $2,539.41 in unpaid accounts of this kind, and the estimated value of the total is only 10 per cent. But the policy to receive all is a fundamental principle and will ever be maintained.

The city of Duluth and the country adjacent is growing, and the needs of St. Luke's hospital are growing with it. It is not a business proposition in any sense, for there is nobody in the hospital association that profits by the institution. The entire return is a rich one, however, in the satisfaction of having a large and well equipped and conducted hospital to meet the demands of the sick and injured. Nobody who reads this knows how soon he or she may require the facilities that exist at this hospital and the skilled attention of the nurses.

The St. Luke's Hospital association was organized in Duluth in 1881. The first board of managers was composed of Rev. C. A. Cummings, Mrs. W. D. Hooker, Colonel C. H. Graves, Mrs. A. M. Miller, H. M. Peyton, H. F. Thompson and Miss Minnie J. Culver. The first hospital building was a one-story frame building of modest ground dimension, which is now used as a blacksmith shop on Third avenue east, between Superior and First streets.

The new hospital building was built on the site of the old one, and was built of brick and wood. It is a two-story building, with a large central hall, and is well equipped with modern appliances. It is a credit to the city and to the North-west, but the demands upon it have already taxed its facilities beyond their capacity, and there is a demand in the name of humanity that it grow. The association has purchased, without having the funds at hand, the property at the corner of Second street and Ninth avenue east, immediately back of the present hospital building for hospital purposes.

The present officers of the St. Luke's Hospital association are: President, Rev. A. W. Ryan; secretary, Francis Elizabeth Smith; assistant superintendent, Margaret L. Dunlop; treasurer, William S. Bishop; and housekeeper, Kathleen Macaulay. The board of managers consists of Rev. A. W. Ryan, Mrs. W. D. Hooker, Colonel C. H. Graves, Mrs. A. M. Miller, H. M. Peyton, H. F. Thompson and Miss Minnie J. Culver.

The twenty-sixth annual report of the St. Luke's Hospital association, which has been issued, President A. W. Ryan says:

A FOREWARD

By the President.

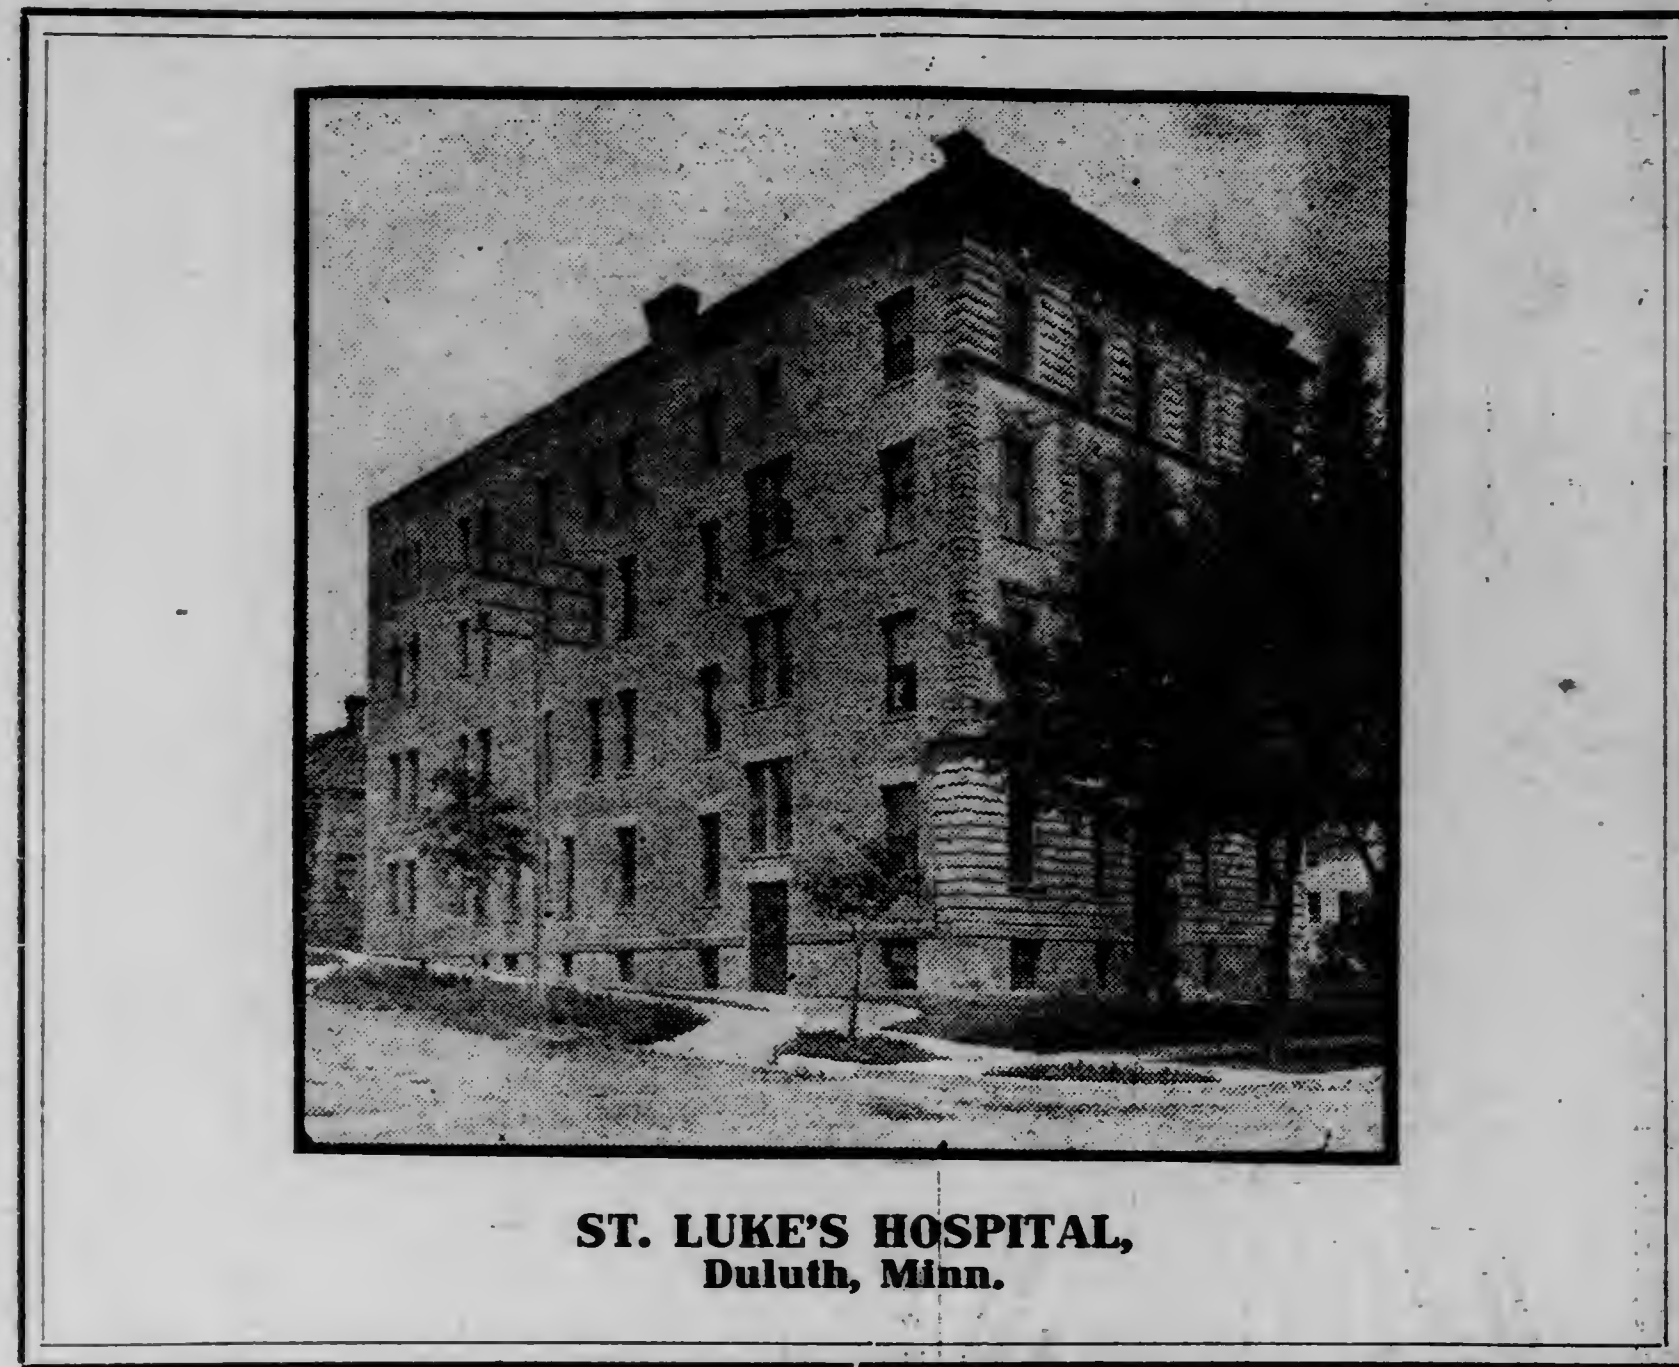

This report marks the completion of the twenty-sixth year of the efficient work of St. Luke's hospital. It is, however, the first time that we have felt justified in getting out a complete report of the hospital and its work. Unfortunately it was found that there are gaps in the records as will be shown in the succeeding pages. The history of the Often we have to turn them away for lack of room and many times the above are occupied.

It is plain from this that we should have in the near future another building just like the present one, only two feet wider, and this other building should be devoted to large wards and small private rooms that could be given for $10 a week. We may owe $25,000 in bonds. The last eight months we have been able to keep our current expenses nearly paid in full. A new pavilion would cost nurses are trained for our hospital, but they soon go forth to minister to the community and it is absolutely necessary that they be conscientious and competent. And so we are careful about the course of lectures, the text-book work and the practical experience. And we have been so successful that not one of our nurses has gone East into the postgraduate school since we have won commendation for her earlier school work.

We are always in need of pupils of irreproachable character, of sweet temper, school education, but in addition there should be those people who are trained for our hospital, but they soon go forth to minister to the community and it is absolutely necessary that they be conscientious and competent. And so we are careful about the course of lectures, the text-book work and the practical experience. hospital has been a steadily progressive one. It was begun in what is now a blacksmith shop, and through the generosity of the people of our community and those interested here, first a frame building was erected, and then our present building on East First street. This is a fire-proof, well-equipped, modern building in which the very best work can be done and is done for the public. On one day during the last eight months operations were performed at best of all, all were successful in issue. We are overjoyed with patients about $30,000. What a monument to a man's life that a beneficent gift to the community would be the erection of such an addition to the hospital. It would keep a man's memory greener, it would do more good longer than any other memorial anything that one could do. And some one is going to do just this and in time to come it will be seen that our whole plot of land will be covered with a new building, the cure of poor, broken human bodies. We will have no endowments, too, that we may always be ready to do for those who have no one else to do for them. We will have no endowments, too, that we may always be ready to do for those who have no one else to do for them. We will have no endowments, too, that we may always be ready to do for those who have no one else to do for them.

ular gifts and graces that make some women so acceptable and soothing to the sick and irritable. For all such candidates, we can offer a good nurse's training and the prospect afterwards of plenty of work. We are glad to put on record our grateful thanks to all those who by their gifts have helped to build up our hospital's noble record. Such ministry relieves much pain and cures many poor broken bodies. They have done it, to the least of our children, they have done it into Him.

Following is a complete report of the treasurer of the St. Luke's hospital association for the year ending May 1, 1907.

SPORTS OF THE DAY

ST. CLOUD IS DEFEATED

Centrals Show Good Form and Win by 23 to 6.

Substitutes Play Last Half and Fail to Score.

Profiting by the experience of the Ashland game and the hard work given them by Coach Colton in the preceding week, the Duluth Centrals again waited all over St. Cloud in the game Saturday at Athletic park, winning by a score of 23 to 6. All of the score were made in the first half, St. Cloud playing a strong game in the second half, but they failed to score with substitutes, in order to save the regular men for the hard game the next Saturday.

There was never any danger of a St. Cloud victory. The boys sailed in from the start and rushed their opponents on their feet. St. Cloud was bewildered by brilliant forward passes and runs and line backs, while on the defensive, they were well met powerless. Sullivan pulled off some good punts, but Cook had it on him in that department all through the game.

Cummings was the bright star of the Duluth lineup, with Cook and Crawford following him closely. The stocky right half pulled off run after run and his half in handling forward passes was as finished as that of a veteran. Crawford's backs out of position were great ground runners, while Cook's punting was a feature. McFadden's defensive work was also notable and he promises to develop into a cracking good end.

Steve Dexter Speed.

One notable improvement in Duluth's play was the speed developed in getting down in the Ashland game. Coaching was painfully slow. He dragged his signals and gave his opponents minutes to line up. There was none of that Saturday. The ball was no sooner in position than the play was off and St. Cloud was kept on the run all the way. It was good, fast football, the kind that should win, and after seeing the game, both supporters had more hope of the boys making a good showing against the Twin City and Superior teams.

St. Cloud kicked off to start the game, hitting the ball on their own 25 yard line. With end runs and forward passes predominating in the play, they marched steadily down the field and in five minutes, McFadden went over for the first time. St. Cloud in check, and did very little toward scoring.

In the second half, the Duluth substitutes started the game as follows:

Duluth.....Carried

Helmert.....Conroy

COLTON IS OUT OF CITY

Coach of High School Football Team is Called Away.

Boys Will be Given Hard Practice All This Week.

The one big football game of the year in Duluth will be played at Athletic park next Saturday, when the Minneapolis Centrals will line up against the Duluth Centrals. The latter team is stronger than anything the local boys have tackled this season, and if they hope to win, they must put up the best game of which they are capable.

The Duluth boys are none too confident, Saturday, Coach Colton was unavoidably called away by business and he left for Chicago. The team has been placed in charge of Assistant Coach Purni, who will conduct the practice this week. Purni has been working with Colton since the first of the season and he is well able to guide the boys. He is an old high school star, knows the game thoroughly, and will continue the coaching on the lines laid down by Colton.

The school spirit is strong now and everybody is working hard for the team. During the last few days of last week, there was a good crowd out, and it is expected they will turn out strong this time, to help the first team in scrimmage practice. There will be hard practice every night this week. The coaches are not entirely satisfied with the manner in which the forward pass has been working. Too many penalties have been meted out on account of the failure of the play and the lack of the game of high school boys makes it a dangerous play to use. The failure means fifteen yards on each occasion and fifteen yards is no small item in a close game. All hope of getting better, the star guard of last year, back in the game this season, has practically been abandoned. He has been out of the game for a long time, and it is not likely that he will be able to work them off before the game next Saturday. So the team is being made up of new players, and it is not likely that they will have no one else to do for them. We will have no endowments, too, that we may always be ready to do for those who have no one else to do for them. We will have no endowments, too, that we may always be ready to do for those who have no one else to do for them.

After the Blaine game comes the game with the St. Paul Centrals at St. Paul, after which the season will close. It may be, however, the last game will be played. An effort is being made to arrange another game with Ashland and it is not likely that it will be played Nov. 9.

Blaine Runs Up Fifty- Two Points on Range Boys.

Superior Team Shows Good Form in Second Game.

Outweighed fully fifteen pounds to the man and outclassed in every department of the game, the Eveleth high school football team was defeated by Blaine Saturday, at Superior by a score of 32 to 0. Eveleth never had a chance to score, much less to win. The boys from the range moved down the field with a heavy superior line and enlivened by the fast backs repeatedly and Superior scored almost at will.

The superior play was pleasing to the supporters of the Blaine team. They showed that they knew how to make good use of their best and speed. They broke through the Eveleth line time and again and blocked punts and the range boys were rendered helpless on the defense. Blaine was the star of the Eveleth team. His work was truly brilliant, but with inferior work on the part of his team-mates, he could only prevent several long gains on the part of Superior.

The first half resulted in a score of 6 to 0. In the second half, one drop kick touchdown and 2 goals were scored, running the final score 32 to 0. Blaine's line-up as follows:
Blaine.....Eveleth
Smith, A.....Ververy
St. Pierre.....Stewart
Long.....Saari
Smith, J.....Andrews

MINNESOTA GETS SCARE

Gophers Score Only Eight Points Against the "Aggies."

Team Shows Promise, But Has Many Weak Spots.

Minneapolis, Oct. 14.—(Special to The Herald).—Minnesota, St. Ames, 8 to 0.

Only by the hardest kind of work did Minnesota beat the agricultural State from Ames. Many times during the game the Gophers were swept off their feet, but recovered in time to keep much damage from being done. The playing on the part of the "varsity" was crude in the extreme. Ames used the football of 1902 and little else—but it was effective. The game was a hard fought contest. The victory came through two goals kicked from the field by Quarterback George Capron. Twice only did the Minnesota boys get within striking distance of the Ames goal. In both instances, however, they were held off by a down when it seemed to the spectators that a touchdown was inevitable. To an outsider it seemed as if the whole game was a series of blunders by boys who were earnestly trying to do what should be done.

Ames sent up the heaviest and fastest bunch that ever came from that institution. In returning punts, in getting down in the game and in the splendid interference the farmer boys deserve all kinds of credit. The game brought out fast and furious, but clean. No injuries occurred on either side, although Ames used a number of substitutes in three cases.

Whether Minnesota played in her best form yesterday is doubtful. Case was not in the game, and the big fellow is always a tower of strength. Durn was not out either, and is suffering from injuries of the past few days. Both men are expected to be in the game next Saturday when Nebraska comes for her annual wallop.

Have a Right Spirit. The varsity boys have the right spirit for a winning team. Everybody worked hard and was cheering work the rosters. The plays certainly were crude and the boys need to study their football books, but they are all workers. Not one player lagged or showed a disposition to let his muscles relax him of any burden.

The defense that Ames put up was a surprise to everyone. If Ames had been as good on offensive work and kicking as they were on defensive work, the history of the game would have been different. The Gopher line was also very weak on the offensive. The failure of the line to open up holes in the back field almost always resulted in the Ames team throwing Minnesota back for a loss.

Capron Promising. George Capron is easily the star for the Gophers. However, he is not free from serious faults. He tackles too high and relies too much on his interference when carrying the ball. On two occasions he was tackled and held at the point nearest his goal than where he ought the ball.

Woodrick played a plucky game, but an injury to his shoulder took him out at an early stage. Now they are waiting for him to get back. Ames, as stated in The Herald before, the season opened, the new rules have struck Minnesota below the belt and the outcome of the season is awaited with anxiety by loyal Gophers everywhere.

After the game Dr. Williams refused to talk to the newspaper men, saying it was against the conference rules, but it was plainly seen that he was very much relieved when the final whistle blew. Coach Clyde Williams of the Ames team said: "We did not come to win. We only wanted to give Minnesota a hard fight and we are satisfied with the result. We outplayed them, but luck was against us, especially in the forward passes. They (Minnesota) got them off well and we had a hard time with them. Min. beat us on their kicking. Capron is their best man." The lineup:

Minnesota	Position	Ames
Woodrick	.....	Stanifer
Ostrander	.....	Gray
Lambert	.....	Murphy
Bouillon	.....	Rutledge
Young	.....	Truogger
Stover	.....	Hubbard
G. Capron	.....	Graham
H. Capron	.....	Lambert
Rademacher	.....	Ruppert

NEW "FANNING" RULE.

Practice of Recalling Players Given Blow by Commission.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—There will be no winning games between the California State league and the major league clubs. This point was ruled upon by the National baseball commission at its meeting on a contention raised by the Pacific Coast league. The California State league desired to arrange a series of games with Eastern clubs between the regular baseball seasons.

The practice of "fanning out" players was also given its death blow by a decision of the commission to revise the rules governing sales with options for recall of players so as to provide that all such options in either major or minor leagues should be made by Aug. 30 of each year, and the players required to report at once to the club exercising the option, with the further provision that no club could enter into any such contract with option for recall of more than once for the same player.

WEIRD TALE OF HUNTER

He First Killed Two Partridges With One Shot.

Then Watched Squirrels Get Drunk From Whisky Bottle.

This is a hunting story. It may likewise be a "fish" story. It was told to the sporting editor this morning by a man, whose veracity will not be questioned. Let those who would use a grain of two of salt do so.

"A couple of queer things happened to us yesterday while we were out for partridge. Jack and I were together. The first thing, Jim shot two partridge with one shot. Quack! Of course it's queer, but he did it. The partridge were flying, when Jack spied them. He let go at their heads, which were close together and, upon my word, he blew both of their heads off with one shot. That's all the partridge we shot.

"I declare to goodness, if they didn't smell the whisky then. You ought to have seen that scrap. They sailed into each other right after the first one drank, and then the other. The first thing we knew, two of them fell off of that log, dead drunk. I never saw anything like it."

He sailed off, without saying what the "bait" was.

CONTINUE THE STRIKE

Is the Unanimous Sentiment of the Commercial Telegraphers.

Executive Committee at Chicago Suspends President Small.

New York, Oct. 14.—The New York local of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, at a meeting yesterday, voted unanimously to continue the strike against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies. The vote was taken upon the suggestion of Mr. Small, who, in messages to subordinate officers, pointed out the inability of the general assembly to finance the strike and recommended the local in various cities to vote upon the advisability of the men returning to work.

The meeting was characterized by bitter exchanges between President Small and the other speakers. The latter charged the national leader with inconsistency in first claiming that the strike would be successfully financed and Saturday admitting that the general assembly was without funds. They also charged him with having conducted the fight in a half-hearted, dilatory way. Small tried to explain his position, but was frequently interrupted by hisses. When he suddenly left the hall in the middle of speaking, cries of "Resign" followed him. Last night Small issued a statement in which he said he was willing to continue the strike if the men insisted.

When the meeting opened President Small was given the floor and said: "I am not here to make an argument for or against continuing the strike, but merely to explain why I called for a vote of the local on the proposition. Saturday Commissioner Neill informed me that President Clowry had told him that further negotiations were futile, and I believe what they say. Our funds are quite exhausted. As you know, we were unable to make a payment to you yesterday. There is no more in sight. These are the facts. You can do as you will."

Percy Thomas, former national deputy president, followed Small, saying that the latter had said when the strike began that he could raise $2,000,000 to support it. Small, he said, had asked him thirty days ago to send out the word "No funds," but the speaker refused. He continued: "President Small has utterly neglected to properly approach the subject of raising money, and now he comes before you and tells you that we have no more money. This strike cannot be lost if we have a leader, a national president with any ability.

There were cheers for Thomas and as Small rose to reply shouts of "Resign" greeted him.

"I have no intention of resigning," he said, when he could be heard. "To resign is the last thing that I will do, and I want to tell you that personal attacks on me won't get you bread and butter. As for assessments of other labor organizations, I want to tell you what they amount to. The order of Railroad Telegraphers, with a membership of 40,000, which was assessed first $2, then $1, has turned in about $32,000. From 27,000 locals of the American Federation of Labor we have received $25,000. I have come here to state facts, and to tell you of your position. Do what you will."

Small sat down. Daniel Russell, chairman of the local board, sprang to his feet. "Up to last night," he said, "this was Small's strike, and up to last night he did everything he could to lose it. Today it is your strike. Keep it up and win. He alone brought on the strike, and now he is trying to repudiate it." Other speakers followed in a similar vein, after which the resolution declaring that the strike be continued, and calling upon the national legislative committee to remit at once $3,000, the New York local's share from the treasury, for requiring the appropriation of further funds for strike purposes were adopted.

In his statement President Small says that in his recent recommendation he merely wished the locals to understand the situation intelligently. He added:

"Should the locals throughout the country, or a bare majority of them, vote to continue the strike, it will be pushed with greater vigor than ever, and the membership being in possession of the facts regarding the case, no doubt with greater determination."

Chicago, Oct. 14.—National President Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, and his suggestion that a vote be taken on the question of calling off the strike, were repudiated by members of the Chicago local union, at a meeting yesterday afternoon. A resolution that the strike be continued was unanimously adopted.

The meeting was followed by a demonstration of strength by the striking operators before the offices of the telegraph companies. The men marched in double file in the streets, shouting "S-t-r-i-k-e, a-t-t-a-c-k!" and other voiced their opposition to the surrender suggested by President Small.

At a meeting of the legislative committee of the National Telegraphers' union, last night, President Small was suspended.

The following message was sent to the Executive Committee by the executive committee last night:

Under Article 15, Section 7 of the constitution of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, you are hereby suspended from the office of president, to take effect immediately.

CALENDAR ANNOUNCED

List of Court Cases For Hibbing and Virginia.

No Jury Cases Will be Tried on Range.

Notice of the first district court to be held on the ranges has been issued by J. P. Johnson, clerk of the district court of the Eleventh judicial district, and are being published in the range papers.

Acting under the new law passed by the last legislature for counties having more than a certain population, the three judges of the district court of this county have decided to hold sessions each year at Hibbing and Virginia, at which time the judge assigned to that duty will hear and dispose of the court cases, or those based on questions of law. The law does not contemplate court on the range for the hearing of jury cases.

The first term on the range will be held at Hibbing, beginning Monday, Oct. 28, at 10 o'clock a. m. Court will be held in the municipal courtroom of that city.

Since the announcement by the judges of a court to be held on the range, several of the cases from various range towns that were noted for trial in Duluth have been moved off the calendar and transferred to the range courts.

The calendar for the term at Hibbing, although not yet complete, shows seven cases ready for trial, while the Virginia calendar shows four cases noted for trial up to the present time.

The three judges will determine among themselves which one will hold court at Hibbing and Virginia, and the clerk of the district court Johnson will either attend in his official capacity or send a deputy to handle the court records.

The law provides that the traveling expenses of the court officers and of the court recorder shall be paid by the county board at the order of the district court judges.

Following are the cases noted for trial at Hibbing: Jacob Skala against Alesich and others, the Village of Chisholm against Steve Melend, Axel Lindberg against John Adamson, John Anderson against Roberts-Kingston company, William Murphy and others against Joseph Flower, David Graham against the Hibbing Produce company, and Mary Prodineck against Nick Maganich.

The cases noted for trial at Virginia are as follows: August Knute against Frank Indihar, Luigi Cardoni against Cardoni, W. E. Devaney against Bryan O'Rourke and others, C. M. Phillips against Joseph Flower, and Mathanson Bros. against Henry Eversen.

The range courts will be a great convenience to the litigants from that part of the county, and will be no small item in the way of saving them expense.

A LIEUTENANT ENDS HIS LIFE

J. N. Sutton of the Marine Corps Shoots Himself After Dance.

Annapolis, Oct. 14.—Second Lieut. J. N. Sutton, Jr., United States marine corps, is dead at the naval academy marine barracks. His death resulted from a 22-caliber bullet fired into the right side of his head. A board of inquiry detailed by Supt. Badger of the naval academy has prepared a report that will be submitted to the navy department. From the best information obtained Sutton, in company with Second Lieut. E. E. Adams and E. P. Roelker, returned to the marine camp at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning after having attended a dance given at the academy. Shortly afterward Sutton is said to have been discovered on the road nearby with a revolver in his right hand and several fellow officers attempted to disarm him. This they succeeded in doing, but before the weapon was discharged in some manner and Lieut. Adams and Roelker received slight wounds. Quick as a flash, Sutton took from his blouse another revolver and with this fired the fatal shot into his brain. Lieut. Sutton was 22 years old and a son of James Sutton of Portland, Or. He was formerly a midshipman of the present senior class, but resigned in his third class year.

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone and exclusively as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives.

Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to the above rule. Their claim to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their owners' and makers' say-so or praise, but their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle-wraper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

In favor of Dr. Pierce's medicines is the frank, confiding, open, honest statement of their full composition, giving every ingredient in Latin English, without fear of successful criticism and with confidence that the good sense of the afflicted will lead them to appreciate its honest nature of curing them of the things what they are taking into their stomachs when making use of these medicines.

WHAT THEY CURE. People often ask what do Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines—"Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription" cure?"

Briefly, the answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative, or blood-purifier, and tonic, or invigorator, and especially a favorable in a curative way upon the mucous lining surfaces, as upon the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder curing a large percentage of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, nose, throat, larynx, trachea, bronchi (as chronic catarrh), bowels (as mucous dyspepsia), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it generally causes the diseases known to modern medical science. In Chronic Nasal Catarrh Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy could be used for washing and cleansing out the nasal passages while taking the "Favorite Prescription" for blood cleansing and specific, healing effects upon the mucous lining membranes. This combined local and general treatment will cure a large percentage of the worst cases of chronic nasal catarrh, no matter of how many years' standing they may be.

As to the "Favorite Prescription," it is advised for the cure of one class of disease—only those weaknesses, diseases, or ailments that are peculiar to women. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating tonic and nerve-

For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building the system, strengthening, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, strong, vigorous condition of the whole system.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most of our obstinate and most fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and, in confirmation of this firm conviction, he has, with great pains, discovered many marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver and gall bladder tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's most secret affections, weakness and disgusting derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed from grateful patients who have been cured by it of leucorrhoea, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other displacements, ulceration of uterus and kindred ailments, and many other advertised medicines had failed.

Both these world-famed medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native, medicinal roots, herbs and plants, and are prepared by the processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances especially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming ingredients, and are of such power to cure the several diseases for which they are advised may be easily learned by sending your name and address to Dr. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little booklet which he has compiled, containing copious extracts from numerous standard medical books, which are consulted as authorities by physicians of the several schools of practice for their guidance in prescribing. IT IS FREE TO ALL. A postal card request will bring it.

Druggists call it "Laxative" and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by old Dr. Pierce, over 40 years ago, which millions of people are equalled. They are either sugar-coated, granules, or come in easy to take as candy.

The first part of the book is a list of the names of the birds of the world, arranged in alphabetical order. The names are given in both English and Latin. The list is divided into two parts: the first part contains the names of the birds of the world, and the second part contains the names of the birds of the United States. The list is very complete, and it is a valuable reference work for anyone interested in ornithology.

Fitz had just strength enough left to throw himself out of reach of the waves before he was again tossed and he was found dead by the lifesavers.

NEW CHANNEL COMPLETED.

Water Turned in West End for First Time.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 14.—Water was turned into the channel of the St. Mary's river at the new dam, after completing the completion of one of the biggest projects undertaken on the Great Lakes by the United States government.

The new channel is over two miles in length, 9,000 feet of which is cut through solid rock, and is 100 feet in width, with a depth at minimum stage of water of twenty-two feet. It is located between the mill race and the new cut to the west of Nechish Island.

The project, which is the east of the island and will be used solely for up-bound boats, the heavily laden down bound boats are usually used for the river, which has none of the sharp turns that are embarrassing to the modern 60-foot freighters.

The new channel will not be formally opened until the middle of next year. The project has cost upwards of $200,000.

Veteran Captain Dead.

Detroit, Oct. 14.—Capt. William Aldred, one of Windsor's oldest residents, succumbed to a heart ailment this morning. The captain was 75 years old and for the past fifty years had been a resident of Windsor. He was born in London, England, but came to Canada in 1850, and lived in Windsor for the last twenty years. He had spent three years in Toronto before he came to Windsor and sought employment as a boatman. He was a boatsman and finally became captain of the tugboat on the Great Western river. He held for fifteen years and retired at the age of 55. Since then he has lived with his wife in the residence, 22 Windsor avenue.

Dredge Master Resigns.

Ludington, Mich., Oct. 14.—Capt. Irving E. Baldwin, who has been for the past two years master of the United States dredge Gen. Gillespie, operating on the Detroit river, has resigned his position. He signed his position to take up the study of law at Ann Arbor.

For the past 27 years old, Capt. Baldwin has seen fifteen years of sailing on the Detroit river. He was a sailing master's license. He served as pilot on the Detroit river for the last five years.

been fitted out with tarpaulins. The tarpaulins were used to cover the tarpaulins the blame for the terrible disaster is not quite so heavy upon them as it is upon the tarpaulins. The tarpaulins on the boat he could not put on the tarpaulins and the tarpaulins would have been covered if he had insisted upon being furnished with them.

It is said that the tarpaulins are part of the equipment of the boat and should be used in the event of a disaster. The shipyard where she was built, the shipyard where she was built, many of the new boats are not so equipped and that this was the cause of the disaster. The ship had no tarpaulins on board.

Discussion of the terrible wreck of the Cyprus has been general at Duluth for the last two days and it is the general opinion that the hatch covers had been properly covered with tarpaulins. The hatch covers were not properly covered with tarpaulins. It is also the opinion that Capt. Huysik did not realize the seriousness of the situation and did not try to head into the storm which there was danger of his cargo shifting.

Capt. Huysik was well known in Duluth. He is said to be a man of comfortable circumstances and had a fine home in Duluth.

Several steamers, among them The E. B. Soule and F. J. Hecker, Capt. Stearns, and the tugboat The Cyprus yesterday, which had gone through the storm, were seen to be in the water. They were surprised to hear of the disaster, as they had not considered the storm as worse than the average.

Volume of Freight Through St. Mary's Canal is 42,059,000 Tons.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 14.—The movement of lake freight through the St. Mary's canal connecting the upper with the lower lakes, for the year 1913, reached a volume of 52,059,000 net tons for the six months beginning with April and ending September.

The month of largest movement was June. July's traffic was interrupted by a strike of the miners. The volume of traffic for the month of June was 8,525,420 tons in June to 7,183,285 tons in July. For the month of August and September about normal conditions prevailed, and something more than the average for the month of the West in each of these months. The Eastern movement was about the average.

For Consumptives.

A specialist of a noted Eastern clinic gives the following formula as the best known formula for consumption:

Mix two ounces of glycerine with eight ounces of good whiskey and add one-half ounce of Concentrated oil of pine. Take a teaspoonful or a tablespoonful three times a day.

Care should be taken to get the real Concentrated oil of pine, which comes in a small bottle, and not the cheap round air-tight wooden cases. The ingredients can be procured at any drug store. The oil of pine is a very pure, but coughed, colds very
